NORTH CAROLINA MOUNTAIN WHIGS. WHIGS OF NORTH CAROLINA! August, with its great battle will soon be upon as! Are you prepared for the contest ? Have such arrangements been made, and are they still in progress, as will ensure to our chosen leaders a triumphant election? ARE YOU ORGANIZED? These are questions which every Whig in the State should propound to himself, and if they cannot be answered favorably, then he may say to himself, I have not our candidate for Governor a larger majority than done my duty. A great political campaign is not usual. We know they can, and we believe they to be carried on, nor is success to be obtained by boastful declarations of the strength of our cause, or of the invincibility of our leaders. We must command success by Combination, Union, Concert of action. We must ORGANIZE our forces if we would win the battle! It is idle to say that we shall overwhelm our adversaries, if we take no precaution against surprise-if we sleep until they have possessed themseves of our outposts. ENERGY, INDUS-TRY and ORGANIZATION, are as necessary to success in a contest at the polls, as valor and discipline have

We beseech our friends throughout the State not to be lulled to sleep in the belief that the Whig party is in no danger-that we will certainly be triumphantly victorious. It will not do to rely solely upon the strength of our principles, our cause, or our men. Unless we exert ourselves to bring into. mactical effect our power, it were as well, in the event of our failure, that we possessed it not. The Whigs have a large and decided majority in the State, and they can swell it thousands more if they will go to work ! The vote which North Carolina shall give for Governor and Members of the Legislature in August, will have a powerful-nay, it may have a controlling influence in deciding the contest between TAYLOR and Cass in November! North Carolina fires about the first gun in the great battle. A "hanging fire" may prove disastrous to our cause If we are but steady, faithful and united, that " first-

Huzza, say we, for the gallant Whigs of the Mountains! We see that the fires are burning brightly on our Western hill-tops, and that they are engaging in the contest with a hearty good will .--We wish they knew with what engerness the news from their region is looked for by the Whigs of the East; if they did, we are sure they would even give will! Let August, then, be the precursor of the "frost, the killing frost !" which will sweep down from her mountain sides to blast and destroy Loco Focoism forever in North Carolina. Old Zack "never surrenders," and the "Mountain Boys" never WHIGS OF THE EAST. While we have cause to rejoice over the activity and enthusiasm which prevails in the Western part of North Carolina, we have also reason to congratulate ourselves at the "signs of the times" in the East. Our friends seem to be alive to the work, determined to do, or die." We are assured that an increased Whig vote will be returned from that section this year, and that they intend to contend for the palm with their Western brethren. That is the way to make Loco Focoism quail before our thunder. Let a laudable emulation to excel, inspire each breast-let every one show his devotion to the cause by the activity he shall exhibit-let every man bring his man to the Polls, and then, not only will we make sure work of our Legislature and Governor, but render doubly sure the great victory that awaits our glorious old leader in November next.

MR. CLAY'S POSITION.

LY 5, 1848.

VERLY RALE GH REGISTER.

AND NORTH CAROLINA GAZETTE

The "Standard," feeling satisfied that it can say or do nothing to defeat TAYLOR and FILLMORE by raising false charges against them, resorts to the pediency of endeavoring to create the impression that Mr. CLAY, whom it knows the Whigs will ever delight to honor, is opposed to Gen. TAYLOR, and that Mr. FILLMORE declines accepting the nomination for Vice President. Both these false statements will prove as impotent as they are reckless .---With regard to Mr. CLAY's position, the "New York Express," of Saturday last, makes the following statement :

"We have every reason to believe, that a voice from Ashland, has come out at last, hushing the stormy elements that were at work in the Whig party. Mr. Clay, we are assured, does not hesitate rally to a man for our gallant MANLY, and work, to say, that he will support Gen. Taylor, and that Gen. work, work like men, for the Hero of Buena Vista Faylor will bected by an overwhelming majority.— and show to the world that, like him, "you ask no and Gen and Gen and Gen and Gen and Gen and found with him by Mr. only fault found with him by Mr. ns, and favors, and shrink from no responsibility," and the Clay, is the same fault that many of us found before country will be redeemed from the gross misrule the Allison letter, that he did not occupy a sufficiently inded Whig position. Under the doubt at-tending that position, it is probable that MIF. Clay expresses some surprise that he was nominated by a purely Whig Convention; but that, as he is nominated, all good Whigs will support him. Thus they who are using Mr. Clay's name for factious purposes, are rebuked by himself."

> With regard to Mr. FILLMORE's declining, nobody believes it.

GOV. DODGE AND THE BARNBURNERS .- There is till no authoritative announcement that Gov. Dodge has declined the nomination of the Barnburners for Vice President. The Washington correspondent of the New York Evening Post, (Barnburner,) under date of Saturday, writes:

"I have learned from Col. Dodge that he has not been informed, except from common report, of the fact of his nomination at Utics, and that he has not expressed any determination in regard to it."

IN A SRIRIPID

On the 14th inst., by Jesse Sikes, Esq., Dr. Willis W. Lewis to Miss Mary Jane, second daughter of Col. Charles McCleese, all of Tyrrell County.

In this City, on Wednesday night, of Cholera Infantum, Charles Earl, infant and only son of Dr. Charles É. Johnson.

In Tarboro' on the 19th inst., Francis L. Dancy, Esq., in the 73rd year of his age. For many years he had been prostrated with paralysis. His confinement and long suffering were borne with that firmness and resignation so characteristic of the man. And while it enlisted the warmest sympathies of the community, it prepared them for the shock they have just sustained in the death of a fellow citizen, who has so long filled the first place among them.

His success in life is the best commentary on the strong features which marked his character. High toned and honorable in his sentiments and bearing among his fellow men-zealous and active in the discharge of all his duties-charitable without ostentation, his kindnesses being oftener felt than seen-of a stern and unbending sense of justice, exacting its own rights but cheerfully rendering the dues of others-of an ardent, impulsive temperament, leading sometimes to indiscretion, whose heaviest inflictions fell upon himself.

He graduated at our University in 1801, in a class with Bennehan, Amis, Branch, J. D. Hawkins, King, Lytle and Wm. H. Murfree. He studied Law and upon coming to the Bar, he met in his circuit Gaston, Stanly, Hogg, Mordecai, Daniel and Burgess. To have succeeded in his profession, in a competition with such distinguished individuals, speaks a high eulogy on his talents and abilities.

He was for a long time the County Solicitor of Edgecombe, the duties of which were faithfully and ably performed; and 'tis the only office he ever sought or accepted. He was ever zealous and prominent for the promotion of political friends, but always rejecting the proffered honor himself-always ready to serve his country but never claiming its rewards. His political feelings were entirely in unison with the people among whom he lived, and enjoying, in an eminent degree, their confidence for ability and patriotism, yet never yielding to the proffered allurements of office ; preferring to do right without seeking its applause. Such virtue and selfdenial is worthy of the best days of our Republic.

WHIGS DISSOLVING.

We would really like to know if our neighbor of the "Standard" is still of the opinion that the Whig party is rapidly dissolving? From all parts of the country, we have the most convincing proofs that the Convention did well and wisely in selecting TAY-LOR and FILLMORE as our standard-bearers in the coming contest, and that the great mass of the party have responded to the nomination with joy. The Whig Press, with singular unanimity, unite in declaring for TAYLOR and FILLMORE. It's no use, Mr. "Standard," the Whig party is fully united, and whenever and wherever the enemy appears in the field and the Whig flag is menaced, "the old guard" will be there !

But how is it with the Loco Foco candidates, Cass and BUTLER? Any such unanimity for them? In the North, a large party, with Martin Van Buren at its head, is openly arrayed against them? In the South, the South Carolina, Florida and Alabama leaders repudiate them. In the West, the Loco Foco disaffection is deep and extensive. As a sign, the Editor of the Columbus, Ohio, (the State so sure for Cass.) "Free Press," a leading Loco Foco organ, announces his determination to discontinue his paper. his unwillingness to support the nominees of his party being the cause. Oh, the harmonious Democracy ! Ha !! ha !!!

WHERE ARE HIS PRINCIPLES?

The Locos are very fond of declaring the Whigs lestitute of principles, but it seems Gen. Cass, if he has any, does not choose to make them known. Gen. Cass was in Cleaveland (Ohio) a few days ago, on his way home. He was received with a large display and with civil and military honors. Judge Wood addressed him, introduced him to the people, and welcomed him to the hospitality of the City .--Judge W. then said :

And, sir, permit me on this occasion, to call your attention to the fact, that our political opponents declare that you are opposed to the improvement of our Western Rivers and harbors, and we have always met this declaration with the assurance that m occurred, which spread havoc far Gen. LEWIS CASS, as a Western man, wast fully identified with the interests of the West, and could not be opposed to the improvements so much needed, by the people of the West and of the whole country. "It may not be improper for me, sir, to allude to should you secure the election to the Presidency of the United States, your administration would lend its influence to the extension and perpetuation of human slavery.

"The people here assembled, with the greatest pleasure, will now listen to any communication, which, sir, it may be your pleasure to submit."

Here was a glorious chance for the General to show his hand, and remove all doubt of what he thought and intended on the important and vital matters to which his attention had been officially directed. To the charges, thus publicly repeated,

The Register of Wednesday last publishes an article from the Cincinnati Gazette, in which it is stated as probable that Gen. Taylor, if elected Pres-as an Abolition Candidate for the Presidency! Standard.

Which of the two is the worse-to republish an article, in which BIRNEY's name is casually mentioned, or to rejoice, in a separate and laudatory Paragraph, over the election of DAVID WILMOT, the Loco Foco Abolitionist and author of the notorious Wilmot Proviso? The "Standard" did this latter thing !

But the mention of the name of BIRNEY by the "Standard" is peculiarly unfortunate for that print. It brings to our mind the election of 1844. JAMES K. POLK, not only received the votes, but the personal efforts of JAS. G. BIRNEY, the Abolition Candidate for the Presidency in 1844, and his incendiary followers, and he was rewarded for his efforts in behalf of Polk by a nomination by the Democracy of Michigan (Mr. Cass' State.) to the Legislature. We will stir up the memory of the "Standard," by a quotation from a leading Loco Foco paper in Pennsylvania, the "Spirit of the Times," of October, 1844. Read it :

"We perceive," says the Times, "that J. G. Birney, the abolition or liberty candidate, has openly avowed his preference for Mr. Polk over Mr. Clay, at which the Federal papers seem exceedingly wrathy. But is it not natural? Is not the democratic party opposed, as a MASS, to human slavery ? Is there a true democrat in Pennsylvania who is not opposed to the traffic in human flesh and blood ? * * * * We think not. " Freedom for the bound !" is the cry of every real democratic heart !

Now we leave it to the "Standard" to say if this is not "strong as old cheese." The Editor and JAMES G. BIRNEY, and the whole of his Abolition crew, were side by side, in 1844, in advocating the election of Mr. POLK ! and so they will be for Gen. CASS. These old "documents" are dangerous things.

SENATOR DOUGLAS, AGAIN.

We observe that this gentleman, who came on to Raleigh, to enlighten the "ignorant and benighted People" of North Carolina, has recently been addressing the citizens of New Orleans, in advocacy of Gen. CASS. Mr. DOUGLAS' remarks are thus summed up in the "Delta," a Loco Foco paper :

"Mr. Douglas, while avowing his determination to lend his most cordial support to the nomination, said that each of the distinguished individuals selecone more topic, which is, especially to this immedi-ate district, a topic of the deepest interest-I refer first choice. The gentleman also declared himself to the institution of slavery. We are told, sir, that opposed to the Wilmot Proviso, and said that he would vote for no man who was not determinedly and unqualifiedly hostile to that measure. If a Northern man should be a Whig candidate for the Presidency, there would be no danger to Southern institutions ; but if he should be a Southern man, beware ; for a Northern man can get no support unless he avows his sentiments distinctly on the subject ; but, from a Southern man, no pledge would be demanded from the South, and the Southern States might therefore find themselves deceived, when personal ambition should be interested against them."

> Mind you that, Southern reader! A Northern Loco Foco cannot betray the South, but a Southern Whig--sye, even Gen. TAYLOR-may! We wonder such language did not meet with a ducking over

lavs in advance of the mail

The schooner Jonah, arrived at New Orlcans on the 21st inst. from Tampico, from whence she sailed on the 10th inst. The Indians were getting veident, will call Mr. Birney, among others, into his ry troublesome at Tampico, and Capt. Hunter was Cabinet! Mr. Birney has been run and voted for compelled to call out his Company to repel an attack.

She also brings some later intelligence from Campeachy, relative to Indian difficulties in that unfortunate country. The whites and Indians have had a battle on the 1st inst. at Baheuchen, in which the Indians lost nine hundred warriors. The loss of the whites is not given. All the small towns have been abandoned or destroyed.

LATE AND IMPORTANT FROM MEXICO. NEW-ORLEANS, June 23.

Steamship Palmetto arrived yesterday, having ailed from Vera Cruz on 18th inst. Mr. Sevier, left the Capitol on the 12th, and was expected at Vera Cruz on the 19th. On his arrival, the Custom House would be turned over to the Mexicans.

A conspiracy had been detected to overthrow the government. Five leading characters who were favorable to peace, had been assassinated by a party headed by Paredes and Jarauta. All the American troops were expected at Jalapa on 21st inst.

GENERAL TAYLOR'S PROSPECTS.

In this town and portion of the State, Gen. Taylor's prospects for election are anything but bright. The Whigs look dispirited, and manifest none of that satisfaction and enthusiasm that they were expected to display when they might hear of the nomination of their Convention .-- Rateon.

We will venture a red apple, that a very different paragraph will appear in the "Ratoon" in the number published after the result of the election in glorious old Orange is known.

I must therefore content myself with thanking you for the generous reception which I, the unworthy representative of the great Democratic party of the country, have received at your hands. I hope you have all read the letter which I addressed to the National Democratic Convention, J declared that to be the close of my political professions." What a public exhibition was this! A Candid-

You, sir, are also charged with being in favor of extending and perpetuating human slavery. What have you to say to these charges? The People will now listen to you with pleasure.

The accused answers: The circumstance, that there is so much "noise and confusion" "will prevent my being heard. I have closed my political professions ! !"

So it is with this progressive Democratic party, when you drive them to the wall, press them home for the truth, they have no principles at all.

THE HOT WEATHER.

Parents cannot be too careful of the health of their children during the prevalence of the warm weather. This is the season when that destroyer of infancy, the cholers infantum, commences its career. Children should be clothed loosely and coolly. They should be taken to the country as frequently as possible. Their food ought to be plain; and above all things, unripe fruit, of every kind, should be kept beyond their reach. On the first symptoms of cholers infantum, medical advice should be obtained instantly. A delay of three or four days is frequently fatal. We have good authority for saying that this dreadful disease is very easily managed in its early stages ; but if it be allowed to become chronic, the chances are ninety-nine to one against recovery.
