ESTABLISHED SEPTEMBER 19, 1878.

PITTSBORO, N. C., CHATHAM COUNTY, Thursday, January 28, 1926

VOL. 48. NO.

INTEREST IN RECORD'S BIG CAMPAIGN INCREASING DAILY

MANY OF THE RACERS ARE NOW NECK AND NECK IN RACE FOR THE BIG PRIZE RECORD SUBSCRIPTION CAMPAIGN IS WARMING UP—ONE OF THE MOST INTERESTING AND EXCITING RACES EVER STAGED IN CHATHAM COUNTY IS NOW UNDER WAY—THE CRUCIAL TEST IS STARING THE WORKERS IN THE FACE

Mrs. Fannie Bland Scores Lead in Race This Week for the Essex Coach—Miss Catherine Palmer Second—Mrs. P. H. Elkins, Miss Alma Dixon and Mr. B. D. Thrailkill Tie for Third Place.

Mrs. M. E. Mann, Rt 2	New Hill	651,000
Mrs. Fannie Bland	Bynum	805,000
Miss Ethel Dismukes	Carbonton	655,000
Mrs. R. F. Hilliard, Rt. 1	Apex	656,000

Mrs. P. H. Elkins	Siler City	803,000
Miss Catherine Palmer	Gulf	805,000
Mrs. G. E. Pugh	Siler City	655,000

The above is the comparative standing of all candidates for the week ending Saturday Jan'y. 23rd, in the Record's race for the Essex Coach and the Ford Touring, and the other valuable prizes. The next scoring will be made Jan'y. 30th.

With the close of the "Second Vote Offer" in the Record's gift-giving campaign getting to be a matter of a few hours away, contestants are putting forth their greatest efforts to win the leadership in the race for the Essex Coach and other valuable prizes.

Each club member in the race is striving now to outdistance his or her rivals and to accumulate a sufficient number of votes to be the undisputed leader in this race for the Essex Coach and other prizes. The campaign is growing more and more keen as the end of the present BIG VOTE PERIOD draws near.

This big offer positively ends at nine o'clock Saturday night Feb'y. 6.

Many Changes Taking Place

Candidates who have been slightly down in the list of standings are climbing steadily toward the top. This is, apparently, making the ones who had a few more votes to their credit realize that the margins of leadership are very narrow, and that it's anybody's race for the Essex Coach or Ford Touring, and all other prizes in the list.

Saturday Night, February 6th Is Last Day of Big Votes

Coming out victorious in this race is the aim of every "live-wire" candidate, and from the activity that friends of contestants are showing it appears that there is intense rivalry on every hand.

Each candidate has his or her circle of friends who are boosting for their favorites—and these "factions" are "up in arms" in earnest, pitching in with enthusiasm and energy, trying to put their favorite candidate "across the wire" first.

Saturday, February 6th, is the last day of the present big vote offer, the biggest and best offer to be made in the entire campaign. Really it's narrowing down to a matter of only a few very days, and soon—almost before you know it—the closing hour of the big votes will be only a few minutes away.

There is no time to lose—every single moment is of vital importance, and should be the means of pushing you just that much further toward success.

Big Subscriptions Count Most

BONLEE WOMAN'S CLUB

The Woman's Club of Bonlee held a delightful meeting on Wednesday afternoon with Miss Myrtle Phillips as hostess.

The topic discussed was "Citizenship" and very interesting papers were read by Miss Myrtle Phillips and Mrs. D. C. Phillips. Delicious refreshments were served during the social hour.

SILER CITY NEWS

Siler City, Jan. 24.—A joint meeting of the county agents from Lee, A. Amance, Randolph and Chatham counties was held here today at 10 o'clock at the office of Miss P. H. Elkins, secretary of the Chatham county fair association. This meeting was held in charge of district agent, O. F. McCrary of Raleigh who discussed with his fellow workers the present agricultural problems and completed plans for the year just beginning. Attending was O. E. McMahan of Sanford, Kerp-Scott of Gramham, E. S. Millsaps of Asheboro and N. C. Shiver, whose headquarters are in Pittsboro.

Rev. D. R. Sears was called to Carthage Wednesday on account of the sudden death of his brother-in-law, Cornelius Dowd, which occurred that day at his home at the noon hour four miles west of Carthage. The circumstances surrounding Mr. Dowd's death are unusual. Mrs. Dowd was preparing the noon day meal, when Mr. Dowd entered the room apparently in his usual health and cheerful attitude, kissed her and walked into another room of the commodious country home and shot himself. Evidence showed that he had tied a string to the trigger of his rifle, with the other end attached to the door and so placed himself that by blowing the door the bullet from the muzzle would enter his head. Death was evidently instantaneous as life was extinct when a few minutes later his wife went to call him to dinner.

A singular incident is the fact that only a few months ago, Frank Sears, a brother-in-law of the deceased fell dead from apoplexy within ten feet of the spot where Mr. Dowd committed suicide.

Attending the funeral which was held Thursday afternoon at Bethlehem church in Moore county were Rev. D. R. Sears, James Sears and two children, Mrs. Lummie Eubanks and son, Roland Eubanks.

D. C. Perry is confined to his home with a severe attack of rheumatism.

Siler City, Jan. 22.—Following only a few days illness from pneumonia a Charles Green, age 42 years, died at his home here last night at 8:45 o'clock.

Mr. Green was a member of Chatham county's well known families, being a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Green, both of whose deaths occurred here several years ago.

Surviving are his wife, who before her marriage was Miss Annie McIver, four brothers, Frank, R. M. and Warren Green of this place, Fred Green of Welleka, Oklahoma; three sisters, Misses Mary Green of Greensboro, Helen Green of San Antonio, Texas and Sallie Green of Carthage.

The funeral service was held at Mount Pleasant church this afternoon at 3 o'clock and was conducted by Rev. C. M. Lance of Pittsboro.

MONCURE NEWS

Mr. J. F. Womble attended the District Steward's meeting at Raleigh last Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Cathell spent last week-end at Linwood with Mrs. Cathell's parents.

Miss Olivia Harmon, one of the high school teachers, spent last week-end at Chapel Hill with her brother, Mr. J. O. Harmon.

Miss Lillian Jourdan, the 6th and 7th grade teacher, spent last week-end with friends at Pittsboro.

Miss Elizabeth Farrell motored to Pittsboro last Saturday to visit friends.

Mr. T. B. Maddox spent Monday in Raleigh on business.

Miss Stella Womble, who is taking the teachers' course under Miss Berry at Pittsboro, spent last week-end at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Womble.

We are reliably informed that Messrs. Wm. T. Utley and Emery E. Utley of this place are making preparations for the immediate erection of a work shop in the backsmith of Mr. R. H. Wacker and Capt. Wissler's residence. Both of the estimable young men are prepared in mechanical training and experience to do any kind of repair work or construction work that this section of country is likely to need. They are planning to do wood work, blacksmithing and probably auto repairing. This may mean even a new industry for our town.

Mr. J. K. Barnes, the popular cashier of Moncure Bank, went to Sanford Monday on business.

Last Sunday evening a good crowd met with the president, Miss Amey Womble and secretary, Miss Pauline Ray, for the meeting of the Epworth League. It was Missionary Sunday and the subject was well presented by Mrs. J. E. Moore, the leader for the evening.

BENNETT NEWS

Mrs. Ezra Cheek, widow of the late Josiah Cheek, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lucy Pressnell in Florida last Thursday and her body was brought here for burial. She had been sick about two weeks. She was 65 years of age. She leaves one son, Mr. Chas. Cheek, who lives here, and three daughters, Mesdames, M. M. Hammer, of Bennett, Ida Hammer of the Pleasant Grove community, and Mrs. Pressnell of Florida. She had been a consistent member of the Pleasant Grove church since childhood, and the burial was in its cemetery, Rev. C. M. Underwood preaching the funeral sermon. Her grandsons were pal bearers and her granddaughters floral bearers.

Rev. J. C. Kidd, who had been sick, was able to fill his appointment here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Auman of Asheboro, visited here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jones visited the latter's parents at Randleman Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Welch and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Welch of Ramseur visited here Sunday; also Mr. Oliver Owen, who works at Ramseur, and Miss Snoddie Owen, who is in school at Ramseur, visited their parents the same day.

Mr. J. E. Jones entertained the Baptist Sunday school officers and teachers last Friday evening. It was an enjoyable evening.

Mr. James Talley has been sick since Friday, but is getting along very well.

We should be glad to have out-of-town folk to come to the services at the Bennett churches. Preaching at the Christian church each second Sunday and evening before, at the Baptist church on the fourth Sunday, morning and evening, also on evening of second Sundays.

Bennett should have a chamber of commerce. We should work and pull together for the development of the town.

The Bennett bank paid the largest dividend last year in its history. Mr. J. A. Purvis has been cashier of this bank since its organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Claudie Cheek are all smiles—it is a boy.

Well, it's about time for the candidates to begin to come around and give us hearty handshakes. Our hands have become quite cold since the last campaign. The writer has never accepted as much as a cigar from a candidate. Such cigars last about as long as the candidate's interest in the voter.

The people on Bear Creek route three are petitioning for mail from Bennett as there would be no tie-over of a day as now when the route is a loop route getting its mail from another Bear Creek route.

Now is the time for the Bennett people to talk of a new school building. It will be too late next summer or fall when school is about ready to open. Now is the time to agitate for a larger district. If we get anything we must dig for it, and at the right time. It takes money too, but a part of that wasted in making unnecessary automobile trips would do the business. Bennett needs a high school and we can have it if we go after it.

National Highway 17

Efforts Being Made to Have North-South Route through Pittsboro so Designated

Concerted efforts are to be made by towns along the proposed U. S. highway No. 17 to make the routing a reality. For several weeks there has been a commotion in highway circles over the designation of North and South routes to be designated on U. S. road maps as National Highways. Raleigh won over Durham.

This means that the proposed highway maps would designate the Raleigh-Sanford highway as part of the tourist routing through this section of the state, while the Durham-Pittsboro route would scarcely appear upon the map. That does not please Durham, which claims that the shortest routing from the North to the city, and of course through Pittsboro. Accordingly, the people of that good city have begun an agitation to secure an additional North and South routing on the U. S. maps, to be designated as No. 17.

A committee, composed of Lieutenant Governor Elmer Long, W. L. Foushee, Mr. Budd, and another not just now recalled, was appointed to visit the South Carolina towns on the proposed route and stir up an interest. The excursion, according to the Durham Herald, was successful, and a concerted effort will be made by those towns to get the S. C. highway commission to approve the project and to recommend it to the U. S. authorities directing the making of the map.

Likewise, on February 9, when the N. C. Commission meets, appeals are to be made by the N. C. towns on the proposed route for the endorsement of that body. Pittsboro citizens are expected to be in Raleigh that day and add their voices to the plea.

The matter is urgent. When the maps are made the towns not on the designated routes will be at considerable disadvantage with regard to tourist travel, and as the proposed route is estimated to be at least 75 miles shorter than the Richmond-Raleigh-Columbia route the omission would be costly to the tourists too.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Harrington.

Miss Clara Cotton spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. A. McDugled at Hamlet last week.

Mr. Ralph Stephen was the Sunday guest at Mrs. C. W. Cross'.
