What Is Your Roof Upkeep Cost?

Many people fail to see the economy in buying a good roofing material for the first roofing job. It is short-sighted economy to save a little on a roofing material that is going to constantly require up-keep over the years. The real economical way is to buy a first material that will last forever. Let us tell you more about the different grades and types of roofing material.

Town and County Briefs

Misses Orphia Allgood and Bessie Daniels, of Roxboro, N. C., spent the week-end with Mrs. W. C. Johnson and Miss Vivian Allgood.

Miss Katherine Hackney of Moncure is visiting Mrs. H. C. Gunter.

Mrs. Wade Barber is visiting her old home in Shawboro, N. C.

Miss Carrie Jackson and Mrs. Henry London are visiting relatives in Raleigh.

Graham Connell and Henry L. Bynum, of Raleigh, spent the week-end here with their parents.

William Hunt and Carney Bynum, of U. N. C., spent the week-end with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Griffin have been visiting Mrs. Griffin's parents for a few days.

Misses Mary Dell Bynum, Bessie Chapin and Mary Sue Poe spent Monday in Durham shopping.

Emily Taylor and Virginia Connell spent Saturday in Raleigh shopping.

Mr. R. M. Connell took the occasion of the world series of baseball games to visit his son William in Washington City. He returned Tuesday morning and reports having seen three of the games. His sympathies were with the Senators, the Washington team, who had at the time won three games out of five and were holding the Pittsburg team to an even break when this was written Tuesday afternoon.

Messrs. Wilson Burns and Junius Peoples motored to Washington City Friday to see the world series of baseball games. They returned Tuesday.

THE WOODY CASE

The Woody case has divided honors with the Cole case in conversation hereabouts the past week. The Record man had no idea of the extent of interest in it, and was surprised to learn that probably a hundred Chathamites had gone last Wednesday to Raleigh to appear before the pardon commissioner for or against the commutation of the road sentence to a fine.

The larger number of those attending were opposed to commutation, we learn. The size of the petitions on the two sides are said to have been fairly equal.

Woody, charged with possession of liquor or with aiding and abetting in the sale of liquor, plead guilty at the May term of having a gallon or more in his possession when his home was raided by officers. He acknowledged to people generally having sold liquor eight or ten years ago, but said that some of the deputies who were trying to send him to the roads were selling liquor when he was, and the same was admitted before the pardon commissioner by one of them.

Judge Bond, who tried the case, received a large number of letters, it was reported, asking that Woody and others convicted be dealt with severely, and His Honor placed a road sentence upon Woody, though allowing him and others, including some negroes, to give bond during the crop season.

Woody's sentence was to begin September 15, but upon application the sentence to a fine, the time was prolonged for consideration of the by his attorneys for a commutation of case by the pardon commissioner.

Letters were written by men of both modes of thinking, those who thought a road sentence too severe under the charge proved, mere possession, and those who claimed that he really was a seller, and wished to see him placed upon the roads for that offense.

There has been no move to secure a pardon, as our correspondent suggests in the article "What will be?", but only for a change of sentence from the roads to a fine. Judge Bond himself relented and wrote a letter to the commissioner or the governor asking that the road sentence be changed to a fine of $250.00. The hearing in Raleigh was of sufficient interest to elicit quite lengthy write-ups in the Raleigh papers.

Representing Mr. Woody were Attorneys Long, Siler and Barber, while Solicitor Williams was there insisting upon the enforcement of the road sentence.

At the time of this writing Tuesday evening if any action has been taken by the Governor, nothing has been heard of it here.

Committed Suicide

Coroner George Brooks had a telephone message Tuesday morning from Dr. R. W. Palmer, of Gulf, to the effect that a Mr. Dowd, M. C. Dowd, the best Mr. Brooks could understand, had committed suicide in that corner of the county. The body was found in the yard. It was not stated how death was brought about. Mr. Dowd was reported to be a fairly young man.

Silk Mill to Begin Operations

Mr. Zeigler, of the Pittsboro silk mill, informs us that operations will begin on a small scale almost immediately. One or two looms will be operated at first and the other looms put into operation as operators have been trained for them. These will be openings for two or three hands, young men or women, at a time after the opening.

Gentlemen:

I used your Basic Lime Phosphate, AA Quality, for three years and I have never found anything to equal it for wheat. I also find I can get a good stand of clover where I used Basic Lime Phosphate. My crop of thirty acres of wheat this year, grown on Basic Lime Phosphate, will average 25 bushels per acre. I use 250 pounds of Basic Lime Phosphate per acre.

Yours very truly,

Shabby Roofs Reduce Property Values

Could you get your price for your house if you wanted to sell now? Remember these proved facts:

A shabby roof gives a "frayed-at-the-collar" look to any house. So if your roof is beginning to go, take our advice and put down a roof of Barrett Giant Shingles. These rugged over-size shingles (12 by 14 inches) will lend distinction and charm to your house.
