CONGRESSIONAL CAMPAIGN.

We have received from a Spectator, a very graphic account of the Debate at Oxford, last week, between Mesers KERR and VENABLE, which we will publish with pleasure on Friday.

> GLORIOUS VICTORY. BATTLE OF CERRO GORDO

We lay before our readers, in this paper, the dosmile of the glorious victory at the famous pass of Cerro Gordo, forty miles from Vera Cruz. It would appear that Gen. Scorr can do other things in a hurry, as well as take "a hasty plate of Soup." It will be seen, that Santa Anna was completely routed. and that, notwithstanding his boasting beforehand, he actually made his escape on a Mulr, in a most cowardly manner, leaving his mooden leg behind !

As usual, with our brave Soldiers and Officers, the loss has been great. We do hope that this battle will have the effect of "conquering a Peace."

ASTROBOLISM

This is the term used by Astronomers, to signify that a Star has been blasted, or stricken out. By reference to a Letter in this paper, from the Hen THOMAS H. BENTON, to the Oregonites, it will be seen that he has completely Astrobolized the great Star of the South, Joun C. CALHOUN, and cast him into non-entity-or at least, made him nothing but a "fire-brand." This is truly an awful calamity for the South, and must be watched, or, in these dry times, this "fire-brand" might fail amongst our plantations, and burn up all our "niggers"! Scary

THE RESULT IN VIRGINIA.

Assuming that the Hon. Mr. Fulton is elected to Congress in the "Little Tennessee" District, and that the Hon. Mr. McComas is elected in the Kanawha District, (of which there is some doubt.) the Virginia Delegation stands, seven Whigs, seven Locefoces, and one vacancy, occasioned by the death of Gen. DROMGOOLE.

The confident prediction of the Editor of the "Union," (A gentleman presumed to know something about the politics of Virginia.) that the delegation would number as many as twelve Locofocos, is thus blown to the winds, and with it his other prediction, deeply grateful to my fellow-citizens of the Counties of Franklin, Granville and Warren, who composed have a majority of at least ten in the next National

In the Legislature, we have gained—in Louise 1. Dinwiddie 1. Gloucester 1, Elizabeth City and Warwick 1. Buckingham 1. Greenbrier 1, Franklin 2, Fauquier 1, Henry 1, Montgomery 1, Floyd 1, Monroe 1, Giles and Mercer 1, Patrick 1, Cabell and Wayne 1, Braxton and Lewis 1, and Pendleton 1-Total 18.

We have lost-Accomac 2, Culpepper 1, Charlotte 1, Monongalia 1, Harrison 1, and the Caroline Senator-Total 7.

Clear Whig gain eleven (not ten, as accidentally stated before) - which wipes out the Democratic majority of 22 in the last Legislature.

HON. DANIEL WEBSTER.

The visit of this distinguished Statesman to the South, we feel assured, has no connection with politics or President making; and the people seem to understand this, for, every where, the whole population unite in doing honor to one, who has added to our National reputation abroad. The opening passage of his Speech at Richmond, expresses very clearly and truly, as we believe, the objects of his mission South. We subjoin it:

" Before I proceed to make any remarks in answer to the sentiment that has been given, you will allow me to say that I am for the first time hoping to make a visit among my fellow-citizens of the Southern States. Owing to the circumstance that at the sea-sons suitable for such a visit, my duties have confined me elsewhere, I have been no traveller in my own country. When I pass the James River I shall be beyond all my previous journeyings and undertakings. I am desirous to endeavor to see a portion of the country I have never yet seen; to travel, to see the people in the most uncoremonious, freest monner, in which fellow-citizens may meet and interchange civilities. It is not my purpose to make any tour for addressing multitudes, or discussing political questions. There is but little of me; that little is well known. I have no new lights, and don't belong to the school of new lights. I am pleased to meet so many persons in this growing and beautiful City, to see their faces and show mine, and exchange with them the sentiments and feelings that belong to men of the same generation and the same country. Such, too, was the character of the few remarks he made i this City. Our reception of him in North Carolina, it is true, was quiet and unpretending, but we have reason to believe it was that sort of unobtrusive reception that he desired, and me know, he was pleased with his sojourn at Raleigh. His grave simplicity of character, and unpretending manner, took amazingly with our people, and has made him, wherever he has travelled, one of the most popular, as he has always been, one of the most distinguished of American Statesmen.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.

The result of the recent Election in Virginia, renders it certain that the Whigs will have the as-cendancy in the next House of Representatives. Already twenty States have voted, and the result is the choice of 88 Whigs and 69 Locos, leaving eight

To WILLIAM DALLAS HATWOOD

The following correspondence shows, that the President of the United States, and one of his Cabinet, have accepted invitations to visit the University Mayor of Raleigh : next June, to attend Commencement, when he will leave Washington, arrive at Gaston, and Raleigh, and at Chapel Hill, in all probability.

To His Excellency. James K. Polk,

President of the United States:

Dear Sin:—The newspapers have announced that you have accepted of invitations to visit the University of North Carolina at the next Commencement, to be at that institution in June next. And your fellow-citizens hail with delight, the coming among us of the Chief Magistrate of the nation, and the us of the Chief Magistrate of the nation, and the more especially as you are a native of the State and a graduate of our University. Influenced by these considerations, the citizens of Franklin, Gradulle, and Warren, have held a meeting at Henderson, without distinction of party, and appointed the undersigned a committee to receive you at Gaston, which is near the State line, to tender to you the heavitablishes of the State line, to tender to you the hospitalities of the State, and to attend you in your progress to the University. With the best feelings we approach you through the medium of this communication, and ask you to in-form us at what time you will reach Gaston, that we may know when we may have the pleasure to meet you there. The mail train leaves Gas-ton in the night, but the train which will re-ceive you and your saite, will not leave Gaston till next morning after breakfast, suited to your pleasure, and which will carry you to Raleigh by day-light. Hoping to hear from you, and to be notified of your contemplated movements, we subscribe our-

The following letter was addressed to the Secre tary of the Navy, the Hon. John Y. Mason. To the Honorable John Y. Mason,

Secretary of the Navy:

DEAR SIR:—His Excellency, JAMES K. POLE,
President of the United States, it is announced in the newspapers, has accepted invitations to visit the University of North Carolina. In anticipation that he will make the visit, many citizens of the Counties of Franklin, Granville, and Warren, without disinction of party, have had a general meeting at Henderson, to appoint a committee of arrangements to receive the President and his suite at Gaston which is near the border of the State, to tender to him the hospitalities of the State, and to conduct him and his suite on to the University, by Raleigh the Capital of the State. The undersigned were appointed that committee, and instructed to juvite the Heads of Departments at the City of Washington, to accompany him. Under that authority, we take peculiar pleasure in inviting you to acc manny the President and to partake with him of the hospi-talities of the State, and of our attentions, which we tender to you most respectfully. It is with exalted pride we here recognize you as a Graduate of our University. And we hope and believe a visit on your part to that ancient sent of learning, will call to you pleasing reminiscences, when you review the groves and scenery which encircle and consecrate your Alma Mater.

The time when the President will come on, he will fix, and we hope and rely that time will be notiied to you by him.

We have the honor to be, most respectfully,

PUBLIC MEETING.

At a very large and respectable meeting of the citizens of Raleigh and the County of Wake, assembled at the City Hall, on Saturday the 8th inst., for the purpose of making arrangements for a proper reception of the President of the United States, on the occasion of his intended visit to the State in June fantry. I could not learn that any of our officers next, on motion of Col. John H. Manly, Wm. Dallus Haywood, Esq., Intendent of Police, was culled to tion of Perrin Bushee, Esq., a Committee of five were appointed to report Resolutions for the action of the meeting. Whereupon, the following gentle-men were appointed by the Chair, viz: Perrin Busbee, W.eston R. Gales, Wm. R. Poole, John H. Manly, and James T. Mauriott, Esquires.

The Committee retired, and after a short absence, reported through Wm. R. Poole, Esq the following

The citizens of Raleigh and the County of Wake, have been much gratified to learn, that the President of the United States contemplates a visit to the University of the State at its ensuing Commence-ment in June, and that he will pass through Raleigh on his way to that place: And being, without distinction of party, desirous of extending to him the honors and regards due to the exalted station of Chief Magistrate of the Union, and of tendering to him a hearty welcome to the hospitalities of his native State; Therefore

Resolved, That a Committee of 50 be appointed

TRULY NATIONAL FEELING.

The "South Carolinian" printed at Columbia, S C, thus speaks, in reference to Mr. WEBSTER'S tou in this region : "The truth is, Mr. WEBSTER is now a part of the intellectual history of our country—as much so, as Burke, and Pitt, and Fox, and Mansfield, and Erskine, were parts of the intellectual history of their country. And while the great Western river rolls down its mighty stream, and carries the fame of HENRY CLAY over many waters; and while the great Table Mount of his resident District, is not more lasting than the same of John C. Calmoun; the mont which stands at Bunker Hill, consecrated by the matchless eloquence of DANIEL WEBSTER, shall not be more conspicuous than his fame.

"These men are parts of an intellectual galaxy, in our political history. Moving in different orbits, they yet form an associated spleador, nor can the brightness of the one be rendered less glorious, by the light which is reflected from the other.

"They are a part of the history of our country which posterity will read with interest and honor It is certainly not ungraceful, therefore, to pay respect, at present, to what has been already dedicated to factor frame."

newsfrom the scene of action. Mr. Bugbee, who by the was sent by Mr. Kendall with despatches for this No. office, left the M'Kun 20 miles below the City, an exp and came up express, with the glorious Tidings On the afternoon of the 17th, the advance under Gen. Twiggs encountered the enemy, when a sovere but indecisive conflict ensued. As the General Orders show, that it was Gen. Scou's intention to give battle only on the 18th, it may be that this engagement was brought on by the Mexicans. The main battle occurred on the 18th. and resulted in the complete triumph of the Anerican arms.

PLAN DEL RIO, April 17-11 A. M. The division of Gen. Twiggs started two hours nince, and a heavy cannonade has already commenced upon his line from the farthest of the Mexican works At intervals, too, the rattling of small arms can be heard distinctly from the Dragoon Camp where I am writing this. I am going out with Cols. Duncan and Benlan and Capt. Pemberton, to the seat of action and will return here at night to report the progress of the light. It was not intended, I believe, that Gou-I'wiggs should open the fight to-day, at least to bring on a general action, and it is therefore pre sumable the Mexicans have commenced upon bins. I write in great haste. G. W. K.

5 P. M. I have just returned from the scene of conflict, and a bloody one it has been considering the number engaged. A hill this side of the farthest Mexican work, and on which no one was seen last evening, was found occupied by the en emy's light troops this morning, and to force it was at once decined indispensable. For this purpose the rifles under Major Sumner, besides detachments of artillery and infantry, were ordered to charge up the rugged ascent. This they did in gallant style driving the Mexicans, after a resistance which may be put down as most obstinate. Great numbers of the enemy were killed, while on our side the loss was also severe. Maj Summer was shot in the head by a musket bail severely but not mortally; Lieuts. Maury and Gibbs, of the rifles were also wounded but not severely, as was also Lieut. Jarvis of the 2d Inwere killed. The entire loss on our side, in killed and wounded, is estimated at about one hundred; but from the nature of the grown paral, and exnames of the officers who were immediately engaged. Gen. Shields, at 3 o'clock, was ordered to support Gen. Twiggs, with three regiments of Volunteers-two from Illinois under Cols. Baker and Barnett. They will have warm work to morrow if the Mexicans stand up as they did to-day.

The loss on both sides has been heavy-how could it have been otherwise ? The rough and rocky toad, cut through rugged defiles and dense chapparal by our troops, is now lined with our wounded. The Rifles, Col. Haskell's Tenessee volunteers, the 1st Artillery, the 7th Infantry, and Captain William's company of Kentucky voluntee es, have perhaps suffered most. Gen Shields was severely, and I am fearful, mortally wounded. while gallantly leading his brigade to storm one of the enemy's farthest works. Gen. Pillow way als o wounded, although slightly, while storming a fortification on the side commanded by I Vega Ali the field officers of Col. Hackell's regiment were wounded at the same time, save himself. Of he Rifles, Capt. Mason has lost a leg. Lieut. Ewell has been badly wounded Lieut. McLane alightly. I have already mentioned the gallant Major Sumner and other officers wounded yesterday.

I have specified some regiment above which rignalized themselves. It happened to be their ortune, in the disposition of the battle, to fall up on what all good soldiers may term pleasant places -the most difficult works to storm-and bravely and without faltering did they execute the perilous duties assigned them. At I o'clock this aftermoon Gen. Twiggs, whose divsion has been in the hardest of it, was pursuing the flying enemy towards Jalapa. Pierson, who camman orts nearest Plan del Rio, asked of Geo. Worth time to consider before he capitulated. Desirous to come to terms, Gen. Worth gave him fifteen minutes, and he surrendered unconditionally. Had he not done so, the slaughter would have

CAMP NEAR PLAN DEL Rio, April 18-4 o'clock, r. u. )
The American arms have achieved another gloious and most brilliant victory. Out numbering Gen. Scott's force materially, and occupying positions which looked impregnable as Gibraltar, one after another of their works have been taken to-day, five Generals, Colonels enough to command ten such armies as ours, and other officers innumerable, have been taken prisoners, together with 6000 men, and the rest of their army driven and routed with the loss of every thing, ammunition, cannon, baggage train, all. Nothing but the impossibility of finding a road for the dragoons to the rear of the enemy's works saved any part of Santa Anna's grand army.

a road for the dragoons to the rear of the enemy's works saved any part of Santa Anna's grand army, including his own illustrious person.

Among the prisoners is our old friend La Vegs, who fought with his accustomed gallantry. The other generals are Jose Maria Jarono, Luis Pinson, Manuel Uorings, and Jose Obando. The names of the Colonels I have not been able to gather. Nothing saved Santa Anna but the want of dragoons on the other side of their line. As it is, his travelling coach, together with all his papers, valuables, and even his moodes leg, have fullen into our hands, together with all the money of his army. No one anticipated, when they arose from their hard bivouselt this morning such a complete victory.

The Mexican loss upon the heights was awfulthe ground in places is covered with the dead! A-meng the bodies found was that of Gen. Vasques, and near him was Col. Palacio, morally wounded. Their loss in the retreat was terribly seve by-path was strewn with the dead. Had our dre goons been embled to reach them in season, all would have been killed or captured.—Saata Anna among them. Canalizo, with his noted lancers, had the prudence to tames early.

Even up to this time at is impossible to give any thing like a full and correct list of our wounded of-ficers; it is surprising that many of them were not killed. Lieut. Derby, a gallant young officer of the Topographical Engineers, was badly but not mor-tally wounded, while storming one of the heights— Lieut. Excell of the sides is supposed to be mortally tally wounded, while storming one of the heights.— Lieut. Ewell, of the rifles, is supposed to be mortally wounded. This regiment has suffered terribly.— Lieut. Dann, of the 7th Infantry, was badly wounded; Capt. Patton, of the 2d, slightly. Lieut. Darls, of the rifles, was very bully wounded in the hip.— Maj. I write in great haste, and have no time for particulars. The names of the killed and wounded I will accertain as soon as possible. I think that we had red will cover our entire loss. Had it not been for the positive cowardice of Santa Anna and Canalizo, who ran, before the battle—at least in brave men's hands—was half fost, it would have been far greater. No one at present can estimate the loss of the Mexicans—they are scattered on the hills, in the roads, every where.

What disposition Gen. Scott is to make of the prisoners is not yet known. He may set them all liberty on their paroles, from the difficulty of feeding them, and to accelerate his own advance more.
