ORGANIZATION OF THE AMERICAN ROW IN A COURT-HOUSE-AN AFFAIR OF HONOR ANTICIPATED.

Goldsboro', June 13. Dear Express :- One day this week, the County Court for Craven being in session at Newbern, a contention and dispute sprang up between two worthy legal gentlemen, Hon. W. H. Washington and a Mr. Hubbard. The lie, d-d lie and other language very hard to toke passed between the parties, when they made at each other, and, but for the interference of parties present, we doubt not would have stopped the proceedings of "Your Worships" by a tisticust. They became Resolved, That upon the adjournment of this reconciled for the time, however, and made apolopresent National Council the same stand adjourn- gies to "Your Worships," and thus the matter ended at that firm and place, but on vergerday Friday there was much emensing among the that a duel is on foot: Both are centlemen of tion as they respectively may think best suited to high standing and sterling integrity; but if they the views of the members of the party in their desire to anuse themselves with coffee and revolvers at six in the morning, I as a Christian have
