

DR. MITCHELL'S SECOND LETTER.

To Hon. Thos. L. Clinchman.

DEAR SIR—It will be long before the mountains of North Carolina will be fully explored...

The three principal kinds of these rocks, Granite, Gneiss, and mica slate, are so intermingled...

Some gentlemen of South Carolina, Mr. Pointz...

From Ore.—Christians are unable to account for the superior quality of certain kinds of iron...

From some unknown cause the iron made at Cranberry Works in the northern part of Yancy...

lecture of the safe that are employed in large cities for the preservation of valuable papers...

What year of these hills are we to flow? But mortal pleasure, what art thou in search of?

Following the stream, we pass a "barrier" of some quarter of a mile in breadth, which will satisfy our minds as to why the rocks are so high...

For the illustration of our revolutionary history this region is so remote to be often visited by the people of the North...

While the thirty-third or Wellington's Regiment was quartered in Canada, the officers of the militia saw the doors open and a figure pass through the room...

THE CROPS.—We hear of short crops in nearly every portion of the State. In the Spring the prospect was usually good...

A COURAGEOUS WOMAN.—The following account of the courageous conduct of a young lady has been communicated...

Who, among the sons and daughters of our blessed land does not wish to contribute his or her portion towards the Home and Grave of our best loved Washington?

Among the modes of collecting means for this purpose, one presents itself as being decidedly appropriate and acceptable: It is by forming clubs in all parts of the country...

WAR POLITICAL CANVASS IN ILLINOIS.—The political contest in Illinois is getting somewhat warm, and considerably personal.

PERIL OF THE SURF.—A correspondent writing from Atlantic City, under date of August 16th says: "Yesterday there was the wildest excitement near the United States Hotel, owing to the perilous condition of the surf."

OUR MINERAL SPRING.—The very valuable Spring owned by George Kittrell, Esq. and now in the possession of his son, is situated in the western part of the county...

From the Mount Vernon Record. AID TO THE MT. VERNON FUND.
