

The People's Ticket! FOR PRESIDENT. ZACHARY TAYLOR, OF LOUISIANA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT. MILLARD FILLMORE, OF NEW YORK.

LEIGH, N. C. Tuesday, August 16, 1848.

There will be a meeting of the "Rough and Ready" at the Court House, on Thursday at early candle light. Some good things are expected. Let us have a rousing one.

CAROLINA VOLUNTEERS. Our Officer, Col BRAGO, was nobly re-ceived at the patriotic citizens of Warren, on Tuesday. He was presented with a handsome and addresses on the occasion were quite and thrilling. During the course of his address he gave a glowing tribute to Col. BRAGO, and spoke thus feelingly of the Volunteers:

It is a pleasure to see a generous people, on a fortunate soldier, too frequently do not receive the credit they deserve, and those who are condemned, as some must be, for inactivity, but laborious service in the regular army. By far the highest duty to perform, is to fight and conquer the little credit is awarded for any other exploit, for referring to the arduous duty of this kind assigned to the Volunteers sent to the field from our ranks.

On returning to their homes, none of you of your hospitality and gratitude, for the privilege of encountering an inactivity in an inactive camp life, they all the privations and hardships of a share of its glories or a hope of hereafter affords me the greater pleasure, and I speak from a personal knowledge, that an opportunity only was for the lead of its able and zealous Commander Regiment to have acquired a name by that of any similar body of troops.

One that will find a responsive echo in every North Carolinian. Our ranks had no ordinary trials to contend with, but the difficulties of encounter. No adequate of the privations and hardships of in the midst of an enemy's country, can those who have been "reclining in the lap of ease." The tedious march—the of the Chapparral—the torrid sun— and disease—are all bitter in the Soldier's life. Death may not speak the word that knells upon the ear, but it is the breath of the pestiferous atmosphere, it may not be heralded by the dread thunders, but it is told amid the awful silence of waste—remote from home and relative, no "well-foughten" battle can testify to the prowess of our Volunteers, no glorious victory trumpets their fame, they are to the exalted praise of having vanquished of a Soldier's life by a Soldier's endurance—the outbreaks of insubordinate discipline and commendable duty—and innumerable obstacles, but to announce the arrival in our City, those who nearly two years since left us in the notice Maj. Wilder, Capt. Buck and Adjutant Whitaker, Lieut. Yarrborough, Sergeants Hardie and Rowlett, and Lumsden, Hayes, Crenshaw, Perry, and Askew and others.

Number, we believe, of the Volunteers only, have returned "safe and sound," and friends, but three, viz: Joseph who was discharged at Monterey on account of disability, and returned and died in this city, and Calvin Shaw and Charles who died in Mexico.

McCOLLUM'S splendid Circus Ad-vice, arrived in this City on Monday. It is very highly spoken of by the Advertiser.

ing in Wilmington last week of the R. T. PAINE, commander of the North Carolina Volunteers, it was unanimous present him with a pair of Silver Pitch-forks in the late war with Mexico.

CAPT. CLARK. To learn that our chivalrous young Capt. W. J. CLARK, has been made Major in Congress, in consideration of "gallant conduct in several affairs with GUERRAS OVERAS, NATIONAL BRIDGE, and Mexico, on the 10th 12th, and 15th

FINAL RESULT.

We give below the returns from all the Counties in the State, with the exception of Cherokee and Currituck. It will be seen, that Mr. MANLY's present majority is 844; which result cannot be materially altered by the returns yet to be received.

North Carolina, therefore, is ever, a staunch and decided Whig State. The diminution in the gubernatorial vote, and the decrease of our majority in the Legislature, are creditable to the energy of Whig Candidates in strong Whig Counties.

Our Whig friends abroad may rest assured that if there is a Whig State in the Union, that State is North Carolina. If, distracted as the Whigs have been, by the local concerns of the County Elections, weakened in their efforts for want of efficient organizations, misled by a wily stratagem of their opponents, and lulled into a false security by confidence in their strength, we have yet carried the election of Governor, by a sufficiently decided majority now, we will, under more favorable circumstances, support the Hero of Buena Vista, by a vote at least equal to that by which, in 1844, we manifested our confidence in Harry of the West. ON THIS, OUR FRIENDS THROUGHOUT THE UNION, MAY CONFIDENTLY RELY.

The Whig majority in the Legislature, will be 2, on joint ballot.

PRESTO! CHANGE!

The "Standard" announces the election in Chowan of "Col. R. T. PAINE, Whig—no change." But there is a wonderful change. The name of Col. PAINE, a few months ago, when he was in Mexico, could not be mentioned without the Democrats generally being thrown into spasms; and on all such occasions, Gov. GRAHAM, the Mexican Preamble and Col. PAINE received at the hands of the "Standard" a particular editorial, spasmodical drubbing. The announcement of his Election is made now as a matter of course, unaccompanied by a solitary word of abuse. It is truly remarkable, and may perhaps be accounted for by supposing that some persons (in the language of Gen. Cass) "are laboring under an impression that a change has taken place in their minds"—knowing as they do that Col. PAINE is a member of the House of Commons, which assembles at Raleigh next winter. Verbum sap.

Quere?—Since our neighbor has cooled off so suddenly; would it not be a suitable time for him to publish the decision of that "Court of Inquiry" at Saltillo—or to let his readers know that Col. PAINE was honorably acquitted of the charges brought against him, and his conduct entirely approved by the Court consisting of Major LEWIS CASS and others? It may not however become the "Standard" to publish "any thing calculated or designed to injure the Democratic cause," or to effect the election of DAVID S. REID. Since the Election is over and the truth is not now "calculated to injure the Democratic cause," we suggest that the "Standard" might think a little of the character of our Regiment and the honor of our State, and feel a little compunction—a very little—for the injury it has done to a meritorious officer, whose only official fault was a too rigid performance of what he deemed his duty. Let it then do tardy justice by publishing the decision.—The publication now may do it no credit, but the longer postponement to do so will attach that shame and discredit to it, which the willful suppression of justice by the public Press should always merit.

We see it stated, that Mr. CLAY travelled nearly fifty miles, to cast his vote for Mr. CRITTENDEN. All honor to the great Statesman. His heart is with the Whig cause now, as ever, and all who love and admire Henry Clay will, influenced by his patriotic course, remember his example at the election in Kentucky, and endeavor to profit thereby.

Which, dead to shame and every nice sense, Never blushed; unless, in spreading view's glare It blundered on some virtue unawares?

That rooted, callous impudence, Which, dead to shame and every nice sense, Never blushed; unless, in spreading view's glare It blundered on some virtue unawares?

That rooted, callous impudence, Which, dead to shame and every nice sense, Never blushed; unless, in spreading view's glare It blundered on some virtue unawares?

Mr. CRITZLER asked whether Mr. STANTON considered the Wilmot proviso to be unconstitutional? (He said he did.) Then the gentleman, his colleague, had voted for a bill one feature of which he believed in his conscience to be unconstitutional. The gentleman said the proviso was nugatory, and the Supreme Court would so decide. Well, his colleague had found a plan by which any member might vote for any unconstitutional law, by simply saying that if it is unconstitutional it is nugatory, and therefore no law at all. This is certainly a most important and convenient discovery to do away with the observance of the constitution. But how did some of my colleague's friends, who agree to this new and convenient rule of his, and who voted for the Oregon bill with the Wilmot proviso in it, believing it unconstitutional, vote the other day upon the civil and diplomatic bill? Did not they vote against the whole bill because it contained an appropriation of $50,000 to the Savannah river, on the ground that this appropriation was unconstitutional? It is for them to reconcile if they can this gross and palpable inconsistency.

A note is appended to the report of the Debate in the National Intelligencer, giving a list of the Southern Democrats who voted, at the last session of Congress, for the Oregon Bill, having the Wilmot Proviso in it. Among that number, were David S. Reid, J. R. J. Daniel and J. J. McKay. In the list of Southern Democrats who voted against the Civil and Diplomatic Bill, with the Savannah Appropriation in it, are found the names of Messrs. Daniel and McKay—and in that list would have been enrolled the name of David S. Reid, had he been in this session in Congress. Keep it then before the People of North Carolina, that the Democratic Candidate for Governor voted for the Wilmot Proviso—and that the Democratic organs knew when they were hurling their venomous darts at the Whig party of the South that the interests of the South had been betrayed by their own leaders! Or if they choose the other horn of the dilemma—keep it before the People, that they have been guilty of a gross political inconsistency which defies every attempt at explanation or reconciliation! Either fact is sufficient of itself, to consign Mr. Reid and his party in this State, still deeper and deeper to that political quagmire, whence, amidst the apparition, demagogical details of their campaign, the freemen of North Carolina have committed them.

SUPREME COURT.

This Tribunal convened at Morganton, on Monday, the 7th inst., Judges RUFFIN and BATTLE present. The following young gentlemen were admitted to County Court practice: Wm. M. Peacock, Montgomery County. N. A. McLean, Robeson do. A. F. Brevard, Lincoln, do. S. C. W. Tate, Morganton, do. Marcus Erwin, Asheville, do. L. B. Gaston, Gaston County, do. John H. Dallard, Rockingham County, do. L. Blackmer, Rowan County, do. P. I. Wilson, Rutherfordton, do.

The following obtained Superior Court License: John H. Dillard, Rockingham County. R. Don. Wilson, Mountain Home, McDowell Co. Alfred W. Foster, Lexington, do. Thomas L. Shade, Lincolnton, do. J. Alexander Fox, Charlotte, do.

State Elections. KENTUCKY.

The Whigs in this glorious Old Commonwealth have done nobly. The only question in regard to the State, appears to be as to the amount of Mr. Crittenden's majority, the estimates of which range from five to seven thousand, notwithstanding the active efforts of our political opponents to keep it down as much as possible.

ILLINOIS.

The accounts were not conclusive as to the election for Congress. A Loo is said to be elected in the place of LINCOLN (Whig) BAKER (Whig)—and MARSHALL (Whig) are said to be elected—a clear Whig gain then, so far, of one Congressman.

INDIANA.

The Whig gains have not been sufficient to overcome the Loco Foco majority in the last Legislature.

FREE SOIL CONVENTION.

The Convention at Buffalo, has nominated MARTIN VAN BUREN for the Presidency, and CHARLES F. ADAMS, as the Free Soil Candidate for the Vice Presidency. The vote stood, for VAN BUREN, 154, JOHN P. HALE, 129.

A QUESTION FOR THE "STANDARD."

Which party, and whose Administration, are justly chargeable with the offence of placing the rights of the South in a position where their "compromise" is necessary? Will the "Standard" inform us?

STRIKING RESEMBLANCES.

Master Philip, a character in the "Bachelor of the Albany" was perpetually mistaking the Smily girls, one for the other—"they being as like other as two pins—particularly Laura."

CONGRESS.

In the Senate, on July 8, Mr. Webster appeared in his usual morning, having returned from his residence in Massachusetts. He still bears the marks of his recent illness.

On motion of Mr. King, the bill granting land for the construction of a railroad from Mobile to the mouth of the Ohio was taken up.

On motion of Mr. Johnson of Md., the Senate at about 12 o'clock, proceeded to the consideration of executive business—said to be on military appointments.

The doors were again opened at about 3 P. M. and several unimportant bills were passed.

The House of Representatives went into committee of the whole on the river and harbor bill—Mr. Cabel in the Chair—and Mr. Dickinson, a very able member from Ohio, was called to the committee—more than twenty members being present, the rest having gone to dinner.

In the Senate on August 10, the morning business was unimportant. After getting through with it, the Senate proceeded to the consideration of the Oregon Bill, and a debate sprang up, which was participated in by Messrs. Webster, Butler, Douglas, Hale, Calhoun, Niles, Johnson of Maryland, Berrien and Metcalf.

In the House of Representatives, a communication was read from Mr. Nicholas P. Trist addressed to the Speaker of the House, relative to the Treaty with Mexico. In his communication, Mr. T. denounces the President of the United States, and requests the House to impeach him.

The communication, without being ordered to be printed, was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

On motion, the House then resolved itself into a committee of the whole and proceeded to the consideration of the Senate's amendments to the Civil and Diplomatic Appropriation Bill.

THE SLANDER OF GEN. TAYLOR.

We have been assured, from a source which we know no man can doubt, that Gen. Taylor so far from saying that the North Carolina Regiment have given him more trouble than any other in the service, expressed himself pleased with their quiet and orderly deportment. We doubt not that the truth with regard to this matter will be even more fully developed than it is at present though even now it is enough to blush those concerned in the attempt to suppress it.

From the London Times.

As a general rule, we have a profound contempt for patent medicines and infallible nostrums; but Hastings' Compound Syrup of Naphtha is working such well-authenticated cures in Asthma, Consumption, &c., all around us, that we hail it as a most important discovery, and recommend it to the notice of those whom it may concern. Many of our medical friends have tried experiments with it, which have been astonishingly successful.

For further particulars of the efficiency of the above medicine see advertisement in another column of to-day's paper.

STONE & McCOLLUM'S Great Western Circus.

Will be Exhibited in Raleigh on Monday and Tuesday, the 4th and 5th of September next. THIS very great performing Company, as organized for the Fall Travelling Season, embraces a DOUBLE PERFORMING TROUPE, a portion of them having been engaged the past month in the city of New York by the manager, who is desirous of gratifying the wishes of the New Orleans public by introducing the Greatest Circus Company in the Union, on the opening of their New Amphitheatre, that is now in the course of erection in that city.

H. K. GAULT, with the Silver Bugle presented to him by the Philharmonic Society of New Orleans, and his celebrated BRASS BAND. It would not be improper to state, that the Band is composed of the Leading Members from the St. Charles the French and American Theatres, New Orleans, who, during their vacation in the summer months, have formed this Inimitable Band; and we challenge any company in the Union to produce their equal.

The most gratifying result must be observed to the most cursory observer, on reference to the following Synopsis of the Troupe: MUSIC. Orchestra, Gault's Brass Band. Bernard's String Band. Comic, Jennings McGill. Ethiopian, J. Smith, B. Brown, C. McGill. EQUITATION. Principal and Gymnastic—McCullum, E. Stone, J. Blackwood, M. J. Lipman. GYMNASTICS: McCullum, Eaton Stone, and 20 others. BATTOUT ELASTIQUE: The above gentlemen, aided by the world's valtiest; M. J. Lipman. POSES MASQUEE: By Jennings and M. J. Lipman, Master Henri. J. Shay, A. Levi, Young Harvey, B. Brown. Physical Devices: Leonard Harvey. Department of Comedy: G. B. Johnson, B. Jennings, A. Levi. EQUILIBRIA: Crescent Wire, Young Harvey. Equilibriums, Eaton Stone. Light Balancing, J. Shay. Pageants, Hinkley, H. Stimmell, &c. Proprietors: Stone, McCollum & Co. Manager: John W. Smith. Equitarian Director: D. W. Stone. Accredited Agent: G. L. Eaton.

A discriminating public will dwell, in glancing over this bird-eye view of the Immense Troupe, upon the names of McCullum, Eaton Stone, J. Smith, M. J. Lipman, H. K. Gault, D. W. Stone, J. Blackwood respectively the best performers in their respective departments in the country.

The method and system prevailing the performance, and the order and decorum always rigidly enforced, in and out of the circle, which have been as marked characteristics of this Circus, are even the aptitude of the performers will be strictly adhered to; and it is trusted, to prevent the patronage of that intelligent and refined portion of the community, who have, in an especial manner, heretofore honored this Circus with their presence. The managers indulge as great pride and satisfaction in dwelling upon the numbers of the patrons who have always thronged their entertainments, and they congratulate themselves that they never possessed in such abundance as now appliances to cater for an healthful taste for innocent amusements. Admission 50 cents—children half price. Ushers in attendance to wait on Ladies and family parties to seats. Pit for colored persons 25 cents. Doors will open on day performance at 1, commence at 2—at night at 7 1/2, commence at 8. All improper persons excluded. STONE & McCOLLUM.

VALUABLE LAND.

BEING desirous of moving to the South, I offer the following valuable tract of land, lying on the North-east of Raleigh, between the Louisa and Gaston roads, and the road leading to Wake Forest, and immediately on the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road. The Tract contains about Five Hundred Acres, well watered, well adapted to the cultivation of Corn, Wheat, Oats, Cotton and Tobacco. The Land could be divided so as to make two beautiful situations. It is deemed unnecessary to say any thing more, as the purchaser will examine before buying. For any other particulars, enquire of Mr. KIRKPATRICK JONES, Wake Co., July 3, 1848.

Piano Fortes.

THE continued success with which GAINES, RICHES & CO. have met in the sale of their Piano Fortes, has induced them to enlarge their supply, and they are now pleased to inform their friends, and the public generally, that they have just received a large and beautiful assortment of new and improved instruments, and intend to sell them at a very low price, and in great quantities. They have supplied a great many orders from distant parts of the country, and have received fifth prizes at the distance (who bought their Pianos without first seeing them) voluntary letters of approval, both as to price and quality. They would also call attention to their large stock of Books, Part Albums and Stationery, all of which they sell at Publishers' and Northern prices. They have also a Book Bazaar attached to their establishment, in which every style of binding is executed with durability and neatness. Blank work of every pattern will be made to order, Music bound, &c. Persons wanting any thing in their line, will find it to their advantage to give them a trial, as they are determined to spare no pains in their efforts to give entire satisfaction to all their customers.
