THE FAIR.

We have eachewed politics in our editorial columns to-day, as we have been more agreeably engaged at the Fair, looking at the many curious and attractive sights, " fore- | magnificent, and prepared in such abundance that gathering" with old acquaintances, making it is said the immense crowd present could connew ones, &c., &c. The Fair, we are glad sume scarcely half of it. Everything passed off to say, has been a most decided success in pleasantly ; and at night the company reluctantevery way. The crowd in attendance was larger than any heretofore assembled on such an occasion, and the articles upon exhibition and expense encountered by the throng from scended from two brothers of Oliver Cromwell, every part of the State.

RAILBOAD CELEBRATION AT STATESVILLE .--On Thursday, the 14th inst, the Celebration of the completion of the Western North Carolina Railroad, to Statesville, took place in that town; and from all the accounts we have seen, we judge it mus, have been an affair worthy of the occasion. There was a very large number of visitors present, probably some 10,000, together with four dog-star. military companies, exclusive of the military of Statesville. The military companies which took part in the coremonies of the occasion, were the Iredell Blues, of Statesville, Capt. Simonton ; the Orange Guards, of Hillsboro', Capt. Jones ; the Hornet's Nest Rifles, Capt. Price, from Charlotte, and the Rowan Rifle Guards, Capt. Robards, and the Rowan Artillery, Capt. Darby, of Salisbury ; besides the Iredell Cadots, under command of their teacher, Mr Andrews.

The orators of the day were Br-Gov. Morehead and Gen. Young, of Charlotte. The dinner was ly separated, everybody being deeply and gratefully impressed with the whole-souled hospitality of the generous citizens of Iredell.

St. Martin, since he was wounded has married and become the father of 17 children, five of whom, with his wife are now living. At first, the only way by which his tood, after entering the scophagus, could be prevented from passing through the wound was to use compresses and adhesive straps. That necessity has since been overcome by the growth of a small fold of the coats of the stomach, which now extends almost over the orifice, but can be readily depressed with the finger, so as to allow an examination of the interior of the stomach (when it is empty) to the depth of 5 or 6 inches

THE PRIZE FIGHT-MORRISSEY VIC. TORIOUS-SHOCKING BRUTALITY.

UFFALO, Oct. 20.—The brutal fight between He nan and Morrisey took place this afternoon, at Long Point, Canada. It commenced at 20 minutes to 4 o'clock. Heenan made objection to the ground, saying that it was not according to the agreement, but as so many had come to see the fight, he would waive his objections and fight.----The first round lasted seven minutes, and the fighting was terrible. On the tenth round Heenan was knocked down. On the eleventh round Morrissey was very weak, and was carried to the seratch, but Heenan went alone. This was a terrible round. Heenan fell fainting. On the twelfth round Morrissey was carried to the scratch, but Heenan was too faint to come to time, when the battle was declared won by Morrissey. Eleven rounds were fought in twenty-two minutes. Both Heenan and Morrissey were very badly cut, and had to be brought away on beds. The fight was wit-nessed by about 3,000 persons. There was no disturbance.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND Liver Medicines now before the public, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder, and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to elect its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus scoomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings expeienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it; and when taken daily in moderate doses, will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

SHOOTING AFFRAT IN A CHURCH-ESCAPE OF THE PASTOR .- About 8 o'clock last evening a Frenchman named L. Beerier, entered the Metho-dist chuch in Thirty-fourth street, near Eighth avenue, and after sitting for a short time in a pew directly in front of the pulpit, he was seen to take a pistol from his pocket and aim it at the pastor, the Rev. J. M. Crawford, and instantly discharged one of the barrels. It proved to be loaded with ball, which lodged in the wall directly beside Mr. ball, which lodged in the wall directly beside Mr. Crawford, coming within a short distance of hit-ting him, which, had it been a little more to the right, would undoubtedly have killed him on the spot. The congregation were instantly thrown into a great state of excitement, and for a time it was feared Mr. Crawford had been shot. Beerier was immediately secured by several gentlemen and handed over to the Twentieth ward police On handed over to the Twentieth ward police On being conveyed to the station house he stated as a reason for so doing, that Mr. Crawford had insulted him in a sermon dlivered in the morning. In reply, I have only to say that I have no further satisfaction to demand since We take pleasure in re-cine as a preventive for closing our former correspondence. Respectfully, JOHN C. BADHAM.

If John C. Badham and William A. Moore have won any laurels in the above correspondence, let them wear them. If to challenge one, and then cowardly skulk from the difficulty constitute men of courage, then have they achieved that distinction.

[No. 6.] EDENTON, August 18, 1858. The explanation appended to the correspondence W. A. MOORE, Esq., -Dear Sir: As the friend of Col. R. T. Paine, I propose the following terms published by them is evidently an attempt to muddy the water to hide their cowardice and disgrace. The impertinent allusion to an insult offered to me by a man smarting under a blow from 1st.
