

First Nebraskans Called Cannibals

Scientists Find Fossils of Human Being Said to Have Lived There 4,000,000 Years Ago

Lincoln, Neb.—Harold Cook's recent discovery on his fossil bed ranch in western Nebraska of the tooth of a man who he and other experts in natural history say existed 4,000,000 years ago right here in this country has caused a lot of excitement among the anthropologists who have been hastening this direction from all points to examine the other fossilized remains and piece out his history.

Dr. Cook says that these remains prove conclusively that the history of man runs back at least 4,000,000 years, but that it is not possible to link up the inhabitants of this section then with those who are now on earth, and that there is no resemblance between the physical characteristics of the ancient and the red man who was found here when the white came conquering.

The finding of fossilized bone weapons indicates to the anthropologists that the first men lived on the flesh of small animals that they were able to stalk and kill. Other signs point to their having lived in trees, not only because these were safer from predatory animals, but because any cave or man-made dwelling would always run the risk of being smashed in from the feet of a giant bear of those days.

Crushed marrow bones in great numbers found near the rude tools of hunting proved the carnivorous character of his appetite, and the presence of macerated bones undoubtedly human, point to cannibalistic tendencies and practices. Music was one of his hobbies, as a test by the finding of hollow-bones drilled to resemble the fife. By signs they read easily, the professors say, that these ancients existed for around 2,000,000 years under tropical conditions, until the ice ages came, killed off the less hardy animals, vegetation and other means of subsistence and finally starved and froze "hesperopithicus" to death, leaving nothing to link him with the present day generation.

THE FORD PSALM

The Ford is my master—I shall not live in peace.

It maketh me to be down in both mud and dust; it leadeth me in the path of grease.

It restoreth my license dues; it leadeth me in the paths of shame and disgrace for its name's sake.

Yea, though I go through the dark shadows of the night, thou art with me—the jolting of thy springs maketh me to ache.

Thou preparest a string of bills in the presence of my creditors; thou anointest my head with oil; my wrath runneth over.

Surely if this thing follows me all the days of my life I will dwell in the house of the insane forever.

Now Read What 11,105* Doctors say About Lucky Strike Cigarettes Because "It's toasted"

Paul Whiteman, Noted Orchestra Leader, writes:

WHAT is the quality that Giacomo Rimini, Margaret D'Alvarez, Cesare Formichi, Armand Tokatyan, Emma Trentini, William Faversham, Florence Reed, Paul Whiteman, and other famous singers, actors, broadcasters and public speakers have found that makes LUCKY STRIKES delightful and of no possible injury to their voices?

For the answer we turned to medical men and asked them this question:

Do you think from your experience with LUCKY STRIKE cigarettes that they are less irritating to sensitive or tender throats than other cigarettes, whatever the reason?

11,105* doctors answered this question "YES."

These figures represent the opinion and experience of doctors, those whose business it is to know.

"It's toasted" No Throat Irritation—No Cough.

*We hereby certify that we have examined 11,105 signed cards confirming the above statement. LYBRAND, ROSS BROS. & MONTGOMERY Accountants and Auditors New York, July 22, 1927.

MOTHER!

A Child Doesn't Laugh and Play if Constipated

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Fig Syrup," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Fig Syrup," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."
