FAELISHED SEPTEMBER 19, 1878.

W MACHINERY ARRIVES FOR THE SILK MILL

A. C. Kluge, Owner, Here-C. A. A. C. Anger Superintendent Enlargement Contemplated

Toigler has sold his interand has returned with Mrs. spent Sunday with Mr. A. B. Riddle to New Jersey. Mr. A. C. and family. s and is helping in the unload- rone Carter. the three cars of machinery Mrs. Fannie Bland spent Saturday

A. Matthews is the new su- tives. arrived.

ine additional looms have been re-These looms are ren in place. ch more costly and complicated af-ch more costly and complicated af-than the ordinary textile looms, Mr. C. W. Neal and family were than the ordinary textile looms, enty of these machines is a bigthing than it might at first ap-

Mr. Kluge expects to have fifty nds employed by the first of May, learn. Also an enlargement of the ding is contemplated.

he Record expresses the appreciaof the whole town of Pittsboro for hope that he will find the location isfactory in every particular, and the business will unrive even bend his expectations.

Carolina Playmakers Coming The Carolina Playmakers will give ir program here next Saturday They play at Siler City on riday evening. These two occasions ill give all our folk a good chance to e these home-made plays. It is orth while. Come.

MRS. TROGDON PASSES

lative of this Community Died at Her Home in Liberty Last Saturday NEW HILL-

ears, whe of Mr. H. Keny Trogdon Stokes. assed away at her home in Einerty / Third grade: Colon Brady. urday morning after a lingering ness of several months. Mrs. Trog- lyn Stokes, and Clinton Powers.

BYNUM ITEMS

Ex.

State Library

Mr. W. D. Smith and family of Dunn spent the week-end here with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Smith. Mr. Will Brantley, Mr. and Mrs. the silk mill here, we are in- I. A. Vilor, and baby of Sanford, the owner and, the very man, we are informed is on and children of Carrboro spent Sunund in personal charge, has on day afternoon here visiting Mrs. Cor-and Sunday in Pittsboro with rela-

Mr. and Mrs. Laton Jones, have moved to Mrs. Jones' father's farm red this week. There were already out a short distance from Bynum. We regret very much to give them

s than the names and legends in called to Spray Monday eve to be at icolors. Hence, the operation the bedside of Mr. Neal's mother who is seriously ill. Mrs. W. B. Riddle was called to the

The capacity of the present bedside of her nephew, Mr. R. A. ilding is thirty of these bulky ma-monia. He resides at Durham.

Mr. O. J. Poe and children, and Mrs. John Atkins of West Durham visited Mr. C. W. Neal and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carter and little daughter of Charlotte passed enterprise of Mr. Kluge. We are through Bynum one day last week, to have such a man here with us, and spent a few hours with friends. There is right much moving here this week. Mr. J. C. Abernathy has moved into Mr. J. E. Sturdivant's house. Mr. Roy Riggsbee has moved to Mr. J. B. Atwater's house and Roy Eubanks has moved to C. W. Neal's She leaves five children.

MRS. FANNIE BLAND.

BEAR CREEK ROUTE 3

house.

Honor Roll of Cedar Creek School-Wedding- Personal Items Fifth month of Cedar Creek school closed March 16th with an average Edwards' Hill Baptist church Tuesdaily attendance of 16 1-20.

The honor roll is as follows: First grade: Arlean Murray, Margie Purvis, and Lawton Brady.

Fourth grade: Maisie Purvis, Eve-

Great Beyond-The Western Part of County Bereaved

Recent deaths in the county not before recorded in the Record include of route two from Pittsboro. He was buried at Emmaus Baptist church. The funeral services were conducted morning. by Rev. R. R. Gordon of Pittsboro. Mr. G Three children and his wife survived him, though Mrs. Daffron was very ill at the time of her husband's passing. The children are Mrs. J. M. Woody, Miss Dora Daffron, and Mr. W. A. Daffron. Mr. Daffron was a

PITTSBORO, N. C., CHATHAM COUNTY,

missed in his community. Mr. Henry Cheek, at the age of 76 passed away at his home near Brush Creek March 14. He was buried at Brush Creek Baptist church. Rev. R. S. Fountain conducted the services. Mrs. Henry Ellington of Albright township, at the age of 71, has also gone to her reward. She was Miss Isabel Henderson before marriage. Five sons and daughters survive her, including Mr. John Ellington of Hadley township, Varnie Ellington of Siler City, and Miss Aurelia Ellington of Siler City. The burial occur-red at Salem Methodist church, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. R. S. Fountain of Siler City. Mrs. Tom Murray of Siler City had not reached the goodly age of those mentioned above. She was only 35 when she passed away at her home Wednesday of last week. She was a daughter of Mr .Marion Jordan.

The number of fatalities includes also a fine man in the very prime of life—Carney L. Andrews, aged 35, who had been connected with the Oval Oak Manufacturing Company for some time. He was taken to his old home community near Bonlee for burial. The funeral was conducted at day, March 16, Rev. R. S. Fountain conducting the services.

Notable among the several aged citizens passing is Mr. Edward M. Johnson, one of the best known farm-(Contributed) Mrs. Noami Hatch Trogdon, age 76 Powers, Nova Stokes, and David ers of the western part of the county, who passed away Tuesday night, March 16, after suffering several days

Mr. Johnson married Miss Mansey early girlhood she become united with near Sanford spent Saturday night Hill; Eulis, of California; Robert, of Idaho; Charles, of Aberdeen, Md.; There was no preaching at Beulah Sunday, March 21st as the pastor was and Mrs. H. H. Buckner, Siler, City, Mrs. O. B. Reitzel and four sons, and Earle and Carl Johnson, at home; eight daughters, Mrs. M. M. Thomas and Mrs. H. H. Buckner, Siler, City, City, Control of this place and Rev. J. W. called to preach in Asheboro. But and Mrs. H. H. Buckner, Siler City, there will be preaching the fourth Sunday instead. R. B. Edwards, Siler City, route 2; Mrs. C. H. Marks, Brickhaven; Mrs. H. C. Cardwell, Newport News, Va.; and Lirs. den Mims, New Hill.

Watts Hospital Saturday Morning ribly burned in the gasoline blaze

Thursday, March 25, 1926

Chatham Record

Mr. William Daffron, an aged citizen at Will Harris's garage in the upper part of the county Monday, March 5, died at Watts Hospital Saturday Mr. Gattis is survived by his widow and twelve children, several of whom the bereaved family. Mr. Gattis was a good citizen and was, rearing a remarkable family of highly esteemed citizen and will be missed in his community. bright boys and girls, and his pass-ing is deplored by many friends. The burial was at Mt. Pleasant

Methodist church Sunday afternoon.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY

Pursuant to a resolution of the State Democratic Executive Commit-State Democratic Executive Commit-tee, a Democratic Convention for the County of Chatham is hereby called to meet in the COURTHOUSE. AT..... PITTSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA ON SATURDAY, APRIL 24th, 12 o'clock composed of the small boys in Brick Haven, has been organized and M., for the purpose of selecting delemay come before it. Precinct meetings to select dele-

This the 22nd day of March, 1926. W. P. HORTON, Chmn. Dem. Ex. Com. Chatham Co

Miss Margaret Womble, Sec. DEATH OF PROMINENT

SILER CITY MAN

Mrs. Chas. Elmore Dies of Phoumonia Siler City. Mr. Williams, who though enjoyable evening is assured those 82 years of age drove his car at will who attend. about the community and was always pheumonia. He was 79 years of most remarkably active until his last age. The funeral was held at Rocky illness. A native of Randolph county, Mr. Williams lived there on his farm Elmore, who survives him. To them from active work there on his farm Curtis Powers, Saturday afternoon. whom lived to be grown men and wo- tired from active work and moved to men, of whom the following survive: Eight sons, Scott Johnson, of New was Miss Emily Webb of Iredell county preceded him in death sixteen Ernest, of Arizona; Fred, of Carey, ter, Mrs. O. B. Reitzel and four sons, years ago. Surviving are one daugh-Williams, pastor of Burkehead Methodist church, Winston-Salem. The funeral service will be held at Rehobeth Methodist church, of which the deceased was a member, tomorrow at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Starr, assisted by Rev. W. L. Maness pastor of the Methodist church Brick Haven, March 22.-Misses Cecil and Geneva Seawell motored to Mr. Clem Gattis, who was so ter- Raleigh Thursday afternoon to attend the state Teachers' meeting. They were accompanied home Saturday afternoon by their sister, Mrs. Frank Calfee and Mr. Calfee, who spent the week-end here.

VOL. 48. NO.

Mrs. C. H. Marks was sick and unhave been attending the Pittsboro of her father, Mr. Ed. Johnson, who school. Much sympathy is felt for died of pneumonia at his home near able to attend the funeral and burial Siler City last week. The community sympathizes with Mrs. Marks and the other members of the bereaved family.

Mrs. Howard Ferguson and little son, Howard Junior, of Durham, are spending this week-end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mims.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Kennedy and Miss Ruth Kennedy were week-end week-end in Fayetteville.

The Junior ball teams which is composed of the small boys in Brick played its initial game with Moncure gates to the State Convention and boys last Saturday afternoon. The transacting such other business as score was 7-8 in favor of the B. H. team. There will be a match game on the Moncure diamond next Thursgates to the County Convention will day. Mr. Kennedy is the one due the be held at the various voting places of credit for the organizing of the small the County on Saturday, April the boys. Baseball is a wholesome game, 17th, at 2 o'clock, P. M. and the boys can learn many lessons on the athletic field that will mean a great deal to them in later years and we feel that both the boys and their parents should feel grateful to Mr. Kennedy for his interest and help in behalf of the youngsters.

PLAYMAKERS AT SILER CITY

The Carolina Playmakers will be Siler City, March 20-Following an at Siler City tomorrow evening, Friillness from pneumonia, A. Derrick Williams, one of the most highly es-teemed citizens of this place died this morning at 7:25 o'clock at the home of his son, R. E. Williams who lives on entertainment. The plays are based highway 60 in the southern part of on Tarheel customs and incidents. An

> BEULAH CHURCH NEWS Mr. Avary Powers

The Columbian Literary Society met Friday and gave an excellent program.

The Misses Liverman and Howell, who have been doing practice teaching in Miss Melton's and Cheek's rooms, have returned to their work at Pittsboro. We were very glad to have them with us and hope that they were benefited by their efforts during the two weeks they were with us.

Mrs. J. Lee Harmon and Miss Johnson spent the week-end at home.

The following teachers attended the Teachers' Assembly that was held at Raleigh: Mrs. J. L. Harmon, Misses Cheek, Zachary, Melton, Johnson, and Chilton. A very enjoyable time was reported.

Rev. E. B. Booker filled his regular appointment at Bells' church Sunday. A large number enjoyed his sermon. His subject was "The Trial of Jesus."

Miss Trannie Ellis was the week-end guest of Miss Bertha Overton. Misses Melton and Chilton spent the week-end in Raleigh with Miss Mel-ton's sister, Mrs. B. J. Holleman.

Mr. Carlos Morgan of Siler City spent this week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Morgan. Mr. and Mrs. Edd Hilliard of Dur-ham visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hinton, Sunday. Mr. J. R. Gardner was in Durham

Friday on business. Miss Bertha Overton delightfully entertained a number of her friends at her home Friday night. A very enjoyable time was reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Hurst spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Overton.

Mrs. Flonnie Evans and little son spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. S. C. Gaster.

Mrs. Vonnie Thomas of Durham visited relatives in the community this week-end.

Miss Lina Bowling entertained a few of her friends at her home Thurslay night.

Mr. Garland Goodwin of Hamlet spent a few days last week with his parents.

Mrs. R. S. Gates spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Wilson.

Mr. Clyde Scott, son of Mr. W. M. Scott of Fearrington and Miss Inez Goodwin, daughter of Mr. E. H. Goodwin; were married Saturday.

before her marriage was Miss | Fifth grade: Vonnie Maie Stokes, loan Lewis Hatch, daughter of the and Mavie Purvis.

Mrs. Trogdon was a woman of sternoving her membership with her hus- Myrick. and to _...berty Christian Church of which she was a member at the time f her weath.

Mi. and Mrs. Trogdon moved to iberty about forty years ago and Sunday instead. both have always been much incerested in the upnit of their community. Mr. and Mrs. Trogdon enjoyed the sie Myrick on Route 3, Sunday. unction of being married for fiftyive years and to this union five chilars death has visited their immete family only once when their hird child, Miss Etta Trogdon was lled to rest November 14th, 1918. The deceased leaves to mour her loss, er husband and the following chil-Mrs. Estelle Ray, Liberty; Mrs. Steed, Candor; Mrs. Paul Kenett, High Point; T. W. Trogdon, High t, together with several grandhildren, two great grandchildren, hree sisters, Mrs. M. A. Moffitt, eensboro; Mrs. O. E. Farrell, Monre; Mrs. Etta Farrell, Pittsboro, and host of relatives and friends. Funeral services, were conducted n the home Sunday afternoon at o'clock by Rev. J. W. Patton of The College, assisted by Rev. J. H. rendall of Liberty.

The unusually large crowd attendg and the many beautiful floral ofings bespeak of the high esteem m which Mrs. Trogdon was held.

The flower bearers were nieces of deceased. Mrs. J. Rankin Parks, r., Greensboro, Mrs. J. G. Griffin, Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. Ernest Farrell, Mrs. ee Farrell, Mrs. Atlas Farrell and Ed. Hatch of Pittsboro, Miss beth Farrell, Moncure, Miss Mary riffin. Raleigh, Mrs. King, Asheboro, Mrs. Paul Farrell, Fayetteville, Miss ara Lane, Siler City, Mrs. A. E. Dakr and Miss Bonnie Hatch or Lib-

Honorary pall bearers were as folws, all of which were nephews of the eased. Messrs. Will Griffin, J. L. riffin, J. G. Griffin, E. A. Farrell, Lee Farrell, Atlas Farrell, and E. B. atch of Pittsboro; E. L. Moffitt, ankin Parks, Jr., Greensboro; A, Dark, Liberty.

Active pall bearers: Messrs. Chas. Bray, Cyrus Shoftiner, B. M. er, J. A. Martin, C. P. Smith, Jr., airview Cemetery at Liberty.

SILER CITY HAS "WHITE WAY" lights were turned on Siler held at Durham on April 8. white way ten or twelve days ent. Other evidences of prog- tary. are in sight to the casual visitor Chatham's f the pavement.

ate Nev. Jack Hatch of Chatham Seventh grade: Winifred Stokes and Lillian Stokes.

Mrs. W. R. Myrick has been quite ing character and was very much sick for a while, but is improving. wed by all who knew her. In her Mr. Coley Perry and mother, of Hanks Chapel Christian Church, later with Mrs. Perry's sister, Mrs. W. R.

Mr. L. W. Lambert and daughter of near Beulah visited Mr. and Mrs. Ras-Misses Sophia, Bertha, and Rona Purvis of Durham visited their m were born. During all these mother of near High Falls Saturday one great grandchild. night and Sunday.

Miss Fleta Keeling of near Beulah spent Saturday night with Misses Blanche and Josie Albright near Fall indicates that the grim reaper has Creek church.

BROWN EYES. March 22nd, 1926.

MR. J. J. BROOKS PASSES AWAY Mr. J. J. Brooks died at his home-4 miles south of Pittsboro March 7 following several months illness. His suffering was intense, but he bore it with patience. Feeling that God doeth all things well.

After singing "Jesus Lover of My Soul," he bade those of the family present good bye and left a message for those that could not get there green banquet Thursday evening, to meet him in heaven, where he so often said he was going. Mr. Brooks was 77 years old last December. He is survived by a wife and seven chil- neath a green pergola with garlands dren, and several grand children, five of English ivy and trailing cedar endaughters and two sons: Miss Esther Brooks, High Point, Mrs. W. O. Petty, Pittsboro, Mrs. W. C. Pleasant, the touch of gold. Places were laid Durham, Mrs. John Sikes, Burlington, Miss Eva Brooks who lived with her handpainted menu cards in the guise father and C. F. Brooks also, and W. A. Brooks, of Greensboro. The interment was in the cemetery at Mt. Vernon M. E. church at 1 o'clock, March 8th. The funeral service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. C. H. nior class, Miss Mary Sue Poe, was Norris, and was attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends. The grandchildren bore the many beautiful designs to the grave. A FRIEND.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION Asheboro; Paul Farrell, Fayetteville; County Convention Called for Next Tuesday-State Convention at

Durham April 8 A call has been issued by the executive committee of the Republican party in Chatham for precinct meet nd J. O. Overman. Interment was in ings Saturday, March 27, at 2 o'clock for the purpose of choosing delegates to the county convention, which is called for next Tuesday one o'clock. The county convention will elect delegates to the state convention to be

The town is proud of this im-chairman and J. C. Hammond secre-

Mr. Jenkins is a prominent candiwestern metropolis. date for the state chairmanship of his ing are two of them readily seen. in the county would be glad to see him ary steps are being taken, attain that honor. The convention a are informed, looking to the Durhain will also stage a fight on the nt of the streets, a matter that question of party organization in the d to be delayed till the streets state. The battle for reform, esated for the placing of the water pecially to make the executive com-

There are 40 grandchildren and

The foregoing list, in addition to others reported in the Record recently, of the Baptist church, both of this covery. been quite busy in Chatham, especially in the western part of the county, where influenza and pneumonia have been quite prevalent.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

Juniors Banquet Senior Class-Good Food and Good Time in General

The Juniors of the Pittsboro High School gave the Seniors a gold and March 19th at the home or Miss Louise Riddle.

The banquet table was placed betwined through the lattice. Buttercups peeping here and there added for 44 guests, and were marked with

The guests arrived at the appointed hour and were escorted to the banquet hall by the officers of the Ju-nior class. The President of the Jutoastmistress, and her graceful presiding, together with the spicy toasts and ready repartee of the young people, made it a lively and most enjoyable banquet indeed. The following toasts were given: The class, Mary Sue Poe; Response, Frank Barclay; To Tonight, Sadie B. Johnson, The School, Mary F. Perry; response, A. V. Nolan,; The Faculty, Martha Ray; Response, Mrs. George Brooks; To Pittsboro, Miss Vivian laughter, toasts and jokes, were all of the banquet. Four little maids of the eighth grade, dressed as buttercups served a substantial and delectable four-course dinher. Fruit cocktail, chicken salad, olives, sandwiches.

Mrs. Virginia Palmer, widow of A. W. Palmer, died in Wilmington, March 13, and was buried at Sanford Sunday following.

Mrs. Palmer was a daughter of Wm .A. Rives, who lived near Gold-place The active pall bearers will be J. M. home of Mr. Street Williamson Sun-Johnson, D. D. Brower, L. M. Gilbert, day: Mr. and Mrs. Gene Brady, Mr. B. B. Bray, J. A. and R. C. Burgess. Honorary, R. L. Dorsett, Walter Fer-guson, C. L. Brower, W. S. Durham. C. K. and L. L. Wrenn.

Mrs. Chas. Elmore, age 42 years, died at her home five miles east of Brown. this place Wednesday afternoon at pneumonia. Surviving are her husband, three sons, Millard, Hoyt and route 4 and Mrs. Euliss Johnson; two preached for Rev. E. B. Morris at sisters, Mrs. U. S. Blair and Mrs. Asheboro Sunday. Fred Womble of this place; four brothers, R. C. and Rufus Campbell of Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. this community, Cager and Chas.

Campbell of California. The funeral service was largely attended Thursday afternoon at 3 Mr. Street Williamson and family, o'clock at Mt. Vernon Methodist Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Powers and litchurch which was conducted by Rev. tle son, and Mr. Plato Cockman spent W. L. Maness of this place.

PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION The Parent-Teacher Association met at the school auditorium Friday, March 19. 12 members were present. The seventh grade won the dollar for GOLDSTON ROUTE ONE NEWS having most members present. After various discussions it was decided to ham were week-end visitors in the City in the death of their venerable change the date of the meeting to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hilliard father last Saturday morning. first Friday in each month. Do not and Ike Edward. forget to come to the April meeting

April 2. May 15th, there will be a spent play given at the school. The proceeds go to the treasury of the Parent-Teacher organization. With the money earned by the primary grades, home of Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Hatch. when the little program was given Mrs. Hayes, chairman of the Health Mrs. Hayes, chairman of the Health Dept., is restocking the First-aid I. B. Hatch Saturday night and Sun-Mr. Williams divided his t

WESTERN CHATHAM AFFLICTED it is hoped it will soon recover. Western Chatham has been sorely distressed for several weeks. Influenza of a grave type has been epidemic and numerous deaths have resulted from that disease or pneumonia cheese straws, potato chips, ice following. Drs. Thomas and Edwards cream and cake, Demi Tasse, mints. of Siler City have been rushed to the of Siler City have been rushed to the visiting his aunt and uncle, Mr. and extent of their endurance and have Mrs.' W. B. Vaughn. had to turn down many calls. Dr. Giles' family have been stricken and he himself was ill. Nurses have been with their parents. in demand. Miss Lucile Peterson reurned Saturday from three weeks' service in several families in and near Miss Valley Murray, and we hope they Siler City only to be called immeditery to the home of the Daffrons in life. Hickory Mountain township, where ston. She was in her 79th year. Be- Lars. Danron, whose husband, Mr.

sie Williamson were married at the The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. G. Lassiter of Star. Only a few of their friends and relatives were present

Their many friends wish them a long and happy life.

Mr. J. T. Powers is slowly recovering from a severe attack of "flu." Miss Clara Powers has returned to her home after spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Ernest Purvis of Greensboro. Messrs. Leo Brown and Arnold

Jones of Asheboro visited friends on this Rt. Sunday. Mr. Wesley Powers of Asheboro was taken very sick while at the home of his father on McConnell Rt. 1, Satand Rev. Richard S. Fountain, pastor urday. We wish him a speedy re-

The following were visitors in the home of Mr. Street Williamson Sunand Mrs. Avary Powers, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Cockman, Misses Clara Powes, Madie Kidd, Stella Hussey, and Eileen Cockman and Messrs. Plato Cockman, Arnold Jones and Leo

Mr. D. H. Jones of Asheboro visited 5 o'clock following an illness from his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Jones Sunday.

Rev. A. G. Lassiter of Star, preach-Dwight Elmore at home and two daughters, Mrs. Ralph Self, Siler City, with permission from the church He will preach at Beulah the fourth

Miss Blanche Williamson spent

Saturday night with Miss Clara Powers.

a while in the home of Mr. J. T. Powers Saturday night. Miss Mattie Caviness of Asheboro spent Saturday night and Sunday with her parents on McConnell Rt 1.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Hilliard of Dur-

Miss Eutha Hilliard of Durham spent the week-end at home with pa-

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Hatch of Dur-Miss Jessie Thomas of Durham was

Mr. Lee Elkins' child is very ill but Mr. Hubert Oldham who had flu and pneumonia is out again.

Mrs. Myrty Harding of Siler City was a week-end visitor at Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Vaughn's.

Mr. Theron Jeffries of Corinth, was

Miss Eutha Hilliard and Mrs. C. N. Hilliard of Durham spent Monday

We are glad to hear of the wedding of Mr. Garland Watkins and will have a long and happy married

New Elam News

New Hill, Rt. 2, March 22.—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Drake, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Trotter and Mrs. Ernie Durham were in Sanford Saturday shopping.

Mrs. Gordon Copeland and children of Durham are guests of Chatham relatives.

Messrs. W. M. Goodwin and G. L. Mann motored to Sanford last week on business.

J. R. Sturdivant of Pittsboro spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Sturdivant.

Funeral services were held at Ebenezer Methodist church Sunday afterncon for Mrs. Paul Farrar's mother. She was an aged lady of Ohio. She died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Farrar. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Mills. Burial will take place when her son in a distant state arrives, probably this afternoon.

Rev. J. F. Johnson delivered one of the best sermons we ever heard Sunday morning at New Elam, using as a text "Have you received the Holy Ghost since you Believed

At the Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening it was decided that we go to the home of Mrs. Willie Bland next Sunday afternoon and sing for her. Mrs. Bland hasn't walked a step in years. As long as health permitted she attended church and took great interest, especially in the singing, and I am sure she will be glad for us to go to her home. We had a very good attendance Sunday evening and hope we will continue to have

Mr. R. F. Sturdivant was sick a few days last week. He was walking on his crutches and fell, hurting his side.

ALEX D. WILLIAMS DEAD

Their many friends sympathize with Messrs. R. A., R. E., and James Williams, and Mrs. O. B. Reitzell of Siler

The deceased was a man of parts. He and his good wife, dead nine years, reared a family which is not only a credit to themselves but to the state. They lived in Randolph county, ham were week-end visitors in the though Mrs. Williams was a native of Iredell, but three of the fine sons and their daughter have cast their lots

Mr. Williams divided his time among his children. He had come to Sher City just in time to fall a victim of the prevailing influenza and pneumonia.

He was 82 years of age, but was remarkably well preserved. He was a Methodist and has a son who is a prominent Methodist minister in Winston-Salem. He was buried at Siler City.

APPRECIATES THE RECORD

Mr. W. P. Farsell of Graham appreciates the gift by some one of subscription to the Record and writes to say so. He has been living in Alamance since he was 30 years of age and is now 66. He has a sister living Allgood; Farewell, Louise Petty. But do not think that songs and room.

of a Spanish Senorita.

