

EIGHTH DISTRICT.

Our Whig friends generally, throughout the State, will rejoice to learn that the Hon. EDWARD STANLY has accepted the nomination to Congress, in the above named District, and has already actively entered upon the duties of the Canvass.

A friend from Lenoir, who was present at the Convention, writes us that it was very numerous, and we have not the slightest apprehension with regard to his success.

Decency.

A democratic paper in the State of New York holds the following, as regards the President of the United States:

"We do not find fault with Taylor because he has thrust Democrats from office—we think many removals should have been made—but we blame him for lying, we blame him for being dishonest—we blame him for being a trickster—a paltry, contemptible trickster. His conduct has been that of a POLITICAL SCOUNDREL."

We should hope that every respectable democrat would at once withdraw his patronage from a print so totally destitute of all sense of propriety and decency, and who thus grossly insults the whole people of the United States by such infamous vituperation of their chief magistrate.

We learn from the Atlanta (Ga.) "Intelligencer" that Ex-Gov. Swain, of this State, passed through that City, on Wednesday last, on his way to visit some of his friends in Tennessee.

MR. CLAY.

The Washington "Republic," referring to the speculations on the part of the opposition press, as to the attitude which this distinguished Statesman will assume towards the Administration on taking his seat in the Senate, says: "They who predict a factious opposition from him to the Administration, measure his spirit by their own. We have reason to know that the cordial relations which subsist between Mr. Clay, Gen. Taylor and his Cabinet, are such as warrant the belief that the Administration will find in him a cordial and sincere supporter."

Liberal Donation.

The Hon. JAMES BUCHANAN has given to the city of Lancaster, in trust, the sum of $4,000 to remain as a perpetual fund, the interest whereof to be annually expended in the purchase of fuel for the use of poor and indigent females, of that city, during inclement winter seasons.

ILLNESS OF GOV. CRITTENDEN.—The Louisville Courier of the 18th, says:

Some painful reports concerning the illness of Gov. Crittenden were in circulation here Saturday evening and yesterday. We understand that he had a very severe attack of cholera morbus, but we are rejoiced to learn that although his situation was at one time extremely critical, yet when the stage left Frankfort yesterday morning, at 10 o'clock, he was considered out of danger.

Programme for 4th of July.

NATIONAL SALUTE AT DAY BREAK. Divine service at sun rise at the Presbyterian Church. ORDER OF PROCESSION. To be formed in front of the Court House, at ten o'clock, and march in the following order to Union Square, and enter at the Northern Gate.

The Committee to whom were referred various Resolutions, submitted through their Chairman, the following Report, to wit:

Resolved, That this Convention heartily commends the spirit in regard to works of internal improvement, which characterized our last General Assembly, and that its members are especially gratified by the liberal provisions made by that body for the construction of the "North Carolina Rail Road"—a work of the utmost importance to the trade and character of the State, and of almost vital interest to that extensive and productive region lying contiguous to, or within convenient distance of the proposed road.

Resolved further, That in the opinion of this Convention, while there are some defects in the charter enacted for the construction of this great work, it is sufficient, upon a fair, just, and reasonable interpretation, to effect, and to secure to the people of the State, the benefits resulting from it.

Resolved further, That a subscription of one million of dollars by individuals being required before the company can be organized for the construction of this Rail Road, it is the duty of all patriotic citizens to use their best exertion to raise that amount of subscription; and the members of this body do agree to urge this subject upon their respective constituents, neighborhoods and counties.

Resolved further, That an Executive Committee of three persons be appointed by this Convention to whom all information respecting the progress of the subscriptions may be communicated, and who shall suggest, if need be, from time to time, by advertisement in the newspapers or otherwise, such action on the part of the friends of this enterprise, as may tend to its early accomplishment.

Resolved further, That the President of this Convention appoint a County Committee in each County immediately interested in the construction of the "North Carolina Rail Road" consisting of three members, whose duty it shall be to appoint sub-committees in the various sections of their respective counties, to procure subscriptions to the capital stock in said Rail Road, and to take all other measures which they may deem necessary to the promotion of this enterprise.

Resolved further, That the Commissioners appointed to receive subscriptions be, and they are hereby respectfully solicited to open books of subscription for the stock of this Rail Road in the shortest time for the state, after due advertisement at the several places designated in the charter, for the space of thirty days; and at the expiration of that time they be in like manner requested to report the several subscriptions made, as well to the chairman of the executive committee aforesaid, as to John M. Morehead, Esq., of Greensboro', for the information of the General Commissioners named in the charter, of whom he is one, and that he be requested as soon as one million of dollars shall be ascertained to have been subscribed, to make known the fact to each one of the General Commissioners, and to designate a time and place for their meeting to receive the official reports of the sub-commissioners as directed in the said charter.

Resolved further, That in the event of the stock not being taken under the first advertisement, the executive committee, if deemed expedient, be requested to employ a suitable agent to travel, call meetings, address the people, solicit and receive subscriptions in and out of the State.

Resolved further, That a committee of two persons be now appointed by the President to enquire and report to this convention whether there be any, and if any, what number of individuals can be associated to subscribe the residue of the stock required to form the company, provided there should be a deficiency in the amount returned on the books of the commissioners aforesaid.

Resolved further, That it is the opinion of this Convention, that the payment of five hundred thousand dollars required to be made according to the 26th section, will be as well complied with by the execution of contracts for work and materials to that amount as by the payment of money.

Resolved further, That it is desirable to procure as large a number of stockholders as possible in said Rail Road Company, no matter how small may be their several subscriptions, if equal to a single share.

Resolved further, That in order to accommodate the terms of payment for stock to the condition and convenience of our fellow citizens generally, the Board of Directors of the Rail Road Company, ought and will be expected by this convention, in letting contracts for the work and materials of the same, to give a preference to stockholders who may offer to become contractors, in all cases where they propose reasonable terms, to be judged of by the said Board with the aid of the estimates of the Engineer.

The following resolution, on motion of H. C. Jones, was unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That we reciprocate with much satisfaction the good will manifested by the people of Norfolk and Portsmouth, in sending delegations to this Convention, and we heartily concur in the sentiment avowed by that delegation, that the great scheme of improvement now under consideration, is calculated to unite those communities with the people of this State in the strong ties of mutual interest and social feeling, and without giving any preference to one class of those towns over others, both within our State and without, who are regarded as competitors in the interests, we hail with the greatest pleasure the advance so handsomely made on this occasion towards the establishment of this union.

On motion of J. A. Lillington, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Board of General Commissioners appointed to supervise the opening of Books for Subscription to the Capital Stock of the North Carolina Rail Road, be requested to appoint three or more Commissioners at or near the cities of Norfolk and Portsmouth, in Va., and three Commissioners for the Town of Petersburg, and also three for the county of Wayne, to receive Subscriptions for that purpose.

In pursuance of the 4th Resolution of the General Committee, John M. Morehead, George W. Mordecai and William R. Holt, were appointed the Executive Committee.

Mr. Graham offered the following resolution: Resolved, That three delegates be appointed by the President of this Convention, to represent this body in the Rail Road Convention, to be held at Memphis, Tennessee, in the month of July next, with a view to the construction of a Railroad from the Mississippi valley to the Pacific Ocean.

Which was unanimously adopted, and the Hon. D. L. Swain, Hon. James Graham, and the Hon. J. P. King, of Georgia, were accordingly appointed delegates.

In pursuance of the 5th resolution reported by the General Committee, the President appointed the following gentlemen:

FOURTH OF JULY.

We presume more crackers and fire works will be let off on the approaching Fourth, than on any former festival. The whole air will be saturated with sulphur, and thus purified, and indeed a few extra cannon fired and a few tar barrels consumed in advance of the Fourth, would do no injury to the atmosphere. It is a day of all others that should be joyfully celebrated, more particularly this time when we are at peace with all the world, and when the prosperous issue of American agriculture and manufactures, gives advantages which the old world does not possess. All our local divisions in this country, which are scarcely worth notice, cannot arrest a course so great and prosperous.—New York Star.

The Pittsburg Mercury, recording the marriage of a Miss Holmes, President of the Martha Washington Total Abstinence Society, to a Mr. Andrew Horn, appends the following: Fair Julia lived at Temperance maid, And preached its beauties night and morn, But still her wicked neighbors said, She broke her pledge and took a Horn.

After reading Gov. McDowell's speech in Congress on the Slavery question, Col. Noland, the Editor of the Batesville (Arkansas) Eagle, a noble son of Virginia, and as true a Whig as ever breathed, said:

"If we didn't feel lifted right out of our boots, when reading the eloquent speech of this gentleman, then there are few snakes in harvest. Old Virginia has got a few snakes left, said McDowell in one of her brightest. Such appeals to the patriotism of the North, cannot fail to have their weight; and in our individual opinion, will do more good to the cause of the South—go further to stay the madness of Northern fanatics, than ten thousand wagon loads of the low, scurrilous productions of Cobb, Boyd & Co. Such men never can see beyond party, and have no idea that any document can be perfect, until filled up with slander and abuse of the Whig party. Gov. McDowell is a Democrat, but he is a gentleman and an honest man; and this is saying more than we should like to say for some would-be great men, who have straddled the slavery question."

The Union quotes, for the purpose of ridicule, an observation which Gen. Taylor is reported to have made. "I am," said Gen. Taylor, "for good roads, good harbors and good laws, and then we can go ahead." If General Taylor did say so, he made a very sensible, excellent remark—one displaying practical wisdom: and one, too, which will be approved of by the people.—Alex. Gaz.

Stephen D. Poole, of North Carolina, to be Consul at Turk's Island; in lieu of J. T. Pickett, resigned. Who is Step. D. Poole? Standard. Son of the old man Poole. Smithfield Telegraph.

A Convalescing "Son"—The Picanune is responsible for the following anecdote:

Gough.—We are indebted to a friend from the country for the following little anecdote, showing how one of the "Sons" recently got goughed, which, being interpreted, meaneth getting "high," "tight," "fuddled." It seems that our temperance man had a "shake" with the cholera, but fortunately recovered. When he was getting convalescent, as the doctors say, his physician prescribed a little brandy—once an ounce per day—and the patient at once sent out and procured a quantity of the "article."

On the following afternoon, the physician paid a visit to the cholera man, and to his astonishment, found him in a most excellent flow of spirits—or, in other words, quite goughed! On inquiring into this singular state of things, the physician man exclaimed: "Did I not prescribe an ounce only of brandy per day?" "Yes, sir," replied the cholera man; "but then you must know, doctor, I had no scales to weigh it in, and remembering that eight drams make an ounce, I had no scruples in measuring it out in that way. Yesterday I took eight good 'borns,' and have already had three this morning, and feel much the better for it. You're a first rate cholera doctor, you are?" The doctor then went to his next patient.

An exchange paper very gravely informs us that a young man who was recently bathing in the Missouri River, seeing a number of ladies approach, drowned himself from motives of delicacy!

Consumption disarmed of its Terrors! HASTINGS' Compound Syrup of Naphtha.

DR HASTING'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF NAPHTHA.—The great Remedy for Consumption, Decline, Asthma, Spitting of Blood, Night Sweats, Husky Throats, Wasting of the Flesh, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and all Diseases of the Chest and Lungs.

This celebrated preparation is pleasant to the taste, and is so speedy in its operations, that patients plainly feel its good effects in a few minutes after taking the first dose.

HASTING'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF NAPHTHA is now being used in nearly all our hospitals, and is also coming into rapid use among all our best physicians, for coughs, colds, and all diseases of the lungs. It has been recommended in the worst state of consumption by the celebrated physician, Dr. Mott, of New-York; and Dr. Arnold, of Savannah, Ga., writing to the agent at New-York, under date of Jan. 30, 1848, says: "I received the half-dozen Hastings' Naphtha Syrup ordered from you, and am convinced that Naphtha is the principal ingredient. I enclosed in twenty-five dollars, for which you will send me two dozen and a half bottles. I have two patients in the Marine Hospital, whom I think will be benefited by it."

Price one dollar a bottle. Six bottles for five dollars. The usual allowance to the trade.

DEATH.

In Wake County, at the residence of his mother, on the 22d inst., Hillary Madison Wilder, in the 24th year of his age.

The circumstances connected with the death of this young man, are of peculiar and touching sadness. He had almost completed a course of Medical study at the University of Pennsylvania, when the state of his health compelled him to lay aside his books and hasten home. Alarming symptoms of Consumption displayed themselves, and it soon became apparent that his constitution was fast going into a hopeless decline. The most anxious and devoted attention of friends and relatives, and the most eminent professional skill, were unavailing; he languished under his distressing malady for several months, calmly awaiting his fate, and at last met it with fortitude and serenity. It is mournful to reflect upon the sad end of one cut off so early in life, just as his career of usefulness was about to commence, and his hopes were highest and his anticipations brightest. He will be sincerely lamented, and long and affectionately remembered by a large circle of friends, to whom the mildness of his temper, the kindness of his heart and the purity of his purposes had endeared him.

$400 REWARD.

A PROCLAMATION. By his Excellency, CHARLES MANLY, Governor of the State of North Carolina.

HEREAS, it has been made appear to me, that NEEDHAM STEVENS, charged with the crime of Negro stealing, and JOHN P. WILLIAMS, convicted of a similar offence, have broken Sampson County Jail, and fled, probably, beyond the limits of this State:

Now, to the end that the said Needham Stevens may be brought to trial for said offence, and that the sentence of the Law, I do hereby issue this my Proclamation, offering a reward of $400, for the apprehension and delivery of the said Needham Stevens and the said John P. Williams, to the Sheriff of the said County of Sampson; or a reward of $200 for the arrest and confinement of either of them, the said Needham Stevens or the said John P. Williams, in any Jail in this State.

Description. Needham Stevens is tall in stature, dark heavy features, and about 40 years old. John P. Williams is about 40 years of age, 5 or 6 inches in height. Same, one leg about 3 inches shorter than the other; broad forehead.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the State of North Carolina, at the City of Raleigh, June 23, 1849.

We clip the following handsome and well-merited compliment to North Carolina from that excellent Journal, the "Columbus (Ga) Enquirer."

THE OLD NORTH STATE. Our friends in good old North Carolina are coming up to the scratch with the spirit and energy that has for many years characterized the Whigs of old Rip Van Winkle. Truly indeed, does the Register say, that she has been the Oasis in the desert of Southern Locomotion. For ourselves, we acknowledge the rough impachment. Whilst, other Southern States—some of them all the while, and others occasionally—have turned to the right or the left in quest of the good that democracy promises, old North Carolina has adhered to the faith of our fathers, with a constancy that entitles her to all praise.

Steady to their principles, firm in the pursuit of their country's good, the Whigs of that State come up to each successive election determined to do their whole duty. From the highest to the lowest office in the State, they put forth the worthiest citizens, and stand up to them like men. We commend their good example to our friends in this State.

Messrs. Nash and Venable addressed the people at Roxborough last Tuesday. Nash's effort is spoken of as truly great and triumphant. He poured the "grape and canister" into Mr. Venable at such a rate, that the faces of the friends of the latter expanded to a length suitable for measuring tape. Mr. Venable is looked upon by some people as a great chatting man—and so he is—but he is twice welcome to all he may achieve over Nash in a public disputation.
