EVENING BESSION In the evening, the discussion was resumed. Mr. Neal, of Rockingham, made a long and labored speech in defence of the President, and in justifica-tion of the War. He was followed by Mr. Waddell, of Chatham, who made a few remarks and related an incident, which occurred during the days of the Revolution, illustrative of the position of the Democrats in the House. During the Revolution, there was situated in this State a certain "Dogwood Tree," on which the Tories were in the habit of hanging Whigs whenever they were caught. One day Capt. Cleaveland, who had a small company of patriots, caught one of those Tories, who had been committing so many outrages upon the Whigs, and had him taken to this same "Dogwood Tree"-where, after he made at the Court House in this City, on Monday next, To incorporate the Orapeake Canal and Turnpike | all kinds of protestations and cries for mercy, he was doomed to expiate his crime. He said the Democrats A Resolution in faver of Spier Whitaker and James in Congress had erected a "Dogwood Tree," on which they hung the Whigs; and now that they had been caught napping, the Whigs were determined to retaliate upon them.

Mr. Hall, of New Hanover, spoke against the Preamble.

He was followed by Mr. Walser, who made a good Speech, as he always does, in favor of the Preamble and Resolution.

Mr. Brogden, of Wayne, next took the floor, and attempted to prove that Daniel Webster was anti-American in his principles.

Mr. Rayner, of Hertford, followed, and made a bility, pass the Commons. powerful and eloquent Speech in defence of the Preamble; at the conclusion of which,

Mr. Flemming, of Yancy, took the floor and talked for about three hours-occasionally giving way for Mr. Patterson presented the following Preamble a motion to adjourn. About 10 o'clock, amidst a scene of great confusion, the House adjourned until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

SENATE .- SATURDAY, January, 9, 1847. MR. BARNES' SPEECH.

We invite the attention of the reader, to the beautifulty chaste and patriotic Speech of Mr. BARNES, contained in this paper.

We are gratified to state that the Bill, giving authority to the Petersburg Rail Road Company, to subscribe $500,000 to the extension of our Rail Roads, South, has passed the Senate, and will, in all probe-

"AID AND COMFORT."

We are truly gratified to announce, that the Whig Preamble and Resolution, appropriating $10,000 for the equipment and maintenance of our Volunteer Regiment, have passed both Houses, and been duly ratified. The Locos endeavored to stave off the vote, by talking against time-professing great willingness to vote for the appropriation, and yet trying to prevent a vote being taken upon it. As is always Press and a Font of Type. Now, it is not right CONCERT FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE DEAF AND DUMB.

We are happy to announce, that there will be a Vocal and Instrumental Concert, held in the Presbyterian Church, on Wednesday evening, the 13th inst. under the conduct of Mr. WM. D. COOKE, with a select number of Singers and Players. We would be glad to make such an announcement every month in the year, and every week during the Winter .-For surely there is no recreation more refining and purifying to the morals of a Community-there is nothing that so soothes the spirits, calms the feelings, or delights the whole soul, (after the hurry, and agitations, and fatigue of a hard week's work.) as drinking in the strains of good Music. How could we spend our long winter evenings better ? But when we learned the object of this Concert we confess we felt a far deeper interest in it than others have excited. Here, there is a two-fold motive to attend, set before the public : one, of a most purely benevolent character; the other, the most purely gratifying and delightful. Now let any one, who has had the least pretensions to benevolence, or to that which has so appropriately and beautifully been termed "The Dialect of Heaven," stay away if you see, unlike our amiable sister, Philadelphia, we are making some little progress in public order, albeit our good City is governed by a Locofoco Mayor and Common Council! The weather was most delightful, and the temperature of the atmosphere and lastly, Mr. John W. Syme, Editor of the Intelli- might, for its balmy sweetness, and refreshing influence upon one's spirits, have rivalled the sunniest day in June. The good old Knickerbocker custom of "visiting" was duly observed by our citizens, who in doors and out, generally welcomed the "happy new year," with smilling faces and mutual congratuhations. In the morning, many of our Churches were thrown open for public worship, and in the evening every place of public amusement was thronged by the young and old, the gay and the sedate, the merry hughing girl and the care-worn sire of threeleast, a forgetfulness of the cures of the past year. | Teacher, is too well known to the public to require and according a joyful welcome to its new-born suc-CENSOT.
