RALEIGH REGISTER.

RALEIGH, N. C. Tuesday, July 6, 1847.

His Excellency, Gov. GRAHAM, has left the State on a brief visit to Hillsboro.

THE TAYLOR MEETING.

meeting held in this City, on Saturday last, friends of Gen. ZACHARY TAYLOR, to advance the cause of the Presidency, was the most unattended primary meeting we have ever seen. Most enthusiasm and harmony prevailed, and as an oneness of sentiment on the occasion, witnessed, and truly gratifying. Halifax, Wayne, and Johnston Counties each had delegates, besides our own large representation, and wholly unprecedented in this State, on any occasion. We observed some eight or ten persons (so called) in the meeting, but who were mere "lookers on," or endorsed the views, we cannot say. One thing is certain, that no one was present in the meeting, who did not have a determination to do our duty, and to persevere in it. In the language of "Old and Ready" himself, at Buena Vista to Gen. Taylor: "When we all pull together, we cannot be defeated."

OUR NATIONAL ANNIVERSARY.

Friday last was celebrated in this City, with spirit and animation, as the Anniversary of our Independence. The loud booming of a day, dawned, announced the arrival of a day, dedicated in Religious gratitude, National festivity, as the birth-day of "the free and the home of the brave." The joyous anthem, filled with grateful devotion, and to Him who is the giver and preserver, as our National and Religious liberties, as our and private endeavours—for his manifold numbered blessings showered upon our hap-blessed country. Exercises of the day commenced in the Presbyterian Church, at Sun-rise, with Prayer by the Rev. Mr. BURTON, breathing the most deep and solemn and obligations to God, for his peculiar mercies upon us as a Nation, and the lofty and sentiment of a free and enlightened People. Invocation of the Divine blessing was followed by a most appropriate and eloquent Address, by Rev. DREY LACY, enforcing upon his auditors deep and abiding dependence upon the Father of Nations, for the exalted and ennobling features of this happy and prosperous Government. The Address was most excellent, and worthy of the occasion, and the Rev. Mr. FINCH, at 9 o'clock, a Procession, under the direction of Marshal Wm. D. COOK, and Assistant Marshals S. SMITH and S. PAXTON, was formed at the Court House, consisting of the "Ringgold Artillery," the "Cossacks," the "Sons of Temperance," and Strangers, Orator and Reader, "Wake Cavalry," in the order thus received, they proceeded to Union Square, where the Stand had been erected, under the shade of the beautiful native Oaks which adorned our magnificent Capitol, for the delivery of the Oration, &c. The large assemblage present had become a grand and most impressive scene, solemnly addressed by the Rev. ALBERT in appropriate selections from the eloquent and inspiring Book of Prayer of the Protestant Episcopal Church. This imposing service, under the direction of Independence was read by JOHN O. ESPY, in a clear, distinct, and unaffected manner, never heard this inimitable Document read: the intonation was perfect, the emphasis was nervous, and power, rarely equalled, much less excelled. The Oration, by SION ROGERS, Jr. Esq. was a model production, evincing great clearness of judgment, choice pictures of imagery, and a cultivated taste in the selection of his words, and delivered too, in a most captivating and unostentatious style. The Oration selected for his chief theme, the necessity of National Education, and the cultivation of National morality;—taking for his ground, the former position, that in proportion as intelligence and Education is diffused among us, so are the enlightened principles of our Government, likely to be maintained; and in the latter, the infallible doctrine of Holy Scripture, that while "Righteousness shall flourish, sin is a reproach to any People." The Oration of Mr. ROGERS, though unusually long, (by the way, of itself no small recommendation, evidence of a mind stored with literature, the flower of Poesy and Rhetoric, possessing powers of cogent reasoning and eloquence which would have done honor to an older and more experienced Orator, and a bright and arduous and difficult Profession upon which he is about entering. The Oration was delivered with a large and intelligent audience, and was highly respected and large audience, which must have done the performer, that he had contributed all degrees, to their National pride and glory. The Exercises were then closed by a prayer from the Rev. Mr. SMEDS, and the ### company dispersed, highly delighted, with the interesting incidents of the morning.

At 2 o'clock, the "SONS OF TEMPERANCE" clothed in their imposing Regalia, were seen moving towards the "Matamoras House," where a Public Dinner, had been prepared for themselves and such of their fellow-citizens as might see proper to meet with them around the festive-board. We were honored with an invitation to join this respectable and praiseworthy Fraternity in their Dinner celebration, but circumstances entirely beyond our control, compelled us to forego the pleasure which so gratifying a participation would have afforded. We are pleased to learn, however, that a considerable number partook of the munificent entertainment provided; that the sparkling flow of wit, repartee and sentiment passed freely, without the aid of "ruby wine," and that the occasion was, indeed, "a feast of reason and flow of soul." Long may this praiseworthy and excellent Institution continue to abide in our midst, and no diminution of its ranks be known whilst the vice of Intemperance exists in our land. We have received a more particular account of this part of the celebration, but our limits most reluctantly compel us to defer its publication to our next paper.

Perhaps the most imposing of the many interesting ceremonies of the day, was the procession to, and the assemblage of the Sabbath School Scholars of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Baptist Denominations, in the Presbyterian Church, for the purpose of listening to an Address to be delivered before them by the Rev. Mr. BURTON, of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The spacious Sanctuary was filled to overflowing, with the beauty and intelligence of our City, to hear the Reverend Speaker on this important subject of Sabbath Schools. And most amply were they rewarded for their attendance, if deep paths of thought, high, intellectual refinement of language, and happy and appropriate introduction of simile and contrast, could accomplish it. The topics selected by the Speaker, were, the improvement and march of mind, and the moral culture and education of the heart. Upon the former subject, he said the youth might well join in the prayer—"Give me neither Poverty nor Riches—for the extremes of either serve but as unconquerable barriers to the expansion of the intellect and the development of the full energies of the mind. As the Laplander, wrapped in his eternal snows and surrounded by his mountains of ice, is denied the rich fruits of industry and the delightful products of agricultural energy, so is the young mind, depressed and bound down by the adamantine fetters of hopeless poverty, deprived of the higher and nobler enjoyments of soul to be drawn from the rich wells of intellectual research, and which can be secured only by delving with untiring industry for the bright gems of literature which lie hidden deep beneath the surface of the many mountains of that eminence where "Fame's proud temple shines afar." And as the inhabitants of the torrid clime of the Cape of Good Hope, bowed down and oppressed by the enervating suns of that region, are rendered callous, indifferent, profrigate, idle amid their luxurious indolence and ease; so, likewise, with those who are nurtured in the lap of independent wealth, sensible of their affluence and feeling totally above the need of effort, they relax into indolence and supineness, and from such nurseries rarely, if ever rise that species of intellect which adorn our Councils, "charm listening Senates," or by their brilliant military achievements spread a blaze of glory around the proud fame of their country. The necessity for Effort, is the crucible through which the master spirits of mind will ever be tried and purified, and the lustre of a Nation's character be maintained and adorned. The parts of his Address to the Teachers and Pupils were admirable and to the point, and the whole, of rare excellence and beauty.

The sounds of gay music from the City Hall, at about 8 o'clock, P. M., gave notice that the "RALEIGH TETOTALERS" were preparing to commence their part of the exercises of this great day. The large Hall was immensely crowded, and at about 9 o'clock, the auditory was addressed, we understand, by Mr. WILLIAM H. CAMPBELL, in a manner which did great credit to his taste and intellect. The subjects of his Address were choice and well-selected, clothed in patriotic sentiment, and abounding in ardent and invigorating feeling. The cause of Temperance was amply sustained too, we learn, in the remarks of the young orator, and the effort in general, one upon which his friends may with pride congratulate him and themselves. The Address was warmly received and rapturously applauded, and we doubt not all were delighted with the intrinsic excellence which we are told it possessed, as well as with the happy and unostentatious manner in which it was delivered. This being over, the party proceeded to demolish the "good things" prepared for the occasion, and we have no doubt, that ample justice was done to the delicious Lemonades and Ice Creams which were circulated in great profusion among the large Assembly, of whom, we learn, perhaps two-thirds were of the "fair sex." The evening's entertainment was closed with a "trip upon the light fantastic toe," and the hilarity and mirth of the occasion was enjoyed to the fullest extent by every one present.

The FIRE WORKS at the Capitol Square, too, attracted hundreds of admiring spectators; and it is no small compliment to our friend, Mr. WILLIAM H. H. TUCKER, to say, that his efforts on this occasion, to please, exceeded any of his former brilliant displays. We would like to particularize some of the magnificent pieces exhibited, especially those which displayed in letters of fire, the names of Buena Vista, Bryan, Bragg and Taylor, surmounted with miniature artillery, which threw in rapid succession their fiery "grape" shots high above the heads of the delighted throng; but our limits admonish us that we should forbear, and must therefore, be content with simply saying, what we know every one who witnessed them will endorse, that the enterprising get-together deserves and receives their unequalled thanks for his most successful effort to contribute to our pleasure and amusement. The loud Artillery proclaimed the close of the Exercises of the day, and thus ended the gay festivities of the NATIONAL ANNIVERSARY of 1847!

Great Taylor Meeting.

One of the largest political meetings, ever assembled in the State, met at the Court House in Raleigh, on Saturday last. The meeting was called to order by WESTON R. GALE, who, in a few pertinent introductory remarks, expressed his gratification at the large number of persons assembled, and the manifest enthusiasm which animated the meeting. He moved its organization, by the appointment of GEORGE WASHINGTON HAYWOOD, as President. The motion having been unanimously carried, Mr. H. was conducted to the Chair, from whence he made a strong and interesting speech, declaring his warm preference for Gen. TAYLOR as President; and giving a succinct but gratifying history of his career from his entrance upon the theatre of public life, to the present day.

On motion of T. J. LEMAY, CHARLES J. WILLIAMS, of Wake, and ASHLEY SANDERS, of Johnston, were appointed Vice Presidents. On motion of W. D. COOK, WILLIAM H. JONES, of Wake, and Gen. J. B. LITTLEJOHN, of Franklin, were appointed Secretaries. H. W. MILLER moved the appointment of a Committee of five persons, to report Resolutions for the consideration of the meeting. The motion prevailed, and the Chair named as the Committee, the following gentlemen, viz: Henry W. Miller, Hon. James Iredell, Weston R. Gales, Stephen Stephenson, and Dr. H. W. Montague.

After a short retirement, the Committee reported through Mr. Miller, the following Resolutions, viz: Resolved, that we, voters of the Sixth Congressional District of the State of North Carolina, being assembled in the City of Raleigh on the 3d day of July 1847, do hereby nominate Major General ZACHARY TAYLOR, of the State of Louisiana, the gallant Hero of Palo Alto, Resaca, Monterey, and Buena Vista, as a Candidate for the Presidency of the United States, at the next Presidential Election, and we believe that by his distinguished public services, his ardent patriotism, his readiness at all times to sacrifice his comfort, and peril his life for his country, he has entitled himself to the gratitude and support of the whole American people. Resolved, that should Gen. TAYLOR be elected to the high office of President of the United States, his sterling abilities, incorruptible integrity, and true independence and firmness of character, afford the most ample guarantee, that he will act, throughout the performance of that important public trust, with a view to promote the interest and honor of the Country and the whole People.

Resolved, that we do condemn in the most unqualified terms, the attempt which was made at the last Session of Congress, to fix a vote of censure upon General TAYLOR, for the capitulation at Monterey, which act of capitulation was sanctioned and approved by the ablest officers in his army. And, had such a proposition passed Congress, it would have been an act of the blackest ingratitude to General TAYLOR, and most injurious, if not degrading to our National character. Resolved, that as American Citizens we are proud of the character and fame of ZACHARY TAYLOR. We are proud to know that, amidst every danger—when surrounded by the most appalling difficulties—when neglected by his own Government—when assailed by partisan prejudice and demagogues—when threatened with being supplanted for party purposes in that command in which he had won so much glory for his Country, HE SWERVED NOT FROM THE PERFORMANCE OF HIS DUTY—THAT NO DIFFICULTY, DANGER, OR INGRATITUDE could daunt him, but that he went forward with a resolute heart, and relying upon his own genius, and the indomitable courage and patriotic devotion of his gallant little army, achieved a victory on the plains of Buena Vista which struck terror into the enemies of his Country and commanded the admiration of the civilized world.

Resolved, that we have witnessed with those through-out the State, who are friendly to the election of General TAYLOR to the Presidency, to hold meetings and give public expression to their opinions, and that they be requested to appoint Committees of Correspondence. Resolved, That the Chairman of this meeting appoint a Committee of thirteen, to be styled the Executive Committee for the County of Wake, whose duty it shall be to promote and carry out the objects of this meeting. Resolved, however, to reading the Resolutions, Mr. MILLER, in strains of commanding eloquence, and cogent reasoning, assigned the reasons why they should be adopted. A better political speech, for such an occasion, was perhaps, never delivered. As soon as he concluded, and the Resolutions were read, E. B. FREEMAN moved that they be adopted by acclamation, whereupon the enthusiasm could no longer be restrained, and three long, loud, deafening cheers were given for Old ZACK.

On motion of Mr. GALE, Resolved, That the President of this meeting communicate to Gen. TAYLOR, a copy of the Resolutions just adopted, accompanied by a letter, expressive of the grateful feelings entertained for him by this meeting, and of the enthusiasm felt in his behalf. HENRY I. TOOLE, of Edgecomb (a Democratic candidate for Congress in this District,) being loudly called for, rose and addressed the meeting at considerable length, avowing himself a TAYLOR man, out and out, without caring what his politics are. "If" said he, "he is good enough for the Whigs, he is good enough for me." On motion of JOHN MORDECAI, the thanks of the meeting were voted to the Officers; and on motion of JOHNSTON BURSEE, the meeting adjourned.

GEORGE W. HAYWOOD, Chairman. CHARLES J. WILLIAMS, Vice. ASHLEY SANDERS, Presidents. WILLIAM H. JONES, Secretaries. J. B. LITTLEJOHN, Secretaries.

IMPORTANT FROM MEXICO.

LATER FROM THE ARMY OF GEN. SCOTT. Gen. Scott's Departure from Puebla—No Negotiations for Peace—Withdrawal of Troops from Jalapa—Gen. Pillow's Departure from Vera Cruz—Santa Anna still President—Almonite in Prison—Confusion of Parties in Mexico—Cabinet Changes—Intercepted Despatches, &c. &c. The Steamship, Palmetto, Capt. Smith, arrived last evening from Vera Cruz, having sailed thence on the 15th inst. She touched at Tampico on the 20th and Brasos Santiago on the 21st instant. Although we are not in possession of letters from Mr. Kendall, we have advices upon which we place every reliance as to the movements of Gen. Scott.—An express from Puebla, by the route of Cordova, had arrived at Vera Cruz, announcing that General Scott commenced his march upon the City of Mexico on the 16th instant. We hear not a word more in regard to the overtures of peace said to have been made to Gen. Scott. That he marched on the 16th we have no doubt. Another express had arrived at Vera Cruz from Jalapa, which announces that all the sick had left there on the 14th inst. for Perote under a small escort. Col. Childs was to leave the following day with all the garrison. Gen. Shields would accompany him. The road between Jalapa and Puebla, is represented as free from guerrillas of any kind. About one thousand troops left Vera Cruz on the ### 17th inst under the command of Major General Pillow to join the army of Gen. Scott.

The Spanish refugee named La Vega, who lately repaired to Vera Cruz in company with the venacious Ol. Mata; from this City; is represented to us as already in command of a strong guerrilla party. By the express from Jalapa we have no intelligence of Gen. Cadwalader, as the rider came by a circuitous route to avoid the predatory parties of the road. By this arrival we have received papers from the City of Mexico of the 6th, 7th, 8th, and 9th of June. Our previous files came down to the 9th of May. The intermediate dates we have not yet received, and pressing they have been forwarded by some sailing vessel. We have only had time to glance hastily at the papers before us, from which we glean the following: Santa Anna still remains in power. His resignation was withdrawn; for it is intimated that a majority of Congress was anxious to accept it. Gen. Shields was still in possession of the city of Puebla. The Mexicans appear to have intercepted a good number of private letters. Several to Col. Childs are particularly referred to. One is from Mrs. Childs, and contains much pleasant gossip as to the state of parties in the United States. Other letters of an entirely private nature are commented upon. The successes of some of the guerrilla parties near Vera Cruz, are duly chronicled and commended in the papers.—Pianissimo 25th.

FOR THE REGISTER. "THE STATES OF THE UNION! DIVIDED LIKE THE BILLOWS, YET ONE AS THE SEA!" Air—Star Spangled Banner. By JOHN CAMERON, of Hillsboro'. Though Statesmen may differ, and parties may rage, And the spirit of Faction breed civil commotion, Let it still be our pride, to display to the age, That we cling to our altars with patriot devotion. Let demagogues strive For the spoils of the hive, We've a hope still from which Richer joys we derive— That the States of this Union forever will be, Like the billows divided, yet one as the sea.

When lately the Tocsin pealed forth on the land, And the "Fery Cross" sped o'er the face of the Nation— From the North, East and West, stepped a patriot band, And the South joined the war cry, with wild acclamation! Now stride side by side, Through the battle's red tide, Men who differ as far, As the Ocean is wide— All linked by the feeling—Our Union must be "Like the billows divided, yet one as the sea."
