

Goldston Locals

Messrs William Goldston, Joe Dark and Carl Phillips, students at Wake Forest College, spent the week-end at their home.

Mr. Eugene Goldston, a student at State College, spent the week-end at home.

Miss Mildred Johnson, a teacher at Yates school, spent the week-end at home with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Goldston, Mrs. J. C. Elkins and Misses Nannie Cox and Mary Womble Elkins spent Saturday in Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Moffitt and sons attended the Sandhill Fair at Pinehurst last Wednesday.

Miss Dessie Roberts, Miss Ola Harmon and Mr. C. F. Womble attended the Pinehurst Fair Thursday afternoon.

In spite of the rain last Friday evening there was a very good crowd present at the Hallowe'en entertainment. Everybody seemed to have the spirit of Hallowe'en and had a good time.

Mr. C. C. Taylor has bought the old school dormitory and has moved his family in it.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Moses have moved in the bungalow vacated by Mr. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Moore and little son Clem, Jr., of Greensboro, spent Thursday evening with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Goldston.

Miss Francis Ellis entertained in honor of the Camp Fire girls and Boy Scouts very beautifully at her home Saturday evening. Hallowe'en games and stunts were enjoyed.

The interdenominational evangelistic club meets every Wednesday evening at seven-thirty o'clock. These meetings are very strengthening and broadening in the Christian life. We have good talks and good singing each time.

We will meet at the Presbyterian church this Wednesday evening and it will be held there for a month. Let's have a large crowd each time.

Mr. H. A. Burns, who has been sick for some time, continues very ill. Mr. Burns is the father of Mr. Fred Burns and he is eighty-six years of age.

MT. ZION NEWS

Our pastor, Rev. C. M. Lance preached one of the best sermons at Mt. Zion Sunday. His text was taken from the hundredth and twenty-first Psalm. The main thought of his sermon was "God's presence and protection."

This is the last sermon Mr. Lance will preach for us before he goes to conference which will convene at Fayetteville November the eleventh.

The people of the Mt. Zion church want Mr. Lance back on the circuit and we are expecting him back. We feel that our church has grown under his leadership.

Mr. Dock Gunter was received into Mt. Zion church Sunday. We are very glad to have him as a member of our church. Mr. Gunter seemed to have started life anew and we are proud of his stand for Christ.

Mr. W. B. Thomas has returned to his work in Raleigh after spending a week here with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Petty and children of Pittsboro, spent Sunday with his brother Mr. Turner Petty.

Mr. Lacy Harper of the University of North Carolina spent the week-end at home.

Miss Lizzie Clegg has returned from a visit to her aunt at Asheboro.

MOTHER!

Baby's Best Laxative is "California Fig Syrup"

When baby is constipated, has wind, colic, feverish breath, coated-tongue, or diarrhea, a half-teaspoonful of genuine "California Fig Syrup" promptly moves the poisons, gases, bile, souring food and waste right out. Never cramps or over acts. Babies love its delicious taste.

Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has full directions for infants in arms, and children of all ages, plainly printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.
