

THE MISSING WORD CONTEST ADVERTISEMENT

It seems worth while, or right, now that the Missing Word Contest has closed to speak a good word for such of the advertisements as have justified such a recognition. Many of these advertisers, from the business standpoint, were entire strangers to The Record, and practically all the Durham ones entirely strangers in every respect.

Ferrell and the American Beauty salons are under business-like management too, and any of our readers who need their services can go to them with assurance of fair treatment.

D. C. May is one clever gentleman and keeps everything in the paint line, as his advertisement told you all those weeks.

The Durham Men Shop is what its name implies. We believe you will get a square deal there.

The Rochelle Battery and Ignition Service is what its name suggests. You will see a real business nose right at the bus station, and Mr. Rochelle impressed one as a man who knows how to treat folk.

The Pope Furniture Co., V. F. Pope and brother proprietors, is a real furniture store, and the goods are high-class and priced surprisingly low.

If you want new glass in your auto carry it to the Durham Glass Works. And you will find the B. H. Thomas Drug Store convenient when in Durham for anything you need in their lines.

The Durham Funeral Home, which we hope you will not have to patronize soon, is presided over by Mr. K. U. Bryan, one of that fine bunch of Chatham boys, of which D. B. Bryan, dean of Wake Forest college, is another.

Loyal W. Smith is the head of another furniture store which we believe, you will find worthy of patronage.

We haven't been to see the Chapel Hill folk yet. There are four of those advertisers there. You know Berman, F. J. Diab is a new man, or comparatively so, and has a real store near the Strowd Motor Co.

The Moore-Johnson Hardware Co. is prepared to furnish The Record readers of upper Chatham with all kinds of hardware.

The Carolina Dry Cleaners know how to do their work or they would not succeed in their business at Chapel Hill, where two thousand young critics would make it warm for them.

You know somewhat of the Siler City houses. The two hardware stores there are thoroughly reliable, carry good stocks, and make strong bids for Chatham county trade.

The Siler City Drug Co. is well equipped and convenient. Call on them when over there.

The Siler City Coca Cola Company, conducted by the clever and business-like Mr. Reitzell, is cut off from selling at Pittsboro, which is in the Sanford territory, but is selling a fine grade of coca cola to the people of the western part of the county. He deserves every bit of the patronage he gets.

The Chatham Sash and Door Co., will help you when you go to build. Mr. Parks, the manager, will treat you right. That is the way he treated us, and that is good evidence that he will treat the man he sells to right.

The Economy Motor Company sells the Chevrolet and it is selling them too. If you want a Chevrolet, don't run off to another county for it, but get it from the firm at Siler City, Goldston, or Moncure, all these branches are of the same firm.

J. M. Marley & Son are, of course as reliable as the days are long. When you go there for clothing for any of the family, you may know that you will get what they say you are getting.

The Justice Motor Company sells Hudsons and Essex and has been found by us thoroughly reliable and generous in their treatment.

Of course, we could say nothing too good for Miss Caviness and her Siler City and Pittsboro stores. Their fall stock is coming in now and you should see their goods.

In Sanford, W. F. Cheers, Inc., is the best known jewelry store. From that store came the watch and mesh bag given as prizes in the missing word contest. Cheers is reliable and treats one handsomely in his business dealings.

The Harris-Payne Music House has the goods and is dependable in every respect. You know the Williams-Belk company as one of the best stores for any kind of men's or women's wear you need.

The Standard Heating Co., wish to interest you in their firm so that you will be ready to deal with them when the water works are put in here, and right now too.

The Anderson-Seawell Tire Company will sell you a single tire or a truck load and may be depended upon as reliable business men.

The City Dry Cleaners with that fine young Sampsonian C. H. Porter, at its head, bids for Pittsboro patronage. His truck is up here every week, and we hope he will get a big share of the business.

The Lee Hardware Company is one of the old stand-bys. Chatham county people know that it is one of the strongest and most reliable firms in all this section.

Stroud and Hubbard is the Shoe Store of Sanford, also hosiery store. You will find no cleverer people in a day's journey.

The Hanner Motor Company will sell you an Oldsmobile and make you feel glad that you traded with them.

We notice that we missed Mr. R. R. Benson, the Chapel Hill plumber. There is no cleverer man in the business, we feel sure.

At Pittsboro First comes The Weeks Motor Co. the Ford dealers, and automobile repairers. When J. C. Weeks tells you a thing, count on it. If it proves incorrect, go back to him and see how glad he will be to make his word good.

He deals in Atwater Kent radios, too, and from him comes the premium radio in this contest. He was the biggest customer in the whole bunch, and really made the contest possible by giving it so good a start.

The West-End Garage, now under the management of Mr. R. H. Mills, if only as thoroughly reliable, as we know Mr. Mills to be personally, is a good place to carry your car when in need of repairs.

These folk have done their part to carry The Record through the summer. What loss has occurred has been due to the trickery of the fellow who got up the business, who played two or three tricks on us, as does practically every fly-by-night fellow that comes along, taking a good part of the profit out of the business, but the advertisers, as a whole, have done their part, and we commend them to our readers.
