NATIONAL AMERICAN TICKET!

FOR PRESIDENT.

MILLARD FILLMORE. OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT. ANDREW J. DONELSON.

OF TENNESSEE.

AMERICAN ELECTORAL TICKET, FOR THE STATE AT LARGE. L B CARMICMAEL, of Wilkes,

JOHN W. CAMERON, of Cumberland, 1st District, Lewis Thompson, of Bertie. Edward J. Warren, of Beaufort. O. P. Meares, of New Hanover.

THE ELECTION.

On yesterday, (Thursday,) the People of North Carolina exercised the elective franchice,-the dearest right of an American freeman,-for the purpose of determining who shall be their Governor, and who shall make their laws, for the next two years. In urging the claims of John A. GILMER, we have been impedled by a heartwe believed that the interests and prosperity of the State would be best promoted by his election.

In our feeble way, we have labored with all our ability to bring about such a result, and the American Press of the State has labored with a geal and earnestness deserving success ;-yet never has a canvass been conducted with a more reckless and unscrupulous disregard of the rules of honorable warfare, of fairness, decency and truth as the one through which we have just passed,-never has a Candidate been more grossly slandered, vituperated and abused than Mr. GILMER has been. Despite all the misrepresentations of his foes, however, he has come out of the conflict like virgin gold from the crucible, untarnished by the base invectives which have been

In a few days, we shall know the result of the contest, when we hope to be able to announce good news to our friends.

The vote in this City stood :- Gilmer 357. Bragg 263. But for the defection of some pretended opponents of the Administration, Mr. Gilmer's majority would have been considerably larger.

-Wilder, loco., 795; Commons,-Rand, loco., 1719; Lewis, loco., 1669; Bledsoe, loco., 1584; Rogers, Amer., 1268; Sheriff,-High, loco., 1488;

GUILFORD COUNTY. Gilmer 2.059; Bragg 572. Caldwell, Ogburn and Scott elected to the Commons, and Ralph Gorrell, Esq., to the Senate,-all Americans.

ORANGE.

We regret to learn that Paul C. Cameron, the renegade whig candidate for the Senate in this county, has defeated our gallant friend, Jo. Turner, Jr., and that the Sag Nicht candidates for the other branch of the Legislature are also elected. This is, to us, a most unaccountable result.

BRUNSWICK.

Thos. D. Meares', (American,) majority in Brunswick is 44 .- a gain : Gilmer's majority 70. Bragg's majority in 1854 was 19! Gloriously done, little Brunswick!

We have rumors from Johnston, Alamance and Rowan, but no intelligence of an authentic

A LETTER FROM GEN. HOUSTON. We publish, to-day, a patriotic and able letter from Gen. Houston, of Texas, on the Presidential question. Gen. Houston su tains the American nominations for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, with all the zeal of his enthusiastic nature, and exposes, with a bold hand, the unfounded pretensions to the Chief Magistracy of Buchanan and Fremont. His letter is a most excellent one, and we trust it will be widely circuSIGNS OF THE TIMES.

The cause of Fillmore and Donelson is advancing everywhere. In our own State-the Fillmore electoral ticket is composed of some of the able young Whig enthusiasm for Mr. Fillmore, appear to men, who will carry into the canyass youthful ardor, as well as ability to uphold their glorious cause. From Virginia, the glorious Spartan band of Old Line Whigs have spoken out, and like their brethren of Maryland, their voice is united for Fillmore, and the Constitution and the Union. These are but a few of the many cheering signs of the times. The good work is still progressing and, by the day of election, the author of the infamous charge of " bargain, intrigue, and corruption" against the noble Clay, will receive from an honest people the verdict of condemnation, and the seal of that infamy which Confidence has taken the place of doubt, and from one end of the State to the other, there has been aroused a feeling that must lead to victory .-Planting themselves on Protestant American Nationality, the Americans are moving forward, in a body, animated by a common regard for the Union and American institutions, and determined to repel the insidious attempt that is being made by the Buchanan and Fremont parties to obtain possession of the Government, by the aid of the Irish and Red Republican foreign vote. There is now a general desire apparent among the Whigs of Maryland to show to the world that they are not in leading strings, but act from their own honest and independent convictions. Every now and then, "says the Richmond pated Whig refer to the alleged invincibility of the Democracy in the past as an assurance of Democratic success in the approaching contest. What force there is in this sort of logic may be easily tested by reference to the past. In every other Presidential election for the last twenty years, the Democracy have been routed and driven from office. This proves that a new and powerful principle is the spoils. The Ins have themthe Outs want them. The latter are a hundred to one of the former, and in every square and fair contest, unaffected by side issues, victory will perch upon the banner of the opposition .-The Democracy are attempting to evade the efhold out hopes to the outsiders that some of Pierce's appointments will be removed for their benefit. Without the aid of slavery agitation, what, at this moment, would be the condition of the Democracy ?-Taking the strength of the Administration as a fair test of the strength of the Democratic party, that party is in a decided minority in two-thirds way, that opposition would be united, and its mion would ensure the expulsion and subversion of the Democracy. So much for the vaunt-How far their lugging the slavery question

In surveying the present triangular contest, the following positions seem incontestable: 1. That there is very great doubt whether either of the candidates will be elected by the people .-2. If Fillmore were withdrawn, there might be doubt whether Fremont or Buchanan would succeed-though the probabilities are strong that Fremont would be successful. This is clearly the conviction of the Black Republicans themselves, who, with every disposition to decry Fill-more, are forced to confess that he is the only serious obstacle in their way. 3. If Fremont were withdrawn and the opposition to the Democracy united,—as in that case it would be, Fillmore would be elected. 4. If Buchanan were withdrawn, Fillmore's election would be still more certain, for he would then get the whole vote of the South and fully half of the North. In whatever aspect these several positions are viewed. Fillmore is seen as the national and conservative man, independent of the sectional factions, and worthy of the confidence of the whole Union. THE MEETING ON MONDAY. According to previous notice, the American party held a Mass Meeting in Salisbury on Mon-

It has not been our pleasure to witness a higher state of enthusiasm prevailing in many a day. It is indeed cheering, in these days of political corruption, to witness such spontaneous outbursts of patriotism as were witnessed on that may and night. Eloquent and able speeches were deliver-ed by Messrs. Boyden and Jones in the day, and by Messrs. Brevard, Kerr and Barringer at night. The meeting took place in the new Court House, and the large, enthusiastic and intelligent crowd present gave unmistakeable evidence, and by its oft-repeated and prolonged cheers, that the American feeling is abroad in the land. Mr. Boyden was never more eloquentin his lite. Such a ashing as he administered to the opponents of the American party was cruel, although given in a spirit of parental toleration. His expose of Democratic trickery and corruption as revealed by Mr. Benton was handled by him in an able and a masterly manner. He showed conclusively, upon Democratic authority, that the officeseekers, political eu nuchs and wire-working politicians in and around Washington, have labored in the Cincinnati Convention to take from the people the right of nominating the President, and that it is now high time that the sovereign people of our glorious Union should take the affairs of our government out of the hands of gaming politicians, and rally for the preservation f our glorious union. He showed by Democratic authority-the authority of Sandford Harrison, of New York, that the Democratic party in the North was almost completely "annihilated," and that the only hope of our Country was that all union Whigs, Democrats and Americans should rally to the support of Millard Fillmore—that the time has now fully arrived in the history of our country, when we must discard party considerations, and strike for the preservation of the Union of these States.

He showed the rottenness and hollowness of those Democrats, South, who are laboring to convince the people that there is no chance for Millard Fillmore and that Fillmore's friends should Buren as a traitor and Abolitionist. Now, how- thority, that the union-loving Democrats, North, advocated the reverse, and were calling loudly upon their friends to drop Buchanan and go for rest assured that St. Mary will roll up a majority, turned right around and tell us that Fillmore is Millard Fillmore.
