MRS. G C. SNYDER DEAD

The many friends and relatives of Mrs. George Clayton Snyder of Bynum, N. C., regret to learn of her death which occurred Tuesday evening, Feb. 14, at Watts hospital. At the close of day, just after the golden sun had lowered itself below the horizon the death angel came and carried her to her Heavenly home to the Master whom she had so faithfully and willingly served for many years. Mrs. Snyder was a home-loving mother and wife and was loved by all who knew her. She was born July 27, 1896 at Walnut Cove. Mrs. Snyder is survived by her husband, three small children and father, two sisters and three brothers, and many other relatives and friends. She had been an active member of the First Baptist church of Winston-Salem for many years and strove to do her du-ty both in her home as well as in father, Mr. Wm. pall bearers were Elwood Smith, Rulus Abernethy, Charlie Fields, Lewis Durham, Wade Matthews and Emory ly in January with a serious kidney Thomas. The floral bearers were Mrs. Carl Neal, Miss Lilly Johnson, Mrs. Florence Helm and Miss Irene Crabtree. The remains were laid to rest in the Pine Hill cemetery at Burlington, Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

There is a vacant place in our home Which never can be filled,

There is a voice sweet and clear, That is forever stilled,

Lonely are our hearts today, For the one we loved so dearly, Has forever passed away.

She was our treasured one

Our joy and pride, We loved her, oh, perhaps too well, But alas, she slept and died. And tho the body slumbers Beneath the sod and dew The soul is at rest

In the land beyond the blue,

All is dark within our dwelling But when God in his wisdom Called her to her resting place

She bade us all adieu. We know she now is clinging to the golden stair.

In the land beyond the blue.

STATE PRISONERS

There were 778 prisoners received at the North Carolina state prison during the year 1927. This was almost double the number received five years ago and nearly five times the number received ten years ago. There has been a steadily increasing ratio of white over colored offenders. The figures for 1912 and each fifth year since are as follows: Total

1917 77..... 89.....166 1922 209......188......397 When it is taken into consideration that few are sentenced to state pri-son on a first offense it is apparent that crimes are being committed to a large extent by youths and young men. This suggests the importance
