REPUBLICAN WHIG TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT, GEN. WINFIELD SCOTT, OF NEW JERSEY. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, OF NORTH CAROLINA. ELECTION ON TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2nd.

Republican Whig Electoral Ticket.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE, HENRY W. MILLER, OF WAKE. 1st. District, GEO. W. BAXTER, 2d. do. do. RALPH GORRELL, 3d. do. do. HENRY K. NASII, 4th. do. do. M. W. RANSOM, 5th. do. do. JNO. WINSLOW, 6th. do. do. DAVID A. BARNES, 7th. do. do. DAVID A. BARNES.

"I have been asked if I liked this Fugitive Slave Law: I answered, NO, I LOATHED IT. I HAVE A MOST REVOLTING FEELING AT THE GIVING UP OF A SLAVE—THE LAW IS OPPOSED TO HUMANITY."—Gen. Pierce, 2nd January, 1852.

Again, Gen. Pierce, in a speech made by him while in the United States Senate—See Globe, 2nd Session, 25th Congress, page 54—says: "I have no hesitation in saying that I consider Slavery a SOCIAL and POLITICAL EVIL, and MOST SINCERELY WISH it had no existence on the face of the earth."

SCOTT AND GRAHAM CLUB. The meeting called for Tuesday night was postponed, on account of the inclemency of the weather. There will be a meeting of the Club, however, on this (Friday) evening, at 8 o'clock. It is hoped that there will be a strong turnout of the Whigs of the City.

BY ORDER OF THE PRESIDENT.

WHIG MASS MEETINGS. We are rejoiced to perceive, in every quarter, in spite of the result of the recent Election, the indications of a renewed spirit and fresh determination among our friends. They all seem resolved to redeem the State from her temporary disgrace, in November. They have but to will it, and it can be done!

There will be a Whig Mass Meeting at Enfield, Halifax county, on Friday next, the third of September. Messrs. Dawson, of Georgia, Jones, of Tennessee, Botts and Watts, of Virginia, Stanley, Dockery, Outlaw, Miller and Ransom, of our own State, and other distinguished gentlemen, are expected to be present, and will address the people on the great questions now agitating the public mind. Ample accommodation will be provided for all who may attend.—Can we not raise a delegation in Raleigh?

We published in our last call for another Mass Meeting, to be held in Statesville, Iredell county, on Thursday and Friday, the 9th and 10th of September. The arrangements for this meeting are projected on an extensive scale, and it will doubtless be very largely attended. It is expected that several of the most distinguished speakers in this State and Tennessee will be present.

A large Mass Meeting will be held in this portion of the State, sometime during the campaign, at which it is hoped every county in North Carolina will be fully represented. Propriety will be given of the place and time, in due season.

This is the right course. Get up Mass Meetings, friends, in every section of the State. The public mind will be thereby enlightened—the merits of our glorious Candidates be fully canvassed, and the old Whig fires aroused.—This is a season of plenty—the crops are more abundant—and every man can, therefore, spare a little time, in which to attend to these things.

A PRIVATE WORD!

Our circulation has quite largely increased within the past three or four months, but we are, by no means, "done taking in." Each one of our Subscribers, with but little exertion or inconvenience, if any, can procure us another; and the aggregate would be most important to us. Look at our terms, and send in the names. Now is the time for every man in North Carolina to take one of his own State papers!

RALEIGH AND GASTON ROAD.

We regret to see that the proposition for the relief of this Road, which had previously passed the Senate, has failed to get through the House of Representatives. The bill which was proposed to extend the time for the payment of the duty on iron imported for the reconstruction of the road. We hardly know to what interest to attribute the defeat of this Bill; but to whatever, it is of a piece with the unwholesome and illiberal legislation that has marked the present Congress.

MORE PROOF—THE "YANKEE FREE-SOILER."

We have already expressed the opinion that the testimony heretofore adduced, touching the character of PIERCE'S speech at New Boston, is perfectly conclusive. Independently of the positive evidence to the particular declaration which he is charged with having made there, the admitted fact, which appears from the Life of Pierce, published by the Democratic Central Committee, that he avowed at Manchester, on the 20th of November, 1850, that "the men who would dissolve the Union did not hate or desire slavery more than he did," renders the report of those declarations almost beyond question or denial.

But the most incredulous, surely, can entertain no doubt as to the perfect accuracy of that report, after reading the affidavits which follow, and which we find published in the Washington "Republican."

MAYOR'S OFFICE, MANCHESTER, August 14, 1852. Having been intimately acquainted with Rev. A. T. Foss, of this city, during the last seven years, I can most cheerfully state that he always has sustained an unblemished moral character, and is regarded in our community as a clergyman of ability, integrity, and piety. FREDERIC SMYTH, Mayor of Manchester, N. H.

GOSFORTH, N. H., Aug. 9, 1852. This is to certify that Rev. Andrew T. Foss is a member of the Baptist church in Gosforth, N. H., in good and regular standing, and is a minister in regular standing in the Baptist denomination. J. W. POLAND, Pastor. JESSE T. PLUMER, Ch. CLK.

We, Abraham Cochran, Solomon M. McCurdy, and James M. McCurdy, citizens of New Boston, county of Hillsborough, and State of New Hampshire, depose and say, that we were at a political meeting in this town on the second day of January, 1852, at which General Pierce made a political speech; and we further say, that we saw report of said speech immediately after in the Manchester Democrat, and we then thought the report a faithful statement of General Pierce's remarks on the slavery question; and our attention having been recently called to this subject, we say that, according to our best recollection, the report on the part relating to slavery and the Fugitive Slave Law is correct.

JOSEPH COCHRAN, SOLOMON M. MCCURDY, JAMES MCCURDY. STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE, Hillsborough, ss: On this 27th day of July, A. D. 1852, personally appeared the above named Abraham Cochran, Solomon M. McCurdy, and James McCurdy, and made solemn oath that the foregoing affidavit by them subscribed is true. Before me, JOSEPH COCHRAN, Jr., Justice of the Peace.

I, Daniel Andrews, of New Boston, in the county of Hillsborough, and State of New Hampshire, depose and say, that I was at a political meeting held in this town on the second day of January, 1852, which was addressed by General Franklin Pierce; and I further say, that I saw the report of said speech made by A. T. Foss, and I then believed the report to be a true and correct statement of what he said at that time; and I never heard any person say that he doubted the correctness of the report until it became necessary to contradict it to see General Pierce's credit with his southern friends.

DANIEL ANDREWS. Sworn, July 28, 1852, before JOSEPH COCHRAN, Jr., Justice of the Peace.

I, Cyrus W. Campbell, of the town of Gosforth, county of Hillsborough, and State of New Hampshire, depose and say, that I was at a political meeting held in this town on the second day of January, 1852, which was addressed by General Franklin Pierce; and while I cannot now testify to the words used, I do recollect that he spoke so decidedly against slavery and the Fugitive Slave Law, that I then thought, and still think, that he was a man of high moral character, and that he, General Pierce, was as strong an anti-slavery man as any we had about here.

RODNEY MCCOLLUM. Sworn, July 27, 1852, before JOSEPH COCHRAN, Jr., Justice of the Peace.

I, E. W. Griffin, of Pepperell, in the county of Middlesex, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, depose and say, that I was at New Boston, in the county of Hillsborough, and State of New Hampshire, on the second of January last, and that I heard the speeches of B. F. Ayer, Esq., and General Franklin Pierce, and that I heard A. T. Foss ask him several questions, and heard General Pierce's replies.

I distinctly recollect of hearing Gen. Franklin Pierce say that he had the most revolting feeling at the giving up of a slave; that he loathed the Fugitive Slave Law; and other expressions of similar import concerning slavery and the Fugitive Slave Law.

E. W. GRIFFIN. Sworn, August 10, 1852, before ROBERT MOORE, Justice of the Peace.

PIERCE'S own denial of the report of his speech, on the occasion alluded to, amounts to nothing—especially under all the circumstances of the case. Of what value is a vague and sweeping disclaimer, against the positive and specific averments, on oath, of men of as unimpeached truth as he? It is in his power, as a contemporary strongly puts the case, if he can do so consistently with truth, to deny specifically the language on the slavery question attributed to him at New Boston, and to state, as well as he can recollect, the precise words which he really employed on that occasion. He owed it to himself and his party—if he took any notice of the report—to disclaim it in such a manner that his disclaimer would "stick." He contents himself with saying that the "pretended report" is

AN "ENTIRE MISREPRESENTATION."

Now it is admitted, that a large part of the report is not a misrepresentation. On some points all the witnesses on both sides agree. But Gen. Pierce says it is an "entire misrepresentation." This state of the case makes it necessary for General Pierce to write a letter in which he shall correct his testimony, in such a manner that it shall not conflict with that of all the other witnesses! There are other affidavits yet to come.

THE "STANDARD" IN A SQUALL!

The Editor of the "Standard," somewhat puffed up by the temporary triumph which his Party has obtained in the Governor's election, imagines that he has thereby been constituted the guardian of the rights, honor and intelligence of all the good People of the State; and in the plenitude of his vanity and arrogance, raves furiously because we, together with others, have had the audacity to expose his unscrupulous attempts to practice the most outrageous frauds on the voters of the State. His deceptive and reckless comments upon the communication of the "Greensboro" correspondent, intended to wrong Mr. Kerr, and misrepresent his opinions, we exposed and held up to the scorn of all honorable men. Under this the "Standard" fretted and fumed, most exquisitely, not being able to brook the idea for a single moment, that it had not a carte blanche to practice deception and fraud whenever the good of the Party required it! For this unpardonable sin, on our part, in the estimation of the Editor, we should not expect to be forgiven, even had he the power of absolution, in conjunction with his other attributes as the High Priest of Locofocoism in this State. But the "Standard" knows—its conscience forces it to the conviction, however much it might now desire to have it otherwise, that it did, during the recent campaign, essay to practice the most barefaced frauds on the People.—It held up Gen. SCOTT as an abolitionist, which it knows to be false! It charged Mr. KERR with changing his opinion, when he reached the West, on the subject of the basis and school fund, which it knew to be false! It declared that the election of David S. Reid was the only way to get Free Suffrage, which it knew to be false! It charged the Whigs with a desire to get up a demagogic agitation of the Slavery question, which it knew to be false! It charged that Gen. Scott was allied with, and under the influence of, Seward, to break down the rights of the South, which it knew to be false! Nor are these one half the instances in which it endeavored to deceive and cheat the People. And this delectable trade it will keep up. Its hand is in "Othello's" occupation is not yet gone.

The campaign which is opening will be illustrated by many such artful and fraudulent devices on the part of the Oracle of locofocoism hereabouts. It entertain "an abiding confidence in the intelligence of the People"—and that too in the face of the means to which it resorts to dupe and mislead them! No. All we ask is that the People should open their eyes and see, intently at the practices and purposes of locofocoism. This is all that is necessary to induce them to reject it with loathing! The Editor of the "Standard" will soon see that the People have discernment sufficient to tell the difference between a "fainting" and a "fighting" soldier!

LOOK BEFORE YOU LEAP.

"I accept the nomination upon the platform adopted by the Convention, not because this is expected of me as a candidate, but because the principles of compromise, contained in the resolutions of my judgment, and with them, I believe I can SAFELY SAY THERE HAS BEEN NO WORD, NOR ACT OF MY LIFE IN CONFLICT."

Pierce's Letter of Acceptance. The Editor of the "Constitutionalist and Republican," of Augusta, Ga., who was a member of the Democratic Baltimore Convention, denies emphatically that said Convention endorsed or approved the Compromise measures. He was a member of the committee that reported the platform, and says that, "the language used in the resolutions was deliberately and carefully adopted, with the express purpose of avoiding any allusion, or any appearance of laudation, of the Compromise." Why, then, was any allusion made to the Compromise at all?

This, remarks a Georgia contemporary, is a candid confession, and so far as we have been able to understand the meaning of the wishy washy resolutions alluded to, is strictly true.—The Convention never intended to endorse or approve the measures which its members had not the moral and political courage to openly condemn. The whole object was to set a trap to catch Southern voters. It was a game of political imposition, dexterously played by B. F. HALLETT, a Freesoiler from the North, who drafted the resolutions with the purpose of deceiving the friends of the Compromise in the Southern States.

Here, then, is an open avowal, by one who knows that the Convention did not really endorse and approve the measures passed by Congress for the settlement of the dangerous and exciting questions connected with the slavery agitation; and yet we, and the friends of these measures, who stood by the Union and the Constitution in their support, are shamelessly told to mount this platform, and under the lead of a standard bearer, who hates and LOATHES slavery as much as the infamous fanatics of the constitution-destroying school, fight the battles of such political cheats! We shall pause long, and ponder deep, ere we do a deed at once so silly and so suicidal!

There are accounts of another alleged conspiracy in Cuba, against Spanish rule there, and of a proposedcession of Cuba to the negro government of Hayti, or the giving it up to the negroes themselves, now in the Island. The New York Courier and Enquirer publishes the particulars of the conspiracy and cession, though it does not say what degree of credence they are entitled to. It is stated that many well informed persons in New York consider the rumors mentioned by the Courier as mere fabrications, put forth to excite sympathy in the United States.

THE PROOF THICKENS.

We call the attention of the reader to the article which we publish to-day from the "New Orleans Bulletin," headed "New Hampshire Democracy." Since the nomination of General Pierce, hardly a week had passed without developing some new and startling facts tending to show his unsoundness on that question in which the South is so deeply interested, and proving most conclusively that it would be the height of madness in us to trust him with the power and patronage of this Government—the whole of which he would turn against us, to the destruction of our peace, and the insecurity of our property. It is evident that the entire locofoco party of New Hampshire, which has been moulded and governed for years past by Pierce, and of which he is claimed to be the great inspiration, is corrupt and rotten to the very core on the subject of slavery—that they are as rank Freesoilers and Abolitionists as any in the Union! How then can Pierce be pure and sound on this subject? No wonder he has clustered around him the Van Burens, and a host of other black-hearted and unscrupulous enemies of the South, and plays the part of "hall flog, well met" with them, in this contest for sleep!

WILL THE SOUTH, SEEING THESE THINGS, SLEEP?

FOREIGN AID—THE BRITISH PRESS FOR PIERCE.

It is a well authenticated fact that the British Press, and especially the "London Times," has been quite liberal in its rejoicing over the nomination of Franklin Pierce for the Presidency, and expresses strong hopes and an ardent desire that he should be elected. This is owing, no doubt, to the fact, mainly, that they look to him to aid them in establishing Free Trade, whereby our industry will be broken down and their promoted—our labor brought to starvation or thrown out of business and their's in the same degree made prosperous. There is however another reason why the corrupt and purse proud Aristocrats and millionaires of England are bidding God speed to Franklin Pierce! They, the whole generation of them, hate WINFIELD SCOTT! He it was who dragged down their haughty flag, and made it trail in the dust so often. No wonder they hate him, and no doubt they will do all in their power to defeat his election! As proof, in part of what we say, we call attention to the following paragraph from the "European Times," published at Liverpool:

"As regards England, public sympathy, it is needless to say, is enlisted on the side of the Democratic candidate. Not that Gen. Pierce is considered the better man. Far otherwise. He is merely accepted as the nominee of that great party in the Union who desire to push the principle of free trade to its utmost limits."

And yet the lying locofoco presses will talk most glibly about "British Whigs."

THE BRITISH ARISTOCRATS ARE FOR PIERCE!

WHY JOHN VAN BUREN IS GOING FOR PIERCE. After the last Presidential canvass was over, at the State Convention held at Utica, in 1849, strong resolutions reiterating the principles of the Buffalo platform were introduced and passed, and John Van Buren,—"the Cæsar de Lion of the Free Democracy,"—made the following explicit declaration of his purposes:

"I will state (he remarked) fairly, freely, and fully, what we expect. We expect to make the Democratic party of this State the great Anti-Slavery party of the State, and through it to make the Democratic party of the United States, the great Anti-Slavery party of the United States.—Those who do not contemplate this result will do well to get out of the way, for there is no doubt that, when our principles get before the people, so that they can hear them, and know what they are—and we have made arrangements for that now—that the whole people will go with us. And our Southern friends having had things their own way for the last twenty-five or thirty years, must make up their minds to let us have our own way for a while, we being fair men, and reasonable in our demands."

At Syracuse soon after, Mr. Van Buren again said: "I have had occasion to say heretofore, that I could not support any man for the Presidency who does not believe slavery to be an unmitigated evil, and who will not use all the power which the Constitution and laws may place in his hands for its overthrow. I would give notice now, that the general judgment of the people of this State, is that they do not believe slavery to be an unmitigated evil, and who will not use all the power which the Constitution and laws may place in his hands for its overthrow. I would give notice now, that the general judgment of the people of this State, is that they do not believe slavery to be an unmitigated evil, and who will not use all the power which the Constitution and laws may place in his hands for its overthrow."

Can any man living doubt longer that Gen. Pierce entertains the sentiments reported of him at New Boston? Would John Van Buren support him, if he did not know that he entertained them?

THE JANUS-FACED CANDIDATE.

Here, at the South, the locofoco party deny most lustily that Gen. Pierce ever used such expressions as are attributed to him in the account which has been published, of his New Boston speech in reference to slavery and the Fugitive Slave Law. In Ohio and other States, where Pierce is desirous of swelling his vote among the Free Soilers, they are insisting that the reports of his speech are correct, and that he did declare in emphatic terms, that "HE LOATHED THE FUGITIVE SLAVE LAW," and that "Slavery is contrary to the Constitution, and a moral blot on the character of the nation."

We have received a copy of the "Cleveland Plain Dealer," an abolition paper published in Ohio, which has hoisted at its head the names of Pierce and King. Immediately under their names it has placed the very paragraphs which most often the Whig papers at the South regularly publish, to show the unsoundness of Pierce on this vital question. The "Plain Dealer" declares that these paragraphs are genuine and express Gen. P.'s real sentiments. It further denounces Gen. Scott as opposed to Freesoilism, and in favor of the Compromise! Will the South submit tamely to be cheated in this way? Remember he LOATHES the Fugitive Law!

We call the attention of the reader to the article which we publish to-day from the "New Orleans Bulletin," headed "New Hampshire Democracy." Since the nomination of General Pierce, hardly a week had passed without developing some new and startling facts tending to show his unsoundness on that question in which the South is so deeply interested, and proving most conclusively that it would be the height of madness in us to trust him with the power and patronage of this Government—the whole of which he would turn against us, to the destruction of our peace, and the insecurity of our property. It is evident that the entire locofoco party of New Hampshire, which has been moulded and governed for years past by Pierce, and of which he is claimed to be the great inspiration, is corrupt and rotten to the very core on the subject of slavery—that they are as rank Freesoilers and Abolitionists as any in the Union! How then can Pierce be pure and sound on this subject? No wonder he has clustered around him the Van Burens, and a host of other black-hearted and unscrupulous enemies of the South, and plays the part of "hall flog, well met" with them, in this contest for sleep!

ANOTHER "ALLY" OF THE "YANKEE FREESOILER."

At an Abolition meeting in Pittsburg, Pa., August 12th., Col. Watson G. Haynes delivered a speech in favor of the election of Pierce and King. The speech is reported in full in the Pittsburg Daily Dispatch. Col. Haynes is a good Democrat, as well as a Freesoiler and endeavor to prove Gen. Pierce's peculiar fitness for the Presidency, upon political and religious grounds. We have no comments to make as to the conclusion to which every Southern patriot will come, after reading such a speech: REMARKS OF COL. WATSON G. HAYNES, OF PITTSBURG, CO. N. Y. At the Free Democratic National Convention, at Masonic Hall, on the evening of Thursday, August 12, 1852. Sir: I question no man's motives, and trust none will question mine. If I understand the call for this Convention, it was for the Free Democracy, where an interchange of opinions would be fully permitted. As many gentlemen have expressed a preference for Mr. Haynes as a candidate for the Presidency, I take the liberty of saying something in favor of the latter—to present some of the reasons why Franklin Pierce has some claims, at least, upon the Anti-Slavery vote of the country; presuming, as I do, that if slavery is ever abolished it must be by the Democracy. In the ranks of the Democracy the friends of Freedom have been found in greatest numbers. It is also true that many of the former friends of Freedom have now left us, as a distinct organization, and ranged themselves under the banner of Pierce. Can we impeach their motives?—Many of our press have been as firm friends of Freedom now as in any past time. Many newspapers opposed to the Fugitive Slave Law have also given their support to Pierce. Now, can we suppose that all these men, and papers, who now advocate Pierce, have entirely abandoned their former principles and professions of fidelity to the cause of freedom? I cannot believe that so many men are now recreant to the principles they strongly advocated in 1848! Have not these men stated that they are, even now, as strongly attached to the principles of Freedom as in 1848, and that they intend to bring all the influence they can to bear on the administration of General Pierce, if he is elected, (as he is pretty sure to be,) by the Protestant Democratic Party of this Union), for a repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law, the abolition of slavery wherever the Federal Government can reach it, and the great furtherance of our cause? Don't we find the strongest man in 1852, on the Presidential canvass, of that election, amongst them—ranged under the banner of Franklin Pierce, the favorite son of a Free State—a Freesoiler State—a Protestant State—in which Popery has no power, and a Roman Catholic cannot hold office? Our old friends, I assure you, know their own minds, and I have no kind of doubts on my mind that these men will exert an influence on his mind, after his election, if any such influence be needed, so as to bring about a repeal of this abominable law! It is certain Mr. Pierce cannot be elected any more than Gen. Cass, in 1848, if all the Freesoilers are as true to their Democratic Platform of Equal Rights—I don't mean the last platform, adopted at Baltimore; I don't respect that platform, nor is it possible that such men as the following can respect it: Ex-President Martin Van Buren, John Van Buren, Hon. Benj. F. Butler, Hon. John A. Dix, Hon. Charles Sumner, Hon. Gerrit Smith, Hon. Alvan Clark, Hon. Preston King, Hon. Martin G. Bates, Hon. John G. Floyd, Hon. Gilbert Dean, Hon. H. Van Dyke, Hon.
