RALEIGH. N. C.

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 26, 1859. THE NEXT CONGRESSIONAL ELEC-

TIONS IN THIS STATE. Unless the Oppsition party in North Carolina shall be cursed with the most culpable supineness, or distracted by the most stupid feuds, they will carry, at the least, four of the eight districts in the next election. We mean the 1st, the 5th, the 6th and the 8th Districts. A gentleman from the 1st District informs us that there is the very best spirit prevailing through the length and breadth of the District. With the host of talent which the District possesses, and from which the candidate will be chosen, there can be no mistake made as to the man.

The 5th District will be, as it has been, ours, unless the Oppositionists are distracted by quarrels as to men, and thus permit an that our country has given birth to! "Imposition" Democrat to slip in and misrepresent a notoriously anti-Democratic Distriot. Such a course on the part of the Oppositionists would be the very extreme of folly, and a burning shame. What a spectacle would it be now, when our party everywhere are sacrificing personal predilections the strongest and best men as their candidates, to see the Old Guilford District-the banper District of the Whig party-torn and split up by disputes about men, and in the sequel to see a pestiferous Loco Foco misrepresenting it in Congress. This cannot be, ought not to be, must not be.

In the 6th District, as in the first, the old Whig fires have been rekindled, and are burning brightly to guide the nominated candidate to a victory which will "turn the Scales" clean over, or as clean over, as Democratic "Scales" can be turned.

In the 8th District, Vance, the gallant tramentane champion of the Opposition party, will clinch the nail which he drove into the coffin of Loco Focoism last summer.

Never had a party a finer prospect, and more tempting field spread out before them than have the Opponents of Demogracy in N. Carolina at this moment. The labors of the canvass will be labors of love and devotion to the best interests of our beloved country. The holiest instincts of an exalted patriotism prompt men everywhere to unite in the most strenuous efforts 'to drive out the owls and the bats, and the other foul feathered animals that make up the aviary of Democracy from the government nests in which they have so long brooded, and which they have so nauseatingly defiled. The stench of Democratic corruptions is rank unto heaven, and a people sick of it almost unto death, cry aloud for every disinfecting and purifying agent.

We have the prestige of success on our side now. The Democracy see it, and seeing it tremble. Look at the tone of their central organ, the Standard. Who remembers to have seen that Journal as tame and spiritless as it has been for six months past? As it is with it, so it is with its party. The whole concern have a fearful looking forward to a judgment to come. Go forward, then, Whig speakers and canvassers, and an indignant and outraged people will pronounce the doom of double-dealing and damnable Democracy !

THE OLD GAME.

The Democracy are now engaged in playing the old game of crying out that the Union is in peril, and that nothing can save it but the election of a Demogratic President in 1860. This was the game which gave them the victory in 1856, and what has the Union, and especially the Southern portion of it, gained from it? If benefit has been reaped from the most prodigal extravagance, the grossest and vilest corruptions, and from the most palpable incompetency to manage any one Department of the Government, then we admit that Mr. Buchanan's election has been a blessing to the country. But if extravagance, corruption and incompetency are curses to the country, we ask our Democratic friends to tell us We cannot conceive of one.

But a curious state of affairs now exists, they feel power and spoils slipping away from in after times as one of the brightest in our them, ery out that the institution of slavery country's history." is in peril, and the integrity of the Union threats to dissolve the Union in the event the Northern wing of your party.

that a particle of Cuffee's wool was touched by the Abulitionists, than have emanated from any six States in the Union? A spectacle no less striking than this : With all the Democrats of the State to choose a Governor from, they have nominated as their candidate for that office one who, twelve years ago, when Virginia, through her Legislature, was launching out her thunders against the Wilmot Proviso, and threatening to quit the Union in the event of its enactment, was endorsing and circulating a pamphlet which denounced negro slavery not only as "a social and political evil," but as a downright "pestilence"-as a "political YELLOW FEVER and BLACK VOMIT,"-and which advocated its removal from Western Virginia -a step which would have been soon followed by the abolition of slavery in all Virginia !! But this is not all. The candidate of the Democracy in Virginia eight years ago, in the Reform Convention of that State, speered at Eastern slaveholders, as men who had no other idea in their heads but that of "negro-ology," and went into elaborate argumens and statistics to prove that slavery was a curse! Such is the man whom the Democracy of Virginia are now striving to place in the chair in which once sat some of the purest and most patriotic men

With these things plain and palpable before the country, how dare the Democracy of Virginia to prate of danger to the institution of slavery and the Union of the States from the defeat of their party in the coming Presidential election? And how dare the Raleigh Standard, and the Democracy of North on the altar of their country and selecting Carolina, prate of any such danger when, with yearning souls, they are praying for the election to the office of Governor of the largest slaveholding State in the Union, of John Letcher, who endersed and circulated the charge that slavery was a POLITICAL YEL-LOW FEVER and BLACK VOMIT, and spoke against it only eight years ago in the Reform Convention? But a short time before Leteber was nomina'ed as the candidate, and when the Richmond Enquirer was showing up day after day his anti-slavery autecedents, the Standard rebuked the Enquirer for doing so, and is now, as it will not and cannot deny, devoutly anxious for Letcher's success. Did the world ever see grosser inconsistency or duplicity than is now manifes ed by these pro-slavery and Union-loving Democrats? How dares the Standard to hold up Gilmer and Vance as co-operators with Black Republicans, when it is agonizing for the election of John Letcher?

But the Standard and its Democrats are not alone in their sympathy with Letcher, for their anxiety is shared by the "National Era," the Central Free Soil Organ, and other Abolition journals who are constantly on their knees praying for Letcher's election. Hear what the Central Free Soil Organ

The election of such a man to the office of Governor would, to say the least of it, argue a growing indifference to the distinctions of "sound" and 'unsound" upon the subject of slavery; and for this and other reasons we confess that, much as we dislike the deminant party, and desire its over throw, we shall be very well reconciled to the continued ascendancy of the "Democracy" in Virginia, with our weak and erring brother at its head. We cannot forget, at the same time, that Gover nor Wise, who, during his memorable campaign of 1855, let fly many shafts of wit and ridicule at the slave-ridden agriculture of Virginia, is now sup-porting Mr. Letcher; and that which gives peculiar significance to this circumstance is the that up to the day of the gubernatorial nomination. the Governor's organ, edited by his son, denounced Mr. Letcher as an abolitionist, or something very near skin to one, in consequence of his connection with the Ruffner pamphlet; and vet, the next day holsted the name of that gentleman as the candidate for Governor-an infallible proof

What think you of this, Citizen Holden ? Are you not proud of the company you keep ? When will you pitch into Gilmer and Vance that downright freesoilism, though somewhat repulsive to the Governor, is not an insurmountable

The Register refers to the message of President Buchanan to Congress the day before the adjournment, calling on that body to make provision to meet the public debt, as "the pitoos supplication" of a "poor old man," We can assure the Register that the New York Tribune is quite as offensive and abusive towards the President as the Register is itself. "The opposition"-which means Know Nothingism South and Black Republicanism North-has no friendly word for Mr. Buchanan. But he will survive all this abuse and injustice, and his administration will be regarded in after times as one of the trightest in our country's history .- Standard of Saturday.

Say you so neighbor ? Then we have at last brought you to an admission that we how much worse off than we are now would have for some time sought to get from we have been had Frement been elected in- you. You separate yourself from the Southstead of Mr. Buchanan? In what single par- ern Democracy-you endorse Mr. Buchanan's ticular could the country have sustained at Administration, and will abide by its fortunes the hands of Fremont more injury than it has -you advocate the Pacific Rail Road-you go in for a protective tariff through the medium of specific duties, and utterly scout the free trade doctrine of ad valorem duties. In and it is a striking evidence of the inconsis- a word, you are out and out for an "admintency and deplicity of those who, whenever istration" which you think will "be regarded

Well. Citizen, as much as we differ from menaced. Look at what is now going on in you, we like your candor. You have frankan adjoining State. What a spectacle is ex- ly, and like a man, committed yourself to hibited in Virginia, the largest slaveholding Mr. Buchanan's Administration. You have and heretofore the most steadfastly Demo- boldly cut the ties which bound you to the cratic State in the Union-a State, too, from Southern anti-tariff and anti-Pacific Railroad which the dominant party has sent forth more Democracy, and hereafter you will stand by paid well.

THE POST OFFICE.

We call attention to the letter of the Post Master General with the comments of the National Intelligencer on the course proposed to be pursued by the Administration in regard to postal arrangements. If we may presume to add a word of our own to what has been said by the Intelligencer, we call attention to the fact that the issue of certificates to the creditors of the the P. O. Department will be either an appropriation of money by the Administration in violation of the constitution or will be a swindle upon the ereditors. If Congress redeems the certificates, the Administration will have made an expenditure without the authority of law, and the action of no subsequent Congress can relate back so as to cure the originally defective authority. If Congress does not redeem the certificates, the creditors lose their debt. And this is "hard money Democ-

DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSIONAL DIS-TRICT CONVENTIONS.

A writer in Wednesday's Standard urges the holding of a Convention of the Democracy of this District at Franklinton to nominate a candidate to represent this Congressional talented young gentleman from Hertford, North District in the next Congress, and a late number of the Standard advises conventions to be held in all the Districts.

In some of the Districts there is a good deal of dissatisfaction among the Democracy at the holding on propensity of some of the incumbents. In Mr. Ruffin's district especially, there is a fear that he will so far repudiate the doctrine of rotation in office as to look forward to a life estate in a seat in Congress.

THE MAILS .- There is a universal complaint about the irregularity of the mails. Men of business and publishers of newspapers suffer much from the constant inattention of those connected with the Post Office .-But two mails were received at the Post Office in this city on Thursday morningone from Richmond, Va., and the other from Augusta, Ga. We presume these continued mail failures are designed to gradually prepare the country for the loss of the mail al-

A subscriber writing to us from Stantonsburg, Wilson county, says he has not received his paper for three weeks, and, in fact, we receive such complains almost daily from nearly every direction. We know that the Register is regularly mailed to our subscribers, and if they fail to get it, it is the fault of some of the postmasters or mail agents. There is the grossest negligence somewhere.

. ORANGE SUPERIOR COURT.

This tribunal was in session the past week at Hillsboro', his Honor Judge Caldwell presiding. The only criminal case on the docket was that of Obadiah Christmas, for the murder, some 15 months ago, of a negro man, the property of Mr. Taylor, of Granville, the particulars of which were published at the time in the Register. Christmas moved his trial first from Granville, upon the ground that he could not get a fair trial in that county, to Person, in which county a similar plea was put in, and a change of venue again obtained and the case sent to the Superior Court of Orange. The case occupied the whole of two days-Thursday and Fridayand excited a good deal of interest. The selection of a jury and the examination of witnesses consumed the whole of Thursday, morning, when it was opened by T. Brown Venable, Esq., of Oxford, who, with Thos-Ruffin, Jr., (State Solicitor,) and Hon. E. G. Reade, constituted the counsel for the prosecution. Hon. W. A. Graham, and M. W. Ransom, Josiah Turne and Henry W. Miller, Esquires, appeared for the prisoner .- a Company. The argument was concluded about eight o'clock, on Friday evening, when the Judge delivered his charge, and the jury re- Association of Wilmington on Tuesday evening Saturday a verdict of guilty was rendered. Democracy." An appeal to the Supreme Court was taken, on the ground that the Judge, in his charge, excluded evidence to prove that insanity was hereditary in the prisoner's family—the main to the Bay steamers, and will be called the "Georargument of the defence being to show the gianna." insanity of the prisoner. Should a new trial be granted this verdict will be anulled, but should it be refused, it will only remain for off the track near Hamilton, Canada, on Friday sentence of death to be passed, which will night last, demolishing the cars and killing six be done, in case the petition is not granted, persons, and wounding some 15 others. Every at the next Superior Court for Orange after now an then we are called upon to chronicle, some such refusal.

The Hillsboro' Recorder says :

The principal witness on the part of the prose-cution was Mr. William Tillotson; from whose testimony it appeared that he and Christmas had been drinking together the night preceding the murder, and in the morning, first at Christmas' house and then at Tillotson's, which were about a mile and a quarter apart. Getting out of liquor they went to a store some three or four miles off, and filled two jugs, drinking on their way back to Tillotson's. After remaining a short time in the house, on their return to Tillotson's, one of the children of Tillotson told him that a negro man was riding up the lane towards the house. Tillotson went out, followed by Christmas, who seated himself on a bench near the door. The negro, on coming up, asked Tillotson if he had seen any stray hogs. Tillotson replied that he had not; but ture.

By the way, what was the price of that he could perhaps tell him where he could find some. Christmas then addressing the negro, said, mail contract advertisement which you sup- some. Christmas then addressing the negro, said plemented out lately? We should think it Nathanstole my hogs." The negro replied, "I did not steal your hogs, Master Oby, I only fed them." Christmas then asked, "Is that Nathan?" The negro replied "yes." Christmas then uttering a profane exclamation, said, "I mean to shoot you And pulling out his pistol he fired at him, bu The horse on which the negro sat wheeled partly round; when Christmas fired again, and the negro fell to the ground, the ball having penetrated his head. Tillotson then said to Christmas, "Are you not sorry that you ever saw a pis-

The latter replied "yes, I am." Christmas then declaring that he must carry away the body and throw it in the stream, got upon the borse, and persuaded Tillotson to aid him getting it up before him. He then rode of towards the stream, distant a few hundred vards Tillotson followed him a short space and then turned back. Christmas soon returned to the ouse; said he had not put the body in the stream, but had left it on a knoll near it. He then went to a looking-glass, said that be had understood but he had not changed his color yet. He staid at Tillotson's yet a short time, and then returned with his family into the State of Virginia, to the house of his mother, distant about ten miles where ie was arrested next day. To these facts as stated by Tillotson there was no re-butting testimony offered; and the main

THE SICKLES TRIAL.-The trial of Hon. Dan'l E. Sickles in Washington, for shooting P. Barton Key, Esq., is put down for Monday next. A dispatch from Washington says that Mr. Ould. the District Attorney, will be assisted in the prosecution by ex-Senator Badger, of this State.

The Military Companies of Wilmington, turned out to receive Governor Ellis on Monday last, on the occasion of his visit to that city to attend the meeting of the Cape Fear and Deep River Navigation Company. General Cowan and staff met the train some distance from the city and escorted the Governor into town. After a review of the military, Alfred M. Waddell, Esq., on behalf of the citizens and soldiery, extended to the Governor a hearty welcome, to which he replied in a pertinent manner.

A MAN PROBABLY MURDERED BY HIS SER-VANT .- On the night of the 18th inst., Mr. Sam'l. Piland, of Northampton County, was assaulted with a weeding hoe and so dreadfully wounded by a slave of his, named Dempsey, that his life is despaired of. A man named Nat. Thomas was in company with Piland at the time he was attacked, but instead of assisting him to repel the assault of the negro, he ingloriously fled, leaving Piland weltering in his blood in a drenching rain through the whole night. Piland has been lying insensible ever since he was wounded, and but little hope and the argument was postponed till the next is entertained of his recovery. The negro has

On reaching it one of them remarked that he would light a match, when instantly a pistol was fired by a burglar, who was secreted in the room. WE CANNOT DO IT.

We have received a circular signed by Wm. H. Anthon and some twenty others requesting us to aid in the circulation of an abolition production by the parricidal "Hinton Rowan Helper, of North Caroline," entitled "The impending Crisis of the Southhow to meet it."

We must decline the honor of assisting in the circulation of this work, but in gratitude to those who tendered it, we advise them to prefer a similar request to the Hon. John Letcher, the Democratic candidate for the Governorship of Virginia. He assisted not very long ago in circulating a work which, in its denunciation of slavery, we feel sure is not surpassed by Mr. Hinton Rowan Helper's "Impending Crisis." Mr. Letcher is now canvassing the State of Virginia, and would have glorious opportunities to circulate the "Impending Crisis." Perhaps the Standard. as it desires Letcher's election, will aid in the circulation of the "Impending Crisis."

We shall send a copy of this paper to Messrs. Anthon & Co.

[Correspondence of the Raleigh Register.] WADESBORO', N. C., March 19, 1859. MR. SYME: The Spring Term of our Superior Court closes to-day-a large amount of business having been dispatched, including, however, no case of general interest. The indefatigable care and attention which Judge Heath has bestowed on the business which came before him: the courteousness and urbanity which have marked his demeanor toward all with whom he has come in official or social intercourse, united with the true dignity of his position, have won for him the esteem and admiration of our citizens to an unusual

Two cases which were expected to have been tried at this term, which have excited considerable interest, have been compromised, viz: Freeman vs. Greensboro' Insurance Company, and Bank of Wadesboro' vs. Tomlinson, and others. The exact terms of adjustment I did not learn.

Hon. John A. Gilmer has been in attendance on our Court during the week, in fine health and spirits, and most sanguine as to the result of the great political revolution which is evidently fast approaching. By reference to the Argus you will see that the "good and true" Whigs of Anson are taking steps toward thorough organization. This, I doubt not, will be most cheering news to manyfor not only here, but throughout the State, the spirit of 1840 "still lives," and when the glorious old banner is once more unfurled to the breeze, thousands upon thousands of gallant Whigs will rush beneath its folds, ready to battle, as of yore, for their country and their rights. Yours, &c.

DECEASED.-Hon, Wm. T. Haskell, of Tenn. distinguished as a brilliant orator, and brave officer in the Mexican war, died in the lunatic asylum at Hopkinsville, Ky., last Sunday week. He was formerly a member of Congress, and was attacked with insanity a year or so ago.

THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

All the Special Mail Agencies, seventeen in number, have just neen discontinued, by the Department at Washington, and the order granting extra compensation out of the postages, affecting about eighty postmasters, has been revoked, owing to the failure of Congress to make the necessary appropriations.

FATAL DUEL AT NEW ORLEANS .- Edward Locquet, a cotton broker, of New Orleans, was killed in a duel on the 11th instant, by Emile Hi-riart, operatic critic of the Delta. Mr. H. had a few days before fought a duel with D. Placide Canonge, operatic critic of the Courier, in which the latter received three balls through his clothing. After that meeting Mr. Locquet, friend of Canonge, challenged H. The weapons were shot guns loaded with balls, and the distance was forty paces. At the first fire Mr. Locquet was struck by the ball of his antagonist in the left side, near the region of the heart; which passed through on the opposite side, causing his death almost instant ly. The ball of Mr. Locquet, striking the ground several yards in front of Mr. Hiriart, richotted in such a manner as to inflict a stunning wourd on his breast, causing him to fall, but, on examination, it was found not to have penetrated to any STABBING .- Mr. Ambrose Fulcher was stabbed a few days since by Mr. John Dudley. The cause of dispute we have not learned. The wounds, which were at first throught to be dangerous, i not mortal, have proved less severe than was anticipated. The wounded man has almost entirely recovered. The parties were brothers-in law. The use of knives and deadly weapons is becoming too common, and the strong arm of the law should be evoked to put a stop to the practice.
