

COLORED CONFERENCE

(Rev. G. C. Roberts) The annual conference of the M. E. churches is now passed into history, and the following pastors have of this section returned to their same fields: G. C. Roberts to Prince Chapel and Sweet Springs circuit; J. W. Dalton to Mt. Sinai circuit; Rev. Coffield to Mitchell's Chapel and the Evans circuit.

Z. E. Hawkins goes to Durham station, while J. W. Ridley comes to Pittsboro to take his place. G. W. Rosser goes to the Durham district, while W. L. Tyler comes to Hamlet's Chapel to take his place. W. W. Long still presides over the Durham district A.M.E. Zion church. Rev. A. T. Sherrod goes to Hoffman circuit, while Rev. M. T. Scurlock is in the hands of the presiding elder.

TRIBUTE TO MRS. WHITAKER

Mrs. Arlena Whitaker, whose death was reported in the last issue of the Record, was a member of a Sunday school class composed of young and middle-aged mothers, of which we are all proud. Below is a tribute written by the class president and read last Sunday:

"We, the True Workers class of Brown's Chapel Sunday school, wish to express our deepest love and sympathy to the family of Mrs. Lena Whitaker. We have lost one of our true workers and, indeed, her death has made our hearts sad. We miss her at Sunday school and everywhere. Lena was always so cheerful, and kind and good, and was so devoted to her class that we feel that she has gone to a better world, where there will be no parting, no grief, no sorrow. You cannot come back to us, Lena, but we can go to you.

MRS. EFFIE DARK, President."

BROWN'S CHAPEL NEWS

After the entertainment and the Christmas tree and the presentation of some prizes and Old Santa's visit Saturday evening, we met Christmas morning for Sunday school when more prizes were awarded and treats distributed, following a splendid talk by Superintendent H. H. Lutterloh. Among the visitors to this community this week are Rev. E. C. Durham and family of Burlington; Rev. H. G. Dorsett and family of Wake Forest; Junius Durham of U. N. C.; Kiah Henderson of Raleigh, Miss Pauline Knight of Carrboro, Leaton Mann of Burlington, Miss Blanche Henderson of Raleigh, Mr. Will Cheek of Sanford.

Mr. T. O. Justice is improving after several days of illness. J. F. Bouldin's 500-pounder and A. C. Whitaker's 600-pounder are the biggest porkers killed in our community. The True Workers class of women and the adult men's class held a class party at the home of H. F. Durham Thursday. Oysters and stewed chicken were served. Mr. G. G. Lutterloh dispensed cheerful violin music.

HELP WELCOME PASTOR

Rev. and Mrs. Shannonhouse participated in the welcome to Rev. F. C. Hawkins, new pastor of the Sanford Baptist church last Friday evening. Mr. Shannonhouse is pastor of the Sanford Episcopal church as well as that of Pittsboro. The other Sanford pastors also shared in the reception of the new preacher.

Out of 6,000 convicts in New York state prisons, 3,000 are said to be idle, and there, at least the unemployment situation seems to be serious.

Everything in candies, penny goods, 1-2 lbs, 1 lb. and 2 pounds. Special prices offered in quantities, see our broken mixture candy.—Brooks Eubanks.

A Short New Year's Message

A public speaker once said he had three invariable rules. He always stood up squarely so all could see, he spoke plainly so all could hear, and sat down quickly so all would be pleased.

We try to adopt a good bit of that in our advertising. We try to display our words so all can see, write clearly so all can read, and quit before the reader tires. Our message this week: "We want you to do business with our bank next year, because we will render you the best service obtainable."

With thanks for your patronage the year of 1927, we wish you prosperity for the New Year.

GOLDSTON, N. C.

ALL ABOARD FOR 1928

As the New Year begins, it behooves every one of us to determine to make 1928 the greatest year of all in the development of Chatham county. Its true that we should like to see big manufacturing plants erected, but few of us can have a say in such matters.

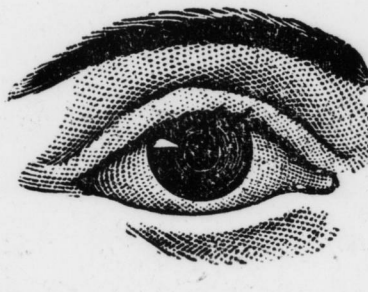

On the other hand, each of us can determine to do his very best in the development of the resources at hand. Chatham's new agricultural promise is something that concerns us all, and a thing in which we can all play a part.

Plan to improve your soil as well as gather a crop in 1928. Watch your timber areas. Consult your county agent, get every new idea possible, and let us help you in any way we can put them into effect.
