The Chatham Record

ESTABLISHED SEPTEMBER 19, 1878.

PITTSBORO, N. C., CHATHAM COUNTY, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1930

VOLUME 25—NUMBER 50

School Girl Badly Hurt

Run Over By Rushing Milk Truck Driven by Thad Perry-Agnes Campbell in Hospital.

Agnes Campbell, daughter of Mrs. died in Pittsboro a few days ago, Chatham county at Pittsboro. was terribly broken up when she was terribly broken up when she was run over Monday evening by a milk truck driven by Mr. Thad perry. The girl had both legs him an overwhelming majority in a Durham hospital.

Bynum. Agnes continued to come to school at Pittsboro, and was on the school truck Monday even- A Chatham Lady ing, returning home. The truck had stopped for her to get out. But instead of stopping, as the law requires of automobile drivers when they see school trucks stopped on the highway, Mr. Perry rushed ahead, passing the truck just as Agnes stepped from it to cross the road to her home. The tragedy re-

The young girl is fourteen or fifteen years of age. Much sympathy is felt for her and her wid-owed mother, and there is no lack of indignation at the recklessness of the driver, who should have well known that law required a stop under the circumstances.

Farming to Some rows four feet apart as corn is Mexican war. The "stone sails" Teague, J. E. Lassiter, W. C. Henplanted in Chatham. Here is the were gifts of sailors saved by the derson, Jas. A. Hargrove, R. L. planted in Chatham. Here is the "Last Saturday morning we had the pleasure of a visit to a cotton our County Commissioners.

it certainly looked as if he would.

Mr. Pope is one of the progressive tiquity greater than ever that of the farmers who has learned that it pays pyramids in Egypt. to mix his own fertilizer an approximates a saving of $500 dollars of its massive proportions, is not difference between Lady Heath, to mix his own fertilizer an ap-

A Texas breed of cotton is used the lint at the present prices.

But cotton is not all that is raised growth of soy beans, another evitilizer into the soil faster than the corn takes it out and Mr. Pope estimates a yield of twenty-five bushels to the acre from his bean crop.

Fourth Generation At St. Mary's.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shands of Gainesville, Flordia, arrived the and Major London, following her skies. was that lady's daughter, Miss Snows a bright and attractive young ady, well able to hold her own, we judge, with any of her ancestors' records or to match the abilities of her own mates at St. Mary's.

Mr. Shands is a state highway commissioner in Flordia and has still summering here.

expelled classmates are reinstated. hardship.

J. W. Bailey to Speak Here

Girl Leaving School Truck Democratic Senatorial Candidate to Address Chatham County Citizens at Pittsboro, Saturday Next.

At 2:30 o'clock, Saturday, Sept. 27th, Hon. J. W. Bailey, Democratic candidate for the U. S. shua Campbell, whose husband Senate, will address the citizens of broken and her knee caps dislother the contest with Senator Simmons cated or broken. Dr. McBane was last June. Accordingly, it is hoped called hastily and hurried her to that a great throng of both men and women will be present to hear The Campbells moved last year him discuss the issue of the camfrom Pittsboro, where they had long lived, to a place near Rock Spring church, between Pittsboro Mr. Pritchard if he speaks here.

Travels in Mexico

(By Mrs. S. F. Maddox)

Guadalupe, the most popular and sacred shrine in all Mexico, is to the Mexican what the Ganges is to the Hindus. The sight-seer will visit the elaborate 17th century church, which commemorates the apparition of the Virgin Mary to Juan Diego, a simple Indian, converting his "ayate" into a beautiful "tilma" bearing his image, which is still preserved in a frame of pure gold, occupying the center of the high altar in the

We next visit the Chapel of the Well, another celebrated spot in Mexico. In the center of the chapel is a fountain of sulphur water, Wicker, P. T. Tucker, Walker Far-Real Purpose is a fountain of sulphur water, which, according to tradition, gushed forth on the spot where the Virgin stood when she appeared to Juan Dispatch should interest any cotton or corn grower. Be sure to note what is said about planting soy beans between corn rows, and realize that it cannot be done with more four feet apart as corn is four feet apart as corn is four feet apart as corn is summit of sulphur water, water, walker Farwhich, according to tradition, gushed forth on the spot where the Virgin stood when she appeared to Juan Diego. Directly across the street are the stone stairs leading to the summit of Tepeyoe Hill, the burial place of Santa Ana, the general who opposed General Taylor in the Mexican war. The "stone sails" Teague J. E. Lassiter, W. C. Hena storm at sea.

farmer of whom Carl Fitchett said, tival days of the year, Guadalupe Murchison, Gaston Andrews, A. M. "He just sits back and watches it grow, for he knows when to tackle it and when to let it alone." The pilgrims who crowd in from all farm of Mr. Claude Pope, one of over the Republic. After passing through the village of San Juan we We saw there one hundred acres arrive at the archeological zone in cotton and all of it good cotton, which is under Federal control, Some of the stalks have as high as where the famous pyramids of the one hundred and forty bolls to sun and the moon are located. Those the hill is maintained. Mr. Pope be-prehistoric structues antedate those lieves he will average two bales to of the Aztecs and Toltecs. In fact, the acre and to our unpracticed eye, their origin is lost in antiquity. Archeologists assign to them an anon the Pope farm and because of the but the largest artificial mound on trying to force her into bankruptcy. fact that he has used an improved the American continent. It is 760 Papers were served upon her seed, his seed is more valuable than feet long, 722 feet wide, and 216 aboard a liner on Sunday and befeet high. On its summit once stood cause it is feared service was illegal a colossal statute of a single block an attempt will be made again in on the Pope farm. Luxuriant corn of porphyry, facing the east. The from which Mr. Pope expects to get statue was adorned with a heavy forty bushels to the acre was another plate of gold on which the rays of sight worth seeing. Between the the sun rested each day. On the once managed Peaches Browning rows florished an equally luxuriant western side of the pyramid of the in vaudeville, is suing her for the sun is a series of steps leading up return of gifts. City marshals dence of the fact that Mr. Pope is a to the top, whence a magnificent visited her apartment and demanded: good farmer. The soy bean being a view of the country is obtained. The Two candelabra, one cocktain set, nitrogen producing crop, puts fer- pyramid of the moon is 151 feet one copper coffee set, one drawing panion, is terraced.

the moon lies the "Street of the Dead", which is the central through fare of the city. On either side of this street are small mounds, which, according to tradition, were tombs. These ruins are called a "roofless Westminster Abbey".

the series was the young lady's capped peaks rear their ice-crowned great-grandmother, sister of Capt. pinnacles against warm tropical reach shore.

With its sunshine and flowers, den, now Mrs. Walter Hawkins; its unique and romantic peoples, next came Mrs. Shands, daughter of Mrs. Hawkins. The fourth entrant is a bright and attraction of the fourth entrant ruins, Mexico offers a veritable warlord, is remaining neural in in which the seller has no voice in mine of golden travels.

SCHOOLS MUST HOLD SIX HOURS A DAY

loyally stood by the governor of Board of Education of Anson the fans with a suit of salmon have any part in fixing the price his state in recent contentions down county that some of the schools run pink embroidered with white lacings, of what he raises, how can he there. He and Mrs. Shands will less than the six hours a day re- and they booed lustily. the well evpect enality with industry? spend the remainder of the week in quired by law, the Board last dressed matador always has a scar-Pittsboro with relatives, including week gave notice to all principals let cape and gold braid, the colors Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins, who are that on the first proved complaint of the Spanish flag. summering here.

Santiago, Chile.—Many students the University of the Spanish Lag.

Santiago, Chile.—Many students the Spanish Lag.

Santiago, Chile.—Many students the Spanish Lag.

Santiago, Chile.—Many students the Spanish Lag.

Sheehy, president of the dancing from the ranks of the bar, legal mansion of Miss Ella B. Wendel, 78, masters of America, who are in conprincipal will be curtailed and for vention assembled. He expects that the second offense he will be distanced by Indiana M. Ward. Ith poince differs feetuned from the ranks of the bar, legal mansion of Miss Ella B. Wendel, 78, masters of America, who are in convention assembled. He expects that the second offense he will be distanced by Indiana M. Ward. Ith poince differs feetuned from the right Avenue from the ranks of the bar, legal mansion of Miss Ella B. Wendel, 78, masters of America, who are in convention assembled. He expects that the second offense he will be distanced by Indiana M. Ward. Ith poince differs feetuned from the ranks of the bar, legal mansion of Miss Ella B. Wendel, 78, masters of America, who are in convention assembled. He expects that the second offense he will be distanced by Indiana M. Ward. Ith poince differs feetuned from the ranks of the bar, legal mansion of Miss Ella B. Wendel, 78, masters of America, who are in convention assembled. He expects that the second offense he will be distanced by Indiana M. Ward. Ith poince differs feetuned from the ranks of the bar, legal mansion of Miss Ella B. Wendel, 78, masters of America, who are in convention assembled. of the University of Chile are growing beards. They insist they will remain unshaven until some exclusive of recesses—a "terrible" are to burn the midnight of the second offense he will be discussed. So it looks like the children classis and conservative steps will balls from police pistols in the classis and conservative steps will be popular and that bathing suits with victorian frills will replace the club, or held for a $5 fine.

Photos from Wide World Photos THE WORLD'S LONGEST

This important connecting link between the Lincoln Highway and San Francisco is the longest purely highway bridge in the world. From bedrock to the highest bit of steel the structure is equal in height to a thirty-eight story building. It costs $6,000,000 to erect.

Jury List for Criminal Court

For Term of Court for Trial Most Distinguished Living of Criminal Cases Beginning Monday, October 20.

The following names have been drawn for jurymen for the term of court beginning October 20:

Virgin in answer to prayers during a storm at sea.

During the many religious fesL. Perry, Dexter Sizemore, T. P.

Odd and Interesting

only the outstanding monument of flier, and a merchant over payment the ancient city of Teotihuacan, for dresses, and the merchant is

New York.-Edgar Allen, who high, with a base measurement of room lamp, two sets of books, blue 426 by 511 feet, and, like its com- pajama coat, one ring, one bridge on the south of the pyramid of onade set. They went away with some of the articles.

Newport, R. I .- On Sir Thomas Lipon's yatch Erin and Shamrock their potato crop 142,000,000 bush-V flies a blue flag depicting the els and received for their bigger British crown in gold with a red crop $242,000,000 less than for the Facing the park near the foot bloody hand under it. It is the small crop of the previous year, first of the week, accompanied by of the pyramid of the sun is a burgee of the Royal Ulster Yatch according to Arthur Brisbane, who their daughter, Miss Elizabeth, who is matteresting is matriculating at St. Mary's School, collection of relics. Few countries in days of yore cut off one hand got $300,000,000 more for their Raleigh, making the fourth in four have such a variety of scenery as and threw it on the beach, winning corn crop of 600,000,000 bushels successive generations to attend has Mexico. It is a land of contact that famous school. The first of tracts and of exquisite color Snowthat famous school. The first of trasts and of exquisite color. Snow- tion was the winner should be > the present Chinese turmoil, finding fixing the price he receives for his excitement enough on his links in product. Steel pays, both because it his daily game of tennis.

Complaints having reached the scheme. Sidney Franklin started As long as the farmer cannot Itomorow night.

Major Stedman

Pittsburgher Dying in Washington City Hospital-Born in Pittsboro Ninety Years Ago.

Washington City Hospital, as a result of apoplexy and the general debility due to extreme age.

Major Stedman is a native of Pittsboro, and from this old village entered the Confederate army, in which he rose to the rank of major.

Major Stedman is a native of Pittsboro, and from this old village entered the Confederate army, in which he rose to the rank of major.

Major Stedman is a native of Pittsboro, and from this old village entered the Confederate army, in which he rose to the rank of major.

Major Stedman is a native of Pittsboro, and from this old village entered the Confederate army, in which he rose to the rank of major. which he rose to the rank of major After practicing law here for county. several years after the surrender Dennis Headen and Mark Guthrie. moved to Greensboro and in 1904 nomination for governor against R. B. Glenn, who was the successful contestant.

Finally the Major was elected to Congress from the Fifth district, and has served several terms. Senility caused him to decline to be a candidate to succeed himself this year. However, he has one more session of Congress to serve to complete his term. His death, accordingly, will mean an earlier vacancy. Frank Hancock of Oxford is the nominated successor, and would probably be nominated by the district executive committee for the short term, and be elected this fall, thus entering tion of Mrs. Shannonhouse, of Pitts- and staple as was announced when upon his duties in Congress a year earlier.

Major Stedman has no immediate relatives here, though numerous remote ones in the county. It has been many years since he has visited his native village and there is scarcely citizen of the town who recalls his residence here. However, it is a distinction to the old town to be either side from the halls of Con-

WHAT WOULD BEN FRANKLIN SAY? (News and Observer)

In one year farmers increased apply to automobile."

The morals are: (1) The farmers should not follow the advise of B. Franklin to work hard and produce Peiping-What's a war when one all the land can bear, because the gets a subsidy through high tariff to the Ohio bar is a policeman, has been touring for the departin bad because of a novel color the chief voice in fixing the price.

County Court Session

Several Cases Disposed of at Monday's Session of Judge Bell's Court

From over in the White's Bridge community came charges of chicken stealing against Taft Rives, George ing Friday evening to welcome the Rives, and Jerry Rives. Taft was the teachers. first fellow to be caught up with in Mr. D the lot. He stole a chicken from Mr. O. S. Rives last week, the story goes, and tied its feet with a strip necessary to resign the presidency, from his shirt tail. As he carried to which she was elected last spring. the chicken to the store to sell it, the shirt tail string in the road and work and of the fine spirit she brought a chicken tied with a presidency. string matching the one droped on the road.

neither has any sense to spare. Taft first vice-president; Mrs. George owned up to the larency of the Brewer; second vice-president; Mrs. Rives chicken and told of him and Jerry Rives, an older man, catching one of Mr. Hubert Fields' gram chairman; Mrs. W. P. Horton, Cannot Live chickens, but he denied that on the library; Mrs. G. W. Blair, social chairman; Mrs. E. R. Hinton, hossheriff the other story when he pitality chairman; Mrs. F. C. Mann, piqued him, George had also owned to carrying a chicken, along with Mrs G. W. Brewer, chairman ways Taft, to Mr. George Smith's store, and means committee; Mrs. Wade but denied it on the stand. Their Barber, chairman grounds committee; mother, a sensible woman and ap- Mrs. R. H. Hayes, chairman health parently of good character, said she committee; Mrs. G. H. Brooks, Sr., had given a chicken to the boys to sell at Mr. Smith's. Jerry got Shannonhouse, chairman music committee; Mrs. clear. The two witless boys got mittee. three and two months on the roads.

last Confederate Veteran to serve in duct, was given a 6 months sentence, Congress, lies near death's door in a on condition that he might be hired ing the following musicical program given 24 hours to get out of t

of General Lee, with whom he for injury to a highway truck, served, Major Stedman moved to under the charge of malicious in-Wilmington and while living there, jury to personal property, were if the writer recalls correctly, was sent to the roads for four months chosen lieutenant-governor. He later and 30 days respectively. The young darkeys are said to have tried to was a candidate for the Democratic start a truck belonging to the county and practically to have ruined the tires in their attempt. It is reported that the damage was something like a hundred dollarrs.

They were not county employees. Elmer Perry, who was sentenced on a liquor charge but appealed, abandoned his appeal and has begun the serving of his sentence.

JUNIOR CHORAL CLUB FOR SANFORD

Sanford is the organization of a by with cotton in the seasonal pool junior choral club, under the direc- will get their premiums for grade to give the young people of the town cents per pound loan was later rethe opportunity of receiving free duced to 15 cents and members instruction in choral work. All of who drew only 15 cents, basis those who know Mrs. Shannonhouse middling 7/8 inch, will get an personally or all those who have ever additional 1 cent per pound. observed the results of her efforts | Statements and settlement checks in pageants, cantatas, or choral are now being made up in the work will realize what an oppor- Raleigh office of the Association the birth place of so distinguished a soldier, citizen and law-maker.

His death will remove the last participant in the civil war, on benefitting by her instructions will reduce the money for settlement from the benefitting by her instructions will reduce the money for settlement from the benefitting by her instructions will reduce the money for settlement from the benefitting by her instructions will reduce the money for settlement from the benefit form the benefit her solutions and professionally. render the services in the Episcopal able. church each Sunday morning. The day, the 14th of September.

ject: Jewell Stout, Corneila Atkins, Doris Suzanne and Geneva Cooper. one who is interested in joining this club should consult Mrs. Shannonhouse.

rates from consumers, and the men and the papers comment on the ad- ment of agriculture, has found such Madrid-Brooklyn's bullfighter is who make automobile and steel have vantages of having cops who know things as an apple crop increased the law first-hand. They have not from 1,400 bushels to 6,000 and mentioned the fact that the incident 44 pounds of cherries obtained from suggests an outlet for the overplus one tree instead of four pounds. A of lawyers, nor have they spoken hive is placed under trees. The bees of the function of legal training polinize sterile trees and those that as a means for teaching its stud- have small yields. New York-The doom of jazz ents to think first and act afterdancing is forescen by Thomas M. ward. ith police officers recruited club, or held for a $5 fine.

P-T. A. Meets

Teachers Welcomed-Mrs. J. H.Cordon Again Becomes President — Well - Equipped High School Library Objective.

A large number of parents were present at the Parent-Teachers meet-

Mr. D. L. Bell, vice-president, opened the meeting and stated that Mrs. George Brewer had found it Nominations being called for, Prinit broke the improvised string. Taft cipal Waters nominated Mrs. J. H. let the broken parts fall and con-cerned himself about another string. Cordon, who had so accaptably served before. The election was unwhich he got from the same shirt animous, whereupon Mr. Waters tail. Now, Mr. Rives plays the part spoke feelingly to the excellent work of Hawkshaw the detective, finds Mrs. Cordon had done here in P-T A. at the store learns that Taft had had shown in again accepting the Officers and Committee chairman for the coming year are: Mrs. J. Taft and George are brothers and H. Cordon, president; D. L. Bell, Mrs. Cordon placed as an objec-Budd Davis, on the charge of tive for the year a well equipped drunkenness and disorderly ron- high school library.

At the close of the business meet-

Solo-All the World is Sunshine. -Mrs. R. H. Dixon, Jr. Reading-No Time to Laugh .-

Vocal Duet-Little Sunflowers, and Mary Dell Bynum.

Instrumental Duet—Mesdames W. F. Bland and Victor Johnson. Mrs. Victor R. Johnson, Sec.

Cotton Co-Op to Give Out $200,000 Soon

Approximately $200,000 will be distributed by the North Carolina Cotton Growers Cooperative Association within the next few days to members who delivered cotton of in June to 8 months on the roads the 1929 crop to the seasonal pool of better grade than 7/8 inch middling, said Vice-President and General Manager, U. B. Blalock, today.

A basis of settlement has been agreed upon by the Association Of interest to the young people of with the Federai Farm Board whereboro. Mrs. Shannonhouse has offered the 16 cents per pound loan was to come to Sanford once a week put into effect last fall. The 16

Since the 9 cents per pound public is cordially invited to attend advance on middling 7/8 inch cot-these services, the first of which will ton of this season's crop was anbe given in the new church on Sun-Inounced a few days ago by the American Cotton Cooperative Asso-The following girls have already ciation, interest in the Cotton Growsignified their interest in the pro- ers Association has been very greatly stimulated. New membership con-Julia Chaffin, Barbara Kelly, Ste-tracts are coming into the Raleigh phaine Newman, Edith Makepeace, office of the Association without Louise Gilliam, Helen Howard, solicitation as if the delivery season Evelyn, Gladys and Alice Lawrence were already underway. Several contracts have been received dur-The meetings are held every Weanes- ing the past few days from proother organizations in town will use tive, said Vice-President and General the services of these girls when they Manager, U. Benton Blalock, that have developed under the training farmers are not going to sacrifice into more expert choiristers. Any-their cotton at the present market levels.

Washington-The busy bee has been increasing the cherry and ap-One of six hundred men admitted ple crops. Dr. E. L. Sechrist, who

> New York .- In the Fifth Avenue to the one his mistress occupies.