The "Alexandria Gazette" says:

"The tide of emigration from the North, is directed in some degree to Virginia. The advantages and climate, are superior to those offered by any other State of the Union."

Without wishing in the least to detract from the advantages which our sister State may possess, to induce emigration thither, we must be permitted to remark, that North Carolina stands not at all inferior to her, either in point of "location, capacities Vera Cruz. She brings four days or climate;" and that she does possess all the materiel necessary to call the attention of the public to aditional news from the army yet. the rich yield which she promises to the introduction of Agricultural, Manufacturing, and Geological and Mineralogical enterprise. From an inherent modesty, possessed by her sons, they do not emblazon to the world the numerous pre-eminent advantages which would accrue to persons looking for locations to invest capital, and exert a spirit of enterprize among them -but it is nevertheless true, that many who are making long and expensive tours to the "far West," in search of eligible situations for these purposes, would find them to their taste and liking in North Carolina, and where they could realize all which they desire. As it regards our "locality and climate," we take it for granted, that they are unexceptionable. With a territory extending from the Mountains to the sea-board, embracing every variety of temperature of atmosphere, almost, and leaving each, either to snuff the pure, cool breeze, as it comes dashing from the summit of the Blue Ridge, the Pilot or the Sawratown Mountains, or enjoy the delightful saltwater baths of Beaufort, Ocracoke or Nag's Headsurely all can be pleased. And our "locality" being near enough central, to be relieved of the piercing, and consumption-producing cold of the North, and at the same time, not subject to that sultry, biliousprovoking climate of the South, which engenders | aid the views, and long expressed opinions of HENRY ry instance, with a loss, in the aggre- Yellow Fever, Vomito, &c .- surely our State is the CLAY, and adopt them as his promised course of han eighty men. Does the Raleigh Register still believe Gen Taylor to be a Whig? - Standard.

GEN. TAYLOR'S WHIGISM .- The Editor of the Columbia (Tenn.) Observer, who recently asserted that Gen Pillow, while in that place a few weeks ago, declared Gen. Taylor to be a Whig, now reiterates the assertion more strongly. He says:

"We now again state that Gen. Pillow, while here, said (asserted, if that better suits the Beacon.) that General Taylor is a Whig, and is well known to be so in the army. He said it to many; and we are authorised by some of Gen. Pillow's nearest relatives. to prove that he said it, by the use of their names, if it should become necessary.

Here is "more of the same sort," which we hope will be satisfactory to the "Standard." The "Lexington (Ky.) Gazette," giving an account of the late meeting in that City, to consider the expediency of nominating Gen. Taylor, informs us that General Coombs said, "he had spent a week with Gen. Taylor in the South, had conversed with him upon all political questions at issue in the contest of 1844, and found him a good Whig."

MR. DALLAS VS. MR. BUCHANAN.

The Washington Correspondent of the "Baltimore Sun" refers to a Speech delivered by Vice offered in this State, from its location, capacities, President Dallas during his electioneering tour in Western Pennsylvania, in which we are told this new "bidder at the auction of popularity" goes farther than any Northern man in favor of the South and the peculiar species of Southern property." There is a powerful rivalry between the houses of York and Lancaster in Pennsylvania, and the struggle will be severe for the next Presidential nomination. Mr. Buchanan must take the stump, like his Vice Presidential competitor, or he will be distanced in the race. Then, too, there is Judge, WOODBURY, the favorite of the Calhoun wing. The "Richmond Whig" asks: "Can he not lay aside the ermine for a few months, to engage in this unseemly strife?" And then adds: The spectacle of a Vice President, Secretary of State, and a Judgeof the Supreme Court, stumping it through the country, cannot but be eminently edifying. And why not? If a Vice President may so far forget the dignity of his position, why should a Secretary of State or a Judge feel under any restraint?

> Hon. Thomas L. CLINGMAN, Representative elect to Congress from the Buncombe District in North Carolina, arrived in Boston on Saturday week, to be present at the convention of Geologists being held there.

HUZZA! FOR THE PRINTERS!

The last " Enexville (Tenn.) Register," says-It has been with no little difficulty that we have been enabled to get out a paper at all to-day. This broke into our arrangements materially, and for a while brought things almost to a dead stand still in our office."

HORRIBLE MURDER.

The "Montgomery (Ala.) Journal" gives an account of the wanton and inhuman murder of a youth, 12 years old, son of Maj. Jas. W. Cooper, by a runaway black man. The negro man came across him in a meadow, and cut his throat, in which condition he was found in a stream where he had been thrown. The discovery of the perpetrator was singular, he being found hid under a bed in the house by a slight movement he made during the inquest.

"THEY ARE PASSING AWAY."

The New York papers record the death of Major William Popham, whose services in the War of Independence are gratefully acknowledged by the whole nation. In addition to being the oldest commissioned officer of the United States, he held at the time of his death, an office which the immortal Washington filled, viz. the Presidency of the Society of the Cincinnati. He died at the advanced age of niuety-five years.

TALL OFFICERS.

No wonder our officers in Mexico, stand so high in public opinion. Gen. Scott is over six feet four, Gens. Worth and Twiggs, Cols. Harney and May, and Maj. Lally, are all six feet or upwards, and like Frank Granger, "well proportioned." Col. Doniphan stands six feet two, and so far as altitude is concerned, the poet, Capt. Pike, might pass for a twin brother. Pretty fair specimens of the "perfidious Yankees."

PENNSYLVANIA.

The present year will give a materially increased revenue to the State Treasury, from the public works. During nine months of the present fiscal year, the receipts from canal and railroad tolls show an increase of $364.171, compared with the corresponding period of 1846. The increase of the year, which ends on the 1st December next, will be not less than half a million of dollars over the rev-

MR. BUCHANAN IN THE SOUTH. It will be seen by the following from the Columbia "South Carolinian," that the recent Letter of Mr. Buchanan has not even answered the purpose of causing the Loco Focos of the South to fall in love with him, and rally upon him as their candidate for the Presidency. What says the "Standard" to these Southern sentiments? The "South

"We publish this accidental letter to-day, not having had room for it previous to this time. We don't care what Mr. Buchanan was when he opposed Re- lowing terms: publicanism with the fierce onslaught of Federalism -we don't trouble ourselves with his anti-war, and hence, anti-country denunciations immediately after 1815. We will not even blame him for being on a Committee which reported at a public meeting, in November 1819, at Lancaster, Penn., Resolutions which were unanimously adopted, most earnestly requesting the Pennsylvania Representatives to use their utmost endeavors as members of the National Legislature, to PREVENT THE EXISTENCE OF SLAVERY in any of the Territories or States which may be erected by Congress. " No, we will not censure him for all these heretical and anti-Republican movements, but we can never forgive him for becoming false to all these evidences of his past political complexion, and for accepting a position in the Cabinet, under a Free Trade Administration. How can we credit the assertion that he is in favor of the Missouri Compromise now, when he was a Missouri Restrictionist in 1818! All this is strange to us. The letter, it is said, was written, and is dated, only a few days be-fore the death of Silas Wright, and it was read a fen days after that event occurred, at. Harvest Home in Pennsylvania. Those statements may be all fair, but the justice-loving and Constitution-abiding tone is assumed too suddenly to make us "almost a be-

FRIEND GALES: Dear Sir-Having had an oportunity, in common with every body else, to visit his remarkable Picture, I feel desirous of adding my humble meed of praise to the celebrity the subject has already attained. I must confess that I have seldom been as highly gratified and instructed with any exhibition. And how striking the fact, hat this master-piece of pictorial art is drawn from he sacred Scriptures, and from a portion of Divine History, too, unfathomable in its character. If I had any inclination to enter into a description of the numerous figures that the subject embraces. I have not the talent to do justice to them, and consequently need only say, that the sources of emotion are concentrated with such extraordinary energy in a few silent figures, that a vivid and vehement impression was rapidly produced upon my mind, as I approached the door of the exhibition. And I feel satisfied, that the imagination of every one constituting the large auditory, was affected with great power. This was sufficiently evidenced by the most silent and earnest attention of the entire assembly. The King of Terrors, advancing in ghastly state, mounted upon a horse, leaning slightly backward, with his strong bony arms uplifted, a visage terrible agond expression, with his right hand grasping a writhing serpent, and deadly shafts ra-dialing from both his cleuched fists, while the fierce expression furious attitude, and moral paleness of his unbridled horse, inspire the whole figure with a living energy, which at first sight startles the beholder as though it were indeed "a living death!"

FOR THE REGISTER. On hearing of the death of Capt. Martin Shive number of the citizens of Cabarrus met at the Court House in Concord, on the 18th of September, 1947. When, on motion of Dr. K. P. Harris, Tho 8. Henderson was appointed Chairman, and John F. Phifer and R. W. Allison requested to act as Secretaries. The Hon. D. M. Barrigner explained the object of the meeting, and offered the following resolutions, which were seconded by Col. Daniel Coleman, with appropriate remarks, and unanimously adopted by the meeting.

Resolved, That we have heard with regret of the death of Capt. Martin Shive, late of this County. who died at Camp Buena Vista, in Mexico, on the night of the 15th of August, 1847, of Typhoid Pneumonia, while in command of Company C. North Carolina Regiment of Volunteers.

Resaired, That Capt. Shive as an officer, was ful, and true, and that his death is a serious loss to the service in which he was so ardently engaged. Resolved, That as fellow citizens of his native County, and home of his active manhood, we lament his death as a loss to the community in which he was known and appreciated as an upright, public-spirited, and useful citizen. Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with his distressed family and relatives in their affliction, but with them have the consolation to know that although not killed in the field of battle, he died at his post in the service of his country, and that in his last breath he uttered words of devotion and encouragement to the gallant company he commanded. Resolved, That a copy of these proceedings be furnished to his family, and that the newspapers be requested to publish the same. THOS. S. HENDERSON, Ch'm'n. JOHN F. PHIFER, Secretaries.

R. W. ALLISON, A dreadful affair took place at Patterson. New Jersey, on Wodnesday of last week. Two men, father and son, named Campbell, had a severe quarrel, during which the former attempted to take the life of the latter. We learn that he has spent the greater part of his time in North and South Carolina, and was anxious to return and surrender himself - Lynchburg Virginian.

CHATHAM SOIL FOREVER .- Mr. Joseph Dixon, of his County, has presented us with a fine mess of IRISH POTATOES, sixty-five bushels of which, were raised by him on one-fifth of an acre of ground! He says that, after planting them, he covered them with leaves, to the depth of two feet. They were planted about the 15th of April.

Niles' Register for Sale. PERFECT BOUND copy of this valuable work, which is now very scarce, and is becoming more so every year, is offered for sale. First, the original publication by Mr. Niles himself, extending from 1811 to 1836, and then the work as continued by his successor up to the present time, a period of 36 successive years. The work is warranted as complete, all the supplementary single numbers, supplements to whole volumes, title pages and indexes, having been procured with considerable pains and trouble. The main work itself has been made complete at the cost of no little time and trouble. Gentlemen engaged in political pursuits or studies, will most unquestionably find the work of great utility. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Enquire of the Editor of the Newhernian. 79 w4w Newbern, Sept. 29.
