

AGRICULTURE IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Dr. Cuyler—Dear Sir—I enclose to you a copy of the report of the Agricultural Society of North Carolina...

WHY FOR BOMBING?

"The Old North State is 'some' all said and done. People call her the tar, pitch and turpentine State. True, she produces all these, and they are useful products, and must be had everywhere."

I can testify to the above by what I saw exhibited at the exhibition of the First Great State Fair held at Raleigh, N. C., in 1885.

"Never within our editorial experience have we chronicled any event with more heartfelt gratification, than that which we now feel, in recording the complete success of the First North Carolina State Fair."

The following is an interesting account of the Omnibus, the Southfield Market, and some other matters in and near the metropolis of Great Britain.

THE PALACE AND THE PICTURE.

The Palace and the picture. The Palace is certainly the largest in Europe, if not in the world; it is over one hundred and ten feet long and at three feet from the ground the stem is nearly thirty inches in circumference.

THE BATTLE OF SINOPLE.

One of the first impressions which succeeded to the deep exhilaration which took possession of our mind, when we read the dispatch announcing the destruction of the Turkish Black Sea fleet, was admiration at the marvellous progress which has been made within the last quarter of a century in the rapid transmission of news.

BURNING OF THE GREAT REPUBLIC.

The "New York Tribune" contains a detailed account of the large and destructive fire which broke out in the city of New York on the 27th inst.

MARY OF BERGUNDY.

The English newspaper reports of the French Ambassador at Madrid, between Mr. Soule, son of the American Minister, and the Duke of Alba, on account of the offensive observation of the latter on the person of the other.

THE WAR OF THE ROSES.

The Whigs in Congress have a happy time of it. They have little else to do than to sit by and listen to the wrangling of the "Democracy."

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—The Senate proceeded to-day were wholly unimportant.

NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD.

The Directors of this Road held their regular quarterly meeting at Charlotte on the 24th inst.

STATISTICAL INFORMATION.

We publish below the certificates of the Flour Inspector and Weighmaster of our town, showing the quantity of Flour and Flour bran to our market during the year just closing.

RALEIGH, N. C.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 4, 1884.

"Ours are the plans of fair, delightful peace; Unscathed by party rage, to live like brothers."

SUPREMACY COURT.

The following gentlemen have been admitted to practice in the several County Courts of this State, viz:

- Samuel Langdon, Brunswick county. William B. Bunn, Nash county. Lucien Holmes, Wilmington, N. C. James M. Hutchinson, Mecklenburg county. Giles Leitch, Robeson county. Sidney A. Smith, Wake county. Frederick Strudwick, Hillsboro'. Benjamin Allen, Hillsboro'. W. A. Hulse, Wake. Samuel A. Holmes, Fayetteville. Julius Guion, Raleigh. P. Cowper, Jackson, N. C. Geo. M. White, Bladen county. Malachi Haughton, Edenton.

And the following gentlemen have been admitted to the Superior Court practice:

- Thomas Sartin, Jr., Wainwright, N. C. Kemp P. Battle, Chapel Hill. J. G. Blue, Richmond county, N. C. D. G. Fowle, Washington. W. B. B. Windsor. J. A. Richardson, Bladen. E. A. Thompson, Goldsboro'. G. N. Fulk, Salisbury. Wm. A. Moore, Edenton. Thos. M. Garrett, Windsor. Julius L. Gorrell, Guilford. J. M. Johnson, Franklin. John Manning, Jr., Pittsboro'. Robert G. Lewis, Franklin county. W. H. Jenkins, Oxford. E. Graham Haywood, Raleigh. J. T. Wheat, Chapel Hill.

Now is the time!—Senator Jones, of Tennessee, we perceive, has given notice that he will offer a bill for the distribution of the public lands among the States.

We deduce this conclusion from the fact that only about two hundred and fifty thousand acres of the public lands in Ohio remain undisposed of.

Most of the Northern States, where the influence of the Administration is not all powerful, would go for such a measure, though it is equally true that they are in favor of the Homestead.

There seems to be a prevalent idea that the Homestead is the only remedy for the evil of land speculation which has grown up under the landless policy of selling the lands in large bodies.

Mr. Bayly has displayed the true spirit in another matter. The Librarian of the House of Representatives is a different officer from the Librarian of Congress.

The former has charge of the public documents, which have been bound up and filed away in a room convenient to the House, and he receives his appointment from the Clerk of the House.

The late incumbent was a Mr. Parker, of Virginia, a constituent of Mr. Bayly's, and had the misfortune to incur the displeasure of Forney, the Clerk.

Forney alleges that he was removed for neglect of duty last fall; but it is very singular that he should have been retained in office until after Mr. Forney was elected Clerk.

Such, however, is the fact, and it has given rise to the suspicion that his real motive was the desire of revenge against the Virginia delegation for voting against him.

The removal of Parker, under the circumstances, gave rise to, or rather confirmed, the general feeling of disgust which was felt for Forney.

Mr. Bayly insisted, and justly, that the clerk of the House should have nothing to do with the Librarian, and proposed accordingly that the Librarian should be elected, as the clerk himself is, by the House.

By the voice of all her Representatives at Washington, and of her organs of public opinion at home, was unanimous and persistent in demanding justice at the hands of the Federal Government.

It would be interesting to know what the administration to do with the organization of the House of Representatives?

It is the crisis—the last opportunity of securing to the State those equal Rights in the public lands which duty and self respect make it incumbent on us to demand.

The leaders of the democracy in North Carolina must now concede that the passage of the Homestead bill, granting one hundred and sixty acres of land to actual settlers, free of cost, is as certain to take place during the present session of Congress, as that of the general appropriation bill.

RALEIGH, N. C.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 4, 1884.

"Ours are the plans of fair, delightful peace; Unscathed by party rage, to live like brothers."

SUPREMACY COURT.

The following gentlemen have been admitted to practice in the several County Courts of this State, viz:

- Samuel Langdon, Brunswick county. William B. Bunn, Nash county. Lucien Holmes, Wilmington, N. C. James M. Hutchinson, Mecklenburg county. Giles Leitch, Robeson county. Sidney A. Smith, Wake county. Frederick Strudwick, Hillsboro'. Benjamin Allen, Hillsboro'. W. A. Hulse, Wake. Samuel A. Holmes, Fayetteville. Julius Guion, Raleigh. P. Cowper, Jackson, N. C. Geo. M. White, Bladen county. Malachi Haughton, Edenton.

And the following gentlemen have been admitted to the Superior Court practice:

- Thomas Sartin, Jr., Wainwright, N. C. Kemp P. Battle, Chapel Hill. J. G. Blue, Richmond county, N. C. D. G. Fowle, Washington. W. B. B. Windsor. J. A. Richardson, Bladen. E. A. Thompson, Goldsboro'. G. N. Fulk, Salisbury. Wm. A. Moore, Edenton. Thos. M. Garrett, Windsor. Julius L. Gorrell, Guilford. J. M. Johnson, Franklin. John Manning, Jr., Pittsboro'. Robert G. Lewis, Franklin county. W. H. Jenkins, Oxford. E. Graham Haywood, Raleigh. J. T. Wheat, Chapel Hill.

Now is the time!—Senator Jones, of Tennessee, we perceive, has given notice that he will offer a bill for the distribution of the public lands among the States.

We deduce this conclusion from the fact that only about two hundred and fifty thousand acres of the public lands in Ohio remain undisposed of.

Most of the Northern States, where the influence of the Administration is not all powerful, would go for such a measure, though it is equally true that they are in favor of the Homestead.

There seems to be a prevalent idea that the Homestead is the only remedy for the evil of land speculation which has grown up under the landless policy of selling the lands in large bodies.

Mr. Bayly has displayed the true spirit in another matter. The Librarian of the House of Representatives is a different officer from the Librarian of Congress.

The former has charge of the public documents, which have been bound up and filed away in a room convenient to the House, and he receives his appointment from the Clerk of the House.

The late incumbent was a Mr. Parker, of Virginia, a constituent of Mr. Bayly's, and had the misfortune to incur the displeasure of Forney, the Clerk.

Forney alleges that he was removed for neglect of duty last fall; but it is very singular that he should have been retained in office until after Mr. Forney was elected Clerk.

Such, however, is the fact, and it has given rise to the suspicion that his real motive was the desire of revenge against the Virginia delegation for voting against him.

The removal of Parker, under the circumstances, gave rise to, or rather confirmed, the general feeling of disgust which was felt for Forney.

Mr. Bayly insisted, and justly, that the clerk of the House should have nothing to do with the Librarian, and proposed accordingly that the Librarian should be elected, as the clerk himself is, by the House.

By the voice of all her Representatives at Washington, and of her organs of public opinion at home, was unanimous and persistent in demanding justice at the hands of the Federal Government.

It would be interesting to know what the administration to do with the organization of the House of Representatives?

It is the crisis—the last opportunity of securing to the State those equal Rights in the public lands which duty and self respect make it incumbent on us to demand.

The leaders of the democracy in North Carolina must now concede that the passage of the Homestead bill, granting one hundred and sixty acres of land to actual settlers, free of cost, is as certain to take place during the present session of Congress, as that of the general appropriation bill.

RALEIGH, N. C.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 4, 1884.

"Ours are the plans of fair, delightful peace; Unscathed by party rage, to live like brothers."

SUPREMACY COURT.

The following gentlemen have been admitted to practice in the several County Courts of this State, viz:

- Samuel Langdon, Brunswick county. William B. Bunn, Nash county. Lucien Holmes, Wilmington, N. C. James M. Hutchinson, Mecklenburg county. Giles Leitch, Robeson county. Sidney A. Smith, Wake county. Frederick Strudwick, Hillsboro'. Benjamin Allen, Hillsboro'. W. A. Hulse, Wake. Samuel A. Holmes, Fayetteville. Julius Guion, Raleigh. P. Cowper, Jackson, N. C. Geo. M. White, Bladen county. Malachi Haughton, Edenton.

And the following gentlemen have been admitted to the Superior Court practice:

- Thomas Sartin, Jr., Wainwright, N. C. Kemp P. Battle, Chapel Hill. J. G. Blue, Richmond county, N. C. D. G. Fowle, Washington. W. B. B. Windsor. J. A. Richardson, Bladen. E. A. Thompson, Goldsboro'. G. N. Fulk, Salisbury. Wm. A. Moore, Edenton. Thos. M. Garrett, Windsor. Julius L. Gorrell, Guilford. J. M. Johnson, Franklin. John Manning, Jr., Pittsboro'. Robert G. Lewis, Franklin county. W. H. Jenkins, Oxford. E. Graham Haywood, Raleigh. J. T. Wheat, Chapel Hill.

Now is the time!—Senator Jones, of Tennessee, we perceive, has given notice that he will offer a bill for the distribution of the public lands among the States.

We deduce this conclusion from the fact that only about two hundred and fifty thousand acres of the public lands in Ohio remain undisposed of.

Most of the Northern States, where the influence of the Administration is not all powerful, would go for such a measure, though it is equally true that they are in favor of the Homestead.

There seems to be a prevalent idea that the Homestead is the only remedy for the evil of land speculation which has grown up under the landless policy of selling the lands in large bodies.

Mr. Bayly has displayed the true spirit in another matter. The Librarian of the House of Representatives is a different officer from the Librarian of Congress.

The former has charge of the public documents, which have been bound up and filed away in a room convenient to the House, and he receives his appointment from the Clerk of the House.

The late incumbent was a Mr. Parker, of Virginia, a constituent of Mr. Bayly's, and had the misfortune to incur the displeasure of Forney, the Clerk.

Forney alleges that he was removed for neglect of duty last fall; but it is very singular that he should have been retained in office until after Mr. Forney was elected Clerk.

Such, however, is the fact, and it has given rise to the suspicion that his real motive was the desire of revenge against the Virginia delegation for voting against him.

The removal of Parker, under the circumstances, gave rise to, or rather confirmed, the general feeling of disgust which was felt for Forney.

Mr. Bayly insisted, and justly, that the clerk of the House should have nothing to do with the Librarian, and proposed accordingly that the Librarian should be elected, as the clerk himself is, by the House.

By the voice of all her Representatives at Washington, and of her organs of public opinion at home, was unanimous and persistent in demanding justice at the hands of the Federal Government.

It would be interesting to know what the administration to do with the organization of the House of Representatives?

It is the crisis—the last opportunity of securing to the State those equal Rights in the public lands which duty and self respect make it incumbent on us to demand.

The leaders of the democracy in North Carolina must now concede that the passage of the Homestead bill, granting one hundred and sixty acres of land to actual settlers, free of cost, is as certain to take place during the present session of Congress, as that of the general appropriation bill.

RALEIGH, N. C.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 4, 1884.

"Ours are the plans of fair, delightful peace; Unscathed by party rage, to live like brothers."

SUPREMACY COURT.

The following gentlemen have been admitted to practice in the several County Courts of this State, viz:

- Samuel Langdon, Brunswick county. William B. Bunn, Nash county. Lucien Holmes, Wilmington, N. C. James M. Hutchinson, Mecklenburg county. Giles Leitch, Robeson county. Sidney A. Smith, Wake county. Frederick Strudwick, Hillsboro'. Benjamin Allen, Hillsboro'. W. A. Hulse, Wake. Samuel A. Holmes, Fayetteville. Julius Guion, Raleigh. P. Cowper, Jackson, N. C. Geo. M. White, Bladen county. Malachi Haughton, Edenton.

And the following gentlemen have been admitted to the Superior Court practice:

- Thomas Sartin, Jr., Wainwright, N. C. Kemp P. Battle, Chapel Hill. J. G. Blue, Richmond county, N. C. D. G. Fowle, Washington. W. B. B. Windsor. J. A. Richardson, Bladen. E. A. Thompson, Goldsboro'. G. N. Fulk, Salisbury. Wm. A. Moore, Edenton. Thos. M. Garrett, Windsor. Julius L. Gorrell, Guilford. J. M. Johnson, Franklin. John Manning, Jr., Pittsboro'. Robert G. Lewis, Franklin county. W. H. Jenkins, Oxford. E. Graham Haywood, Raleigh. J. T. Wheat, Chapel Hill.

Now is the time!—Senator Jones, of Tennessee, we perceive, has given notice that he will offer a bill for the distribution of the public lands among the States.

We deduce this conclusion from the fact that only about two hundred and fifty thousand acres of the public lands in Ohio remain undisposed of.

Most of the Northern States, where the influence of the Administration is not all powerful, would go for such a measure, though it is equally true that they are in favor of the Homestead.

There seems to be a prevalent idea that the Homestead is the only remedy for the evil of land speculation which has grown up under the landless policy of selling the lands in large bodies.

Mr. Bayly has displayed the true spirit in another matter. The Librarian of the House of Representatives is a different officer from the Librarian of Congress.

The former has charge of the public documents, which have been bound up and filed away in a room convenient to the House, and he receives his appointment from the Clerk of the House.

The late incumbent was a Mr. Parker, of Virginia, a constituent of Mr. Bayly's, and had the misfortune to incur the displeasure of Forney, the Clerk.

Forney alleges that he was removed for neglect of duty last fall; but it is very singular that he should have been retained in office until after Mr. Forney was elected Clerk.

Such, however, is the fact, and it has given rise to the suspicion that his real motive was the desire of revenge against the Virginia delegation for voting against him.

The removal of Parker, under the circumstances, gave rise to, or rather confirmed, the general feeling of disgust which was felt for Forney.

Mr. Bayly insisted, and justly, that the clerk of the House should have nothing to do with the Librarian, and proposed accordingly that the Librarian should be elected, as the clerk himself is, by the House.

By the voice of all her Representatives at Washington, and of her organs of public opinion at home, was unanimous and persistent in demanding justice at the hands of the Federal Government.

It would be interesting to know what the administration to do with the organization of the House of Representatives?

It is the crisis—the last opportunity of securing to the State those equal Rights in the public lands which duty and self respect make it incumbent on us to demand.

The leaders of the democracy in North Carolina must now concede that the passage of the Homestead bill, granting one hundred and sixty acres of land to actual settlers, free of cost, is as certain to take place during the present session of Congress, as that of the general appropriation bill.

RALEIGH, N. C.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 4, 1884.

"Ours are the plans of fair, delightful peace; Unscathed by party rage, to live like brothers."

SUPREMACY COURT.

The following gentlemen have been admitted to practice in the several County Courts of this State, viz:

- Samuel Langdon, Brunswick county. William B. Bunn, Nash county. Lucien Holmes, Wilmington, N. C. James M. Hutchinson, Mecklenburg county. Giles Leitch, Robeson county. Sidney A. Smith, Wake county. Frederick Strudwick, Hillsboro'. Benjamin Allen, Hillsboro'. W. A. Hulse, Wake. Samuel A. Holmes, Fayetteville. Julius Guion, Raleigh. P. Cowper, Jackson, N. C. Geo. M. White, Bladen county. Malachi Haughton, Edenton.

And the following gentlemen have been admitted to the Superior Court practice:

- Thomas Sartin, Jr., Wainwright, N. C. Kemp P. Battle, Chapel Hill. J. G. Blue, Richmond county, N. C. D. G. Fowle, Washington. W. B. B. Windsor. J. A. Richardson, Bladen. E. A. Thompson, Goldsboro'. G. N. Fulk, Salisbury. Wm. A. Moore, Edenton. Thos. M. Garrett, Windsor. Julius L. Gorrell, Guilford. J. M. Johnson, Franklin. John Manning, Jr., Pittsboro'. Robert G. Lewis, Franklin county. W. H. Jenkins, Oxford. E. Graham Haywood, Raleigh. J. T. Wheat, Chapel Hill.

Now is the time!—Senator Jones, of Tennessee, we perceive, has given notice that he will offer a bill for the distribution of the public lands among the States.

We deduce this conclusion from the fact that only about two hundred and fifty thousand acres of the public lands in Ohio remain undisposed of.

Most of the Northern States, where the influence of the Administration is not all powerful, would go for such a measure, though it is equally true that they are in favor of the Homestead.

There seems to be a prevalent idea that the Homestead is the only remedy for the evil of land speculation which has grown up under the landless policy of selling the lands in large bodies.

Mr. Bayly has displayed the true spirit in another matter. The Librarian of the House of Representatives is a different officer from the Librarian of Congress.

The former has charge of the public documents, which have been bound up and filed away in a room convenient to the House, and he receives his appointment from the Clerk of the House.

The late incumbent was a Mr. Parker, of Virginia, a constituent of Mr. Bayly's, and had the misfortune to incur the displeasure of Forney, the Clerk.

Forney alleges that he was removed for neglect of duty last fall; but it is very singular that he should have been retained in office until after Mr. Forney was elected Clerk.

Such, however, is the fact, and it has given rise to the suspicion that his real motive was the desire of revenge against the Virginia delegation for voting against him.

The removal of Parker, under the circumstances, gave rise to, or rather confirmed, the general feeling of disgust which was felt for Forney.

Mr. Bayly insisted, and justly, that the clerk of the House should have nothing to do with the Librarian, and proposed accordingly that the Librarian should be elected, as the clerk himself is, by the House.

By the voice of all her Representatives at Washington, and of her organs of public opinion at home, was unanimous and persistent in demanding justice at the hands of the Federal Government.

It would be interesting to know what the administration to do with the organization of the House of Representatives?

It is the crisis—the last opportunity of securing to the State those equal Rights in the public lands which duty and self respect make it incumbent on us to demand.

The leaders of the democracy in North Carolina must now concede that the passage of the Homestead bill, granting one hundred and sixty acres of land to actual settlers, free of cost, is as certain to take place during the present session of Congress, as that of the general appropriation bill.

RALEIGH, N. C.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 4, 1884.

"Ours are the plans of fair, delightful peace; Unscathed by party rage, to live like brothers."

SUPREMACY COURT.

The following gentlemen have been admitted to practice in the several County Courts of this State, viz:

- Samuel Langdon, Brunswick county. William B. Bunn, Nash county. Lucien Holmes, Wilmington, N. C. James M. Hutchinson, Mecklenburg county. Giles Leitch, Robeson county. Sidney A. Smith, Wake county. Frederick Strudwick, Hillsboro'. Benjamin Allen, Hillsboro'. W. A. Hulse, Wake. Samuel A. Holmes, Fayetteville. Julius Guion, Raleigh. P. Cowper, Jackson, N. C. Geo. M. White, Bladen county. Malachi Haughton, Edenton.

And the following gentlemen have been admitted to the Superior Court practice:

- Thomas Sartin, Jr., Wainwright, N. C. Kemp P. Battle, Chapel Hill. J. G. Blue, Richmond county, N. C. D. G. Fowle, Washington. W. B. B. Windsor. J. A. Richardson, Bladen. E. A. Thompson, Goldsboro'. G. N. Fulk, Salisbury. Wm. A. Moore, Edenton. Thos. M. Garrett, Windsor. Julius L. Gorrell, Guilford. J. M. Johnson, Franklin. John Manning, Jr., Pittsboro'. Robert G. Lewis, Franklin county. W. H. Jenkins, Oxford. E. Graham Haywood, Raleigh. J. T. Wheat, Chapel Hill.

Now is the time!—Senator Jones, of Tennessee, we perceive, has given notice that he will offer a bill for the distribution of the public lands among the States.

We deduce this conclusion from the fact that only about two hundred and fifty thousand acres of the public lands in Ohio remain undisposed of.

Most of the Northern States, where the influence of the Administration is not all powerful, would go for such a measure, though it is equally true that they are in favor of the Homestead.

There seems to be a prevalent idea that the Homestead is the only remedy for the evil of land speculation which has grown up under the landless policy of selling the lands in large bodies.

Mr. Bayly has displayed the true spirit in another matter. The Librarian of the House of Representatives is a different officer from the Librarian of Congress.

The former has charge of the public documents, which have been bound up and filed away in a room convenient to the House, and he receives his appointment from the Clerk of the House.

The late incumbent was a Mr. Parker, of Virginia, a constituent of Mr. Bayly's, and had the misfortune to incur the displeasure of Forney, the Clerk.

Forney alleges that he was removed for neglect of duty last fall; but it is very singular that he should have been retained in office until after Mr. Forney was elected Clerk.

Such, however, is the fact, and it has given rise to the suspicion that his real motive was the desire of revenge against the Virginia delegation for voting against him.

The removal of Parker, under the circumstances, gave rise to, or rather confirmed, the general feeling of disgust which was felt for Forney.

Mr. Bayly insisted, and justly, that the clerk of the House should have nothing to do with the Librarian, and proposed accordingly that the Librarian should be elected, as the clerk himself is, by the House.

By the voice of all her Representatives at Washington, and of her organs of public opinion at home, was unanimous and persistent in demanding justice at the hands of the Federal Government.

It would be interesting to know what the administration to do with the organization of the House of Representatives?

It is the crisis—the last opportunity of securing to the State those equal Rights in the public lands which duty and self respect make it incumbent on us to demand.

The leaders of the democracy in North Carolina must now concede that the passage of the Homestead bill, granting one hundred and sixty acres of land to actual settlers, free of cost, is as certain to take place during the present session of Congress, as that of the general appropriation bill.