"STANDARD." The "Standard," in an article relative to Mr BADGER's recent great Speech in the United States' Senate, charges him with "imputing intentions to the President, which that functionary distinctly and emphatically disclaims." We suppose this remark is made to create the impression, that it is not the design of the President to dismember and absorb a portion, or perhaps, the whole of Mexico; or, in othnonth remains, before the meeting of er words, and to use the language of Mr. Cass, to ention, in this City, and we trust swallow" that Republic. The course of "that ties in which Delegates have not osen, will awake, at once, to the ne-American People, that what he promulgates in his More than ever, in this contest, official documents, is very far from indicating what tion necessary to give a good start are his private designs and purposes; and the course Se many distinguished gentlemen pursued by the friends of the Administration in Conioned in connection with the Office, gress, of late, makes it as plain as noon-day, that the of opinion is so desirable, that we real objects for the further prosecution of the War of every County, no matter how with Mexico, are not openly and candidly expressed will call a meeting and appeint Delby the President in his Message; but, on the conhave a full representation, of the trary, are equivocating and obscure. Recent developements at Washington justify this assertion, and we hazard very little in saying, that before the adjournment of the present session of Congress, it will be avowed openly, as the policy of the Loco Foco party, to dismember our "weak neighbor," and "swallow" her down the throat of the the few Whigs of Edgecomb, and Northern giant of America. We call upon all candid, honest men, calmly to view the signs of the times, and the course of events, and see if our prediction is Foco Baltimore Convention, to make it the true "Democratic" creed. Let that body which is to assemble, declare in favor of subjugating and "swalevidence of their being aroused, can lowing," and our word for it, in the "twinkling of enthusiastic, spirited, County meetan eye," all hands will face to the right about, and declare it to have been all the time, the original purpose of the party. When that body shall meet and expressed some surprise to us, that discover the evident danger of the overthrow of Lo- jects which influence and guide the supporters of oner given Mr. BADGER's Speech to co Focbism, they will come out boldly and declare Our reason, is, that we have heard, for the full, complete and perfect annexation of perhaps all Mexico, and an effort will be made to raise up in the country a fiame on that subject, as was attempted to report Mr. BADGER, and done four years ago about Texas. Mr. Polk professes m experience, how utterly impotent a desire to make peace with Mexico, by requiring ny Reporter, to catch his chaste and "indemnity for the past, and security for the fuage, which no one can improve on, and ture;" yet a hole is left open, under the name of fulmar by attempting to repeat. When filling the "manifest destiny" of this country, which uthorized report, we shall publish at means nothing less than the absorption of all Mexico, if that issue be necessary to elect a President upon. That Convention in 1844, did more to bring about ber of the "Standard" has an article, the War in which we are now engaged, than have all the aggressions which Mexico ever committed: ills the Whigs-" Cowards." Now it act the "coward," and quite another and it only requires a similar edict, to make the charged with it. But of all men, the faithful "swallow" the critter, "tail and all." Past experience has taught us, that little reliance is to be placed either in the disclaimers or asseverations of that party which, on all occasions, exhibits such marked instances of duplicity and insincerity. We charge, then, upon the "Standard" and its party, the design to "swallow" the Mexican Republic, and rob her of her Nationality; and no honest, disingenuous mind, it seems to us, can calmly deliberate upon the evident purposes displayed by the President's friends in Congress, without coming to this conclusion. If this be n t so, why the extreme anxiety for more troops, to be raised immediately? Gen. Scott, the Commander-in-Chief of our Army in Mexico, announces that he has sufficient force to hold possession and levy contributions upon the country; we hear no more of armies being raised by the Mexicans, to oppose his triumphal march wherever he may choose to move; on the contrary, so far as fighting is concerned, our Officers in Mexico declare the War to be at an end. What, then, the necessity for these additional troops? The answer is at hand-Mexico is to be dismembered of her territory! As has been remarked, one half of her domain is to be required as "indemnity for the past," and the other half taken as "security for the future."

Georgia; but it intimates that he will We call upon all true lovers of their countrypost at Washington. BANKS.

These institutions, which are so much hated, apparently, by Locofocoism, are still objects of much regard with Locofocos in high places. We notice called to Washington City, to consult with Mr. l'olk's Secretary, Mr. Walker, about the best means to get another National Loan. It is supposed that Mr. Polk's cabinet will conclude to issue another batch of Ten Millions of Treasury Notes .-About Eighteen Millions were issued last year .-And yet we hear from time to time from these Locofocos, of the great beauty of a Metallic Currency !! What humbuggery and fraud are not these public men guilty of?

Mr. Epiron: I am glad to see in your last paper that a day has finally been designated on which the Whig party in the State, are to assemble in Convention, at Raleigh, for the purpose of nominating a Candidate, to carry the Whig banner, in the ensuing contest, for the office of Governor. This Convention, if it partakes of the character of those that have heretofore assembled there for a similar object, will undoubtedly be composed of a part of the most enlightened, influential, and sterling members of the party in the State. Men who are ardently devoted to the great cause of their country, and to those principles, by the success of which alone, its true interests and periled honor can be sustained; and functionary" on previous occasions, has learned the who, when they approach the discharge of the important duty with which they shall be entrusted, will fling aside all personal attachments and prejudices, and select that man who combines in the most eminent degree, all those qualities that will give the | gan. highest assurance to the party of a great and glori-ous triumph. They owe this sacrifice of personal preferences, where it may come in conflict with the harmony of the Convention, to every consideration that should govern good Whigs, who have a deep sense of regard for the success of their principles:

If my idea is a correct one, that man should be the nominee of the Convention, who, in addition to his unquestionable competency, to fulfill the high duties of Governor, possesses the tried ability of properly enlightening the people as to the true policy of the country, and of opening their eyes to the enormities of the present imbecile and corrupt Administration-a man who will be no incubus upon the energies of the Whig party. The Democratic party, it is probable, will have no regular candidate or Governor, to judge by the signs, but will collect their strength in making a strong effort, for ascendancy in the State Legislature. It certainly, then, not verified. It only wants the fat of another Loco is the right course, to select the man who will strengthen and not weaken the combat, in this branch of the approaching canvass. A man who can rally the Whigs, and call them from their homes to the Polls of election-whom they know, and are attached to, by his talents and services, and for whom they will love to vote. The critical and alarming condition of our National affairs-the necessity of placing before the people the naked deformity of that policy which has led to it, and the corrupt and ruinous obthat policy, positively require such a nomination -The importance of securing the Legislature, demands it. The love with which every true Whig cherishes those principles, by the ascendancy and operation of which the real welfare of the country s most ably promoted—the pride with which they glory in the success and strength of that party that apholds these principles, loudly calls for the action of the Convention.

The West has conceded that an Eastern man ought to be nominated-this is due to the East, and the West will undoubtedly adhere to its concession. I noble catalogue of distinguished Eastern men has been presented through the Press, as the favorites of different sections for this office, any one of whom would discharge its high functions with honor to nimself and the State. They are all men whom the Whig party would be proud to honor with their confidence, but in the present case, that is impossible Who is to be the recipient of such an honor, wil be determined by the deliberate and independent suffrages of the Convention. And who can be more eminently qualified, among the names that have been publicly mentioned as suitable Candidates for the Whig party, then the Hon, EDWARD STARLY? I can say this, without detracting one iota from the merits of those with whose names his is associated. I shall enter upon no panegyric of his character.— His fame is too well extended throughout the State, to require such an unnecessary effort-it is well known and appreciated, as the many public manifestations of regard in various directions plainly indicate. I drop you, Mr. Editor, this testimony of admiration of one of the most talented sons of North Carolina, as an expression of what I believe, is the unanimous sentiment of the Whig party of

TAR RIVER BELOW THE FALLS.

The New York Correspondent of the National Intelligencer says: Where is the money to come from to carry on the War in Mexico? I hear this question asked now, by gentlemen who have grown gray in long years' attention to financial affairs. A large portion of the Government duties is paid in Treasury notes, and soldier's land warrants pay for the public lands. Where is the money to come from to support an army of a hundred thousand men in Mexico, provided Congress should yield to the clamors of the Administration to send so many there? It is believed by financiers here, that the Government will have its hands full to support the army already in the field and to pay up old scores. A gentleman of long experience in these matters and well known ability, declared his belief to day, that in three months there would be greater distresss for money. in this country, than had been known for a quarter of a century past."

The Legislature of lowa is in session. It organized on the 3d inst., THOMAS HUGHES (Locofoco) being chosen President of the Senate, and J. B. BROWN (Whig) re-elected Speaker of the House .-Another disorderly session, we fear, may be looked for, so soon as the question of electing United States Senators shall come up. The Locos, if we are not mistaken, have a majority on joint ballot; but one of their members of the House has removed from the County he was elected to represent, since the election, and another has since his election, accepted a lucrative appointment under the United States to these members holding their seats.

ROBT. J. WALKER .- From the sublime to the ridiculous is but a step! We had just penned a that Robert J. Walker had (in a letter to R. M. hand - Cor. St. Louis Reveille, Quincy, Mr. Sumner uttered the following manly Gaines, of Natchez), expressed his determination to retire to private life for the "repose of his mind and body at the expiration of Mr. Polk's term" Now we like that-the financier (who never makes mistakes in figures,) reminds us of the game of fists in childhood's happy hours, "take it off or I'll knock it off," enough saidlittle Bob withdraws his fist, puts his fore finger the traitor, can be blame him for playing the knock !- N. OLD WHITEY AT New ORLEANS .- Great stories are told of the various efforts to get a few hairs of "Old Whitey's" mane or tail. It is said that the General rose one morning early, as, indeed, he always does, and went to the stable to look after his favorite. He there saw a man jerking out poor "Old Whitey's" tail; at every pull the animal would give an uneasy start-"Don't annoy the poor horse," said old Zac; "he has suffered and endured quite enough in zing the General, replied-" Well, I rather think the old fellow suffered, then, at the hands of Old Zack's' enemies, and as I can't get a chance at the old rascal himself, why I'll come the next lick to him out of 'Old Whitey !' LATER FROM MEXICO.

New Orleans, Jan. 20. The Steamer, New Orleans, Capt. Edward Auld, arrived last evening from Vera Cruz, having sailed the 14th inst.

The news we published yesterday of an attack upon the train under Col. Miles, is confirmed in some respects. The loss may have been exaggerated, and it will, moreover, fall principally upon foreign merchants, to whom the pack mules stolen belonged. One house is said to have lost property worth $54,000. It was an English firm. The French and Spanish merchants robbed were able to obtain the restoration of their goods by paying smartly, but no compromise could be made by the English and Amercan merchants. Their reliance now is upon Gen. Twiggs, who is expected to assess upon the district of Orizaba, whence the brigands came, the amount lost. In the skirmish it is supposed that three or four men of the Mounted Rifles were killed and eight or ten of the Mexican muleteers .-The portion of the train cut off had incautiously lagged behind. Col. Miles could not wait for them to come up, but left a guard of twenty-five men behind, which was totally inadequate against the sudden onset of four hundred guerrillas.

Gen. Scott has issued an order assessing upon the State of Mexico, occupied or to be occupied by our troops, an annual tax amounting to about three millions.

There is nothing in it looking like peace.

WORKING MEN SHOULD STUBY POLITICS .- I respectfully counsel those whom I address, (the working men of America,) I counsel you to labor for a clear understanding of the subjects which agitate disclosure, and his regret at the course that had the community-to make them your study, instead of wasting your leisure in vague passionate talk about them. The time thrown away by the mass of the people on the rumors of the day, might, if better spent, give them a good acquaintance with the constitution, laws, history, and interests of their country, and thus establish them on those great principles by which particular measures are determined. In proportion as the people thus improve themselves, they will cease to be the tools of designing politicians, Their intelligence, not their passions and jealousies, will be addressed by those who seek their votes holding the information, and replied to the speech | They will exercise not a nominal, but a real influence in the government and destinies of the country,
