

THE RALEIGH REGISTER.

"Ours are the plans of fair, delightful peace, Unwarped by party rage to live like brothers."

RALEIGH, N. C.

SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 17, 1856.

NATIONAL AMERICAN TICKET!

FOR PRESIDENT, MILLARD FILLMORE, OF NEW YORK. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, ANDREW J. DONELSON, OF TENNESSEE.

AMERICAN ELECTORAL TICKET.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE. L. B. CARMICHAEL, of Wilkes, JOHN W. CAMERON, of Cumberland. 1st District, 2d " 3d " 4th " 5th " 6th " 7th " 8th "

FOR GOVERNOR, JOHN A. GILMER, OF GUILFORD COUNTY.

1. Resolved, That we ratify and approve the platform of principles laid down by the American Convention which assembled in Philadelphia in February last. 2. Resolved, That we are in favor of a progressive system of Internal Improvement; such as will ultimately develop the resources of the State, and such as will not burden the people with oppressive taxation.

John A. Gilmer, Esq., the American candidate for Governor, will address the people of the respective Counties named at the following times and places: Brunswick, 21st May, Friday, 23rd; Marion, 22nd; Rutherfordton, 25th; Monday, 26th; Halifax, 27th; Saturday, 28th; Jackson, Monday, 29th; Murfreesboro', Tuesday, 30th; Gatesville, Wednesday, 31st; Hertford, Thursday, 1st; Elizabeth City, Friday, 2nd; Old Trap, Camden, Saturday, 3rd; Edenton, Monday, 4th; Plymouth, Tuesday, 5th; Windsor, Wednesday, 6th.

STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY.

The Medical Society of N. C. commenced its Seventh Annual Session, in this City, on Tuesday last, and adjourned on Thursday. The Annual Address was delivered by Dr. Edward Warren, of Edenton, on Wednesday, at 12 o'clock, in the Senate Chamber, before the members of the Society and a number of the citizens. Subject: The Medical Profession, its History and Progress. The address was capital, conceived, elegantly written and admirably delivered. Dr. Warren is quite a young member of the profession, but he writes and speaks with the experience of a veteran; and we feel no hesitation in saying, that when his production is published, it will reflect the highest honor on its author as well as the Society.

Dr. Manson read an able paper on the Epidemic Fevers incident to his immediate locality, on the Roanoke River. Dr. Pittman also reported some interesting cases in Surgery. Various discussions arose during the session upon a number of medical subjects, which were participated in by most of the members present. The Officers of the Society for the present year are: Dr. Johnson, of Raleigh, President; Drs. Gibson, of Concord, Manson, of Granville, Whitehead, of Rowan, and Faison, of Duplin, Vice Presidents; Dr. W. G. Thomas, of Wilmington, Secretary; Dr. J. B. Dunn, of Wake, Treasurer; Dr. S. S. Satchwell, of New Hanover, Orator. Delegates to the American Medical Association: Dr. Manson, Faison, Pittman, Mabry, Dickson, Satchwell, McKee, Warren, Macon, Fowe, Kelly, Henderson, and P. P. Pease.

MR. FILLMORE'S ACCEPTANCE.

We shall publish hereafter extracts from a letter from the Hon. Mr. Haven, of New York, the law partner and confidential friend of Mr. Fillmore, touching Mr. Fillmore's acceptance of the Philadelphia nomination. There is no doubt of his accepting, notwithstanding the predictions and wishes of the locofoco leaders. Since his nomination, as Mr. Haven tells us, he has made the following declaration, so worthy of the man and so pleasing to his friends: "I am determined to sink or swim, live or die with my friends. Our cause is just, for it is the cause of our common country and every part of it, and we ought to triumph; but if we fail, we shall at least have the consolation of knowing that we were engaged in a righteous cause and deserve success."

A PLAGUE UPON SUCH PROTECTION.

Congress has just voted a million and a half acres of public lands for railroad purposes in Iowa. And so, session after session, is the common domain of the Union being given away to build up the free-soil States, and the so-called Democracy, so far from having power to prevent it, actually contributes to it, through the votes of many of its Western and Northern members. All this Democracy have power to do, and really do, in this particular, is to prevent the slaveholding States being put on an equality with the abolition States, by receiving the shares of public lands or their proceeds to which they are justly entitled. If locofocos would talk less about state-rights, and do more to enable the States to take care of their rights, we should hear much less of Northern aggressions and Southern wrongs. For many years after the adoption of the federal constitution, the Southern States held a majority in Congress, and exerted a controlling influence in the federal government. The census tables show that the increase in native population since that time has been greatest in the slaveholding States. They would have maintained and increased their ascendancy in the Union but for the "democratic" policy that has encouraged the influx of an ocean-side of anti-slavery sentiment from Europe, that has not merely been left free to follow its predisposition to settle in the free States and territories, but has been encouraged to do so by bribes of public lands and immediate investment there with the franchises and privileges of citizenship. Yet the party to whom these things are so justly chargeable, that none have the hardihood to defend themselves against them, claim to be the party that take care of the rights and interests of the Southern States!

MR. READE'S LETTER.

We have the gratification of presenting entire, in our issue of to-day, the admirable letter of the Hon. EDWIN G. READE, recently addressed to his constituents. Rarely have we read a more masterly production, and never have we witnessed a more finished exhortation, a more gentle lashing, or a more decent stripping off of the hide, than that which he administers to that prince of traitors and demagogues,—Thomas L. Clingman. As the "Washington Organ" remarked, some days since, it is positively "crude" in Mr. Reade,—we had thought he had more of the "milk of human kindness" about him. But we detain our readers from this glorious letter. It speaks for itself, and we commend it to universal perusal.

BLACK REPUBLICANISM HELPING THE DEMOCRACY.

It is evident from remarks recently made by the New York Tribune, that ever since the American party adopted a conservative national platform, the ultra anti-slavery men in the non-slaveholding States have been voting with the so-called Democracy. They commenced it last year in Indiana, Maine, and Pennsylvania, and have continued it this spring in New Hampshire, Connecticut and Rhode Island. In Philadelphia, at the recent election, the ultras voted with the "Democracy," and had only set up candidates of their own as a sort of blind. The object of the ultra Black Republicans in doing this was to show what they term "the weakness of the American party," and to frighten the opposition to the administration in the non-slaveholding States into a union with them, the said Black Republicans. At the same time they hoped by that course to discourage and dishearten the American party of the Southern States.

As the "Democracy" have so often said that they would prefer to see an abolitionist elected President to any man who opposes the introduction of foreign convicts and paupers, it necessarily follows that the abolitionists reciprocate this kindness, and would prefer seeing a "Democrat" elected to an American. No man in the country can be more hated by them than Mr. Fillmore. He proved a thorn in their side when he was filling the Presidency, and they will never forgive him for it. This abolition hatred of him ought to cause the South to rally 'round him to a man, and such would be the case, if it were not a practice with the "Democracy" of that region to strike down the best friends of the South living North.

The fact that the ultra-slavery men, in perfect union with the foreign party, could not carry the States of Connecticut and New Hampshire for the latter, and achieved nothing more marvellous for them than what happened in Philadelphia, with hundreds of Americans temporarily voting the same way, shows that, as ultras, they have no weight and strength, though they make a wonderful noise in the world. They have now afforded proof that the American party, North, is not only a party of great strength—but a party thoroughly purged of every thing like abolitionism.

We design publishing, in a few days, copious extracts from the recent speech of the Hon. HENRY M. FULLER, in the House of Representatives, in vindication of himself from the foul and false charges against him which have filled the mouths of anti-American orators, and with which the anti-American press have teemed.—Few men have been assailed with such bitterness, and so unjustly assailed, and he deserves a hearing at the hands of the Southern press, especially.—The "American Organ," speaking of this effort of Mr. FULLER'S, says—

"Never have we witnessed a more triumphant vindication of any of the great creators of our time of their own principles and consistency, or a more thorough annihilation of political opponents. By this speech, Mr. Fuller has at one bound attained the highest rank as a parliamentary debater, and the opposition may well congratulate itself, if it can find among its numerous and well-trained cohorts a single champion who can refute his masterly arguments."

The anti-American Convention, to nominate candidates for the Legislature, and for Sheriff, (that is, if, etc., etc.), meets in this city, on Monday next. Sport ahead!

HARD RUN.

The "Raleigh Standard," (which boasts that its party has the Americans "on the defensive, and must keep them there,") falling in its efforts to frighten the Eastern people with the idea that the Western Address is the Grecian Horse which is to destroy their liberties, and falling still more signally in the effort to induce them to believe, by its mere assertion, that Mr. Gilmer is either against Free-Suffrage or in favor of the White Basis, is actually compelled, in order to keep up its offensive warfare, to assume that he made his late appointments without consulting Governor Bragg; and it denounces him lustily therefor!—Oh! most lame and impotent conclusion. Now we cannot at all see why Mr. Gilmer's bound ties to inform Gov. Bragg, (although we have no doubt in the world but that he did so.) The latter has thoroughly canvassed the State once already, and made the acquaintance of the people in every section. Mr. Gilmer enjoys no such advantage, but has it yet to secure, by visiting those portions of the country where he thinks he can accomplish the most for himself and for the cause which he upholds. Is not this right? If Gov. Bragg chooses to accompany him, well and good. No body has any objection,—certainly not Mr. Gilmer. The Governor will find that he has got "a hard road to travel."

PENNSYLVANIA ENDORSES FILLMORE.

The American State Convention of Pennsylvania met at Harrisburg on the 18th inst. Among other proceedings, General Small offered resolutions ratifying the nomination of Fillmore and Donelson; denouncing the Administration for repealing the compromise of 1850; condemning the Kansas and Nebraska act, &c. Governor Johnston offered a substitute, approving the action of the delegates who retired from the Philadelphia Convention, and calling a Convention to meet at New York on the 12th of June. After debate, the substitute was rejected, and the resolutions were adopted by a decided vote; when the Convention adjourned.

CANDIDATES FOR THE LEGISLATURE.—Geo. M. White, former loco member, is up for re-election from Bladen County. He is opposed by Wesley Purdie, Esq., American.

A. G. Foster and H. B. Elliott are the American candidates for the Commons from Randolph County.

Dr. Michael M. Holt, of Alamance, American, has been nominated from the Senatorial District of Randolph and Alamance.

David Coleman, Esq., of Yancy, loco, is again a candidate for the Senate.

Jas. L. Gaines, loco, is up for the Senate in the Moore and Montgomery District.

Col. Richardson, American, and A. R. Black, loco, are candidates for the Commons in Moore.

Dr. E. R. Gibson, of Cabarrus, is a candidate for the Senate in Cabarrus and Stanly.

Thomas Williams, American, and Badham, loco, are the candidates in Chowan Co.

Joshua Collins, Jr., loco, is the Senatorial candidate in the District of Washington and Martin.

UNIVERSITY ITEMS.—The Hon. EDWARD EVERETT has replied to the invitation addressed him from the University, that, Providence permitting, he will visit it during the ensuing Fall and deliver his great lecture upon the character and services of Washington.

The Rev. BASIL MANLY, Jr., Pastor of the Baptist Church in Richmond, Va., is to deliver the Valedictory sermon before the Graduating Class, at the next Commencement.

The Rev. JOSEPH ATKINSON, of the Presbyterian Church in this City, is to deliver the Address before the Historical Society, on Wednesday of Commencement week.

It has previously been announced that the Annual Address before the two Literary Societies will be delivered by M. W. RANSOM, Esq., of Warren.

THE PADRE VIJIL.

General Walker's pleopentionary, the Padre Vigil, is just now the greatest lion in Washington. Happily for him, it is said he can't understand a word of English, so he will be saved the annoyance of hearing and reading all the remarks made about him. Our highly conservative neighbor, the Commercial, objects to the Padre solely on the ground of his being a padre; but, as the correspondent of the Evening Post states that Padre Vigil had arrived in Washington with his son, his padreship must be something like General Pierce's soldiering, not of a kind to do any harm. The worst thing about the Padre is his unlucky name, which will, of course, be the cause of a good many distressing puns; and small wits will be calling him a vigil-ant representative of Nicaragua, and so on.

The Padre is represented as "a rather stout, well-shaven man, whose long-ankered coat, knee-breeches, and black hose, and silver shoe-buckles, accord with the priestly functions which he exercises at home. His hair is concealed by a sort of brown and slouched cap or cow; and, though of a very dark complexion, the President does not consider him a Black Republican."

We observe that some of our cotemporaries have attempted to improve upon his name by calling him Virgil; but, the orthography of the Padre's name is Vigil.

CONSTANT AFFECTION.—The men must have more justice done to them in the matter of affections. A young German who came to Ohio seven years ago was betrothed to a fair young girl in his own country, but they were too poor to marry. After he had been here a short time, their letters were interrupted, and the girl, becoming an orphan, married another and had three children, when her husband died, leaving her destitute, and she went to the parish poor house. Meantime, our hero, the emigrant, worked hard and kept his faith till he had earned enough to justify him in returning to Germany to see whether his betrothed was false or dead. The facts did not change his true heart, and he married her and brought her and her children to his little home in Ohio.

Mayor Wood.—The N. Y. Herald contains Mayor Wood's eulogy upon Alexander Hamilton, delivered at Richmond, Who will say there is no new thing under the sun? A New York Democrat eulogising the founder of the Federal party in the capital of Virginia, the mother of Democracy!

LOCAL NEWS.

(REPORTED FOR THE REGISTER.)

The State Fair.—The Directors of the North Carolina Railroad have adopted the resolution, "That, as always heretofore, visitors to the State Fair be carried at half rates; and that one of each variety of stock and kind be carried, if for exhibition, free of charge, both ways, and one of each description of implements, machines, goods and wares."

Visit of the Oak City Guards.—On Monday next, the Oak City Guards, under command of Capt. W. H. Harrison, will leave here on their contemplated visit to their brother soldiers of Wilmington. They will meet there the Independent Light Infantry of Fayetteville, under the command of Maj. Draughon. We understand a gold medal will be shot for by the various corps, and, as we always go in for the good of our own citizens, we earnestly hope, and hoping, trust, that the medal may be won by, and the honor conferred on, one of the Oak City Guards.

Sir William Coats.—Numbers complain very much of the animals above mentioned taking possession of the principal thoroughfares, where they oppose their belligerent capotes to frightened physiognomies. The law says, that a penalty of five dollars shall be imposed upon the owner of each William, provided he be taken up (which is not always easily done). Therefore, we advise owners to place their horned stock within the limits of the law.

Honor to their Visitors.—We notice in the Wilmington papers, that, on the 20th inst., the stores in that city will all be closed, in honor of the anniversary of their Military Company, and the visit of its friends.

Smart Man.—A merchant from our city (and we are sorry to admit it) passing through Washington City, a few days since, called to see one of our members of Congress, who took him around to see the various lions in and about the city. Among the things he saw, was a long tin tube. Inquiring of our M. C., he was informed it was the atmospheric tube for sending the U. S. Mail, (M. C. of course, joking.) Merchant's earnest: "Well! how can they distribute the Mail?" "Oh," says the M. C., "when they wish to do that, they send a Post-Office along!"

The merchant came home, fully believing in the go-a-head-iveness of the American people.

Summer is coming.—Yesterday, the rays of the sun came down with such power that a body began to feel rather uncomfortable, especially as the change was sudden, when contrasted with the chilly mornings we have had for some days past. During the day, the principal streets were thronged with more than our usual number of promenaders. Summer clothing took the lead. The ladies, bless their souls, (if they have any,) looked so sweet, and the rougher sex looked, as well as they could.

Sad Accident.—As Mr. Bradshaw, section master on the Central Railroad, and wife, were coming down the road on a hand car, a day or two since, they met with an obstruction, which was placed upon the track, no doubt, with the intention of causing an accident to the mail train, which threw their car off, and Mr. Bradshaw had his leg broken, so that amputation is thought necessary. His wife fortunately escaped.

Noctely.—On Wednesday evening last, a meeting was held by some of our enterprising young men, and a Thespian Corps organized. It is their intention, (so we are informed), to get the Town Hall for the display of their varied performances, which will be composed of Serio-comico, and Trajico-serio, from Bombastes Furioso, to Richard the Third,—Machbeth, tho' murder sleep, &c. As our friend Shakespeare says, "All the world's a stage," and we go in for anything that will drive dull care away. Success and good luck attend the young men.

SHOOTING CASE IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Judge Crawford this morning gave his decision in the case of Hon. Jos. Herbert, of California, charged with killing Tho' Keating, a waiter at Willard's Hotel. He charged before the Judge on a writ of habeas corpus. The Judge said that in any view of the facts of the case, it would be impossible to convict the prisoner of murder, and he should, therefore, hold him to bail in the sum of $10,000, to appear at the June term of the criminal court and answer the charge of manslaughter.

Meers, Jos. Barrett and Jas. O'Conner entered bail, and Mr. Herbert was released.

IMPORTANT FROM KANSAS.

St. LOUIS, May 14.—Mrs. Robinson arrived here to-day. She has published a statement in relation to her husband's detention at Lexington, in which she denies he was aware an indictment had been found against him previous to his leaving the Territory.

A correspondent of the Democrat, writing on the 7th, says that an indictment for high treason has been found against Reeder, Robinson, Roberts, Lane and other free State men. The news had been brought to Lawrence by Missourians, that secret hand-bills were circulating, and that forces were marshalling in the border counties. The people were warned to be prepared for defence.

SHORTEST PASSAGE ACROSS THE ATLANTIC.—The Collins steamer Baltic made the shortest passage from Liverpool to this port in 1854, leaving Liverpool June 28, at 1 P. M., and arriving in this port July 8, at 1 1/2 A. M. The passage was made in 9 days, 17 hours, and 16 minutes, and up to the past month was the shortest on record.

This feat has been surpassed by the Cunard steamer Persia on her late voyage. She left here for Liverpool April 24, at 3 P. M., and arrived on April 12, at 3 40 A. M., making the outward passage in 9 days, 12 hours, and 7 minutes, or 4 hours and 8 minutes less time than the Baltic. And it must be borne in mind that the steamers now go several degrees south of their direct summer course. The shortest passage between the Persia's was made by her here for Liverpool June 15, at 12 35 P. M., and arrived out on the 25th, at 10 42 A. M., or 9 days, 17 hours, and 7 minutes. The Persia left Liverpool for this port at 10 25 A. M. on Saturday, April 19th, and arrived at the Lightship at 16 minutes past 8 P. M. on the 28th. Next morning she came up under easy steam to the city in 1 hour 35 minutes, making the western passage in 9 days, 16 hours, and 68 minutes; so that the Persia has, thus far, surpassed all the other steamers of both lines in speed, with the disadvantage of crossing the Atlantic two or three degrees south of the usual route sailed by them.

RATIFICATION MEETING.

On Tuesday, May the 6th, there was a Ratification Meeting of the American Party, in Greenville, Pitt County. The Court House was densely crowded, and great enthusiasm seemed to prevail. Former B. Satterthwaite, Esq., was called to the Chair, and Gen. W. S. Hanrahan appointed Secretary.

The chairman stated the object of the meeting to be the ratification of the nominations of Millard Fillmore, Andrew J. Donelson and John A. Gilmer, and proceeded to endorse those nominations in eloquent, glowing, and spirited terms; which from the enthusiasm manifested by the audience certainly met their cordial and hearty approval.

T. J. Warren, Esq., of Washington, was then called for; he addressed the meeting in his usual eloquent and forcible style, calling forth repeated bursts of applause from the audience.

Jesse R. Stubbs, Esq., then responded to a call for him, in a short speech, containing many pointed and felicitous remarks, having a most happy effect upon the audience, who appeared to be delighted with his sallies.

Wm. T. Marsh, Esq., then offered the following resolutions for the consideration of the meeting, which were unanimously adopted: Resolved, That we have unbounded confidence in the patriotism, wisdom, statesmanship and integrity of Millard Fillmore, and will use our best endeavors in aiding to elect him President of the United States.

Resolved, That we will cheerfully support for Vice President, Andrew J. Donelson, of Tenn., an experienced and patriotic statesman, who loves his country better than party.

Resolved, That we hail with pleasure the nomination of John A. Gilmer for Governor of North Carolina, and will use every exertion to secure his election, cordially endorsing the platform of the Greensboro' Convention, in which the features of conservatism and progress are so admirably blended.

F. S. SATTERTHWAITE, Chm'n. W. S. HANRAHAN, Sec'y. [We are delighted (says a correspondent) to see the interest manifested by the citizens of this country in the coming elections, particularly the enthusiasm with which the nomination of JNO. A. GILMER is greeted. It is indicative of his strength in the East. Our citizens seem anxious that he should come among us. They hear such favorable accounts from all who know him, that they are desirous to see and hear him.]

MR. BUCHANAN AT WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—Mr. Buchanan arrived here this evening, accompanied by the Committee of the Baltimore Councils and others.—There were a large number of persons at the Railroad Station, who accompanied him to the National Hotel, where he was greeted with cheers. No formal speeches were made. Mr. B. will be serenaded to-night. He is expected to remain here about ten days.

The impression now is that the new Nicaragua Minister will be officially received by the President, when he shall present his credentials. This impression is doubtless well founded.

THE NICARAGUAN MINISTER RECEIVED.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Padre Vigil, the Nicaraguan Minister, was received by President Pierce to-day in his diplomatic capacity.

"It has been said of old—'this is a world of wonder'—and to the observer it daily presented something new and wonderful, both in nature and art. Men of genius and skill are constantly engaged in seeking out that which may become valuable to the public, and a living emblem to scientists, and from all these wonders which have been brought before the world, but particularly our Medical Faculty, there has been nothing as yet surpassed by Perry Davis' Pain Killer, which is the most valuable family medicine now in use, for many internal and external complaints that flesh is heir to. To convince you of the fact, you have but to call at our drug store, where you can get bottles—from 25 cents to $1.—Temperance Organ.

THE PAIN KILLER, as a means of removing pain from the body no medicine has ever acquired a reputation equal to Perry Davis' Pain Killer.—The sale of this article has exceeded all belief. But it has real merit, and that is sufficient.

Newport and Covington (Ky) News. Sold by P. F. PENNID, Raleigh, N. C.

A NEW DRESS.—Our old friend, the Pain Killer, has come out in an entirely new dress, which greatly improves its appearance, and its counterfeits on the old is, we believe, the occasion of it.

WE take the liberty of calling the attention of the North Carolina Merchants to the very large stock of Spring and Summer Goods we are now receiving. We have been encouraged, by the liberal patronage with which we have been favored, again to extend our ware-rooms, and we shall this season be prepared to offer a larger and more varied stock than we have ever before had, and in order to secure the best trade, we shall sell our Goods at the lowest rates to prompt Dealers. We shall offer a large and elegant stock of LADIES' DRESS GOODS, in addition to our usual stock of FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC STAPLE DRY GOODS.

Our stock has been purchased with great care and on the best terms, and we feel confident we can make it to the interest of the very first class of trade to deal with us. We shall be glad to have you call and examine our stock when you come to market. Orders sent to us shall be carefully and promptly attended to.

HOPKINS, HULL & CO. P. S.—We have recently been appointed agents of the Maryland Penitentiary, for the sale of their goods. Feb. 21, 1856. 3mos 16

WANTS SUPPLIED.

It is a conceded fact, that Mourning Dress Goods are always difficult to procure, to suit one's taste, and to remedy this, we have paid particular attention to this department. This week, we have received our complete stock of the most desirable goods. Namely: Black QUEEN'S Cloth—everything entirely new. Black Winter Bombazine; Black Summer Bombazine; Black Canton Cloth; Black Barges and Tissues; Black and White Collets and Underclothes; Black and White Kid Gloves; Black Gingham and Lawns.

Ladies may be assured they can be suited, by calling on W. H. & R. S. TUCKER, April 11, 1856. 30
