

THE ROUTE FROM VERA CRUZ TO MEXICO.

SCOTT'S MARCH ON THE CAPITAL. As all probability, Gen. Scott, with an army of 10,000 men, will have to march from Vera Cruz and distant terms of peace in the Capital of Mexico...

Before the invasion by Gen. Scott, there was a line of stages (made of trees, &c.) which were used for carrying goods and passengers...

The first part of the road along the beach is extremely heavy, the animals sinking in the mud on every step; at about three miles begins the ascent of a sandy hill...

About ten miles from Vera Cruz is a stream 200 yards wide, crossed at a ferry in scows, or by swimming horses over. Santa Fe is 15 miles from Vera Cruz...

The road is a good one, and the animals sink in the mud on every step; at about three miles begins the ascent of a sandy hill...

The next stream, about thirty miles from Vera Cruz, is fordable, and is also spanned by a bridge called Puente del Rey...

There are here only a few houses and a small chapel, remarkable for their antiquity; the site is ungenially picturesque...

A portion of the road we have gone over before breakfast must not seem uninteresting; many places very deep valleys have been filled up...

From Del Rio to Casero, 17 miles. This is the longest, 3000 ft. above the sea, is the limit of yellow fever...

From Del Rio to Casero, 17 miles. This is the longest, 3000 ft. above the sea, is the limit of yellow fever...

From Del Rio to Casero, 17 miles. This is the longest, 3000 ft. above the sea, is the limit of yellow fever...

From Del Rio to Casero, 17 miles. This is the longest, 3000 ft. above the sea, is the limit of yellow fever...

From Del Rio to Casero, 17 miles. This is the longest, 3000 ft. above the sea, is the limit of yellow fever...

From Del Rio to Casero, 17 miles. This is the longest, 3000 ft. above the sea, is the limit of yellow fever...

From Del Rio to Casero, 17 miles. This is the longest, 3000 ft. above the sea, is the limit of yellow fever...

From Del Rio to Casero, 17 miles. This is the longest, 3000 ft. above the sea, is the limit of yellow fever...

From Del Rio to Casero, 17 miles. This is the longest, 3000 ft. above the sea, is the limit of yellow fever...

From Del Rio to Casero, 17 miles. This is the longest, 3000 ft. above the sea, is the limit of yellow fever...

From Del Rio to Casero, 17 miles. This is the longest, 3000 ft. above the sea, is the limit of yellow fever...

From Del Rio to Casero, 17 miles. This is the longest, 3000 ft. above the sea, is the limit of yellow fever...

From Del Rio to Casero, 17 miles. This is the longest, 3000 ft. above the sea, is the limit of yellow fever...

From Del Rio to Casero, 17 miles. This is the longest, 3000 ft. above the sea, is the limit of yellow fever...

From Del Rio to Casero, 17 miles. This is the longest, 3000 ft. above the sea, is the limit of yellow fever...

From Del Rio to Casero, 17 miles. This is the longest, 3000 ft. above the sea, is the limit of yellow fever...

From Del Rio to Casero, 17 miles. This is the longest, 3000 ft. above the sea, is the limit of yellow fever...

From Del Rio to Casero, 17 miles. This is the longest, 3000 ft. above the sea, is the limit of yellow fever...

From Del Rio to Casero, 17 miles. This is the longest, 3000 ft. above the sea, is the limit of yellow fever...

From Del Rio to Casero, 17 miles. This is the longest, 3000 ft. above the sea, is the limit of yellow fever...

LETTER FROM MR. CLAY.

The New York Tribune publishes an interesting correspondence between Mr. Schenck, Chairman of a Committee of the Whigs of Auburn, N. Y., and the Honorable HENRY CLAY...

"That the Chair will be more honorably filled than the Executive Chair of the Nation at the present time, if the same shall be received and occupied by the Signer of Ashland, there are few to deny."

"Sir, I have no language adequate for the expression of my regret at the unexpected and disastrous result of the last Presidential canvass; yet as no of the great variety of the best fruits of Europe...

"The public police would be in the estimation of the great variety of the best fruits of Europe...

"In surveying the acts of his entire administration, there can be found but little to approve; yet there are in illustrations of the wisdom of your policy, and the jeopardy of his disregard."

"My Dear Sir:—During my absence from home, to which I lately returned from New Orleans, your official letter of the 22d Feb. has accompanied me...

"For our common country, I do regret the issue of the contest. Had it been otherwise, we should have preserved the Protective Policy, under which we had made such rapid and encouraging advances...

"I am, Sir, your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

THE ILLUMINATIONS.

As generally interesting, we put together a number of paragraphs describing remarkable displays on the nights of the illuminations in Philadelphia and Baltimore.

PHILADELPHIA. From the Evening Bulletin of Tuesday, we extract the following: Philadelphia will long remember the illumination of last evening as the most splendid, tasteful and patriotic affair ever witnessed here.

The city and the districts were in a blaze of light, and a more general and glorious compliment to the illustrious leader of a small but chivalrous and daring army, cannot well be imagined.

The Hall of Independence was illuminated at every point, and called forth the liveliest expressions of applause from the numerous spectators.

The Custom House presented a very interesting spectacle. Copper gas pipes had been attached to the building at the rear of the pillars in front of the pipes, being hand-screwed into semi-circles between the pillars, and each supporting a large star, containing reflecting glass, gave out twenty jets of light, and six of the stars thirty.

Immediately adjoining the Ledger building, a magnificent transparency of about twenty five by eighteen feet, covered the whole front of the building and the two upper stories.

A transparency in the second story of the building at the corner of Seventh and Chestnut, called forth the merriest humor of the gay thousands that pressed and repressed it in the course of the evening.

Most Excellent Sir—The North American buildings attracted a great deal of attention and remark. The front was covered with a large transparency, illustrating the chain of our troops at Buena Vista.

The United States Gazette Office made a fine item in the general glare-up. Flags were strung across Dock street, and the front of this building was ornamented by a large picture of Taylor and his horse, on both sides of which were smaller transparencies.

Baltimore. Barnum's Hotel attracted all eyes. Every window in this immense building was illuminated upwards of twenty seven hundred lights being used for the purpose.

The "Patric" office was festooned with flags, and lighted up brilliantly in every part. Two transparencies were displayed—on with Gen. Taylor on his white charger, and the other with

LETTER FROM MR. CLAY.

The New York Tribune publishes an interesting correspondence between Mr. Schenck, Chairman of a Committee of the Whigs of Auburn, N. Y., and the Honorable HENRY CLAY...

"That the Chair will be more honorably filled than the Executive Chair of the Nation at the present time, if the same shall be received and occupied by the Signer of Ashland, there are few to deny."

"Sir, I have no language adequate for the expression of my regret at the unexpected and disastrous result of the last Presidential canvass; yet as no of the great variety of the best fruits of Europe...

"The public police would be in the estimation of the great variety of the best fruits of Europe...

"In surveying the acts of his entire administration, there can be found but little to approve; yet there are in illustrations of the wisdom of your policy, and the jeopardy of his disregard."

"My Dear Sir:—During my absence from home, to which I lately returned from New Orleans, your official letter of the 22d Feb. has accompanied me...

"For our common country, I do regret the issue of the contest. Had it been otherwise, we should have preserved the Protective Policy, under which we had made such rapid and encouraging advances...

"I am, Sir, your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

"Your friend and obedient servant, HENRY CLAY."

THE ILLUMINATIONS.

As generally interesting, we put together a number of paragraphs describing remarkable displays on the nights of the illuminations in Philadelphia and Baltimore.

PHILADELPHIA. From the Evening Bulletin of Tuesday, we extract the following: Philadelphia will long remember the illumination of last evening as the most splendid, tasteful and patriotic affair ever witnessed here.

The city and the districts were in a blaze of light, and a more general and glorious compliment to the illustrious leader of a small but chivalrous and daring army, cannot well be imagined.

The Hall of Independence was illuminated at every point, and called forth the liveliest expressions of applause from the numerous spectators.

The Custom House presented a very interesting spectacle. Copper gas pipes had been attached to the building at the rear of the pillars in front of the pipes, being hand-screwed into semi-circles between the pillars, and each supporting a large star, containing reflecting glass, gave out twenty jets of light, and six of the stars thirty.

Immediately adjoining the Ledger building, a magnificent transparency of about twenty five by eighteen feet, covered the whole front of the building and the two upper stories.

A transparency in the second story of the building at the corner of Seventh and Chestnut, called forth the merriest humor of the gay thousands that pressed and repressed it in the course of the evening.

Most Excellent Sir—The North American buildings attracted a great deal of attention and remark. The front was covered with a large transparency, illustrating the chain of our troops at Buena Vista.

The United States Gazette Office made a fine item in the general glare-up. Flags were strung across Dock street, and the front of this building was ornamented by a large picture of Taylor and his horse, on both sides of which were smaller transparencies.

Baltimore. Barnum's Hotel attracted all eyes. Every window in this immense building was illuminated upwards of twenty seven hundred lights being used for the purpose.

The "Patric" office was festooned with flags, and lighted up brilliantly in every part. Two transparencies were displayed—on with Gen. Taylor on his white charger, and the other with

STRAYED.

From the Subscriber, living near Shady Grove Meeting House, about 21 miles South-west of Raleigh, on the night of the 5th inst. a BAY MARE, 3 years old, with a white blaze on her forehead, and both hind feet white; a small star in the forehead, almost in the shape of the letter S, about 4 1/2 feet high, with a very long tail. Any information respecting the same, addressed to me at Holly Springs, Wake County, will be thankfully received, or if any person will deliver her to me, they shall be reasonably compensated.

DAVID OLIVE. Wake Co. April 23. 33 wif

Attention! Justices of Wake. WAKE COUNTY—Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, February Term, 1847. It is ordered that the Clerk of this Court advertise in two or more newspapers, printed in the City of Raleigh, that the Court will proceed to the election of three or more Justices of the Peace, as a Special Court at the next May Term, if a majority of the Magistrates agree thereto. And all the Justices of the Peace of said County are requested to attend on Monday of that Term for that purpose. By order of the Court. JAS T. MARRIOTT, Clerk.

March 1847. STRAYED OR STOLEN, FROM the Subscriber, on the 7th inst. a Dark Bay Mare, about 7 years old—about 14 hands high with a white star on her forehead; fore-top unusually long; has a very quick walk. This Mare came to this State in a Tennessee drove. I would thankfully receive any intelligence of her, or reasonably reward any person who will deliver her to me at Hookerton, Greene County, N. C. April 14, 1847. JNO. A. MOORE. 21-4w

$25 Reward. I WILL give the above reward for the apprehension and delivery of a negro boy by the name of JOE, who absconded from a negro about the first of this month, or Fifteen Dollars for the confinement of him in any jail so that I can get him. Joe is black and quite likely, probably about 15 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 8 inches high, and very slender; will weigh about one hundred and forty or fifty pounds; he will no doubt try to make his way to a free State; he may have free papers, and try to pass himself off for one of the people. He may attempt to pass in woman's clothing, as his wife is a free woman. If he has her free papers, or if his wife is with him, she may pretend to have a title for him, as I am informed he pretends to have. There are a great many free persons of color by the name of Joe in this vicinity, and probably he has procured some of their free papers. C. N. WHITE. Oneard, April 23, 1847. 31-1f

COMMON SCHOOLS. THE President and Directors of the Literary Fund have ordered that the sum of FORTY THOUSAND DOLLARS, be forthwith distributed among the several Counties of the State, according to Federal population, in part of the net income of the School Fund for the current year. And the Comptroller of Public Accounts will draw Warrants accordingly. W. L. A. GRAHAM, Pres't, ex off. of Literary Board. April 22, 1847. 33

STATE OF North Carolina—CAROLINA COUNTY. Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, February Term, 1847. Henry G. Cutler vs. David W. Borden. Original Attachment levied on Five Hundred Acres of Land on Core Creek, the property of David W. Borden. In appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the debtors are not an inhabitant of this State; it is therefore ordered that publication be made in the Raleigh Register for six weeks, notifying the absent debtor before the Wombisil Justices of said Court, to be held for the County of Carteret, at the Court House in Beaufort, on the third Monday in May next, then and there to plead, or demur to the Plaintiff's allegation, or judgment will be rendered against him. DAVID RUMLEY, Clerk. April 17, 1847. (Pr. Adv. $6 25) 28 6w

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA—JONES COUNTY. Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, February Term, 1847. Jacob A. Stevens, et al. vs. Rachel Lockart, et al. In this case, it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that Rachel Lockart, Sally Wright, and the other Heirs of Polly Verrell, are non-residents of this State; it is therefore ordered, that publication be made in the Raleigh Register for six weeks, notifying said non-residents to appear at the next Term of said Court, to be held for the County of Johnston, at the Court House in Smithfield, on the 4th Monday in May next, then and there to show cause, if any they have, why the petitioners' petition should not be granted; otherwise, judgment will be taken pro confesso, and the petitioners' heirs partitioned. Wm. Thomas Bagley, Clerk of said Court at Smithfield, the 13th of March, 1847. THOS. BAGLEY, Clerk. Pr. Adv. $5 25. 27-5w

STATE OF North Carolina—FRANKLIN COUNTY. Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions—March Term, 1847. To Benjamin Jones, Kemp Baker and Patrick's heirs, the Children of William Jones, deceased, Charles Pugham and Elizabeth's heirs, the Children of James Abner Greenwood and Sally his wife, James Jones and Patience his wife, the Children of William Cook and his wife Lucy, deceased, and William L. Stacy, as well as to all other persons whom it may concern: Whereas, a certain paper writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of Drury Jones, late of said County of Franklin, deceased, in open Court has been propounded for probate in execution, by Samuel Harris, therein named as Executor, to-wit, at the March Term of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions for the County of Franklin aforesaid; and whereas, it has been represented to the said Court, that you are of the next of kin of the said Drury Jones, and reside beyond the limits of this State; you are therefore hereby notified, in pursuance of an order of the said Court, made at the said Court, to be held for the said County of Franklin, in the Town of Louisa, on the second Monday of June next, and then and there to show cause, (if any you have), why the said paper writing should not be deemed to be a valid will and testament of the said Drury Jones, and be admitted to probate and ordered to be recorded as such. Witness, Young Patterson, Clerk of said Court, at Office in said Town of Louisa, the second Monday of March, 1847. YOUNG PATTERSON, C. C. Pr. Adv. $4. 24-1w

FOR SALE. THIS OFFICE, a few bound copies of the following Reports, Bills, Resolutions, &c. ordered to be printed—Price $2. April 23, 1847.

DEATH OF A DISTINGUISHED CITIZEN.

FRANCE CHARLES LUSTIG, a Frenchman, died at the residence of Jefferson in this State, on Thursday last, the 18th of March, at the age of 70 years.

He was the son of Joseph and Caroline Bonaparte Murat, King of Joachim and Napoleon, the sister of the Emperor, and the latter, a sister of the Imperial Emperor. After the expulsion of Augustus until 1821, Prince Murat resided in this country, and subsequently selected a place of residence in Florida, where he has since spent the most of his days in all the quiet and retirement of a country gentleman.—Sentinel.

We are badly beaten and more surprised. However, it will be our time next; and then we'll "GIVE 'EM THE LICK!" News Reporter.

Agreed—We are pleased to find that our neighbor has got on the right track so early. We are any time.—Petersburg Intelligencer.

Tallahassee, April 20. DEATH OF A DISTINGUISHED CITIZEN. FRANCE CHARLES LUSTIG, a Frenchman, died at the residence of Jefferson in this State, on Thursday last, the 18th of March, at the age of 70 years.

He was the son of Joseph and Caroline Bonaparte Murat, King of Joachim and Napoleon, the sister of the Emperor, and the latter, a sister of the Imperial Emperor. After the expulsion of Augustus until 1821, Prince Murat resided in this country, and subsequently selected a place of residence in Florida, where he has since spent the most of his days in all the quiet and retirement of a country gentleman.—Sentinel.

We are badly beaten and more surprised. However, it will be our time next; and then we'll "GIVE 'EM THE LICK!" News Reporter.

Agreed—We are pleased to find that our neighbor has got on the right track so early. We are any time.—Petersburg Intelligencer.

Tallahassee, April 20. DEATH OF A DISTINGUISHED CITIZEN. FRANCE CHARLES LUSTIG, a Frenchman, died at the residence of Jefferson in this State, on Thursday last, the 18th of March, at the age of 70 years.

He was the son of Joseph and Caroline Bonaparte Murat, King of Joachim and Napoleon, the sister of the Emperor, and the latter, a sister of the Imperial Emperor. After the expulsion of Augustus until 1821, Prince Murat resided in this country, and subsequently selected a place of residence in Florida, where he has since spent the most of his days in all the quiet and retirement of a country gentleman.—Sentinel.

We are badly beaten and more surprised. However, it will be our time next; and then we'll "GIVE 'EM THE LICK!" News Reporter.

Agreed—We are pleased to find that our neighbor has got on the right track so early. We are any time.—Petersburg Intelligencer.

Tallahassee, April 20. DEATH OF A DISTINGUISHED CITIZEN. FRANCE CHARLES LUSTIG, a Frenchman, died at the residence of Jefferson in this State, on Thursday last, the 18th of March, at the age of 70 years.

He was the son of Joseph and Caroline Bonaparte Murat, King of Joachim and Napoleon, the sister of the Emperor, and the latter, a sister of the Imperial Emperor. After the expulsion of Augustus until 1821, Prince Murat resided in this country, and subsequently selected a place of residence in Florida, where he has since spent the most of his days in all the quiet and retirement of a country gentleman.—Sentinel.

We are badly beaten and more surprised. However, it will be our time next; and then we'll "GIVE 'EM THE LICK!" News Reporter.

Agreed—We are pleased to find that our neighbor has got on the right track so early. We are any time.—Petersburg Intelligencer.

Tallahassee, April 20. DEATH OF A DISTINGUISHED CITIZEN. FRANCE CHARLES LUSTIG, a Frenchman, died at the residence of Jefferson in this State, on Thursday last, the 18th of March, at the age of 70 years.

He was the son of Joseph and Caroline Bonaparte Murat, King of Joachim and Napoleon, the sister of the Emperor, and the latter, a sister of the Imperial Emperor. After the expulsion of Augustus until 1821, Prince Murat resided in this country, and subsequently selected a place of residence in Florida, where he has since spent the most of his days in all the quiet and retirement of a country gentleman.—Sentinel.

We are badly beaten and more surprised. However, it will be our time next; and then we'll "GIVE 'EM THE LICK!" News Reporter.

Agreed—We are pleased to find that our neighbor has got on the right track so early. We are any time.—Petersburg Intelligencer.

Tallahassee, April 20. DEATH OF A DISTINGUISHED CITIZEN. FRANCE CHARLES LUSTIG, a Frenchman, died at the residence of Jefferson in this State, on Thursday last, the 18th of March, at the age of 70 years.

He was the son of Joseph and Caroline Bonaparte Murat, King of Joachim and Napoleon, the sister of the Emperor, and the latter, a sister of the Imperial Emperor. After the expulsion of Augustus until 1821, Prince Murat resided in this country, and subsequently selected a place of residence in Florida, where he has since spent the most of his days in all the quiet and retirement of a country gentleman.—Sentinel.

We are badly beaten and more surprised. However, it will be our time next; and then we'll "GIVE 'EM THE LICK!" News Reporter.

Agreed—We are pleased to find that our neighbor has got on the right track so early. We are any time.—Petersburg Intelligencer.

Tallahassee, April 20. DEATH OF A DISTINGUISHED CITIZEN. FRANCE CHARLES LUSTIG, a Frenchman, died at the residence of Jefferson in this State, on Thursday last, the 18th of March, at the age of 70 years.

He was the son of Joseph and Caroline Bonaparte Murat, King of Joachim and Napoleon, the sister of the Emperor, and the latter, a sister of the Imperial Emperor. After the expulsion of Augustus until 1821, Prince Murat resided in this country, and subsequently selected a place of residence in Florida, where he has since spent the most of his days in all the quiet and retirement of a country gentleman.—Sentinel.

We are badly beaten and more surprised. However, it will be our time next; and then we'll "GIVE 'EM THE LICK!" News Reporter.

Agreed—We are pleased to find that our neighbor has got on the right track so early. We are any time.—Petersburg Intelligencer.

Tallahassee, April 20. DEATH OF A DISTINGUISHED CITIZEN. FRANCE CHARLES LUSTIG, a Frenchman, died at the residence of Jefferson in this State, on Thursday last, the 18th of March, at the age of 70 years.

He was the son of Joseph and Caroline Bonaparte Murat, King of Joachim and Napoleon, the sister of the Emperor, and the latter, a sister of the Imperial Emperor. After the expulsion of Augustus until 1821, Prince Murat resided in this country, and subsequently selected a place of residence in Florida, where he has since spent the most of his days in all the quiet and retirement of a country gentleman.—Sentinel.