NEW ELAM NEWS

The Funeral of Mr. Maynard—Mrs. Bettie Thomas Celebrates Birthday—A Batch of Personal Items

New Hill, Nov. 29, 1926.—Funeral services for Mr. John W. Maynard were held at New Elam church Monday afternoon and interment made in the church cemetery.

Services were conducted by Rev. G. R. Underwood, who spoke most highly of Mr. Maynard, who had spent such a long, useful life, being 35 years and six months old at the time of his passing. Mr. Maynard was twice married, first to Miss Nancy Sears and last to Miss Mollie Maynard. One son, Rufus Maynard of Durham, survives by the first marriage, and one daughter and four sons by the last, namely, Mrs. Nannie M. Haithcock of Merry Oaks, Earl and Clyde of Moncure, Carl of Monroe and John of Raleigh. Mr. Maynard had been a devoted member of New Elam a long time, and a deacon in the church. He was a regular attendant until his health failed.

He was a noble Southern soldier. He was wounded in the battle of Gettysburg and present at Appomattox Court House when Lee surrendered.

Mr. Underwood spoke of how fast the honorable old soldiers were passing, and of how soon there would not be one to tell of their experience.

The many exquisite floral designs and the large crowd in attendance spoke of the high esteem in which Mr. Maynard was held. The flower bearers were Misses Mozell Cotton, Alma Kendrick, May Sauls, Esther Partin, Rennie Webster, Dora Holt, Chloe Holt, Lola Jones, Mary Webster, Maudie Mann, Elizabeth Mann, Ruth Holt. The flag was carried by Rev. Mr. Underwood.

The pall bearers were, Messrs Leamon Reynolds, Robert Sauls, B. H. Windham, G. F. Carr, J. M. Craven and Mr. Richardson.

The children, grandchildren and distant relatives of Mrs. Bettie Thomas gathered at her home Thursday to celebrate her seventy-third (73) birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Thomas is an exception for one of her age. She does all her house work and is seldom sick. Mrs. Thomas was before her marriage to J. A. Thomas, Miss Bettie Moore, daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. George Moore. Mr. Moore was a Baptist minister.

As it happened Mrs. Thomas's birthday and Thanksgiving both came the same day this year. Mrs. Thomas has ten children living, all of whom are married and have left the old home. At the noon hour the long table under the great oaks that surround the home was laid with everything imaginable good to eat, the blessing was asked by Mr. W. A. Drake and all present heartily partook of the splendid dinner.

Mr. Glenn Tysinger of Reidsville spent the week-end with his brother, Mr. Bynum Tysinger.

Mr. J. H. Webster of Greensboro spent Friday night with his mother, Mrs. Addie Webster.

Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas, Mrs. B. W. Thomas and daughter Alma of Henderson were here Thursday for Mrs. Bettie Thomas's birthday celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Johnson of Durham were Sunday guests of Mr. E. H. Holt and family.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Carr had as their week-end guest relatives from Snow Hill.

At C. E. Monday night the study was "Christian Endeavor around the World." Miss Lola Jones was the leader. We heard an interesting talk from Mr. J. R. Matthews, whom we all like to hear, as he always has something worth while for his listeners. Most of the younger members have attended school when Mr. Matthews and Mrs. Matthews were teachers. The C. E. will go to Christian Chapel next Sunday afternoon.

COTTON GINNED

Chatham had ginned 6,100 bales of cotton Nov. 14 against 9,340 at the same date last year. This county seems to have had the latest crop of all the counties. Alamance with its lighter soil got its crop started earlier than Chatham did. Alamance has more than three-fourths as much ginned Nov. 14 as last year at the same date, while Chatham has less than two-thirds. Granville and Durham are further behind proportionately than Chatham, but probably the acreage in those counties was cut for tobacco. The state as a whole had 864,157 bales ginned against 945,115 the same date last year.

Mr. Jeff Outlaw spent last week-end with his sister Mrs. F. C. Mann.
