

Moncure News

Moncure M. E. church paid out in full this year. Total amount raised this year was $665.

Mr. Claude Duren of Columbia, S. C. whose headquarters for the past two months has been at Raleigh, N. C. was in town today, at W. W. Stedman's office, on business for the Federal Land Bank of Columbia.

The Halloween entertainment at the school auditorium last Friday evening was enjoyed very much. The Zander-Gump wedding that was carried out by some of the school, students was very appropriate for the occasion. The costumes of each one taking part and the ceremony that was carried out was very ludicrous indeed.

Miss Lucille Wicker was widow Zander, the bride and Mr. Clinton Brown was Gump.

A voting contest for the prettiest girl was carried out and Miss Lois Ray received the most votes and the cake, for being the prettiest girl! Candy and drinks were sold at the booths, fortunes were told and other things.

The decorations were pretty and suitable for Halloween. The writer does not know the proceeds for the evening.

Mr. J. L. Womble motored to Raleigh today on business.

Mrs. Barber Watkins spent last week-end with Mrs. S. W. Womble.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Barringer of Sanford spent yesterday Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Mary Barringer.

Rev. Offie Seymour of Buies Creek, who is pastor of the Baptist church here preached two good sermons yesterday, Sunday. The members of Gum Springs Baptist church three miles of here are thinking of calling Mr. Seymour to preach for them also.

The box party that was given at Gum Springs Baptist church last Saturday evening was quite a success, financially. There were fourteen boxes sold and two girls, Misses Alma Laster and Valent Laster were voted on as being the prettiest girls and something like $80 was raised.

The basketball game that was played here between Moncure school girls team with the Methodist Orphanage girls' team of Raleigh last Wednesday evening was indeed an exciting game. After the time, that was allotted for the game to be played in, was over, the score was a tie. They decided not to let it stand that way, so a few more minutes was given and the game ended with the score of 34 to 28 in favor of Moncure. Moncure girls are very proud cake, for being the prettiest girl this season. The Epworth League met last evening at 7 o'clock with Miss Lois Ray, president, in the chair, who called the meeting to order and had the minutes of the last meeting read by the secretary, Miss Dorothy Lamb. Then the meeting was turned over to the leader, Miss Camelia Stedman, for the evening. Our new pastor, Rev. J. A. Dalby, will preach at the Methodist church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. W. C. Cade is the o'clock. Rev. W. Cade is the new presiding elder for Fayetteville District.

DEATH OF YOUNG MAN

Roy Jefferson Campbell, son of Mr. J. S. and Mrs. Addie Campbell, was born Nov. 30, 1901, and died Oct. 27, 1928, following an illness of several months. The immediate cause of his death was meningitis.

He was carried to Central Carolina hospital, Sanford, and was that to have been very much improved, and returned to his home on Rt. 2, but in a few days he grew worse and began to have convulsions and was carried to a Greensboro hospital, where he stayed for a few days and was later removed to the Memorial hospital, Richmond, Va., where he died Saturday morning.

In his "teens" he was converted and united himself with Meroney M. E. church and remained a member of same until his death. He would sing while he was in the Sanford hospital. "When the Roll is Called up Yonder I'll be There," which was sung at his funeral. He expressed his readiness to meet his God.

He is survived by his father and mother, six brothers and three sisters, and he was the oldest child.

The funeral was held from Meroney M. E. church, of which the deceased was a member, Monday afternoon amid a host of friends and loved ones, the funeral being conducted by his pastor, Rev. M. L. Chaffin, of Goldston, and T. B. Beal of Bear Creek. There were many beautiful flowers. We have rarely ever seen so many flowers. The interment was made in the church cemetery. May God comfort the bereaved family and sorrowing loved ones. May they all resolve in their hearts that they, by the grace of God, will meet him on Cannan's happy shore.

T. B. BEAL.

THE HALLOWE'EN PARTY

The Halloween party given under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher association Friday evening to raise funds to help standardize the elementary grades of the Pittsboro school was quite a success. About $130 was raised. There were many interesting costumes and several prizes were awarded.

The association wishes to thank the donors for their co-operation.

The judges were Miss Effie Lambeth of Bynum; Mrs. E. J. Riggs, Bynum; Mrs. J. R. Copeland Pittsboro. It was a hard task for these ladies to judge as there were ter much discussion they decided so many beautiful costumes.

The association thanks the judges also the principal and splendid corps of teachers, the basket ball team, and to note the encouraging school spirit that exists.

STATE P-T ASSOCIATION

The Parent Teachers State Convention will be held in Raleigh the 18, 19, 20 of this month. It is hoped that all the delegates will be able to attend. If any find that they cannot go, please at once notify the president, Mrs. Coridon, so that she can notify their alternates so they can attend.

The Pittsboro Parent Teachers association feels especially honored in having its organizer and former president, Mrs. R. G. Shannhouse, as the first vice president of the State Association.

A WINDOW DRESSING ARTIST

In connection with the advertisement of sporting goods by the Lee Hardware Store, Sanford, we desire to call attention to the attractive window decoration of that good store last week. Mr. Roberts of the firm is an artist in that business, but he had beaten himself last week. Sport lovers would have been put upon their mettle at seeing the various trophies of the hunt naturally posed. First, there was a lake with decoy ducks afloat. Seven deer heads decorated the back of the window space. Squirrels, a Pennsylvania pheasant, a rabbit, and other game specimens were placed so as to fire the woods lust of the sportsman. It is worth the while of Sanford visitors to cast an eye at the Lee Hardware window any time they are down there.

BROWN'S CHAPEL NEWS

Last Sunday was set for a S. S. rally and the two classes of small children were as usual ready with and gave a nice little program just after Sunday school hour.

Mrs. Hayden Lindsey, now of Winston-Salem, who lost her husband some time ago, came down Sunday afternoon to visit the cemetery at Brown's where her husband is buried. She was accompanied by Misses Ethel and Alva Lindsey and Mr. Franklin, all of Winston. Mr. B. B. Lindsay of Burlington accompanied the group and visited his brother, Mr. M. T. Lindsey.

Mr. Self and wife of High Point were down to see the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Woody last Sunday.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Mann from Burlington and Graham visited them at the home of Mr. J. T. Mann last Sunday.

The radios of Messrs. T. C. Perry, E. J. Dark, and John Goodwin gave our people a chance to hear the appointments of the M. E. preachers read out at Wilson Sunday evening.

Mr. D. J. Dark of Carboro was in this community Sunday afternoon.

HALLOWE'EN PROGRAM

The Halloween program presented at Moncure high school Nov. 2, under the auspices of the athletic association, was a decided success. Although the program was given two days after Halloween, a few of the ghosts and goblins were still prowling around, causing a great deal of amusement, curiosity, and even fear among the great audience which attended the entertainment. Everyone expressed great appreciation of the performance which was a creditable presentation.
