JOHN HOLLAND'S ORATION. We publish to-day, by request, the celebrated Oration of Jone Holling, in Washington, on the 5th July, 1822. It was first published in the American Recorder, of July 13th, 1822—a assuspance published there at that time, by Jone McWilliams. It is said, that the Oration, printed on sutin, may be seen to this day, hanging up in the saloon of Drury Lane Theatre, London, as a specimen of American oratory

GOV. GRAHAM'S MAJORITY. Gov. GRAHAM'S present majority over Mr. Shepard, is within a fraction of 8,000. We presume it will not vary very far from that, when all the Counties are heard from.

WILKES COUNTY. It is a circumstance worthy of note, that General WELLBORN, who has been elected to the House of Commons from Wilkes, was a member of the first Legislature that sat in Ruleigh, in 1795.

DEATH OF ROBERT MELVIN, ESQ. We regret to learn the death of this gentleman from Billious Fever, on Wednesday last. He has long represented the Senatorial District of Brunswick Riaden and Columbus, in our State Legislature, and had just been re-elected, by the Democratic voters, he being of that faith in politics.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Our returns are not entirely complete, but it is ascertained with certainty, that the Whigs have car- Loco. ried both branches of the Legislature. In the Senate, our majority will be 4; in the House, not less than 12-a much more efficient majority, than if it

IN THE SENATE, The Whigs have elected Senators in Pasquotank and Perquimans; Camden and Currituck; Washington and Tyrrell; Northampton; Hertford; Bertie; Halifax ; Pitt ; Beaufort and Hyde ; Carteret and lones; Franklin; Granville; Orange; Chatham; Moore and Montgomery ; Robeson and Richmond ; Anson ; Rundelph ; Guilford ; Cabarrus and Stanly ; Rowan ; Stokes; "Surry and Ashe ; Iredell ; Burke, Caldwell and Wilkes; Buncombe, Yancy and Hen-

KENTUCKY.

There is no use in giving details. The Whig triumph is as complete as could be desired—the majority in the Legislature being overwhelming. How else could it be in the State where Henry Clay lives? In Indiana, the present Democratic Governor is re-elected by a small majority, probably about a thouand votes. The State Senate is a little doubtful. ut we think our opponents have carried it. In the louse the Whigs will have a majority sufficiently large to ensure them a majority on joint ballot.

WILLIAM M. PRICE, Esq., well known as the firmer U. S. District Attorney for the District of New York, committed suicide on Tuesday morning at about 10 o'clock, by shooting himself through the head in Broadway. Pecuniary embarrassments are assigned as the cause of the deed.

The Washington Correspondent of the Philadelphia North American says, "that at this very hour, a special agent of this Government is on his way to Mexico with a proposition from the President to produce a settlement of our difficulties-that Mr. Black, our Consul at Mexico, who has been suffered to remain there from the integrity and inoffensiveness of his character, has communicated to the Department of State, that some of the authorities were desirous for a cessation of hostilities, and that others might be reconciled to an adjustment—that the Exscutive despatched an agent on the 25th of July to Vera Cruz, with authority to the Commodore that he should enter that pers under the protection of a flag of truce with the proposals."

RETURN OF OUR MINISTER AT LONDON. We learn that Mr McLane had engaged his passage in the Steamer to leave Liverpool on the 19th inst. for Boston.

MINISTER TO RUSSIA. RALPH J. INGERSOLL of Connecticut, has received the appointment of Minister to Russia.

GRAHAM's majority in this County is 520 votes, and wo Whigs are elected to the House of Commons .-In reference to this result, the "Standard" said in

" We are glad to learn that Col. William D. Jones and Newton Coleman, Esq., both Democrats, will run for the Commons in Buncombe County. is indeed cheering. If our friends in Buncombe take the field, what will not the Democracy of other Counties do? Will the Democrats in any County now hold back? We hope not Every thing is now favorable to our success at the August Elections; and we again most respectfully call upon our friends in to permit no County in the State to go uncanvassed.

THERE'S MANY A SLIP, &c.

A letter to the " Norfolk Herald," from Elizabeth City, gives the following humorous account of the election of Senator from Camden and Currituck :

"No greater triumph will or can be achieved in this State by the Whigs, than the election of Mr. Barnard in this District-a District which has been epresented by a Loco since the union of the two Counties. It astonishes both parties. Thus far gloriously-but our glory stops not here; the cup is not yet filled-Carrituck sends to legislate for her in the lower House, a man who ran as an Independent, a man whom the leaders of the Locofoco party, both proved and placarded to be a Whig in principle-a man who has supported the Whig ticket for the last two or three years—a man in whom the Whigs have the fullest confidence as a supporter of their measures -a men in whom the Locos have not a hope. So confident were the Locos of having a Senator from the Counties of Camden and Currituck, that a Ball was gotten up at Indian Town in honor of their triumph—the guests there—the candles lighted—the tables spread—the music in readiness and waiting only for the glorious news and triumphant return of their Candidate, for the Ball to commence-The moments grew weary-yet time that solves all mysteries and shews to man the end, alike of his hope or his sorrews, shewed to them the object of their wish-but in his countenance was written-" Wo! wo! is me"-The Ball was stopped. When this news reached here, added to that from Chowan, one of our leading Locos was heard to exclaim-We are badly beaten and shall not have a Senator from the Atlantic to Martin County.

GEN. SCOTT.

The Editors of the National Intelligencer have seen a letter from an intelligent officer of the army to a friend in Washington, which says Gen. Scorr's culculations for opening the campaign against the interior of Mexico are considered, in a high military quarter, as already proven to be sound and judicious. The writer adds, that I'e Kentucky and Tennersee sable, are not likely to reach the Rio Grande before dener, the art of the ment and Total Ab the middle of October.

Mr. Gates: I git down to-night, to give the public, through the Register, some information of the great Race which came off over the Person Course, on Thursday, the 6th insta with some description of the Nags in the field, the weight they carried, leagth of time in the field, the steeds drawn, &c. &c. You are aware, that Hester and Conningham were entitled to the field, as they had been the victors in the last race; consequently, they led off at May Court, (Hester in the Senate and Cunningham in the Commons,) without opposition. June Court rolled on, and they again made their appearance with another flourish, throwing all the Rail Roads, Swamp Lands and Cherokee Bonds on the backs of the Whigs. JAMES HOLEMAN followed, and showed that in these things the Democrats were at least as deep in the mud as the Whigs were in the mire, and notified them, that they might have opposition the 4th of July. Well, sir, the 4th arrived, and after consultation, we,

(the Whigs) concluded that the Democrats were 100 strong for us, and could not get a Nag to enter the ver Spencer, [W.] Gibbs, [W.] Sheriff, over Brooks, field, until we found one in the person of Col. WM.
Loco.

R. Reade, a cold unitied and untrained, who reinctantly took the field for the Commons; then, after much persunsion. John Barserr for the Senate. 1 had forgotten to say, that Squite Jacobs (Loco) entercontest commenced.

Well, now for the Race, which commenced in Conningham's District. Hester and Barnet, both large and likely nags, well tried and trained, made a noble start, and seemed to be running hip and thigh, until throw two handred thousand dollars worth of a waren

Now for the Commons. You are aware, perhaps, that the Locos have heretofore had the advantage in Person, of more than two one. I have stated that the Race commenced on Conningham's own ground. Well, sir, him and Reade made a start. Countryham led off with a flowe-h, that seemed to make Reade qual in that strong hold of Loco Focusin, for he seemed to had demance to all opposition. Reads ing over the hills made a feeble start, but after rung of Hygo, brashing over the plans of Sudom, naviga-ting the waters of Double Creeks & Bushy Fork, and getting on to the waters of Flat River, where the soil is more congenial to the Whies. Reade began to throw dust in his eyes, which gave us hope that he would run out ahead, in fact many of the Locos had given it up.) But we, knowing that Reade was inexperienced on the torf, and fearing a defeat, reiested him to give up the field to James Holeman He unswered, that he had reluctantly entered the contest, at the call of his County-men, and, at their solicitation, he would cheerfully give it up, although the race was half through, and he had been over the roughest of the track.

Holeman gladly took the field, and with an easy air conducted the residue of the context in a masterly manner. Hoternan is a noble fellow, as the run in made will show. He overcame the large Loco Fo co majority in Person, and ran out 28 feet ahead of his competitor!! We also show a difference of over 200 votes in Granan's favor from the last election!

Now, sir, will not you, and the Whigs, generally join me in propossing three cheers to: good old Person A PERSON WHIG.

[Yes-three times three, with all our heart-Hip, hip, hip-Hurkan!!! -- Eo. Rea.

HOW SHALL WE ACCOUNT FOR IT! You know, Mr. Editor, that we took no active part in the late stimpy contest in our State, nor had we any inclination to do so; but since the election couflict is over, we will, with your permission, express our wonder! It is this; the very large proportion of he Clergy, for which North Carolina has just cause to be praid, who prefer the principles of the Whigs to those of the Democratic party. Most of those legates of the ekics," of both parties. I am happy to believe, have been too discreet to soil their high commission with political contests. A few days since, we assured a worthy Democratic Minister that we were seriously in quest of information, when we inquired of him in a friendly way, if he did not believe that three-fourths of the Ministers of the Gospel in our State, were in favor of Whig principles? He unhesitatingly asswered he believed they were. As neither of us were disposed to discuss politics, we merely asked him how it was that so many voted centrary to the known opinions of such a large ma-jority of pious men, so much better informed than themselves? He replied that "informed persons were as liable to be wrong in their politics as were the uninformed," and there we dropped the subject. Now. who, in his sober conscience, can seriously believe that an educated and well informed. Monster can be all quarters to bring forward their strongest men, and as liable to err in such matters, as an unlettered and uninformed laity? Is there the most remote probability that such a Minister is as hable to err? a preposterous idea, it seems to us, should be spurned > learned or unlearned. Will you, Mr. Editor, please to inform us in few words, how you think we can come at the solution of this political riddle? S. Can we for a moment suspect a Minister of

SENATOR MANGUM.

The following high tribute and testimonials to the listinguished ability and character of Hon. Willer P. Manden, will be read with pride and pleasure by every North Carolinian :

We cordially unite with the Philadelphia North American in the following tribute to the able and distinguished Senator from North Carolina, whose re-election to the office he now so ably fills will be hailed with delight by the Whigs throughout the Union :-- Alexandria Gazette.

The Philadelphia North American notices this gentleman in the following complimentary manner, which we endorse with all our heart:

Petersburg Intelligencer.

" It may be doubted whether our councils boast a more faithful, fearless and efficient champion of the right, than Mr. Maugum of the Senate. His course has won the heart of the country. Throughout the ession, one of the most momentous in our annals, he has been among the foremost in the assertion of sound principles and the advocacy of just measures; and thile he has maintained with chivalris fidelity, the interests of the South, he has done hadice to all section of our common country. Our national councilcan boast of no purer patriot, no sounder statesman, and no better man. We trust that North Carolina. honoring one who is an honor to her, will long make the nation her debtor by giving to the Federal Senate so clear a head and so pure a heart as that of a Mangum. #### DALLAS ON THE TARIFF.

In 1844, during the Whig gampaign, a speech, containing the following extract, was deliverd by tice. M. Dallas, at the door of his house in Philadelphia, to a Loce Foco procession, on the evening after the Presidential election :

" Gentlemen-The Tariff of '42 is a Democratic measure: it was passed by the Democrats, and it will be safe in the hands of James K Polk."

And the following verse was quite a popular one in Pennsylvania, during the same campaign. Am _" Lucy Neal."

Oh poor Cooney Whigs.

What makes you look so bine?

We will have Polk and Dallas,
And the TARIFF of '42. Shame! where is thy blush?

The two parties in Orange have been nearly equally balanced for years past, and they have ely triumphed by small majorities. In 1840 the Whigs elected four out of the members of the Legislature; in '42 they elected but one; not stick. Notwithstanding the ease that Hester (and damey in Grange. There can be but lattle doubt.
