

Good Dog Tray Gets In Trouble

The story of "good dog Tray" fairly illustrates the case of young Kendrick of Greensboro, who has been in jail for two months on a charge of robbing an Ore Hill filling station. The boy proved as fine a character as the very judge could prove. But he went off with the wrong chap. One Kennedy took him a car to Sanford and thence to Fayetteville, and on their return that night stopped at the Ore Hill filling station to get water for the radiator. While Kennedy was filling the radiator, according to his story, he saw Kendrick taking tools from the car and asked what he was doing, when that scamp stated that he was going to break into the filling station. Kendrick states that he protested and walked off up the road towards Greensboro. Later Kennedy overtook him and he got into the car and returned to Greensboro. But he did not give Kennedy away, and when the goods were located up there, Kendrick was captured and placed here in jail, while Kennedy went his way not captured.

Recently Kennedy was arrested for stealing a car and was lodged in the jail at Reidsville. On the trial Monday Kendrick through his Greensboro attorney pleaded guilty, but proved such a good character by several Greensboro gentlemen that Judge Harris simply taxed him with the cost, but ordered him held to appear as a witness against Kennedy. However, it is not the expectation that the holding will be very income, as the Sheriff will probably arrange for some one to take him and keep him at work till the trial of Kennedy comes off.

Court In Session

One-Week Term For Trial of Criminal Cases—Judge Harris Presiding

The regular May term of court for the trial of criminal cases convened promptly Monday morning, with Judge Harris on the bench and Solicitor Williams prosecuting.

The Grand Jury.

The following citizens were drawn as grand jurors for the term S. S. Edwards, foreman, Harry Woody, J. A. Norwood, T. W. Hackney, M. C. Smith, W. P. Hammer, Herbert Willet, J. W. Lindley, W. J. Hackney, Frank Perry, L. D. Thompson, A. B. Robinson, O. T. Cooper, John H. Williams, John T. Brady, J. W. Bland, L. J. Brooks, H. I. Carter.

Judge Harris spoke briefly but interestingly to the grand jury. He suggested that preventive for crime was, as in the case of disease, more essential than cure, or penalty. He called attention to the prohibition law, the law forbidding children under sixteen driving cars, that against carrying concealed weapons, and a few others.

Supt. Upchurch of the Anti-Saloon League spoke at the Methodist church Sunday evening. A fairly good audience heard him.

Supt. Coon of the Wilson county schools, spoke in the court house Tuesday during the recess of court in behalf of the county-wide tax.

His friends here regret to see Mr. Henry Hatch leave Pittsboro to accept a position in Burlington but it is hoped that he will visit us often.

Mr. Carl Gilliland, called on the grand jury, got excused on the ground that he had about 15,000 eggs incubating and 4,000 chicks to ship this week.

Mr. U. T. Clark's residence got burned Monday. It was the old Green place near Green's or Bray's mill. It was a good old residence and the loss is considerable.

Rev. G. W. Perry of Weldon held a meeting in the Siler City Methodist church last week, and was at the funeral of Mr. C. W. Lutterloh Sunday, assisting in the funeral services.

Rev. and Mrs. Edward S. Currie, missionaries to China, have arrived in this country. Mr. Currie is a nephew of Mrs. H. A. London and Miss Carrie Jackson. They landed at Seattle, May 11.

Principal Moore, who has successfully conducted the Goldston school the past year, will return next session, and expects his corps of teachers of the past session to be back.

It is difficult to get matter to the printer after the Tuesday evening mail; so we cannot give much of the court proceedings this week. The more interesting points only have been touched in this paper.

Mr. and Mrs. Moffitt, Bonlee bride and groom, were reported as being in Oklahoma City by the bride's father, Mr. B. A. Phillips, Monday. After the bridal tour they will be at home at Bonlee.

Mr. Wm. H. Morning, an uncle of our Mr. Geo. H. Brooks, died Friday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Avery, in New Bern. Mr. Morning, a brother of Mr. Brooks' mother, was that gentleman's last surviving uncle.

Mr. H. F. Durham says: "We people up around Brown's Chapel appreciate very much the good roads, (except the dust) lately fixed up and looked over by Supt. A. T. Ward and his helpers, Messrs. L. D. Johnson, W. O. Harmon, and others. It is fine. Thanks."

Dr. J. H. Highsmith, high school inspector, spoke here Saturday evening to a small crowd at the court house in behalf of the county-wide tax. Notice of his coming had not been given the Record in time for publication last week, and that may account in a measure for the smallness of the crowd.

When Miss Olivia Harmon returns from Radcliffe, where she is taking postgraduate work, Pittsboro folk should see that she is given an opportunity to sing for them. Again her talent has been recognized by her being chosen as one of fifty young women from the great body of Radford students to sing at the celebrated Pops concerts in Boston.

The Pearl Mitchell case was set for consideration by the supreme court yesterday, but we cannot give the result this issue. Mitchell is represented by Messrs. Horton and Dixon. The supreme court can only order a new trial or confirm the verdict rendered by the jury at the January term of Chatham court.

HUSKETH MAKES RECORD.

Mr. S. H. Husketh of Sanford who represents the Mutual Life Ins. Co., of New York, was one of the ten leaders of the company's agents in the state in both March and April. This shows that Mr. Husketh is a hustler in the insurance business as well as one of the best school men in this whole section. The Mutual Life of New York did more than twice as much business in North Carolina in April 1927, as in April 1926. It is gratifying to Mr. Husketh's friends to learn that he is doing so well in this new profession, but the schools lost a mighty good man when he left the teaching profession.—Adv.

DEATH OF ESTEEMED CITIZEN

Mr. Archie G. Burke, a highly esteemed Christian gentleman, passed away in his Seventy-ninth year at his home near Goldston, May 6th, at six p. m. Mr. Burke had been in declining health for several years, but the immediate cause of his death was a stroke of paralysis which he suffered a few days before the end.

The funeral was held at Bethany Baptist church Sunday at eleven o'clock and was attended by a large concourse of friends and relatives. Services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. E. W. Byerly of Bonlee. Interment was made in Bethany cemetery by the side of two sons who preceded the deceased to the grave thirty five years ago. A beautiful collection of floral offerings from friends covered the grave.

He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, who was Miss Margaret Frances Oldham, and three children, Messrs A. A. Burke of Greensboro, C. W. of Goldston, and Miss Mattie Lee Burke of Goldston. He was one of the community's best citizens and in his death we have sustained a heavy loss.

Pastor C. M. Lance of the Pittsboro Methodist church announces that a protracted meeting will begin at that church next Sunday, May 22. There will be services at eleven a. m., and eight p. m. After Sunday the services will begin at ten a. m., and eight p. m.

The pastor will be assisted by Mrs. C. L. Steidely, assistant pastor of the great Tryon Street church, of Charlotte. Pastor Lance says that Mrs. Steidely is an intelligent and consecrated woman.

The pastor extends a cordial invitation to the other churches of the town and adjoining community to cooperate in this meeting. Preparatory services were held at the church Wednesday evening, and will be held this evening and tomorrow evening. The members of the several church choirs are urged to attend and participate in the song service.

More About Doctor William T. Brantly

We were almost sure there would be found descendants of the Brantlys in this section if the name has vanished, since the census of 1790 showed ten white females in one of the six Brantly families therein listed.

There are. Mr. Frank May's grandmother was a Brantly, and there are lots of others in whom there is a Brantly strain.

Mr. May informs us that Dr. Wm. T. Brantly's father lived where Mr. D. E. McIver now lives, and that young William T. walked the six miles from there to the Pittsboro school.

The next question is, was the William Warden who came from Fayetteville here and died here about 1890 a descendant of the Williams Warden who was the benefactor of young William T. Brantly 125 years ago?

Big Conference At Brown's Chapel

The conference of the Fayetteville district of the Methodist church held a well attended and enjoyable conference at Brown's Chapel last week. The conference embraces more than a score of circuits and stations, extending down into Robeson and Sampson. Accordingly, there were Methodist preachers galore in attendance, as well as many others of prominence in church work.

Brown Chapel was equal to the emergency, however, and entertained the many visitors with a regular old-time country hospitality. The last day of the session was sadly disturbed by the death of one of the stewards of the church, the highly esteemed Mr. C. W. Lutterloh.

"SURELY"

Some say one that votes for the county-wide taxation for schools has an ax to grind. Surely you are not going to dull it against a few dollars tax and vote against it. Whether you have children or not, mine is very dull, but I do not feel like making it duller next Saturday the 21st.

Truly,
HENRY F. DURHAM.

STUDENT AT CANTON TAKES HIS OWN LIFE

Canton, May 13.—Charles Robertson, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Robertson, of Fibreville, committed suicide at his home this afternoon by shooting himself in the head with a large caliber pistol, according to police records. Young Robertson, a pupil in local high schools, and whose father is a superintendent in the Champion Fibre company, came home shortly after noon and went to his room. A few minutes afterward members of the family heard a pistol shot, and rushed to the room where they found him dying from a wound in the left temple. Neighbors stated that he apparently had been somewhat discouraged over his work in training school.

A NOTE OF THANKS.

Mrs. C. W. Lutterloh and children wish to express through this paper their appreciation and thanks for every act of kindness and for your presence at our home and church while husband and father lay a corpse and was being laid away.

It is well to be economical, but it is poor policy to hold the reins so tight on one's business that it prevents good results, or precludes the possibility of doing business economically.

Cotten Negroes Pay For Disorder

Jim and Sim Cotten submitted the charge of assault, etc., against them, arising out of the disturbance at Durham's filling station a few miles above Pittsboro a few weeks ago. Jim got a fine of $50; Sim goes to the roads a year. Jim Cotten proved as good a character for thirty years as any man can well prove, and Sim's character was good except for drinking. The general feeling among those acquainted with the negroes and the white folk involved is that there are some white people who deserve punishment for their part in the affair.

Diamond dye powder is fifteen cents at any drugstore; so why do half a job with something not half so effective? And when you want the tint to be permanent, just dip in boiling water instead of cold!

The druggist has color cards and simple directions for doing perfect dyeing of all sorts of material; silk or wool; linen, cotton goods; mixed goods, or any goods at all; and exquisite tinting of dainty things.
