

THE WEEKLY RALEIGH REGISTER, AND NORTH CAROLINA GAZETTE.

Published every Friday, by WESTON R. GILES, Editor and Proprietor, at Three Dollars per Annum.

VOL. XLVII.

FRIDAY, APRIL 24, 1846.

NO. 29.

RALEIGH REGISTER. RALEIGH, N. C.

Tuesday, April 21, 1846.

THE OREGON NOTICE PASSED.

It will be seen that the Senate has at last recorded its vote on the Oregon Question, in favor of authorizing the President, at his discretion, to give the notice required by the Treaty of 1827, to the British Government, for the abrogation of the joint occupancy.

The final vote was very strong—40 to 14. If we add to the 40, and take from the 14, the three gentlemen who are opposed to the notice in any form, the result would appear to be that, out of 54 Senators present, 43 indicated distinctly their opinion, that the Oregon dispute ought to be compromised.

The vote will be hailed all over the Union, as highly auspicious to the preservation of the peace of the country.

MR. HAYWOOD'S SPEECH.

In this celebrated Speech, although he very ingeniously labors to prove an impossibility—to wit, that Mr. Polk has been consistent on the Oregon question—there is still much that is wise, patriotic, and noble—very much that does honor to the heart and the head of the talented Senator.

A HAPPY MAN.

Much has been written, and said, and sung, about happiness. Some have supposed it not of easy attainment, but the slow reward of a long life of virtue.

THE RIVAL CANDIDATES.

MR. LEAK addresses a Letter to Mr. SHEPARD, through the "North Carolina" of the 18th inst. of which the following is the cream:

LATE AND IMPORTANT FROM MEXICO.

Return of Mr. Stedell, the American Minister. We take the following from the New Orleans Bulletin, of the 8th instant:

NEW YORK CHARTER ELECTION.

The annual election for Mayor and Common Council-men of New York, took place on Tuesday last, and resulted, as was foreseen from the divisions of their opponents, in the triumph of the Locofocos.

NEW ORLEANS ELECTION.

The City of New Orleans elected its corporation officers on the 6th inst. The Whig spirit appeared to have been about, and, as usual, when untrammelled by third partyism, won the victory.

THE CLAY FESTIVAL.

The Birth-day of HENRY CLAY was celebrated on Sunday last, in a most enthusiastic manner, by about 40 of our unchanged and unchangeable friends, at the Saloon, New York. The company, which was mainly composed of the true, staunch, hardy Whigs of the City, sat down at 7 o'clock to a banquet and abundant supper, which was soon despatched.

ALBANY ELECTION.

The Whigs have succeeded in electing Mr. Parmelee their candidate for Mayor, by a majority of between 3 and 400 over John K. Paige, (Loco.)

BY ROBERT C. WATSON.

By Robert C. Watson.—Hon. Geo. E. Badger, of North Carolina.—An inflexible Statesman; the eloquent and fearless champion of the Whig party of the South. The country claims him among her bright jewels.

ORGANIZATION—CONCERT—ACTION.

While we behold with amusement, the discord and quarrellings of the Candidates for the next Legislature, I think it time for the Whigs to put their ball in motion, as every Whig will admit, that this is the year that we should use every honorable exertion to crown the Whig party with success.

The Whigs should stand aloof from this family squabble, not caring which, or whether both, ensure to themselves the glory of being the "great innoctant," in August next. But we should exert ourselves to secure a most thorough triumph for our glorious Candidate, and the imperishable Whig cause.

The Whigs should stand aloof from this family squabble, not caring which, or whether both, ensure to themselves the glory of being the "great innoctant," in August next. But we should exert ourselves to secure a most thorough triumph for our glorious Candidate, and the imperishable Whig cause.

The Whigs should stand aloof from this family squabble, not caring which, or whether both, ensure to themselves the glory of being the "great innoctant," in August next. But we should exert ourselves to secure a most thorough triumph for our glorious Candidate, and the imperishable Whig cause.

The Whigs should stand aloof from this family squabble, not caring which, or whether both, ensure to themselves the glory of being the "great innoctant," in August next. But we should exert ourselves to secure a most thorough triumph for our glorious Candidate, and the imperishable Whig cause.

The Whigs should stand aloof from this family squabble, not caring which, or whether both, ensure to themselves the glory of being the "great innoctant," in August next. But we should exert ourselves to secure a most thorough triumph for our glorious Candidate, and the imperishable Whig cause.

The Whigs should stand aloof from this family squabble, not caring which, or whether both, ensure to themselves the glory of being the "great innoctant," in August next. But we should exert ourselves to secure a most thorough triumph for our glorious Candidate, and the imperishable Whig cause.

The Whigs should stand aloof from this family squabble, not caring which, or whether both, ensure to themselves the glory of being the "great innoctant," in August next. But we should exert ourselves to secure a most thorough triumph for our glorious Candidate, and the imperishable Whig cause.

The Whigs should stand aloof from this family squabble, not caring which, or whether both, ensure to themselves the glory of being the "great innoctant," in August next. But we should exert ourselves to secure a most thorough triumph for our glorious Candidate, and the imperishable Whig cause.

The Whigs should stand aloof from this family squabble, not caring which, or whether both, ensure to themselves the glory of being the "great innoctant," in August next. But we should exert ourselves to secure a most thorough triumph for our glorious Candidate, and the imperishable Whig cause.

The Whigs should stand aloof from this family squabble, not caring which, or whether both, ensure to themselves the glory of being the "great innoctant," in August next. But we should exert ourselves to secure a most thorough triumph for our glorious Candidate, and the imperishable Whig cause.

The Whigs should stand aloof from this family squabble, not caring which, or whether both, ensure to themselves the glory of being the "great innoctant," in August next. But we should exert ourselves to secure a most thorough triumph for our glorious Candidate, and the imperishable Whig cause.

The Whigs should stand aloof from this family squabble, not caring which, or whether both, ensure to themselves the glory of being the "great innoctant," in August next. But we should exert ourselves to secure a most thorough triumph for our glorious Candidate, and the imperishable Whig cause.

The Whigs should stand aloof from this family squabble, not caring which, or whether both, ensure to themselves the glory of being the "great innoctant," in August next. But we should exert ourselves to secure a most thorough triumph for our glorious Candidate, and the imperishable Whig cause.

The Whigs should stand aloof from this family squabble, not caring which, or whether both, ensure to themselves the glory of being the "great innoctant," in August next. But we should exert ourselves to secure a most thorough triumph for our glorious Candidate, and the imperishable Whig cause.

The Whigs should stand aloof from this family squabble, not caring which, or whether both, ensure to themselves the glory of being the "great innoctant," in August next. But we should exert ourselves to secure a most thorough triumph for our glorious Candidate, and the imperishable Whig cause.

The Whigs should stand aloof from this family squabble, not caring which, or whether both, ensure to themselves the glory of being the "great innoctant," in August next. But we should exert ourselves to secure a most thorough triumph for our glorious Candidate, and the imperishable Whig cause.

The Whigs should stand aloof from this family squabble, not caring which, or whether both, ensure to themselves the glory of being the "great innoctant," in August next. But we should exert ourselves to secure a most thorough triumph for our glorious Candidate, and the imperishable Whig cause.

The Whigs should stand aloof from this family squabble, not caring which, or whether both, ensure to themselves the glory of being the "great innoctant," in August next. But we should exert ourselves to secure a most thorough triumph for our glorious Candidate, and the imperishable Whig cause.

FOR THE REGISTER.

Mr. Editor: I see that the Loco Focos have nominated their Candidates for the next Legislature. I think it time for the Whigs to put their ball in motion, as every Whig will admit, that this is the year that we should use every honorable exertion to crown the Whig party with success.

FOR THE REGISTER.

Mr. Editor: I see that the Loco Focos have nominated their Candidates for the next Legislature. I think it time for the Whigs to put their ball in motion, as every Whig will admit, that this is the year that we should use every honorable exertion to crown the Whig party with success.

FOR THE REGISTER.

Mr. Editor: I see that the Loco Focos have nominated their Candidates for the next Legislature. I think it time for the Whigs to put their ball in motion, as every Whig will admit, that this is the year that we should use every honorable exertion to crown the Whig party with success.

FOR THE REGISTER.

Mr. Editor: I see that the Loco Focos have nominated their Candidates for the next Legislature. I think it time for the Whigs to put their ball in motion, as every Whig will admit, that this is the year that we should use every honorable exertion to crown the Whig party with success.

FOR THE REGISTER.

Mr. Editor: I see that the Loco Focos have nominated their Candidates for the next Legislature. I think it time for the Whigs to put their ball in motion, as every Whig will admit, that this is the year that we should use every honorable exertion to crown the Whig party with success.

FOR THE REGISTER.

Mr. Editor: I see that the Loco Focos have nominated their Candidates for the next Legislature. I think it time for the Whigs to put their ball in motion, as every Whig will admit, that this is the year that we should use every honorable exertion to crown the Whig party with success.

FOR THE REGISTER.

Mr. Editor: I see that the Loco Focos have nominated their Candidates for the next Legislature. I think it time for the Whigs to put their ball in motion, as every Whig will admit, that this is the year that we should use every honorable exertion to crown the Whig party with success.

FOR THE REGISTER.

Mr. Editor: I see that the Loco Focos have nominated their Candidates for the next Legislature. I think it time for the Whigs to put their ball in motion, as every Whig will admit, that this is the year that we should use every honorable exertion to crown the Whig party with success.

FOR THE REGISTER.

Mr. Editor: I see that the Loco Focos have nominated their Candidates for the next Legislature. I think it time for the Whigs to put their ball in motion, as every Whig will admit, that this is the year that we should use every honorable exertion to crown the Whig party with success.

CONGRESS.

SENATE—TUESDAY, April 14, 1846. The House bill making appropriation for pensions, was reported back without amendment, and was several other bills.

Mr. Weston having the floor, spoke at some length in favor of the notice, and of our title to the whole of the territory up to 54 40.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The Smithsonian Bequest bill being the special order for to-day, on motion of Mr. Owen, it was postponed till Tuesday, the 21st inst.

Mr. Howard followed also in favor of 54 40. The debate was then continued by Messrs. Cobb, Holmes and others, until the rising of the Committee.

SENATE—WEDNESDAY, April 15th, 1846.

The Senate resumed the consideration of the special order, viz: the Oregon resolutions.

The Chair announced the Senator from Texas as having the floor. The name of Texas sounded rather strangely.

Mr. Houston then rose and gave his views. After some introductory remarks, he went in for giving the notice. He thought nothing was to be gained by delay.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The House went over once more into committee of the whole, and resumed the consideration of the bill to protect American settlers in Oregon until the termination of the joint occupancy of the same.

SENATE—THURSDAY April 16, 1846.

As this was the day towards which public expectation has been so long directed, the crowd about the Senate Chamber was unusually large this morning, and a goodly proportion of it was composed of ladies.

HILLSBOROUGH, APRIL 16.

NO NEW CASE OF SMALL POX.—We are gratified in being able to state that no new case of Small Pox has occurred since our last.

BROOKLYN.

In Brooklyn, Stryker, the Whig candidate for Mayor, is elected by a majority of more than 1200 over Talmadge, (Loco.)

CONNECTICUT.

The Whigs have elected 29 and the Locos 14 members of the Legislature in Connecticut on the second trial. It is believed the Locos will have a small majority on joint ballot.

ALBANY ELECTION.

The Whigs have succeeded in electing Mr. Parmelee their candidate for Mayor, by a majority of between 3 and 400 over John K. Paige, (Loco.)

The Yeas and Nays were then called upon

Mr. Allen's amendment and it was lost, Yeas 27 Nays 32. Mr. Breese then moved to strike the words "at his discretion" from the Preamble of the Senator from Kentucky—lost Yeas 22, Nays 32.

Mr. Allen then took the floor, and spoke in support of the preamble to the resolution. In his opinion it was utterly unavailing.

Such a resolution arrayed one branch of Congress against the other, and both against the President. What will be the nature of the next dispatches from the British Minister to England?

Mr. Crittenden replied. He asked "Upon what merit does our Casar stand?" that he should come here and thus lecture the Senate!

Mr. Allen rejoined with considerable spirit, and said he was at a loss to know the reason why whenever he spoke, the Senator invariably pumped up and attacked him with personal abuse.

Mr. Crittenden rejoined with great severity—He said he had an instinctive aversion to a black-guard, and an instinctive desire always to trample upon and to put down impudence and arrogance.

Mr. Allen explained that his remarks referred to an act of the Senate as a body, and that they had no personal application.

The question was then taken on concurring in the amendment of the Committee of the whole, by which Mr. Johnson's preamble and resolution were substituted for the House resolutions. It was agreed to.

The joint resolution as amended was then ordered to be engrossed for a third reading by a yeas of 40, nays 14, as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Archer, Ashby, Atterton, Bagley, Barrow, Brown, Burdick, Calhoun, Cameron, Chalmers, J. M. Clayton, Cowan, Cotten, Dallas, Dayton, Dix, Green, Haywood, Houston, Thompson, James, Johnson, Kent, Lincoln, La Touche, Lewis, McKim, Manning, May, Monro, Moore, Nelson, Peaslee, Pugh, Rusk, Sargent, Seward, Sprague, Upham, Webster, Woodbridge—40.

Nays—Messrs. Allen, Atchison, Brewer, Bright, Cass, T. Clayton, Dickerson, Evans, Estlin, Hale, Hays, J. M. Johnson, Seaman, Stevens, Weston—14.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

A few indifferent resolutions committees were received. The House then resolved itself into Committee of the whole, on the bill to extend the jurisdiction of the U. S. over the Oregon territory.

The following gentlemen addressed the Committee, viz: Messrs. J. Ingersoll, Wood, Phelps, Rockwell, S. Jones, and Pollock.

From the North State Whig

DR. SHANKLIN'S APPOINTMENTS. It appears from the subjoined announcement, which we have been requested to publish, that Dr. Shanklin is about to take the field in earnest, as one of the Democratic candidates for Governor.

It is proper we should state that the reason why we have been requested to publish the Doctor's appointments, is that "The Standard" through promising to be the organ of the Democratic party, refuses to publish the Doctor's engagements; and he is unwilling to subject himself and friends to the mortification of a second refusal.

With this explanation, we publish the appointments precisely as we received them, as follows: Doctor Andrew Shanklin, by the advice of his friends, has determined not to be driven from the field by that political upstart James B. Sheppard, though he is backed by a Junco known as the "Raleigh Clique," who are attempting to force him upon the democracy of the State, whether they want him or not.

The Doctor is not to be deterred by any such cabal. He declared himself a candidate for Governor before any other Democrat, and he is resolved not to be driven from his position. He intends to meet his fellow Democrats throughout the state, and to show up the Raleigh Junco and their pet Sheppard, in their true colors. For this purpose, he will address the democracy, at the following places at such times during the months of May, June and July, as they shall appoint. And he hereby dares the aforesaid James B. Sheppard, or any member of the Raleigh Clique to meet him at any of the following places:

South Fork, Ashe county, in May. Bagnabo Creek, Wilkes " " " Nulocky, Yancy " " " Homminy, Buncombe " " " Fort Dehance, Caldwell " " " Serrytown, Stokes " in June. Big Brown, Anson " " " Head of Salt River, Lincoln " " Buffalo Nest, Cabarrus " " Horse Swamp, Robeson " in July. Polcote Ridge, Onslow " " Crabtree Creek, Wake " " Tarboro', Edgec. " " Tenneson, do " " Steamy Creek, Wayne " "

A bashful wooer, not long since, wishing to pop the question, did it in the following singular manner: Taking up the young lady's cat, said, "pussy, may I have your mistress?" It was answered by the lady, who said, say yes, pussy

"POINT-NO-POINT."

The following is Queen Elizabeth's brief speech, to a Committee appointed by Parliament to inquire into her designs as to a contemplated alliance between her and some European Prince. It embraces what the law would call "the exclusion."

"Were I to tell you that I do not mean to marry, I might say less than I intend; and were I to tell you that I do mean to marry, I might say more than it is proper for you to know—therefore I give you an answer atversless."

DR. WINTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

The Wild Cherry tree will soon become the emblem of health. Its triumph over Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Croup and Liver Complaint, is now complete. It cures all those diseases when all other remedies fail—Clergymen, physicians and editors commend it as the best remedy ever before known.

For sale by WILLIAMS, HAYWOOD & CO., wholesale and retail, Raleigh, N. C.

THE BRANDRETH PILLS are entirely Vegetable and made on those principles which long experience has proved correct. It is now no speculation, when they are resorted to in sickness, they are known to be the best cleansers of the stomach and bowels, and in all dyspeptic and bilious casts are a great blessing.

The above Pills are sold, by regular Agents, in every County of the State, and by WILLIAMS, HAYWOOD & CO., wholesale and retail, Raleigh.

Died

In this City, on Thursday night last, Mr. James Hughes, in the 8th year of his age. He was a soldier of the Revolution, having served a seven year's campaign in the Southern Division of the American Army. He was fourteen months a Prisoner of War at Fort Mifflin, and was present at the capture of Fort Mifflin. He resided with his family in the 5th ward of the City of Raleigh, and was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Bank of Cape Fear, WASHINGTON, April 26, 1846.

THE REGULAR ANNUAL MEETING OF THE STOCKHOLDERS in this Bank, will be held at the Banking House on Monday, the 6th day of May proximo. THOS. H. WRIGHT, Cashier.

W. J. Bingham's Select School.

The next Session will begin on the tenth day of July. The Senior Class will be discharged at the end of the current Session, leaving room for several new Scholars. Small boys ready to begin Latin Grammar are preferred. To secure places early application is necessary.

Goods at Auction!

Will be sold at N. B. HUGHES' Auction and Commission Store, on Saturday the 24th April, a large assortment of GOODS, of various descriptions and qualities, consisting of:—

Coal Nails, Cut Crushed and Brown Sarsaparilla, Gun powder and Black Tea, Assorted Spices and Tallow Candles, Peppercorn, Mustard, Molasses, Calicoes, Mirrors, Brass and Iron Ware, &c. &c. Hardware, Ladies' and Men's Hosiery, &c. &c. A lot of fine Blank Mattresses, &c. &c. Astral Lamps, and a variety of Fancy Articles. N. B. HUGHES, Agent.

The United States Hotel, BY JAMES H. BIRCH.

The PROPRIETOR of this elegant and commodious house (of the late Genl. Tyler & Birch) takes occasion to renew to the public his acknowledgments for the liberal encouragement which he has continued to receive. Consulting the comfort of his guests as the principle of action, the proprietor assumed the undivided control of the establishment, determined upon sustaining its high reputation to the extent of his experience and exclusive attention.

With this view the house will be found at all times adapted to the requirements of the season. The edifice, constructed upon the modern plan, commands the advantages of light and air in every apartment.

The proprietor would particular invite the attention of gentlemen, parties, and families visiting the metropolis, to the location of the hotel. Situated convenient to the Capitol and other public buildings, within five minutes walk of the Railroad Depot, and upon the promenade side of the main avenue, the advantages of the house in this particular, whether for business or for recreation, are apparent. In addition to this, with a table well supplied with the good things of the season, and a corps of disciplined and obliging servants, and moderate charges, the undersigned is anxious of sustaining his house from the eminently flattering and extensive list of its customers.

JAMES H. BIRCH. April 16, 1846. 32-2aw6w