RALEIGH REGISTER.
RALEIGH, N. C.

MR. MANLY IN HYDE.
From a gentleman in Hyde, that our Governor met his appointment there, very large number out to hear him, of no man, it is said, has ever before in that County, a more decided impression seemed to yield to the captivating influence of his speech, and it is believed that, in August, his majority will be about the most decided in the County. Mr. Manly is in health and spirits, and is most industriously engaged in the duties of the canvass.

C. C. BATTLE, ESQ.
Seen by the subjoined extract of a Letter from a gentleman whose name heads this article, as a Candidate, for the House of Commons, Wake County. Mr. BATTLE ran Loco the sixth two years ago, and when he returned from Mexico, and present his claims as a citizen, we shall expect to see him in the Legislature, even from Wake County.

TO BE ANNOUNCED IN YOUR NEXT REGISTER, for the House of Commons from North Carolina, shall, without accident, be with you in a few days after you receive this letter, but in the meantime, I feel that it is due to those who have supported me two years ago, and who will support me again, to present myself for another term, and to pledge myself for another year, that I should again be a candidate. I believe, in time to canvass the County, and to account, I want my name simply announced in the Commons.

C. C. BATTLE.

OF GEN. TAYLOR'S LETTER.
Several of the leading Whig Presses, heretofore most decidedly opposed to Gen. TAYLOR, or even to the cause of his claims by a Whig Convention, has a marked change since the publication of his Letter to Capt. ALLISON. Among "New York Express," the opposition Gen. TAYLOR has been of the most decided, which now says: "The Allison letter, though little or no fault can be found with it, is a Whig Creed. Nobody wishes to see the President of a mere party, but wishes to see the President of a mere party, and wishes to see the President of a mere party, and wishes to see the President of a mere party."

THE YUCATAN QUESTION.
He has been introduced into the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, for the Yucatan, which had been made the order for Friday last, was accordingly taken up by the Senate, and an animated debate arose upon the bill.

The Whig members of the Massachusetts Legislature, held a meeting in the Tremont Temple, Boston, on the evening of the 28th April, Zeno Scudder, the President of the Senate, presiding. Speeches were made and an address read, recommending and commending to the Whig party of the United States, DANIEL WEBSTER, as a candidate for the next Presidency. The address was unanimously adopted by the meeting.

EXECUTION.
From the "Greensboro Patriot," that one of the law was, on the 5th inst., executed of people from that and the adjoining States that are dying, without any perceptible cause. We observed something of it in a short excursion which we made into the country a few weeks since, and now we understand that the decay is going on at a rapid rate. One gentleman of our acquaintance in Brunswick County, has on his plantation one hundred and thirty thousand trees, or the tasks of about twelve hands, which have died within a short time. Others also we have heard of, who have lost from a fourth to one-half of their trees. The cause of this extensive destruction of the most valuable tree of our forest, is eminently worthy of close investigation.

WHIGS OF MASSACHUSETTS.
The Whig members of the Massachusetts Legislature, held a meeting in the Tremont Temple, Boston, on the evening of the 28th April, Zeno Scudder, the President of the Senate, presiding. Speeches were made and an address read, recommending and commending to the Whig party of the United States, DANIEL WEBSTER, as a candidate for the next Presidency. The address was unanimously adopted by the meeting.

IN looking over the "Debates of the Convention of North Carolina, convened at Hillsborough in 1789, for the purpose of deliberating and determining on the Constitution recommended by the Convention at Philadelphia," we find the following: Article 2, Section 2 of the Constitution being under consideration, Mr. MILLER said— "He could not see the necessity of vesting this power in the President. He thought that his influence would be too great in the country, and particularly over the military, by being Commander-in-Chief of the Army, Navy and Militia. He thought he could too easily abuse such extensive powers, and was of opinion, that Congress ought to have power to direct the motions of the Army. He considered it a defect in the Constitution, that it was not expressly provided that Congress should have the direction of the Army."

"AID AND COMFORT."

In looking over the "Debates of the Convention of North Carolina, convened at Hillsborough in 1789, for the purpose of deliberating and determining on the Constitution recommended by the Convention at Philadelphia," we find the following: Article 2, Section 2 of the Constitution being under consideration, Mr. MILLER said—

"He could not see the necessity of vesting this power in the President. He thought that his influence would be too great in the country, and particularly over the military, by being Commander-in-Chief of the Army, Navy and Militia. He thought he could too easily abuse such extensive powers, and was of opinion, that Congress ought to have power to direct the motions of the Army. He considered it a defect in the Constitution, that it was not expressly provided that Congress should have the direction of the Army."

Mr. SPAIGHT (Richard Dobbs Spaight, afterwards Governor) replied— "That it was true that the command of the Army and Navy was given to the President, but that Congress, who had the power of raising armies, could certainly prevent any abuse of that authority in the President. That they alone had the means of supporting armies, and that the President was impeachable, if he in any manner abused his trust."

It is well that that sterling old Patriot and Republican, RICHARD DOBBS SPAIGHT, Sen., had not lived in this blessed and enlightened age, or our glorious "Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy and Militia" would have whispered in his ear something about "aid and comfort to the enemy."— And the Old Lady of the "Union" would have grinned in his face, and pronounced him a "Mexican Whig." Talk about Congress having the power of preventing any abuse of authority in the President, by refusing supplies! Talk about impeaching the President, if he in any manner abuses his trust! Be ashamed of yourself, GOV. SPAIGHT! You are really as bad as those rascally "Mexican Whigs," WEBSTER and CLAY, who from sheer hypocrisy, sent their Sons to the war to die, that they might pull wool over the eyes of the people. You deserve to stand by the side of those "Mexican Whigs," WINFIELD SCOTT and old "Rough and Ready," so famous of late, for giving "aid and comfort to the enemy." Down on your knees, you old prostrate, and ask pardon of Young Hickory—that jewel of a President—or your name shall be stricken from the list of Republican worthies.

No—in these glorious days of Democracy, if the President choose to begin a war—though the Constitution says expressly that Congress has the power to declare war—the Senate and House of Representatives must meekly bide their tongues, fold their arms in submission, let fall their eye-lids and go it—go it blind! Not give him money? "Aid and comfort." Not vote him men to carry on his war? "Treason." Doubt his power to make war when he pleases? "Mexican Whiggery." Shade of SPAIGHT! what have we come to?

The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States, North, commenced its session at Pittsburgh, on the 1st inst.—The Conference was called to order by Bishop HINDS, who read a chapter from the Epistle to Timothy. Other services were performed by Bishops WAUGH and MORRIS, after which tellers were appointed to receive the credentials of members. J. M. Trimble, of Ohio, and S. A. Roszel, of Baltimore, were selected, and reported the names of 134 Delegates. A quorum being declared present, the Conference proceeded to the election of a Secretary by ballot. At the second ballot, the Rev. J. M. Trimble, of Ohio, was chosen with Rev. Jesse T. Peck and Rev. John Fraser, assistants.

At the third day's session, the Rev. Mr. Dickinson, the Delegate from the British Methodist Conference, was presented to the Conference by P. P. Sandford, of New York.

Just before the adjournment, a letter was received from Dr. Pierce, stating that he was a Delegate from the Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and requested the Convention to determine by Resolution whether they would receive his credentials.

The announcement caused a marked excitement in the Conference, and a motion was made to refer the matter to a Committee. Various motions were then made, among which was one to lay on the table, which was lost. After some explanation, the letter was referred to the Committee on the State of the Church.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The Delegates representing the Fifth Congressional District, composed of the Counties of Granville, Person, Caswell, Orange and Chatham, assembled at the Court House in Hillsborough, on Thursday, the 4th inst., for the purpose of electing a Delegate to represent the District in the National Convention, to be held in Philadelphia, on Wednesday, the 7th of June.

On motion, James Mebane, Esq. of Caswell, was called to the Chair, and James N. Fuller and Josiah Turner, Jr., Esqrs. were appointed Secretaries. The Chairman explained the object of the meeting, and in the course of his remarks, took occasion to speak of the spirit of liberty which had shown itself in our ancient ally, France, and throughout Europe generally—expressing the hope and belief that the day was not far distant, when civil and religious liberty, such as we enjoy, would be established throughout the old world, where despotism now holds its sway.

On motion, the Chairman appointed the following gentlemen, viz: Charles Russ, Harrison Parker, Giles Mebane and James N. Fuller, as a Committee to prepare and report Resolutions for the action of the meeting.

The Committee retired, and after consultation reported the following Resolutions: Resolved, That we will cheerfully abide the decision of the National Convention, to be held in Philadelphia on the 7th of June next, and will cordially support the nominee of said Convention. Resolved, That, in the opinion of this meeting, Gen. Z. Taylor is the choice of the Whigs of this Congressional District, for the next President of the United States.

The first Resolution was received with a hearty assent, and adopted unanimously. The second was rejected by the Convention, there being some contrariety of opinion among the Delegates, as to who is the first choice of the district, whether Gen. Taylor or Henry Clay.

The Convention then selected for their delegate to the National Convention, Edwin G. Read, Esq., of Person County; and Calvin Wiley, Esq. of Granville, his alternate.

A TAYLOR MEETING IN NEW YORK.
A large and enthusiastic Taylor meeting was held in New York last week. The Hon. Mr. Tombs, of Georgia, J. P. Hall, Esq. and Col. Todd, of Kentucky, were among the speakers. The latter gentleman appeared, to render his testimony to the worth, character and ability of Gen. Taylor, between whom and himself a friendship of forty years' standing existed. His intimacy extended back to the period when, in defence of the frontier post known as Fort Harrison, he exhibited a courage and coolness, under trying circumstances, such as no subsequent event of his life has surpassed. He bore testimony to this exceeding strength of mind, his purity of purpose, and remarkable knowledge of men and things; and added, that throughout the West the feeling in his favor was deep and abiding, especially in Kentucky. In conclusion, he urged the assemblage to unite upon him as eminently worthy of the suffrages of the entire nation.

ANOS KENDALL, the agent of Prof. MORSE, in defending the high charges for telegraphing on the Boston and New York, and New York and Washington lines, says that they have never yet been able to make a dividend. Perhaps, truly observes the "Springfield Republican," Mr. KENDALL and his fellows may learn wisdom from the fact, which we see simultaneously announced, that the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and Louisville Telegraph Company, whose charges are the lowest of any line in the country, have just declared a semi-annual dividend of 6 per cent, and laid aside a large sum for a reserve fund. Low prices increase the business and increase receipts—a fact which our Telegraph managers do not yet seem to be aware of.

We notice that in the report of the debate in the Senate, on Thursday, on the Yucatan bill, when Mr. Cass quoted something as having been said by Mr. Calhoun, the latter gentleman corrected him, and Mr. Cass remarked that the sentiment had been quoted once before by Mr. Foote of Miss., and that Mr. Calhoun had not corrected him—whereupon Mr. Calhoun is reported, pithily, to have replied—"I did not consider it necessary to contradict what that Senator said."

IMPORTANT NEWS FROM MEXICO.

Battle at Santa Cruz—Defeat of the Mexicans—Arrival of Mr. Sevier in Mexico—Court of Enquiry not yet adjourned.

New-Orleans, May 4. The steamer Fashion has arrived from the Brazos, whence she sailed on the 30th ult. Squire Collins, bearer of despatches for Government, and General Price and Wool are among the Passengers. The above vessel brings full particulars of a battle fought at Santa Cruz, which lasted all day. The Mexicans surrendered at discretion, after having killed 150 and wounded 200. The Mexican force was 2000 strong, while that of the Americans was but 700. All the Mexican officers, forty in number, were taken prisoners, with all the ammunition and arms, consisting of four-pound cannon and two thousand muskets. The prisoners were liberated on parole and sent to San Juan.

The Sch. Heroine has also arrived, bringing dates from the City of Mexico to the 20th. Mr. Sevier, the U. S. Commissioner, entered that city on the 15th. Governor Michoacan has resigned, in consequence of his opposition to the Treaty. The American flag was flying on the top of Popocatepetl, three quarters of a mile above the level of the ocean, being the highest point of elevation in the ancient kingdom of the Aztecs. No meeting of Congress had yet taken place, but it was expected there would be a quorum on the 5th May. The Court of Inquiry was expected to adjourn in a few days, though it is probable another would be called, as Government has serious charges to make against Gen. Scott. Gen. Scott is daily expected in New Orleans.

TESTIMONY OF THE DOCTORS IN FAVOR OF WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

Exeter, Me., Sept. 30, 1845. This certifies that I have recommended the use of Dr. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY for the cure of the Lung, for two years past, and many bottles to my knowledge have been used by my patients, all with beneficial results. In two cases, where it was thought confirmed consumption had taken place, the Wild Cherry effected a cure. E. BOYDEN, Physician at Exeter Corner.

Dr. Bradford Knapp, of Crown Point, N. Y., in a letter dated August 30, 1845, says: "In the course of my practice in this vicinity I have tested in some good degree the good qualities of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry in Pulmonary Complaints, and I now wish to procure a supply of the medicine." Dr. A. H. Macmillan, of Tarboro, North Carolina, writes us under date of Feb. 14, 1847, that he has used Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry in his practice the last eighteen months, and considers it the best preparation of the kind he ever saw, and knows of none so deserving the public patronage.

Dr. Wm. A. Shaw, of Washington, N. C. writes, under date of May 1, 1846, as follows: "I have heard of many cases of decided beneficial effects from its use, especially in Asthma and chronic cough of spasmodic character. I have used the Wild Cherry a great deal in practice, and with marked good results in those cases of great nervous mobility, and irritability, to which phisical patients are subject. The combination of these principles in Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is judicious and judicious. Medical men are justly distrustful of Patent Medicines in general, but candor must discriminate between outrageous humbugs and nostrums, and those medicines which have proved salutary, and in many well attested cases curative." Dr. Hoffman, Huntington, Pa., cured a child of Asthma with it, after he had declared he could do no more with his medicine, and the child must die. Dr. Freleigh, of Saugerties, N. Y., says he cured Liver Complaint of four years standing, that would not yield to the usual Remedies.

Abraham Skillman, M. D., of Boundbrook, N. J., says it is the best medicine for Consumption, in either its acute or chronic form. We might refer you to hundreds of cases, had we room, that would convince all of its great virtue. Editors, lawyers, clergymen, and almost every class have at last found out that Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is what "it is recommended to be," the very best medicine to be found. It cures or relieves all affections of the Lungs when nothing else will.

None genuine, unless signed I. BUTTS on the wrapper. For sale in Raleigh, wholesale and retail, by WILLIAMS, HAYWOOD & CO., and by Druggists generally in North Carolina.
