EUROPEAN AFFAIRS.

The whole of continental Europe seems ready to burst into one general conflagration.

The quarrels between the parliaments throughout all the various divisions of Germany and their respective princes, has reached the highest pitch, and in Saxony a conflict has already taken place.

At Dresden, the people, or rather the Red Republican party, fought with the troops during several hours, on the 5th inst., and a great loss of life occurred. The Railroads were displaced, in order to prevent troops from Berlin from arriving; but a sufficient number of Prussians having come up opportunely, a momentary tranquility was secured by sheer military force. The fight, however, was renewed on the 6th, and a frightful can- Hastings' Naphtha Syrup ordered from you, and am nonading lasted all day, until night separated the convinced that Naphtha is the principal ingredient. combatants. On the 7th, the battle was renewed again at 4 o'clock in the morning, and the most deadly warfare was going on in the streets, by the latest advices, up to 6 o'clock of that day.

Intelligence from Dresden to the 8th, states, that hostilities still raged between the royalists and insurgents, to the disadvantage of the latter, without any immediate prospect of their termination.

Had that city been destitute of this main prop to the civil authority. New York might, and in all probability the fairest portion of it would have been, at this time, a mass of smouldering ruins-for, who can place a limit to the desolation which might have been wrought by 30 000 despicable and maddened rioters ?

In Italy the advance of the French expedition toward.Rome has been checked by the resistance of the Republicans of the Roman States. In two encounters the French were driven back with great loss, and Capt. Oudinot, a relative of the General, was taken prisoner. Gen. Oudinot, unprepared for such a reception, has withdrawn his troops re-inforcements and further instructions from his ney Currie. government. The French had 180 killed, and 400 wounded.

FRANCE.

From Paris the report is still repeated that the rupture between the President and M. Napoleon Bonaparte is complete. A fierce quarrel, it is said, rages between them. Their quarrels increase the dangers which surround the bodies of the army. privates and officers of which seem to have been greatly wrought upon by the Socialists.

The French General marched on the 27th ult., from Civita Vecchia. The account of his further progress is furnished by telegraphic despatches. Gen. Oudinot had set out on his march for Rome, where, according to every information, he was called by the people, but having met from the foreigners, who occupy Rome, more serious reistance than he expected, he took up a position at some distance from the city, and was waiting the arrival of the rest of the expedition. No date is given, but it is probable that Gen Oudinot was near Rome on the 30th ult.

It is said that in the attack on Rome Gen. Oudinot was nearly taken prisoner. The Italian combatants had caught hold of him and his men had a great difficulty in rescuing him.

On Thursday, the Paris papers gave no certain information of the entry of the French troops into Rome. All we learn is, that the Neapolitans were marching upon that city, and it is said that the French would occupy it before them.

The Constitutionel states, that it was reported that the French army had made good their entry into Rome, and had taken several prisoners, among whom were only five Romans. This report, however, does not appear to rest upon any sufficient authority. Immediately upon the receipt of the news of the French expedition having received a check at Rome, the President addressed the following letter to General Oudinot, which was published in the Moniteur :

"ELYSEE NATIONAL, May 8, 1849. " My dear General : The telegraphic news, announcing that unforeseen resistance which you have met, under the walls of Rome, has greatly grieved me. I had hoped that the inhabitants of Rome, opening their eyes to evidence, would receive with eagerness an army which had marched to accomplish a friendly and disinterested mission. This has not been the case. Our soldiers have been received as enemies. Our military take on the same terms the contract for building a honor is injured.
