

TOWN & COUNTY BRIEFS

Clyde Bland, Jr., arrived last week by stork express.

Mrs. J. C. Weeks is bereaved by the death of her father, which occurred at his old Georgia home Tuesday of last week.

See adv. of the Marley sale and take advantage of prices the rest of this week.

Mrs. Henrietta Poe, widow of D. M. Poe, who died Wednesday night of last week at her home in Apex, was brought to Gum Springs Baptist church for burial.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Neves of Greenville, S. C., came in Saturday evening to visit Mrs. Neves' sister, Mrs. O. J. Peterson.

It is this week that Misses Caviness and Harmon are up North buying goods. The Record sent them a week too early in its last issue.

Mr. J. C. Weeks went down to Clinton Saturday evening for a week end visit.

Miss Emily Taylor went over to Oxford Saturday to be a guest at a dinner dance given in honor of her room mate at St. Mary's school, Miss Cappie Barrus of Henderson.

Mrs. Cooper Harris has been ill for three weeks, but was reported as somewhat improved the first of the week.

A parent-teacher association was organized ten days ago at the Hickory Mountain school, of which Rev. R. H. Weaver is principal.

Siler City now has 24-hour telephone service.

Marshall J. J. Jenkins' first important official trip was to Rhode Island to secure a prisoner.

Mrs. Cynthia Jones, who formerly resided on route one, Siler City, died at the home of her daughter in Staley last week, and was buried in the cemetery of Rocky River church.

Messrs McCallum of Greensboro and Dewelle of Charlotte have been here the past week auditing the books of Odell Manufacturing Company.

Miss Lucille Peterson was called Monday evening to Siler City to nurse Mrs. Foster, who is quite ill with pneumonia.

The John Burns hostelry seems less popular this week. Four boarders have departed and no more new ones at this writing have been brot in to take their places.

Mr. W. W. Fields, who has been quite ill, is reported much better; also the child of Mr. Hubert Fields, who had pneumonia, is better.

Mr. F. L. Ward, who now lives in Durham, received a severe injury in an automobile accident at Durham a few days ago and is in the hospital for treatment.

Cedar Grove Items

The Cedar Grove Epworth League gave a Valentine party at Lou Pearl Mann's home Saturday evening from 7 to 11 o'clock.

Several games and contests were enjoyed by all. Then "Follow the Leader" was played, the leader finally leading the crowd into the dining room which was decorated in pink and white.

Elvin Strowd, who has been visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Strowd, returned to his home at Chapel Hill Sunday.

Mrs. C. H. Strowd has returned home from Chapel Hill where she has been spending a few days with her son, C. Kennon Strowd, who has been ill with pneumonia.

Glenn Harris, who has been sick, is much better.

The honor roll for the fifth month of Mt. Pleasant school is as follows: Third grade—Lillian Glosson and Mildred Hackney.

Fourth grade—Annie Mae Mann. Sixth grade—Jessie Mae Glosson, Clara Hackney, Ralph Morgan, Elizabeth Morgan and Maud O'Daniel.

COLORED TEACHERS' MEETING

On Saturday morning, February 11th, the colored teachers of the county assembled at the public school in Pittsboro for their third meeting for this school year.

owing to the fact that measles, mumps and colds are prevalent in the different districts the attendance of teachers failed to be up to the usual mark.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Rev. Roberts; prayer and a beautiful rendition of "I'll Pray" was given by the teachers. Professor Thompson, in his opening remarks, thanked the teachers for their hearty co-operation in the educational work of the county.

He spoke of the prospect of a new school building for Siler City and how the tendency now is to do away with the old-time one room buildings and build better and larger ones; by having such buildings all things else being equal, we can help the children more—do better work ourselves and help the communities more in which we teach.

Miss Coltrane, teacher for the class in Teacher-Training, gave us an interesting talk on "How to Make our Work Worthwhile in the Schools by Teaching"; the habits of taking care to try and have healthy bodies by sleeping eight hours, eating fruits, plenty of play in the open.

Children are best off with supervised study periods at school. The teachers advised to let their business be done mostly at the school.

We then had a round table discussion. A vote of thanks was given Miss Coltrane for the very helpful information she had given us.

Our next meeting will be at the Mitchell school—Lubia Taylor principal. The teachers are always glad to go to Mitchell, as principal Taylor, generally winds up the day with refreshments of the season.

All teachers take due notice that the next meeting will be the 3rd Friday in March.

DR. FEW THINKS COLLEGES MANY UNWORTHY STUDENTS

ATLANTA, Feb. 10.—Too many people are in American colleges that should not be there, instead of too many people going to colleges, Dr. W. P. Few, president of Duke university, declared here tonight in an address before Duke alumni.

"I do not believe," he said, "that too many people go to college in America; but I do believe that many are in college who ought not to be there, at any rate unless they had entered through a straighter gate. We are heeding Mr. Duke's (J. B. Duke, benefactor of the school) zealous and exercising the utmost care to admit as students only those whose previous record shows a character, determination and application, evincing a wholesome and real ambition for life."

MR. T. B. COLE DEAD

Mr. T. B. Cole died last Thursday at the home of his brother, Mr. A. E. Cole, in the upper part of the county. Mr. Cole had never been married. He was a genial and kindly soul and had many friends, altho illness for the past year or two kept him confined to his home.

The burial was at Lystra Baptist church, of which he had been a member for many years. Rev. R. R. Gordon and Pastor Henderson conducted the funeral services.

Surviving him are his brothers, A. E. Cole, of this county, and L. G. Cole of Durham.

DEATH OF MISS WICKER

Siler City, Feb. 4.—This community was indeed shocked last Saturday night, when it was announced that Miss Ruby Wicker, fifteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Wicker, was dead. She is survived by her father and mother, three brothers, Walter, Ray and Lacy, and five sisters, Argie, Maggie, Flora, Josie Marie and Juanita, all at home.

It is sad for such a beautiful flower to be plucked so early in life. But we cannot always understand the will of our Heavenly Father. Last Monday at 11 o'clock the funeral was conducted at Rocky River Friends church, by Rev. Mr. Maness. Her remains were laid to rest in a bed of flowers in the cemetery at 11 o'clock, where many friends and kindred gathered to pay their last respects to one we all loved. May God be with and comfort the bereaved family.

A Cousin. MRS. C. D. MOORE

Chatham county has lost one of its most gracious ladies in the death of Mrs. Carey D. Moore, who died at her home in New Hope township early Saturday morning, after an illness of several days.

Mrs. Moore has not been entirely well for several years and has been subject to severe attacks. The last one proved fatal, despite all that the devoted members of her family and the physician could do.

The burial was at Pleasant Hill Baptist church. The funeral services were conducted, in the presence of a host of neighbors and friends, by Pastor R. R. Gordon of Pleasant Hill church, assisted by Rev. C. H. News of Cary, former pastor. Rev. Jonas Barclay, of Pittsboro, Presbyterian church, and Rev. Mr. Henderson, pastor of Lystra Baptist church.

The pall bearers were Messrs. Edgar Moore, D. T. Moore, Charles Moore, W. F. Bland, G. N. Thomas, Tom Moore, John Hatley and J. L. Copeland.

Mrs. Moore was, before marriage, Miss Ada J. Council. She was born March 31, 1861. She was married to Mr. Carey Moore February 17, 1881. Nine children were born to the union, namely, G. E. and C. B. Moore of Raleigh, Newton Moore of Pittsboro, Mrs. R. L. Stone and Mrs. J. A. Copeland, of Apex, R. B. Mrs. R. L. Hatcher, Pittsboro, R. I. Miss Jennie Moore, who resided with her parents, Mrs. R. E. Boone, who died last year, and one who died a number of years ago.

Many friends sympathize with the devoted husband and children in their previous bereavement.

A WORD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all those who responded so willingly and bountifully to the call on "Bundle Day" for clothes for the needy ones in our community and to Bettie Scott Barber and William Reid Thompson who gave some of their toys to the little children, who were less fortunate than they.

Remember our Master's words when He said "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto Me."

SMITH-LUTTERLOH

Miss Annie Lutterloh, one of Chatham fair daughters, who holds a position in the Automobile License Department at Raleigh, was happily married last Saturday in Raleigh to Mr. Frank Smith of that city. They left immediately for Greensboro to spend Saturday night with relatives of the groom, and the next afternoon drove down to the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. C. H. Lutterloh, of the Brown's Chapel community to spend the night. Monday they went to Oxford to visit other members of the groom's family, and thence back to Raleigh Tuesday.

Many friends of the bride in Chatham wish for her and her husband a long and happy life.

AGED LADY DEAD

Mrs. Mary Bowling died Sunday morning at the home of her son, Mr. D. E. Bowling, in New Hope township. She was 76 years of age. The funeral services and burial were at Bell's church, Monday afternoon. It was only a little while ago that Mrs. Seagrove, mother of Mrs. Bowling died in the same home. Thus husband and wife are doubly bereaved.

Mrs. Bowling leaves, besides her son D. E. Bowling, one daughter, Mrs. Alice Harward.

BYNUM BEATS PITTSBORO

The Bynum basket ball team came down Saturday evening and beat the Pittsboro team to the tune of 26 to 20. A good crowd attended. The funds from the sale of tickets and the sale of refreshments went to the Junior class and will be used in paying for the Junior-Senior banquet later in the season. They got the neat sum of $85.

BOY, WHO SLEW DEPUTY IN DEFENSE OF MOTHER, FREED

PORTOLA, Cal., Feb. 6.—Because he shot and killed an officer of the law in defense of his mother, John Schlochter, 17, is out of the pale of the courts today.

The boy entered the lobby of a hotel, operated by his mother and found her engaged in an argument with Deputy Sheriff William A. Stevenson. The deputy sheriff drew a revolver and brandished it over his mother, authorities said. The boy fired a bullet through the man's brain killing him instantly.

After a coroner's jury had returned a verdict that he killed the officer in defense of his mother, young Schlochter was released from police custody and officials announced that he would not be prosecuted.

White Released On $2500 Bond

Tennessee Notary, Held Here On Charge Of Aiding Automobile Theft Gang—Gives Bond

D. Walter White, a notary public of Johnson City, Tenn., who was lodged in jail here Sunday, Feb. 5, on a charge involving him in the conspiracy alleged against members of a supposed automobile theft gang, gave bond Saturday and left for his home that evening. However, he had to go to Raleigh first to get his car. Mr. White did not stand upon his constitutional rights and refuse to come to North Carolina without extradition papers. On the contrary, he and his wife drove over to Raleigh from their Tennessee home and placed himself in the hand of the state police force. From Raleigh he was escorted to Pittsboro.

The charge against the Tennessee man is supposed to be that he aided and abetted the thefts by falsifying title papers. But Mr. White states that he simply did in the case of the forged papers what he does in case of honest ones—merely signed and placed his notarial seal.

The bond is a cash one of $2,500, the money being wired from Johnson City. He is out, but will have to come back for the May term of court, at which, the appearance is, there will be witnesses from several states.

Other Members Identified
Elon college students, here Friday

day, positively identified Nettie Jackson as the woman seen by them in the Elon Bank robbery car. They stated that she was disguised as a man, but that they recognized her at the time as a woman, and identified her here as the woman they saw.

The same students are said to have identified Grady Pugh as one of the men connected with the Elon robbery; while citizens of Bennett have identified Rainey as one of the Bennett robbers.

Sheriff Storey of Alamance was here Friday also. The Jackson woman was taken Sunday to Wentworth to stand trial for the robbery of a Reidsville jewelry store, and if she should be found guilty, will have to serve a term on that charge. If acquitted there, she will be taken, presumably, to Graham and jailed to await trial on the Elon college bank robbery charge. Therefore, it is probable that she will not return to Pittsboro, as there is no charge against her for anything done in Chatham county.

Grady Pugh, on the other hand, while involved with the woman in the Reidsville and Elon charges, is also reckoned as one of the automobile gang, we believe.

MOTHER
A Cross, Sick Child is Constipated!
Look at Tongue

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given. If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that the little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Fig Syrup," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of the little bowels without gripping, and you have a well, playful child again. Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless, "fruity laxative" because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Fig Syrup," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."
