

THE RALEIGH REGISTER.

PUBLISHED BY SEATON GALES, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. AT $2 50 IN ADVANCE; OR, $3 00 AT THE END OF THE YEAR.

RALEIGH, N. C. SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 13, 1856.

NATIONAL AMERICAN TICKET:

FOR PRESIDENT, MILLARD FILLMORE, OF NEW YORK. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, ANDREW J. DONELSON, OF TENNESSEE.

AMERICAN ELECTORAL TICKET:

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE. L. D. CARMICHAEL, of Wilkes. JOHN W. CAMERON, of Cumberland. 14 District, James Thompson, of Bertie. 21 " " O. P. Moore, of New Hanover. 4th " " Jas. T. Littlejohn, of Granville. 5th " " A. J. Stedman, of Chatham. 6th " " Gen. J. M. Leach, of Davidson. 7th " " Gen. A. J. Dargan, of Anson. 8th " " Jas. D. Hyman, of Blount.

NOTICE is hereby given to all those indebted to Seaton Gales, Esq., for subscription to an advertisement in the Raleigh Register, that an assignment has been made to me of all such debts, as well as of the Register, &c., itself, and that payment must in all cases be made to me, or my agent, H. S. Smith, Esq. These accounts in the hands of Israel B. James, or his agents, or Mr. C. C. McCrummen, may be received by them. Their returns must be made to DAN'L G. FOWLE, Esq. Aug. 21, 1856.

NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given to all those indebted to Seaton Gales, Esq., for subscription to an advertisement in the Raleigh Register, that an assignment has been made to me of all such debts, as well as of the Register, &c., itself, and that payment must in all cases be made to me, or my agent, H. S. Smith, Esq. These accounts in the hands of Israel B. James, or his agents, or Mr. C. C. McCrummen, may be received by them. Their returns must be made to DAN'L G. FOWLE, Esq. Aug. 21, 1856.

FOURTH ELECTORAL DISTRICT.

Messrs. Wilke and Littlejohn, Electors for the 4th District, will address the people at the following times and places: Asheville, Nash County, Tuesday, Sept. 16. Harshbarger, Wake " " Saturday, " 20. Southfield, Johnston " " Tuesday, " 23. Other appointments will be made hereafter.

SECOND ELECTORAL DISTRICT.

Messrs. Blow and Warren, candidates for Electors in the 2d District, will address the people at the following times and places: Snow Hill, Greene county, Tuesday, Oct. 7. Woodlawn, Wayne " " Thursday, " 9. Wilson, Edgecombe " " Friday, " 10. Kinston, Lenoir " " Tuesday, " 14. Jacksonville, Onslow " " Thursday, " 16. Trenton, Jones " " Friday, " 17. Newbern, Craven " " Saturday, " 18. Beaufort, Carteret " " Tuesday, " 21. Appointments will be made hereafter for the other Counties.

ORGANIZE—ORGANIZE.

We would again urge upon our friends the necessity of a proper organization of our party. And just here we would most respectfully suggest that, as the Presidential election is now only two months off, all of our Electoral candidates should be in the field. In many parts of the State, we fear that our friends are not as active and zealous in the cause as they should be. Are we doing our whole duty? If we expect to carry the State for Fillmore in the coming election, we must all work and work faithfully. In the language of the Virginia American: "Let us then go to work, and organize at once—without waiting for 'good weather,' or anything else. There is plenty of work to do—go on with it now—at once—there is no time like the present. Remember, friends, everything depends upon a thorough and systematic organization. Get together as early as possible, then, form your committees, lay your plans, have your conferences, make it your business to see and to reason with the wavering, organize clubs where they are not already in existence, bring your active, working men in the field, keep a sharp look out for the documents, circulate them freely, lend your paper to your neighbors to read, hunt up and bring forward your good speakers, and call upon us for all aid and assistance if you do not see, on the 4th of next November, an American victory that will compensate you for all your exertions."

COMBS AND COLOGNE.

Our end is accomplished. The parliamentary Editor has couched the communications. He has learned his duty to his neighbor. He does not wish to touch any gentleman just at present, for very good reasons. For the same reasons—only more so—he will be pleased to pass on the letter and for a few days.

(OCIATE.)

The Worthy, who has adopted this peculiarly appropriate name, is fast learning wisdom. He is at last beginning "to see himself as others see him."

So THEY GO.—Hannibal Hamlin, elected Governor of Maine on Monday by the Black Republicans, is now a "Democratic" United States Senator from that State. Two-thirds of the Republican party to-day were a year or two back regular Old Line "Democrats." The men at the North who still cling, either from old instinct or habit or for interested motives, to the so-called Democratic party, are thoroughly abolitionist and support Mr. Buchanan in the confidence that he is "as good a Freesoiler as Fremont."—Bull. City.

A DEMOCRATIC WITNESS.

We invite the attention of our readers,—and particularly of our Democratic readers,—to the following extract from the Charleston Mercury, the organ of the Democracy in South Carolina. We have repeatedly demonstrated the soundness of the Democratic party on all the leading questions of the day, and warned the people against listening to their representations and promises. All their pledges, and all the principles of their platform, they have most recklessly and wantonly violated. They are pledged to Free Trade doctrines, and yet they support for office men who have always been in favor of high Tariffs. They denounced, as a traitor to the South, a Senator from this State, who voted for the Tariff of 1846, and now we find them cordially supporting James Buchanan for the Presidency, who also voted for that odious measure. Opposition to Internal Improvements by the General Government, upon constitutional grounds, is incorporated into all their national platforms, and yet, on this question, the action of the Democratic party has "surpassed the wildest dream of extravagance." They have bitterly opposed the doctrine of "Squatter Sovereignty," and denounced it as being worse than the Wilcox Proviso, and yet they are endeavoring to raise to the Executive Chair of the nation an open and undisguised advocate of this very doctrine. Surely, the honest, thinking, feeling portion of the people must see that such a party is "worse than the 'Spells' in its own hands; and that, by its frequent disregard of pledged faith, it has become so corrupt as almost to cease to love the Union, or to care for its perpetuation, except it may continue to have supremacy in the Union. But to the extract: "Even that party, most acceptable to the South, and for whose success this State will vote, has, in the last few weeks, given way point after point. On Internal Improvements it has rivalled, and even surpassed, the wildest dream of extravagance. On the Tariff, the Democratic party, though steeped in pledges of Free Trade, and though the Government labors beneath the burdens and corruptions of a surplus revenue, wrong from the industry of the South, is as unscrupulous as the Northern and Western spokesmen could wish it. The Southern man, who looks for a Low Tariff from the Democratic party, is a miracle of delusion. And when we consider the last and greatest question, where is the Democratic party? Six years ago, the South was ejected from California by the triumph of "squatter sovereignty," and the Northern man's doctrine, coupled with the repeal of the Missouri Compromise line, was engraved upon the Kansas bill. It was the deliberate, crowning act of the Democratic party; and the South assented to it, though already victimized by it, in the hope that its principles, if faithfully maintained, would secure Kansas to slave labor. But what have we done? The Democratic party has reneged on its pledge, and in the face of the Nebraska act itself, which conferred sovereignty upon the Territorial Governments, and removed them beyond Congressional interference—in the face of all this, Mr. Douglas, and others high in Democratic influence, have actually proposed to repeal the Territorial Government of Kansas, and to re-annex it to admitted sovereignty beneath Congressional intervention. They have written, with their own hands, condemnations upon their own act; they have repudiated the most vaunted doctrine of the Democratic party—"popular sovereignty." The principle of the Nebraska act, upon which the Democratic party laid its claim to Kansas, and which was the "popular sovereignty," but anything which Abolition, in its wildest, would make it. When pressed by the sentiment of the North, its Northern supporters are willing to swallow all their pledges, and install again the detested idol of Congressional legislation. And a Representative from South Carolina, a long-standing member of the same measure, is found still loitering in the downward path, calling upon the President to straighten the Judiciary, that fanaticism may be appeased! These are indications—startling indications, which to true Southern men can disregard. Abolish Territorial sovereignty in Kansas—repeal its laws—and the South, while the Democratic party holds the reins, will find herself defrauded of her just expectations, and excluded from Kansas. That the leaders of this party should be ready to commit such an act of treachery, warns us of what we may expect. It proclaims, in our very faces, that not only upon Internal Improvements and the Tariff, but that upon the Nebraska bill itself, the Democratic party is unscrupulous, and ready even now to sacrifice the South. Who, we ask, can blind himself to such indications?"

The foregoing testimony against the soundness of the Democratic party bear in mind, in the opinion of that party, in South Carolina. We commend it to the careful and serious consideration of the Editor of the Standard, and we ask him, what he has to say in reply to it? Is it true, or is it not? We desire an answer.

SOMETHING EXTRAORDINARY AND ALARMING.

We find the following paragraph credited to the Baltimore American, a journal of as reliable a character as any in the country: "Abolitionists for Buchanan.—There has been a large accession of Abolitionists in New England and elsewhere to the cause of Mr. Buchanan. Wm. Lloyd Garrison, Parker Pillsbury, Wendell Phillips—these are the jewels which the Democratic party are adding to its treasury; and the Anti-Slavery Standard, a long-established and respected paper of the North, is now co-workers with the Washington Union, Richmond Enquirer, Ohio Statesman and Cincinnati Enquirer, and (we add) the North Carolina Standard. When we see Wm. Lloyd Garrison, the very bull-dog of Abolition, and his followers, supporting James Buchanan for the Presidency, is it not enough to excite the apprehensions of every man in the South? Bowdoin's entrance was death to Scott in 1852. But Bowdoin is not the one-sixteenth part as bad as Garrison. It is well known that Garrison and his clan are avowed Disunionists;—they curse the Union of the States—and declare that the 'Constitution is a bond with Hell.' Do they support Mr. Buchanan with the hope that his election will accomplish their object—dissolution of the Union? Let every man at the South seriously consider this subject.

THE DISASTER AT CAPE MAY.

Sept. 8.—The body of Philip Cain, Sr., was found among the ruins of the Mount Vernon hotel. The woman who was arrested on suspicion of setting fire to the place has been discharged for want of evidence.

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.

The Richmond Whig, of the 6th inst., contains a thrilling account of a fearful fire down a spur of the Allegheny mountain on the morning of the 2nd. Two coaches left the White Sulphur Springs with twenty-one passengers. In descending Morris mountain the horses ran away with the front coach, the driver was thrown off, and the stage and passengers were thrown over a precipice, bruising and maiming the passengers, killing one horse and breaking the leg of another. Mr. Morrison, of New York, a passenger in the second coach, was enabled by his energy and promptitude to rescue a lady and other persons from the wreck of the overturned vehicle. Relief was soon brought from the Hot Springs, and an ambulance furnished in place of the broken one. Judge Fry seemed to be more severely hurt than any one else, his injuries being mostly about the head. A boy named Gay, from Stanton, was delirious from the effects of a severe contusion on the left temple. One gentleman, said to be from Norfolk, had both hands and arms dreadfully mangled and one eye severely cut. The lady passenger, who was travelling under the charge of Judge Fry, had a severe cut over one eye and her left eye very much bruised. All, however, are doing well, and will no doubt recover.

FILLMORE MASS MEETING.

Pittsburg, Sept. 9.—A large Fillmore mass meeting is being held here this evening. Processions with music banners are in motion, and there is much enthusiasm. Speeches are being made by Messrs. French Evans and others.

MAINE ELECTION.

Portland, Me., Sept. 9th.—Returns from 167 towns give Hamlin (Republican) 40,000, Wells (Democrat) 24,000 and Weston (Whig) 4,000.—Republicans are certainly elected to Congress. The returns from the other districts are not received.—Not one Democrat or Whig is elected to the State Senate, and the Republicans have a large majority in the House.

ACCIDENT AND LOSS OF LIFE.

Savannah, Sept. 6.—The boat from the cutter Tanya, while speaking the steamer Concord, off Ockean, yesterday, drifted under the wheelhouse and upset. Lieut. Gardner and Quartermaster McAllister were drowned. The rest of the crew of the boat were saved.

WHIG MEETING IN WAKE.

Pursuant to a call, a respectable number of the old line Whigs of the County of Wake met at the Court House in Raleigh, on Monday, the 8th inst., to consider the propriety of sending delegates to the Whig National Convention, to assemble at the City of Baltimore on the 17th. On motion of E. B. Freeman, the meeting was organized by the election of Geo. W. Haywood, as Chairman, and W. S. Mason, as Secretary.—Whereupon, after a few appropriate remarks from the Chairman, stating the object of the meeting, B. H. Battle, Dr. W. H. McKee, Parker Rand, W. H. Jones and H. O. Purker, were, on motion, appointed a Committee of five to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting. The committee having retired, by request, the following letter from B. F. Moore, Esq., was read to the meeting.

RALEIGH, Sept. 4, 1856.

My Dear Sir.—I learn that there will be a call of the Whigs of this vicinity, on Monday next, to appoint delegates to the Whig National Convention which is shortly to assemble at Baltimore. I cannot be present without neglecting business of special importance. But I deeply sympathize in the movements of that noble party which came into organized existence and continued its being under the auspices and principles of those consummate statesmen and sterling patriots, Henry Clay and Daniel Webster. The great body of them yet bear in their bosoms the lessons of conservatism, mutual concession and love of Union, which were taught them by these patriots; and feeling them; myself, as freshly now, as at any time of life, I will beg of you the favor to say to as many as may be convened, that I am with them, with my whole heart, in the effort to unite the strength of the old Whigs on that man, for President, for whose administration the government upon its constitutional principles, with wisdom and firmness, we have the most reliable security.

There are doubtless many public men, who have furnished some proof of this kind. But there is one now in the very prime of manhood, life of morals the most elevated, of admitted experience and unquestioned ability in public affairs, who, in an hour of the greatest peril to his country, threw himself away for her good; and, for the time, saved her peace and Union. This man still lives and gives the most undoubted proof that he is ready to give for Fillmore. He is Mr. Fillmore in THE mass for me. Towards him in this hour of danger, more appalling, in my judgment, to the country than any she has confronted from the day of the confederacy, my hopes turn with the sagacity and force of instinct. I give him my support, not that he is an American in the sense of a party organization, but because he is an American in the national sense—devoted to the support of the constitution, alike in every latitude of the country. I make no calculation of the chances of his success, as preliminary to my support. And while the reported accession to his cause from many parts of the country are well calculated to breathe hope into my ardent desire for his election, I do not hesitate to declare, that in my judgment, a respectable popular vote in his favor will be the most reliable proof, which the times can afford, of the devotion of the people to the Constitution and the Union, and the most hopeful evidence to the patriot, at this momentous period in our affairs, of the durability of the Government.

MR. BUCHANAN'S ENDORSEMENT OF MR. FILLMORE.

In his speech on the 7th of October, 1852, at Greensburg, Pennsylvania, Mr. Buchanan, like other leading Democrats, who rose for the moment above party prejudices, bore testimony to the superior soundness and safety of Mr. Fillmore. "Is there," he asked, "one unprejudiced citizen of any party in the United States who can lay his hand upon his heart and declare that he believes Gen. Scott would be as good and safe a President as Mr. Fillmore?" Again, speaking of what caused the nomination of Gen. Scott, he said—"Mr. Fillmore, HIS COMPETITOR, HAD SPOKEN OUT LIKE A MAN IN FAVOR OF THE CONSTITUTION, AND HAD THUS DONE HIS DUTY TO HIS COUNTRY." In the face of such testimony as this, supporters of Mr. Buchanan in the South are not only declaring that Mr. Fillmore is unsafe, but that he is an abolitionist. Surely they have little faith in the virtue and intelligence of the people, when they thus subordinate gratitude, candor and honesty to the desire for party success.

DEMOCRATIC ATTENTION.

We propose to send our friends all Democrats for one year, to see how Fillmore is elected President of the United States. Now, gentlemen Democrats, if you have faith in your candidate, send us your names.

THE NEWS FROM KANSAS.

St. Louis, Sept. 8.—It is said the pro-slavery party in Kansas have determined not to make another attack on Gen. Lane's forces until the 15th inst. This gives Gov. Geary time to reach the territory.

THE MISSOURI WHIGS.

St. Louis, Sept. 9.—A meeting of the Whigs was held here on Saturday night, and nine delegates were appointed to attend the convention to be held in Baltimore. Resolutions favorable to Mr. Fillmore were adopted, pledging him their support, if no other candidate was presented.

RIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.

The Richmond Whig, of the 6th inst., contains a thrilling account of a fearful fire down a spur of the Allegheny mountain on the morning of the 2nd. Two coaches left the White Sulphur Springs with twenty-one passengers. In descending Morris mountain the horses ran away with the front coach, the driver was thrown off, and the stage and passengers were thrown over a precipice, bruising and maiming the passengers, killing one horse and breaking the leg of another.

MAINE ELECTION.

Portland, Me., Sept. 9th.—Returns from 167 towns give Hamlin (Republican) 40,000, Wells (Democrat) 24,000 and Weston (Whig) 4,000.—Republicans are certainly elected to Congress. The returns from the other districts are not received.—Not one Democrat or Whig is elected to the State Senate, and the Republicans have a large majority in the House.

ACCIDENT AND LOSS OF LIFE.

Savannah, Sept. 6.—The boat from the cutter Tanya, while speaking the steamer Concord, off Ockean, yesterday, drifted under the wheelhouse and upset. Lieut. Gardner and Quartermaster McAllister were drowned. The rest of the crew of the boat were saved.

"THE GLORIOUS GRANITE STATE."

Under the above caption, the last "Standard," in speaking of the Democratic nominee for Governor in New Hampshire, employs the following language: "We sincerely trust he may be elected. The contest will be severe and bitter, as the Democrats, aided by a few old line Whigs, have to meet single-handed all the vile insinuations that infest and afflict the free States."

OUR NEW YORK CORRESPONDENCE.

STOP THAT FALSEHOOD. I set by Southern papers, that the Democratic Party all over the South and West have again turned out to "SAVE THE UNION," which they alternately renege, and then they try to save every four years! and have speedily and unscrupulously publishing every one of those "Fillmore cannot carry a single Northern State, and to put down Abolitionism and save the Country, the whole South, and particularly the Whigs, must come in and support James Buchanan," that splendid, consistent, and Patriotic Statesman, the tried friend of Whig principles and the immortal Clay, and with their stinging and hypocritical cant, it seems they have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins, will allow himself to be thus deceived and misled, away into the "cesspool" of falsehood, to be laughed at afterwards for his credulity, is more than I can conceive. Support the man, the party, who have been "without a shadow of turning" the uncompromising enemies, traducers and revilers of the Whig party; who have on all occasions when in their power turned them from their positions, and have in many instances seduced into their ranks, honest, patriotic Whigs, and Union-loving and aiding men. How many men with their reason about them, and the chance to inform themselves, with the soul of a Whig, or one drop of American blood in their veins,