RALEIGH, N. C.
SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 16, 1853.

DEATH OF GOV. IREDELL.
We are deeply pained to hear, just as our paper is going to press, of the death of Ex-Gov. James IREDELL, of this City, on yesterday (Thursday), in Edenton, where he had gone on a short visit. This announcement will be received with profound regret throughout the State. We are compelled to defer, until our next, a suitable notice of the private worth and public services of the distinguished deceased.

THE PERRY MURDER.
We noticed in our last, that PERRY had been convicted of the murder of his wife. He was brought out on Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock to receive the sentence of the Court; when H. W. MILLER, Esq., moved for a new trial, on the grounds, 1st, that the daughter of the prisoner, aged 12 years of age, summoned as a witness for the State, was not called to testify, nor tendered to the prisoner's counsel. She was not examined, because the Judge pronounced her incompetent to give testimony, as she appeared to be totally ignorant of the obligations of an oath. And 2dly, that the Jury, on Sunday, had acted illegally in visiting the Lunatic Asylum, some miles and a half from the Court House.

These grounds were controverted, on the part of the State, by F. F. MOORE, Esq., who was answered by G. W. HAYWOOD, and PERRY, Esq., in behalf of the prisoner, and were replied to by Mr. RAYSON, the Attorney General. Mr. MILLER rejoined, in support of the grounds he had taken. The Judge examined all the grounds urged for a new trial and declared them to be insufficient; and pronounced the sentence of death, to be executed on Friday the 29th inst. From this decision, Mr. MILLER, on behalf of the prisoner, took an appeal to the Supreme Court.

THE FIRST COPPER MINE IN ORANGE.
Copper ore has been recently found on the lands of the Messrs. ATWATER, between four and five miles South-west of the University. It is the double sulphuret of Iron and Copper; the ore from which nearly all the Copper of commerce is extracted, and the same that is raised at the Ferris mine in Guilford—quantity unknown.

THE SENATE.
The Senate of the United States adjourned on Monday last, after a special session of five weeks, the President having informed it that he had no further communication to make. This Executive session of the Senate has been of unusual length—longer than any other session that has ever been called—three times as long as that of 1829, on the accession of President Jackson, when the principle of proscriptive legislation was unknown to our Government, finding a fresh and unknown field, furnished so much work for the Senate.

THE CENSUS OF CALIFORNIA.
San Francisco papers, of the 15th ult., state that the following is the result of the census of the State of California:
Whites, 201,856
Negroes over 21 years of age, 185,344
Children, 3,970
Mafattoes, 672
Indians, domesticated, 33,530
Foreign residents, 59,991
The counties of Nevada, Placer and Yuba are reported 9,800 Chinese. The other counties have embraced them, without discrimination, under the general head of Foreign residents. The number of Chinese is believed to approximate twenty-five thousand.

THE GUILLOTINE.—Mr. Pierce, says the Louisville Journal, keeps the guillotine in motion from morning until night. He does not wait for breath, but goes ahead with a relentless and busy hand. Such heads are now rolling off from official shoulders in every direction. From Oregon and California to Concord in New Hampshire, Whigs are undergoing the summary process of decapitation by that President of the four weeks ago declared that he owed nothing to office-seekers, but everything to the masses! His conduct implies that he really thinks he owes everything to the hungry crew that beset him. Well, let Pierce do his duty. The chief object Democracy had in view in placing him in office was that he might put Democrats in office too. He is gratifying them in a spirit of accommodation and indulgence that they most highly appreciate. He will not keep them long in waiting, but will give them what they need without any needless delay.

CALVIN H. WILEY, Esq., General Superintendent of Common Schools, has been in this City for several days. We are glad to hear the opinion almost universally expressed, that his views thus far have been attended with marked success in the cause of popular Education. Mr. Wiley is visiting the Cape Fear Country, in consequence of a week or two.

THE REMAINS OF THE WIFE OF SENATOR DOUGLASS of Illinois, passed through this City, on Wednesday last, from Washington, on the way to the burying ground of the family, in Rock Hill County in this State.

TOWN MEETING.
A spirited meeting of the citizens of this place was held at the Town Hall, on Wednesday morning last, in order to make proper arrangements for a celebration on account of the completion of the highly important connection between the Seaboard and Roanoke and the Raleigh and Gaston Roads. A communication from the President of the former road was read, conveying the information that a large number of the citizens of Norfolk and Portsmouth would honor us with their company on Tuesday evening next, and extending an invitation to our citizens, generally, to accompany them on their return, on Wednesday. A Committee, consisting of the following citizens, was then appointed by the Mayor, to co-operate with a Committee to be appointed by the Commissioners, in making arrangements for the reception and entertainment of our guests, viz: Messrs. W. D. Cooke, W. R. Scott, Seaton Gales, W. W. Holden, Wm. Thompson, L. Waddell, Jr., Wesley Whitaker, Jr., J. C. Partridge, J. B. G. Roulhac, W. H. H. Tucker, Edw. Yarbrough, Sr., James Litchford, Sr., L. W. Peck, J. J. Biggs, Dr. J. W. Tucker, J. G. Williams, A. M. McPheters, K. W. Petersilia, Jas. Pattick, W. W. Vass, and J. A. Nunn.

This Committee was subsequently divided into four Sub-Committees for the purpose of fully and effectually carrying out the objects of the meeting. Our friends from Norfolk and Portsmouth, therefore, who may choose to favor us with their presence on Tuesday next, may rest assured of a hearty and ready welcome.

We are authorized by Mr. BRANCH, the President of our Road, to say that a train of Cars will leave Raleigh, on Wednesday, the 20th inst., at half-past seven o'clock, A. M., for Portsmouth, stopping to take up passengers at all the depots. The Stockholders of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company are invited to go to Norfolk and Portsmouth, on Wednesday, and return on Friday, free of charge. We hope that a large number of our citizens will also avail themselves of the invitation that has been extended to them. They will doubtless be entertained with an elegant hospitality.

We hope we do not trespass upon the patience of our readers, in making the following statement, which may have been made before. But we wish to show how far this State has gone into the work of improvement.

The Raleigh and Gaston Road is eighty-four miles long, built of iron, most substantially laid, and is in fine order—the running time being twenty-five miles per hour. The connection with the Northern road is by the Greensville and Roanoke road, made of the flat iron, but in good order. A connection is also nearly completed between Gaston and Weldon, by a heavy T iron road, which connects this State with Norfolk, by a road of nearly twenty miles within the borders of the State. Then, the Wilmington road extends 164 miles, connecting with the Manchester road, completed, South, to a distance of fifty-five miles, both of which roads cannot be surpassed in construction, speed or accommodation. The Charlotte and Columbia road is finished, and seventeen miles of it is in North Carolina. The Ridgeway Road, from Clarksville to the Gaston Road, is under rapid progress, and the road from Deep river to Fayetteville is under contract. The Central road, 240 miles long, is nearly all graded, the bridging begun, and parts of it will be in operation within a year or two. Plank roads are spreading over the State in every direction.

Our people are learning to stay at home. Let wanderers return. A few short years hence, and they will not be ashamed to record themselves on Hotel registers as from North Carolina. Yes, let them return, if possible. They will find things wonderfully changed, or changing. Their old mother has a heart large enough to take in all her prodigal and repentant children, and, without loth or stint, is ready to embrace them all.

That our fugitive children may know what has been done in five years past, we will mention the discovery of the most valuable coal mines in the world. These are about to be connected with markets able to establish their value. Then, Copper mines, worked at inconsiderable expense, but surpassing those of Cornwall and Lake Superior, are flooding their owners with wealth.

But mineral resources form but a small proportion of State revenue. A healthy condition of internal improvement is, at last, the greatest safeguard to the citizen or the settler. Facility of transportation of persons and property is what is always sought for. That is now being obviated in this State.

How men one might feel with a copper mine sticking out of his coat tail, or a gold mine dangling at his vest pocket? It is our fortune to meet some two or three men thus fixed daily, and their faces almost draw fatness into the lean jaws of over-worked editors.—Poor fellows! not paid, or badly paid, they must record the success of others, and the happiness of one must seem to reflect upon that of the other.

After all, exhortation makes the man. He that cannot make himself, is no man. He that looks forward to expectant fortune had better be blotted out from the list of humanity. He has his own part to perform, and must do it.—The stern law, "by the sweat of thy brow shalt thou earn thy bread," has never been mitigated, unless when some lucky Australian or Californian has picked up a nugget. Man must work, and either mental or physical exertion is required to keep him above the level of the brute.

THE RIGHT SPIRIT.
We extract the following patriotic observations from a report of the Speech of J. B. CURRY, Esq., at a late Whig meeting in Berrie.—They breathe a spirit which we should be glad to see emulated by every Whig in the land.—

"He stated the object for which this meeting of the Whigs of the country had been called, to consider of the propriety of holding a District Convention, to nominate a suitable candidate to be run against in the next Congress. The last Legislature of the State, in laying off Congressional districts, had changed the old district, formerly the 9th, into what is now the 1st, by an addition of three counties, Halifax, Washington and Tyrrell. It was thought advisable by our Whig friends, that justice to the new counties should be required, that they should be heard, and have their voices heard in the selection of the candidate for Congress. Mr. C. said he fully and heartily concurred in the propriety of holding a district Convention, as well to settle the matter as to who should be our candidate for Congress as to re-organize our glorious old party, and again to plant ourselves firmly and unshakably on the principles of the great Whig party. The question which he desired to ask his fellow-Whigs, whom he saw around him, some of whom, he might truly say, belonged to the 'old guard,' and had stood by the Whig party in more 'troubled times' than the present, is this: are you ready to give up those great principles for which you have so long battled, and which have been so bravely and truthfully explained in the administration of the Government, under the guidance of that wise and excellent man, President Fillmore, merely because in the late contest for the Presidency, we have suffered a temporary defeat? (Mr. C. said) he repeated it was that a temporary eclipse which has passed over our party, obscuring for a moment the brilliancy of its progress. Disband and give up the great Whig party! Is that the sentiment of the gallant and true-hearted Whigs, one at least, whom we now see, (tho' he is not a citizen at this time) in the ranks of the Whig army? (Mr. C. said) he could well remember, when our noble phalanx did not number many more than a leader's dozen? All things considered, (said Mr. C.) we have done about as well as could have been expected. Divided, distracted and disagreeing about men, disaster and defeat have for the most part befallen us. This catastrophe, no man can regret more than he did. But it is not the past with which we have to deal. To the future we must now look, and endeavor to profit by our mistake. For one, (said Mr. C.) he was for preparing again for the conflict."

WAR.
The warlike spirit of this age is very much at a discount. Threats and insults are made and given freely; but we have often seen the spectacle of two neighboring dogs fighting furiously through the rails of an interposing fence, who became the best friends in the world when let loose upon each other. So it is with the European powers, and so long as Russia and Austria can quarrel with Turkey or England, upon paper, or through their Ambassadors, so long may we expect rumors of war. But when barriers are thrown down, when army meets army, and fleets draw along sides of fleets then all is cordial greeting, and hostility is forgotten. How else is the existence of Europe to be maintained but by observing a peace policy? Crushed down with debt, restrained by internal dissatisfaction, there is no power on the continent bold enough to provoke war—not one, which could rely upon the fealty of its own subjects. England might possibly place some reliance upon her intrinsic strength, and think herself strong enough to challenge the world, but experience has taught her that peace is her true plan. Let England appear to court war, and to resent the insults constantly heaped upon her, but how could she dare venture upon expenses, unparalleled to what now exist, enough to craze the brain of a Babbage or a Buxton to calculate? This country has nothing to do with the spear and sword. She has turned both long ago, into the implements of peace. The appointment of Mr. Soule, a foreign born Jew, however, is fraught with evil omen. Yet such is the peace of the age, that we may still hope for good with the proud, tenacious Court of Spain.—Certainly nothing was more injudicious than that appointment, nothing can be more insulting to a monarchy so sensitive to its weakness and abatement.

Gen. Scott has purchased a handsome house in Twelfth street, near Fifth Avenue, New York, for $26,000, and designs taking up his permanent residence in it. The house is a new one, having been built last fall by Charles Partridge, Esq. The Whig Young Men's General Committee have appointed five of their number to wait upon General Scott to ascertain when he can make it convenient to meet the committee.

In the U. S. Senate, on Monday, the Hon. James Buchanan was nominated and immediately confirmed as Minister to England. It is understood that he accepts.

The Hon. HENRY WADSWELL has removed from Hillsboro' in this State to Chapel Hill, the seat of our University.

The body recently known as the Virginia Legislature has, after a "kump" existence of some ten months, at length undergone the pangs of dissolution. It breathed its last on Monday, the 11th day of April, A. D. 1853, and its remains have been appropriately interred.—Contrary to the usual observances on funeral occasions, the entombment of the deceased was amidst rejoicings and shouts of gladness, showing that the demise was not considered as a very distressing bereavement, but quite the contrary. Thracian-like, the people dance to this new grave instead of watering it with their tears, and we think that in so doing they set an example worthy of imitation in every similar case in future.—Fed Int.

A little boy had his first pocket-knife, and for some days used it himself, and extended the privilege of the occasional use of his treasure to his little playmates. One evening he was kneeling at his mother's knee, saying his customary prayer, which he closed up in these words: "and please God, give little Jimmy Taylor a knife of his own, so he won't want to borrow mine all the time."

EXTREME SENSITIVENESS.—The man who has once been kicked imagines that every man's leg is raised against him.

CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATES.
By the general consent of both parties, without the intervention of caucuses, it seems to be settled that James W. OSBORNE, Esq., of Charlotte, and Burton CRAIG, Esq., of Salisbury, are to be the candidates respectively of the Whig and Democratic parties to represent this Congressional district in the next Congress of the United States. The issue will be an extremely doubtful one, and the contest will be well fought on both sides. The champions are both the strongest men of their respective parties in the district, and both are very well versed in political affairs. The Whig party will be well supported in the contest, and the contest will be well fought on both sides. The champions are both the strongest men of their respective parties in the district, and both are very well versed in political affairs.

The recent special session of the U. States Senate expired on its thirty ninth day; and thirty-nine days of our year have been passed in the wilderness of the hopeful and the hopeless possessors and expectants of office. All have "looked to the Senate" with deep concern; and the Senate has looked to the White House; while the White House has looked upon the sea of political scrambling with dismay.

THE LAST ACT OF THE SENATE.
In conformity with the resolution of Saturday last, the Senate of the United States finally adjourned at one o'clock yesterday. It was doubted that a quorum would be present at this hour, but several Senators who had made their arrangements to depart from the city yesterday morning were induced to remain by a request from the President of the United States, communicated to each Senator through the officers of that body. The object of this detention appears in the sequel to have been the confirmation of the nomination of Mr. BURKE as Minister to the Court of St. James. Of this appointment, we take occasion to remark that, whatever may be the sentiments of the different classes of politicians, few or none will be found to object to it on other than political grounds. A gentleman of excellent sense, a scholar of rare attainments, and a statesman of enlarged views and great experience, Mr. BURKE will possess the confidence and respect of his countrymen at home, while he will hardly fail to win the esteem of all with whom he shall be brought in contact in the sphere in which he is to move.

A LADY VALERIAN.—The most singular valued address on record was delivered by Sidney Smith to a young English missionary who was about to proceed to Van Diemen's Land. It was as follows:—"Farewell, my dear friend, farewell! You go to a country where it is the custom of the natives to have a clergyman at each table, and every morning for breakfast; but let us hope—let us earnestly hope—that you will prove very unpalatable to the savage and his wife!"

LOUISIANA APPOINTMENTS.
By the letter of our Washington correspondent, in another column, it appears that there has been a little changing and swapping of offices in Louisiana. Mr. SIDELL and Mr. SOULE have managed to shuffle past Downs in the Colored school, and the latter has accepted the office of any Union Democrat seems likely to attain under the present Administration. This accomplished, it is understood that Mr. SIDELL has exchanged his diplomatic appointment with Mr. SOULE for the place of Senator of that State. If the Democratic party should be elected to the Administration, we regard these three contracting parties, as suppose they will carry out the arrangement. We regard this triple display of contempt for a people's Legislature that ever fell under our observation. We hope that so much of the arrangement as remains to be effected.

ACCIDENT TO GOV. GRAHAM.
We are grieved to state that an accident happened to our Hon. Governor, on Tuesday last, while returning from Raleigh, by which he was seriously injured. About seven or eight miles east of this, he got out of his buggy to arrange some part of his harness, when his horse took fright and ran off, throwing him down and drawing the wheel of the buggy over him. Fortunately this occurred near the place where some hands were at work on the Rail-road, and one of them assisted him home, which he reached about ten o'clock at night. It was found that he was severely bruised and cut upon the face and other parts of his body. At first it was feared that the bone of his arm was broken, but we are happy to learn that this was not the case, though the muscles were badly strained. At the time of writing this, (Tuesday,) we learn that the Governor is improving, and we hope that he will soon entirely recover from the injury.—Hillsboro' Recorder.

TAXATION.—"Mr. Speaker," said Ezekiel Webster, some twenty years ago, in the House of Representatives of New Hampshire, "we have heard from our infancy of the exorbitant system of taxation in England, and of the oppressive weight with which it presses upon her population. It is true that no people ever bore burdens like hers. Her system of taxes is felt, and felt severely by every branch of her industry—agricultural, commercial, and manufacturing. It bears with a load almost insupportable. It treats upon her people with the weight of an elephant with a war-cable upon his back."—Boston Journal.
