

TOWN AND COUNTY BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Weeks spent Sunday in Clinton. Mrs. G. C. Stack and children of Winston-Salem spent last week with her sister Mrs. H. R. Stedman, Moncure Rt. 2. The Methodist Orphanage singing class will give a concert at the Pittsboro Methodist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The revival services at Brown's Chapel closes Friday evening. Pastor Dabney reports good interest being manifested. Miss Sadie Brooks Johnson, who is employed in Greensboro as a stenographer, is spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Johnson. Mesdames F. J. Faison and Alton Royal, of Roseboro, spent Tuesday and Tuesday night with the former's parents, and Mrs. Peterson returned with them for a visit of a few days. Miss Charlotte Copeland of Pittsboro Rt. 1 and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Poe of Chapel Hill are spending their vacation in Norfolk and at other points in Virginia. Record readers are again reminded of the Legion Auxiliary's ice cream supper, scheduled for tomorrow evening (Friday), 8 to 10 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. C. E. Bryan. Mrs. Clinton Bryan is back at her old post in the post office during the vacation of Mrs. Thompson, who is spending a week or two with her son in Asheville. Revival services begin at Chatham Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 3:30. There will be two services each day next week after Sunday. Chatham is evidently better off than some counties that have not been so hard hit by poor crops the past five years. Moore county delinquent tax list is just twice as long as Chatham's. Mr. J. H. Love ran down into Halifax county for the week-end to visit his mother and friends in his old home community. He reports crops good down there and says that a number of new enterprises is projected for different Halifax towns. The Love farm is within two miles of Rosemary. The wrong date has been advertised this month for Dr. Mann's visit to Siler City. Today and next Thursday is his day there. This may not enable you to meet him today, but will keep you from being disappointed by going next Thursday. Miss Gladys Peterson spent the week-end with her friend, Miss Katherine Hardesty in Raleigh, accompanying Mr. D. C. Beard that far on his journey to some point where another young lady resides. Mrs. J. H. Ihie and daughter, who visited the former's mother, Mrs. W. H. Moore, at their summer home "Kentucky" just outside Pittsboro, returned to their home a few days ago. Miss Jessie Caviness and Cordie Harmon left Monday for the northern emporiums to buy goods for the Caviness stores at Siler City and Pittsboro. Mr. James M. Perry, of Hadley township, came to town Saturday in a road cart of ancient vintage. He may not have traveled so fast or so comfortably, but he certainly did not have to visit the filling station or the garage. Mrs. L. N. Womble, accompanied by Nyal, Elizabeth, Dudley, and William, left Sunday for a few days in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. The auditor's report of county finances in this issue of the Record should interest every reader. Read it carefully. If you get a sample copy of the Chatham Record it is an invitation to subscribe. Don't you think, really, that it is a rather poor stick of a citizen who does not take his county paper? He would seem to have no interest in keeping up with county affairs or is too stingy to pay three cents a week for the only means of doing it. But the most of such fellows have simply not been asked to subscribe and really do not know what they are missing. Foxes have killed many chickens in the Hanks Chapel community. Mrs. Jack White is reported to have lost a good many, while Game Warden R. L. Hatch has lost, it is reported, a hundred dollars worth of turkeys, and Mr. Bob Harris quite a number. Some hunters have turned their attention in that direction, but others might try their hands, or their hounds. Commissioner W. T. Brooks and his crowd have caught four young red ones. Roaches live in colonies. If you see one you know there are many. Roaches are loathsome vermin. Prolific breeders. There are medical authorities who declare seventeen different diseases are transmitted by roaches. Roaches must be killed. Spray KLY-TOX into cracks, crevices, around water pipes, faucets and other plumbing. Simple instructions on each bottle (blue label) for killing roaches and ALL household insects. INSIST on FLY-TOX. It is the scientific insecticide developed at Mellon Institute of Industrial Research by Rex Research Fellowship. FLY-TOX is safe, stainless, and has a perfume-like fragrance. Easy to use.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Moore ran down to Wrightsville Beach for a Sunday rest. Mr. and Mrs. John Griffin of Durham visited Mr. and Mrs. Jeter Griffin a few days ago. Mrs. Alice Haughton James of Wilmington visited her nephew, Mr. A. H. London last week. Mrs. T. H. Calvert of Raleigh is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. J. Calvert, at the Blair Hotel. Miss Elizabeth Cooper of Burlington spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Cooper. She had as her guest one day Miss Louise Long of Burlington. Charlie Moore reported that he was leaving for Norfolk for a few days fishing trip and then added that he might have an operation for appendicitis while gone. He seems to want to assure himself of one more fishing frolic, or thinks maybe he will get drowned and avoid the operation. Miss Mary Griffin of Pittsboro and Miss Pearl Ray of Wake Forest are in Washington at the Dodge Hotel. Messrs. J. W. Moore, Ed. Johnson, Will Johnson, and John E. Clark, and families spent a few days at Wrightsville Beach. Mr. Clark, who himself is one of our best farmers, says that the crops along the route are fine. Messrs. J. R. Goodwin, and McBane represented the Mandale lodge of the Junior Order at the State meeting at Lexington the first of the week. Messrs. T. O. Justice, Bud Jones, Ross Johnson, and Walter Andrews also attended. A feature of the meeting was the dedication of the handsome N. C. building at the National Junior Orphanage at Lexington. A letter from our good friend Mr. H. L. Coble of Pleasant Garden is just received and we are hoping that it will get in this issue of the paper, though it will be a rub. Mr. Coble lived here a number of years and his visits, as a drummer, are more than business trips. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Mann, of Pittsboro route 1, had as guests Sunday Mrs. Robin Lloyd and children of Greensboro, Mr. Bob Russell and family of Graham, Mr. Luther White and family, also Mrs. Carey Webster and children, and Mr. Garland Farrell, all of Seepsonville. In addition, they had the pleasure of a visit the same day from their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Andrews, of Greensboro, and their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Mann, of Burlington, and their children. Asked as to how she fed the bunch, Mrs. Mann said she fed them on chicken and beans, sliced-potato pie, etc. Good enough.

Moncure News The Girl Scouts from Moncure returned from their outing at Lakeview and reported that they had a great time under the efficient direction of Mrs. J. V. Davenport. We can not speak too highly of Mrs. Davenport's service as to the direction of their social activities as well as her economy of management of the Girl Scouts' finances. Miss Eunice Cross is visiting Miss Claireve Mims this week. Mrs. J. C. Moore and son, William Murphy, left today, Monday, for Philadelphia, Pa., where her husband has a position. Mrs. Mary Barringer and Mrs. J. R. Ratcliffe of Reidsville, who is visiting her, spent a few days at Jonesboro visiting relatives last week. Mr. J. L. Womble, Jr., of Moncure, and his uncle, Max Farrell, of Sanford, spent last week-end at White Lake. We are very sorry that Capt. J. H. Wissler is not feeling so good today, Monday. Hope he will soon feel better and continue to improve. Mrs. W. S. Aman and little daughter, Athea, are visiting in Charlotte for several weeks. The orphans of the Methodist Orphanage, Raleigh, will give a program at the Methodist church here next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. A class of 12 or 13 boys and girls will entertain you. Everybody welcome. Rev. J. A. Dailey will also be present. The Epworth League met as usual last Sunday evening with a large crowd present. Miss Camelia Stedman, president, presided over the meeting. She explained to the large crowd why the Sanford orchestra who we were expecting could not be present, a death of a relative of one of the members of the orchestra was why they were not present. We hope that sometime soon the orchestra can be at the league service. Next was the minutes of the last meeting read by the secretary, Mr. Lewis Burns. After the devotional was conducted by Miss Lois Wilkie, the president sang as a solo, "I have a Friend," with the choir joining in with the chorus. Miss Lois Ray announced the subject for the evening "Where Does Christ Come in the Commercialized Recreation That We Patronize?" and read a piece on this subject bringing out two points: 1. Christ should come in where we make our choices. 2. Christ should come in, in our behavior. Miss Catherine Thomas read a piece on "Standards of Choice," bringing out Jesus' standards in health, in mind, in morals and in religion, and they should be our guide in making our choices. And last, Mr. Charles Strickland read a piece on "Listening to the Coach," bringing out that Jesus Christ is this Coach and is our living, loving friend today and we should be willing to trust Him and follow Him in important choices of life. After singing the song "Be Like Jesus" the meeting closed with prayer by A. B. Clegg. Miss Catherine Thomas will be leader for next Sunday evening. The leaguers appreciate the large congregations at each league service. The public is welcome at each service. Mr. F. M. Hilliard of Carthage was in town today, Monday, on business. Miss Virginia Cathell, who has been taking a course in dietetics at Watt's Hospital, Durham, is at home for a few weeks now resting before taking up her work as teacher in Raleigh schools the first of September. Mr. W. A. Sowers of Linwood was visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. E. Cathell last week. Mr. James Cathell is visiting relatives near Lexington this week. Mr. Ennis of Erwin was in town today, Monday, looking over some farms with a view of buying one. We are very sorry to state that Mrs. Ida Watson continues very ill. Mrs. H. D. Gunter and Mrs. L. N. Crutchfield are at her bed-side daily. Her friends hope that she will soon improve and be well again.

Brickhaven News Mrs. O. C. Kennedy and Miss Ruth Kennedy have returned from a short visit with relatives of Durham and Forestville. Mrs. Henry Gorham of Georgia has arrived to spend three weeks here as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Thompson. Mr. Billy Harrington and brother, Master Jesse, have returned from a camping trip to Jackson Springs. These two wide-awake boys are members of the 4-H Calf Club of the county and the trip was planned and manned by County Agent N. C. Shiver. Mrs. Louise Lawton and little son, Louis, are spending a while here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Harrington. Mrs. J. W. Utley is spending this week with her brother, Mr. A. H. Marks of Acme. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Marks, Mr. A. H. Marks, Jr., and Miss Jennie Rea Marks of Acme, accompanied by Prof. Hugh Stone of the Acme-Delco high school, were here Saturday for the reunion which was held on the site of the Buckhorne church. Miss Mae Dickens has returned from a visit with her cousin, Miss Bessie Gunter of Vass. Miss Nell Yarborough of Raleigh spent the week-end here with her sister, Mrs. C. H. Thompson. The children's day exercises which were held at the Corinth church Sunday evening were very good indeed. Much credit for the excellent program is due to the patience and efficiency of the program committee which consisted of Mrs. Lynn Stephens of Corinth, Mrs. R. H. Overby, Mrs. Claire Harrington and Miss Frances Thompson of Brick Haven. The committee wish to thank every one who contributed to the success of the evening. The Buckhorne Sunday school has decided to hold its annual picnic at Pullen Park, Raleigh, next Wednesday, August 21. Be at the church at 8 a. m. Those who have no way of transportation will be taken care of so be on time. This is a community picnic—not a denominational one. Everybody is invited to bring a basket and join us. Mr. Larry Marks is spending some time with his uncle, Mr. R. H. Marks of Chapel Hill. Mr. J. H. Lawrence left this morning for a several days' stay at Norfolk. He was accompanied by Mr. Norris Thomas of the Buckhorne power plant.

Old Memories and Friendships Revived Mr. Editor: Last Friday night, wife and I decided we wanted to go to Pittsboro and Hanks Chapel church Sunday and visit some of our old friends and the church and cemetery. This, I may say, was my wife's and her mother's and father's place of worship. We carried some flowers and placed them on their graves in loving remembrance of their devotion to their church and their children and the community at large. Our son, R. W. Coble, and his family of Greensboro went with us. It was a pleasant trip and we were very much surprised to see such an elegant church house in the place of the old church. Nearly all the old members of the church have passed to their reward. Uncle William Bland and Aunt Frankie, William Petty, Uncle Jim Farrell, Uncle Jack Hatch and Betsy Hatch, William Hatch, and many others we do not recall at this time. For seventeen years we lived in the town of Pittsboro, and I may say that some of my happiest days were spent in that town. Some of the best citizens of the county and state lived there. We left old Pittsboro on the 15th day of April, 1913, but some of the ties of friendship have never been broken. We love the memory of W. L. London, S. M. Holt, A. G. Headen, M. T. Williams, W. O. Farrell, T. M. Bland, M. T. Griffin, Dr. H. F. Chopin, Mrs. Laura Horne, Mrs. W. L. London, Mrs. A. G. Headen and many other grand and noble men and women who lived in the town when we were citizens. After spending an hour or more at the church and cemetery we turned our car back toward Pittsboro. We stopped at the Chatham county home and spent a short while with that efficient superintendent, Mr. Johnson and his good wife. Resting there for a short while we journeyed back to the old town, stopping to see Mrs. W. O. Farrell, who lives with her son, Atlas. And I want to tell you when I get hungry I am going to stop again for Mrs. Farrell knows how to entertain your appetite. After leaving this good home we stopped to see E. A. Farrell and wife, whose popularity is well known to their many friends in Pittsboro. The next stop was with our friend, W. M. Eubanks and his good wife. They both, like ourselves, are left alone. The children are all married and gone to their homes. Before we could leave town, we called on the proprietress of the Exline Hotel. Mrs. Norwood has perhaps had more guests than any person in Pittsboro. She knows how to entertain you good and she gives you the "goods" that satisfy. We shall be in town again soon and hope to see you, Mr. Peterson. Don't fail to send us the Record. The children want to see every issue. H. L. COBLE Pleasant Garden, Aug. 19.

Kimbalton News Misses Annie and Maisie Harris of Raleigh visited Miss Ola Dorsett Thursday of last week. Mrs. Earle Russell and baby are spending the week with Mrs. Ernest Brewer. Miss Lucille Cheek of Sanford is spending the week with her sister Mrs. N. J. Dark. Mesdames Ernest and Murphy Harris of Raleigh spent a day last week with Mrs. W. B. Dorsett. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McMath and children of Greensboro spent Sunday with Brooks McMath. Misses Lillian and Flossie Walters of Greensboro visited Misses Mary Lee and Hazel Pickard Monday. Mesdames Mary L. Gilmore and Birch Gilmore spent Monday with Mrs. C. M. Pickard.

Gulf Lester, the thirteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Tyner of Gulf, suffered concussion of the brain while diving into Deep river on August 11th when off swimming with three other boys. His head struck a rock. He was rescued from drowning by the thoughtfulness of and assistance of Gordon Wilkie, fifteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wilkie. The injured lad was rushed to Scott's hospital and is improving, we are glad to note. Revival services will begin at Bethany Baptist church next Sunday, August 25. Two services Sunday and dinner on the ground; services in afternoon and evening during the week. Pastor E. W. Byerly will be assisted by Rev. Mr. Touchberry of South Carolina. Mr. and Mrs. Freeland Smith and two children of Durham visited Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Jourdan of this place for a few days last week. Miss Josephine Jordan of Elizabethtown is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jordan. Mr. J. S. Moore returned last week to Athens, Ga., after spending a few weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Moore of this place. Mr. W. A. Jones is taking treatment at the C. C. hospital, Sanford, going down each Thursday. Mrs. A. J. Little, who has been taking treatment at Scott's hospital, Sanford, is at home again and on way to recovery. Dr. R. W. Palmer, patient at Scott's Hospital, is reported to be improving.
