BISHOP ATKINSON .--- Bishop Atkinson, of North Carolina, preached in the Monumental Church Inst Sunday morning, and in St. Paul's at night. Both sermons were characterized by that rare vigour of thought and remarkable acumen and power, and by that transparent clearness of style, for which Bishop Atkinson is eminently distinguished. The sermon in the morning, from the words of Pilate. " What is truth?" was a reat masterpiece of Christian philosophy, logic, nd eloquence; the thoughts, the most wise and profound: the argumentation, the most cogent and irresistible; the whole conveyed in a style uninons and beautiful as a sunbeam-so simple as to reach the plainest capacity, yet so elegant as to captivate the most refined taste. It was indeed a grand production, and derived additional power impressiveress from the complete absorption of the speaker in his subject-without which the noblest efforts of pulpit oratory, whilst they may excite the admiration of the mind, fail to affect the hearts, and influence the actions of men.

GEORGIA ELECTION.

At the coming election in Georgia, which takes place on Monday, the 5th of October, a Governor and eight members to the Thirty-fifth Congress are to be chosen. The Democrats have nominated Joseph C. Brown for the executive chair, and the Americans Benjamin H. Hill. The Democrats felt that the Bank of Nashville will be able to have all their Congressional candidates in the field, but the Americans have made nominations in only five of the eight districts. The following are

The Railroad through, Fayetteville to the Cost Folds has some time occurned the attention of the mountains to the Tennessee line, is steadily pro-gressing. The Railroad through, Fayetteville to the Coal Fields has some time occupied the attention of the State, and doubtless will eventually be put in opera-tion, that part between Fayetteville and the Coal Fields being in rapid course of construction. The comple-tion of these great Railroads will carry the Agriculta-ral and Mineral products of the State to one of the finest harbors on the southern coast, and must at an early day build up on its waters a flourishing eity. All the agricultural regions of the State not pene-trated by said Railroads, have an easy communication with Beaufort Harbor by Navigable Rivers and Sounds.
