

100 FARMERS AT THE DAIRY MEET

Meeting Held In Interest of Securing Cream Routes—Mr. Ruffin Farrar Cited As Farmer Who Diversifies.

Dairy farming was again the topic discussed at a meeting held in Goldston, Tuesday night.

Mr. Ruffin Farrar, district agent, Mr. F. H. Mendenhall manager of the North Carolina State Creamery, and the county agent addressed the meeting.

Mr. Farrar stated that the most serious enemy of the dairy farmer is the scrub bull. He urged the elimination of every bull in the county.

Mr. F. H. Mendenhall took up the matter of better utilization of waste land of the county.

Mr. Farrar operates a farm in the village of New Hope township. A large area of this farm is devoted to the raising of food stuffs, soy beans, cow peas, corn, rye and wheat.

Mr. Farrar owns three good grade Jerseys, from which heifer and bull calves are born occasionally, and skim milk is raised for the hogs and chickens.

Mr. Farrar owns three good grade Jerseys, from which heifer and bull calves are born occasionally, and skim milk is raised for the hogs and chickens.

Mr. Farrar owns three good grade Jerseys, from which heifer and bull calves are born occasionally, and skim milk is raised for the hogs and chickens.

Mr. Farrar owns three good grade Jerseys, from which heifer and bull calves are born occasionally, and skim milk is raised for the hogs and chickens.

Town - County Briefs

One more chance to pay your taxes before the advertising.

Dr. Pilkington has been spending a while at Connelly Springs.

Go to the play at the Pittsboro school auditorium Friday evening.

Mr. A. J. Boone and family visited the formers' brother in Raleigh Sunday.

Miss Jennie Connell returned Sunday from a very pleasant week's visit to Washington City.

Prof. J. H. Gorrell of Wake Forest, preached two very helpful sermons at the Baptist church Sunday.

Mrs. W. H. Cox, who visited her brothers and sisters here, last week returned to her home in Lynchburg Tuesday.

Commander J. J. London, now at the head of the naval station at Atlanta, Ga., is expected today to visit his mother, Mrs. H. A. London.

Messdames J. H. Fell of Trenton, N. J., and Fred Jerome of Windsor, this state, are visiting their mother, Mrs. H. A. London.

Misses Elsie and Eloise Grady, of Keny, have been guests of their aunt, Mrs. F. C. Mann, also Mrs. Mann's nephew, Master C. B. Martin.

Rev. R. R. Gordon held a most successful and enjoyable meeting at Mount Gilead Baptist church last week.

Little Bettie Bell underwent tonsilectomy a few days ago at a Durham hospital, and little Georgia Brewer is to undergo a similar experience in a few days.

The woman's meeting of the Mount Zion Baptist Association has been in session this week at Mount Gilead church.

Of a bunch of negroes tried Saturday by Squire Blair for misconduct at Mitchell's Chapel Sunday before last, three were let off with fines, three were bound over to court, and one or two were acquitted.

The orthopaedic clinic held each month in the Parish House of the Episcopal church and sponsored by the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs of Burlington will meet again on Friday of next week, September 2nd.

Mr. R. M. Connell and family visited Mr. Graham Connell in Raleigh Sunday, and while down there Ralph took a flight in an aeroplane.

Mr. Oscar York, Southern R. R. ticket agent at Greensboro, and family visited his cousin, Mrs. J. L. Griffin Sunday.

Bynum now has a paved street, by grace of the completion of the highway to the Haw River bridge, which point was reached Tuesday.

Enjoy golden hours of restful, refreshing sleep. Each summer night may be calm, peaceful, undisturbed.

BELL'S NEWS

School will open September 5th at Bell's, Prof. Biggertaff and his teachers will be on the job.

The Oxford Orphanage singing class will give a concert in Bell's school Auditorium Thursday night, September 15th.

Miss Gladis Copeland has gone to Cary high school for this school year.

Mr. C. L. Lasater has given away many watermelons this year to his friends.

Justice of the peace N. J. Wilson and Deputy sheriff J. R. Lasater held court last week and tried a colored man for fighting on the church ground.

The tobacco crops in this section will practically all be cured next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Scott will run the teacherage and board the teachers at Bell's this term.

REVIVAL AT LOVES CREEK

Siler City, August 27—Rev. J. C. Canipe will open the annual revival meeting at Love's Creek Baptist church, three miles west of here Sunday, which will be home-coming day, and a large number of old members from various parts of the State are expected to attend.

Mr. Canipe comes from Roxboro. He has recently accepted a call to the pastorate of the Siler City Baptist church, which has been without a pastor since January 1, when Rev. Richard S. Fountain resigned.

Mr. Canipe states that he is delighted with the field here and he has dreams of leading his flock in the erection of the much-needed new church building.

DEATH OF MRS. J. Y. DAURITY

Mrs. J. Y. Daurity, who had been in declining health for more than two years, passed away at her home near Goldston, August 24th, 9:25 p. m., at the age of fifty-six years.

The funeral was held at Bethany Baptist church at Gulf, Friday afternoon at 3:30. Services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. W. Byler, assisted by the following Presbyterian ministers, Rev. Cook of Spray; Barclay, of Pittsboro; C. L. Wicker of Gulf.

Despite the inclement weather the church was crowded with sorrowing relatives and friends, who had learned to love and appreciate Mrs. Daurity in life.

Flower bearers were Misses Elsie and Annie Tyner, Mae Osborne, Bessie Beal of Gulf, Mrs. W. H. Garner, and Miss Wilmer Garner of Goldston.

Funeral services were held at Goldston, Saturday afternoon at 3:30. Services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. W. Byler, assisted by the following Presbyterian ministers, Rev. Cook of Spray; Barclay, of Pittsboro; C. L. Wicker of Gulf.

SUCCESSFUL SALE OF JERSEYS

The sale of Jerseys at Siler City Monday was an unqualified success, indicating that Chatham and Alamance farmers will devote more attention to the dairy business.

The following Chatham men made purchases: J. A. Woody, a bull; L. D. Teague, a heifer; L. B. Hester, two heifers; W. B. Dorsett, a heifer; E. R. Smith, a heifer; Charles Wicker, three bulls; P. D. Harris, one heifer; C. F. Fox, a bull and a heifer; J. R. Gilbert, a heifer; F. D. Terry, a heifer; J. O. Clark, a heifer.

Ten were sold to Alamance citizens, including one to the Alamance county agent himself. The average price of the 16 sold to Chathamites was $53.

It is noticeable that the majority of the sales were to men in sections provided with a market for milk or cream.

TAX ADVERTISING BEGINS IN NEXT WEEK'S RECORD

You will have to watch out folk or the sheriff will advertise your land for taxes. He has postponed and postponed and done everything possible to give the hard-pressed folk of Chatham a chance to pay before advertisement, but the end of his delay is here.

There is considerable cost attached if your land is advertised and sold and it behooves you to raise the money some how, if possible and come and settle up.

P-T. Association

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Pittsboro high school will have its first meeting of the year on Friday evening, September 9, at 7:45 o'clock.

MRS. W. P. HORTON, Secretary

S. S. Training School

Rev. J. O. Long, M. E. assistant S. S. field secretary, will arrive Sunday to begin a S. S. training class at the Methodist church, through those interested in improving themselves as Sunday school workers in any denomination are invited to join the school.

It is quite certain that the school will prove profitable to all who attend, and Pastor Lance hopes that there will be a large class.

RESPECTED CITIZEN OF MATTHEWS PASSES

Mr. Mangum Johnson, an aged and respected citizen of Matthews township, died last Saturday at his home a few miles west of Siler City.

FURNITURE MEN HERE

Messrs. Sheridan and Kickleby of High Point, interested in the establishment of a furniture factory here, were in Pittsboro Saturday for a short while and expressed themselves as pleased with Pittsboro for location of a factory.

MONCURE NEWS

The Baptist revival closed last Friday evening. Rev. "Dick" Brothers preached some able sermons. He was once a conductor on the train, but has been preaching for five years and he enjoys the work.

Rev. Brothers fell in love with Moncure people and thanked them for their loyal hospitality.

Rev. Jesse Blalock was called to the bedside of his sick mother last Tuesday. He halted to leave the meeting, but as his mother was 87 years of age, she might be called home, before he could reach her bedside.

Miss Virginia Cathell left today for Raleigh, where she will teach at the Methodist orphanage this next year.

We are sorry to state that Dr. J. E. Cathell, who is in the hospital at Sanford is not doing so well.

Mr. Edwin J. Cathell, who has had a position at Albemarle is at home now.

Miss Mary Beddoes of Raleigh is visiting Mrs. C. M. Whilden this week.

As last Thursday was a rainy, cold day, the picnic for the Methodist Sunday school was postponed. They are planning now to go on a picnic to the Methodist Orphanage, Raleigh Tuesday.

The Baptist Sunday school will go on a picnic to Lake View Wednesday.

Capt. J. H. Wissler and the business men of Moncure met Mr. Will Langley, the cashier of Farmers' Bank at Mr. Self's filling station Monday with the view of moving said bank to Moncure.

School will open September 1st, Misses Catherine and Elizabeth Thomas are visiting friends at Apex this week.

Childrens' Day exercises will be observed at Providence Methodist church next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Asbury choir will be present to sing for us.

Mrs. W. L. Walker of Hamlet was guest of Mrs. P. S. Lassiter last week.

Miss Christine Lassiter spent several days in Raleigh last week visiting friends.

Mrs. W. W. Addicks and little daughter, Helen Frances, after spending a month with her mother, Mrs. Phoebe Womble, left last Thursday for her home at Miami, Fla.

Mrs. Brown and children of Liberty were guests of Mrs. Daisy Lambeth last week.

Mr. J. J. Hackney has erected a nice dwelling in place of the old garage on the lot near Mrs. E. E. Walden's furniture store. It is understood that Mr. Walden is going to build a store with a brick front on the vacant lot between his present furniture store and Mr. Hackney's new dwelling.

Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Womble of Newton have been guests of Mrs. Mary Burringer's for some time.

The orchestra of Sanford furnished the music for the Epworth League at the Methodist church last Sunday evening.

The league was presided over by the president, Miss Annie Lambeth, in her graceful way. Miss Lois Ray, secretary, was also present. Roll was called and minutes of the last meeting were read.

Miss Mae Womble read the Bible lesson and prayer was offered by Mr. J. J. Womble.

The orchestra filled in with beautiful selections.

The subject, "China's Challenge to the Church," was announced by the president. Then Miss Ruth Womble read a selection on "What is Happening in China."

City-County Briefs

Dr. N. C. Riddle of Chicago visited his brothers in Pittsboro Monday.

Mrs. W. H. Ward spent last week on an outing to Wilmington and the beach.

Mrs. Morris, of Raleigh, is spending a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. R. M. Burns.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Riddle and children returned Sunday from a week's visit to Wateree, S. C.

The Music Department of the Woman's club is to meet this afternoon with Mrs. V. R. Johnson.

Mesdames S. D. Johnson and R. H. Hayes are spending a few days in the Mount Vernon Surings community.

We regret to learn of the illness of Miss Maggie McClennahan, one of Pittsboro's oldest and most highly respected ladies.

Miss Margaret Womble, who has an important position in Asheville, is spending part of her vacation here with her sister, Mrs. G. M. Blair.

The Record may be a day late next week as it will be a job to get the tax sales set along with the other matter to make full size 8 page paper.

The play to be given at the school auditorium Friday evening, tomorrow, under the auspices of the Woman's Club is said to possess real merit. Tickets 20 and 35 cents.

Mesdames W. F. Bland and V. R. Johnson chaperoned a picnic for quite a number of the little folks Monday. The gala features of the day included a straw ride in mule-drawn wagon to the old Griffin place, where they had their picnic dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Mendenhall, of Burlington, visited the former's sister, Mrs. W. P. Horton, this week. Mr. Mendenhall, who is superintendent of the North State Creamery at Burlington, took advantage of his presence in the county to encourage the dairy business.

Mesdames W. B. Chapin and Mattie Thompson returned a few days ago from a pleasant visit to Asheville to see the former's son; and to Cullowhee to visit the three Pittsboro girls in school there, including Mrs. Chapin's daughter, Miss Bessie. Those young ladies will continue during the fall and spring term, making about twenty months regularly in school on a stretch, as they went to Cullowhee almost immediately after the close of the teacher-training class in the Pittsboro school.

Off For Paris

Miss Cordie Harmon, with her brother, Mr. J. Obie, of Chapel Hill, will leave Tuesday night to start on their pilgrimage to the battle fields of France.

Missionary has been the greatest contribution that Christian Missions have made to China, but it is time that our land were backing up the missionaries it sends out by example and dealings with China.

Then the orchestra played other beautiful selections. Mr. Sam Womble expressed to the orchestra the leagues' and large congregations' appreciation of their presence and fine music.

Collection was taken by Misses Roberta Lambeth and Margaret Strickland, which amounted to $9.70.

Mr. J. F. Womble closed with a short prayer.

A lawn party will be given on the hill behind the post office by the league next Friday evening, Sept., 2nd. Everybody is cordially invited. The orchestra of Sanford has been invited to make music for the occasion.

THE PATH ACROSS THE HILL

Local talent play given by Woman's Club of Pittsboro, under the direction of Mrs. N. C. Shiver, Mrs. J. S. Walters, Mrs. R. G. Shannonhouse.

CHARACTERS: Samuel Crawford, Thomas Morgan, Grandpa.

Robert Post, Lea Powell, The visitor.

Walter Conrad, Laster Farrell, Ruth's Brother.

Dr. Jimmie Reed, Sam Beard, with ambition.

Salamander Alexander, John Henry Jones, Zuzu's choice, Willie Morgan.

Mrs. Davis, Essie Peterson, Grandma.

Ruth Conrad, Emily Taylor Nicknamed "Bobbie."

Llo Gray, Mary Lou Burns, Ruth's cousin.

Lucie, Elizabeth Blair, A neighbor.

Zuzu, Virginia Connell, The cook. Scene—The entire action of the play takes place in the living room of Ruth Conrad's home in an Eastern village.

ACT I. The living room of Ruth Conrad's home in an Eastern village.

ACT II. The scene; two weeks later than Act. I.

ACT III. The same; a week later than Act. II.

Place: School auditorium, Pittsboro, N. C.

Time: Friday night, Sept. 2, 1927, 8:00 o'clock.

Admission: Adults 35 cents. Children 20 cents.

JOHN W. CLARK BUYS PITTSBORO PROPERTY

Mr. John W. Clark, of Franklinville, one of the most public-spirited citizens of all this section of the state, has purchased two of the Lanian lots on the west side of Main street.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet with Mrs. Cordell at the home of Mrs. H. A. London Thursday afternoon, September 8.

The premium catalogue for the Chatham county fair will be ready in a few days. Manager V. B. Elkins, Siler City, will be glad to send you one. Drop him a card.

NOTICE OF SALE OF VALUABLE TOWN LOT AND STORE BUILDING

Under and by virtue of an order of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Chatham county, North Carolina, in the special proceeding therein ending entitled, "W. F. Bland and J. T. Bland, executors of the estate of T. M. Bland, deceased, vs Martin Cook and others," the undersigned will on Saturday the 24th day of September, 1927, offer for sale, at the court house door in Pittsboro, North Carolina, to the highest bidder, for cash, the following described lot of land, to-wit:

Same being the lot formerly owned by John L. Council, deceased, as a barber shop, situated on the east side of Hillsboro street, in the town of Pittsboro, North Carolina, fronting on said street 21 feet; thence east 31 feet; thence south 21 ft; thence W 37 ft to the beginning, it being the lot conveyed to John L. Council by Mrs. Nor Bynum, executrix of Mrs. Roxie Poe, and duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Chatham county, North Carolina in book E X.

Place of sale: Pittsboro, North Carolina.

Time of sale: 12 o'clock, noon.

Terms of sale: Cash.

This the 23rd day of August, 1927.

W. P. HORTON, Commissioner.

TO HOLD CLINIC

Dr. Root, baby specialist, will hold a free clinic for all kinds of baby diseases at Pittsboro, Friday, September 9th.

See card of Dr. J. B. De Shazo, skin specialist of Burlington, N.C., in another column. The doctor is a regular graduate of medicine but for two years has been located at Burlington. He gives the same treatment for all skin diseases that is given in the largest cities.