THE LONG AGONY OVER-REBELLION

The Delegates to Charlotte have returned, and bring the intelligence that Judge Ellis received in the first ballot the nomination for Governor, by some 4000 majority of the votes cast—two counties being divided and not voting.

THE DEAD ADMINISTRATION.

We have over and over again asserted that Mr. Buchanan's Administration was stoned dead, and every day brings proof that the declaration is founded on fact.

AN OLD ACQUAINTANCE TURNED UP

The Petersburg Express has come across a publication having the following title page: ADDRESS. Written for the occasion of the Public Meeting of the Citizens of the United States of America in Paris, held at the Grand Hotel du Louvre, on Friday, 29th January, 1858, convened for the purpose of expressing their abhorrence at the late attempt to assassinate the Emperor and the Empress of the French, and to present a respectful Address.

idea that the "Chevalier Joannes" pen had been as fruitful as this title page shows it to have been. Among the productions, however, we recognize an old acquaintance.

In our next paper, we shall publish, as quite apropos to the "Chevalier Joannes," the adventures of Shooee Jones in Mississippi, by which State he went as the agent of Levi Woodbury, for the purpose of settling up the Pet Banks.

A VERY SENSIBLE AND PERTINENT QUESTION.

The Milton Chronicle, speaking of the Senate's amendment to the Leocompton Bill, by which the "1864 clause" was stricken out of the Constitution of Kansas, asks, "by what authority can it (the Senate) say this section shall stand as a part of the Kansas Constitution—that shall not?"

BANKS AS BUCKINGHAM.

Our old friend Banks, lately editor of the South Side Democrat, and now one of the Printers to the House of Representatives, figured at Senator Gwin's fancy ball, as "deep-revolving, witty Buckingham."

ORGANIZATION OF THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION—LARGO ASSEMBLAGING OF DELEGATES.

At the expiration of that time the chairman called the convention to order, and announced the following gentlemen a committee to select officers: Messrs. Burgwyn, Baxter, Ward, Clark, Taylor, Stone, Hawkins, Bullock, Williams, Perren, Hagrove, Stafford, Henderson, Lander, Thomas and Dickson. The committee having retired, calls were made for Mr. Dorich, of Wayne, who excused himself from making a speech by saying that he was a lawyer, and sometimes addresses juries, but did not indulge in the habit of making political speeches.

and attempted to speak, but was told to go to the stand. As he ascended the stand he was greeted with tumultuous applause and cheering. Mr. Kerr said, that if he did not belong to the class of men denoted "young Americans," he should decline speaking.

The President, on taking the Chair, delivered an address of some length, thanking the Convention for the compliment, and reviewing the position of parties at the present time.

Mr. T. M. Avery, of Burke, for President, with eight Vice Presidents, one from each Congressional District, and Col. J. W. Alsop, of Forsyth, George Howard, Jr., of Wilson, and W. F. Green, of Franklin, Secretaries.

There were fifteen cocks on each side, but at the tenth fight, it was discovered that Richmond had won eight, whereas Norfolk 'carved in' and 'paid up' the forfeit, which is amount to $3,000."

ACCEPTED THE CRITTENDEN AMENDMENT.

The New York Journal of Commerce, which has heretofore been one of the strongest advocates of the Leocompton constitution, is willing to accept the Crittenden amendment. It says: "While the Senate bill provides for an immediate and final disposition of the whole matter, by admitting Kansas into the Union, it conditions a course which we greatly prefer; the Crittenden substitute also brings the State into the Union with a condition not onerous or unjust to the people, and working no great hardship to them in conforming to its provisions."
