MR. BUCHANAN IN VIRGINIA.

Mr. Montague, the Democratic candidate for the office of Lieutenant Governor of Virginia, in a discussion with Mr. Goggin, the Whig candidate for the Governorship, thus spoke of Mr. Buchanan:

"I voted for Mr. Buchanan on the Cincinnati platform, but he has deceived me-he is a traitor to his party, and so help me my Creator, I'll never vote for him again.

What do you think of that, Citizen Holden? There is quite a lively contrast between your undiminished confidence in old Buck, and Democratic Mr. Montague's opinion of him. By the way, speaking of your confidence in old Buck, we could never, for the posed to his proposed Pacific Railroad, you are opposed to his proposed Specific Duties, and you are opposed to his Thirty Million Bill. HOLLY SPRING HIGH SCHOOL -Edward Cantwell, Esq., of this City, will deliver the annual address before this institution on the first Friday in June next.

THE PETERSBURG "PRESS,"

We learn that this distinguished journal has upon more than one occasion of late paid its respects to our humble sheet. Two of these compliments to us we have never seen up to the present moment, and, therefore, have not had it in our power to return our thanks in a suitable manner. We regret this very much, as we ardently desired to do the right thing by a journal wielding so mighty and extensive an influence as does the Petersburg "Press." The "Press," however, we feel confident, was particularly lavish in its DEMOCRATIC MEETING IN GRAN- thanks and compliments for the "delicate personal allusions" which awakened its stirring memories of the glorious campaign of 1848, when its Editor, from the pulpit of an old church in Greensville, and while addressing delegates appointed to the nominating con- a large audience of ladies and gentlemen, vention at Franklinton. The resolutions ex- pronounced the Democratic party to be "the pressed no sort of endorsement of Mr. Branch, d-dst and most corrupt faction that ever candidate. A resolution was adopted which ed with be idea that we could prove this statement by Col. J. R. Now, dearest Colonel, listen to a few plain words. You knew when you wrote the article of the 26th that the "Register," like some of the Virginia papers, was led into this mistake about Letcher, by the Washington "States." You knew that the writer of this was in Petersburg on the day before the Register containing the charge came out, and had been in that city for several days prior thereto, and by reference to the Register of Wednesday last you wilt see that we availed ourself of the very first opportunity to make the amende honorable to Mr. Letcher, just as you are doing now to the Democratic party which you once declared to be "the d-dst and most corrupt faction that ever cur-ed a country," which, "as we said before," we can prove by Col. John R. Chambliss.

In conclusion, we express the hope that the Editor of the "Press" will recover from The resolutions of the Granville Democra- the shock we have caused him, and give to him the solemn a surance that we never look at or think of him but the lines of the poet re-

CHEERING NEWS.

We have received a large number of let ers n the last few days, and in nearly every one have received kind words of encouragement to labor on for our glorious cause, as well as cheering intelligence of the prospects of our party in different sections of the State.

THE ACQUITTAL OF SICKLES .- Hop. Daniel E. Sickles, who has been on trial in Washington City for the last three weeks for killing Philip Borton Key, the seducer of his wife, was on Tuesday last, at 3 o'clock, pronounced by the jury "Not Guilty."

At four o'clock on the same day we received the information of the acquittal by telegraph, but as nearly our whole edition for Wednesday had been printed, we could only place it on our bulletin board, which we did, thereby furnishing the news to our citizens twenty-four hours in advance of any other paper, in or out of the city. The trial has resulted exactly as every body anticipated. We are sincerely glad that it is finished, and hope that a long time will elapse before the ends of justice will require a narration in Court of such sickening details as have been elicited by the trial of Sickles. We have contented ourself with publishing brief synopses of the progress of this trial, as we did not think the details were fit to appear in a journal circulating in families.

LATER FROM EUROPE. The steamer City of Washington arrived at New York on Monday last with dates from Liverpool to the 13th instant. The news by this arival was of a more pacific character than formerly, a report having been circulated that concessions had been made by Austria in the preliminary conditions regulating the proposed Peace Congress but the steamer Circassian, from Liverpool on the 18th inst., passed Cape Race on the 26th, bringing news which give less hope of the establishment

On Thursday night honest John took his seat on chair upon the stage which was set against what coked to the unsophisticated gaze of the distinguished Swaban like a solid wall, but was really nothing more than a drop scene. At a momen when the Lieutenant was enlarging upon the everlasting principles of Democracy, honest John concluded to take a rest against his wall. '-O what a fall was there, my countrymen!" At one moment sat honest John smiling blandly upon the audience with a long nine between his teeth, and the next he lay sprawling upon the floor! "With back to earth and face to heaven, the fallen Letcher.lay," with his heels sticking high in the air, looking as dead a cock physically as he will be potically, on the 26th proximo.

Honest John will soon learn that appearences are exceedingly deceptive, and that Petersburg ominations and drop-curtains are very unsubstan tial things to lean upon!

EXCITING NEWS FROM UTAH-THE ARMY CALLED INTO SERVICE-PRO-CLAMATION FROM GOVERNOR CUM-

Later advices from Utah represent affairs in that territory as threatening. Judge Cradlebaugh had dismissed the juries, they refusing to find a true bill against a murderer, in consequence of the excited state of the populace. A thousand soldiers had been despatched to the neighborhood of Provo City. Gov. Cumming had issued a proclamation siding with the Mormon sentiment. The danger of an outbreak was considered imminent. Besides the difference between General Johnston and Governor Cumming there is an open rupture between the latter and the Judiciary.

The following were adopted: Whereas. The time approaches for the election of a member of Congress from this Congressional District; and whereas, we see in the present administration of the government an extravagant expenditure of the public money, and doctrines advanced by the executive subversive of the Contitution and of the just rights of the States, we, a portion of the people of this Congressional Dis-trict, in public meeting, do resolve, RECRUITING STOPPED .- In pursuance of orders from the War Department, the recruiting service throughout the United States was discontinued on the 30th ult. The ranks of the army are now full for the first time in twenty years, but there is a considerable surplus of recruits from which to fill future vacancies. The unusual prosperity of the recruiting business may be attributed partly to the depressing effect of the financial revulsion, but mainly to the increase of the soldier's pay, about four years ago, up to the decently remunerative standard of $11 per month for foot and $12 for cavalry service.

ACQUITTAL OF HON. DANIEL E. SIC-KLES.

On Tuesday last, about half-past one o'clock, the HOUSES ARE CLEARED OF VERMIN, counsel on both sides having concluded their argument sustaining the instruction on points of law asked for by each, Judge Crawford reviewed the instructions, and explained them, and the case was then (10 minutes to 2 o'clock) given to the jury. After an absence of an bour and ten minutes, the jury returned, and were asked if they had agreed upon a verdict. "We have," said the Fore-

The prisoner was then requested to stand up.-When the foreman rendered the verdiet of "NOT GUILTY,' the quiet which pravailed during this scene was suddenly changed into loud and deafening huzzas, and stamping of feet. deafening shouts from the multitude, and many called for a speech. He was placed in a hack, and an immense retinue of other backs filled with friends followed him to the residence of J. H. McBlair, in the immediate neighborhood of his former dwelling. There thousands of persons thronged to congratulate him on the result of the trial. As soon as the announcement of the verdict reached Pennsylvania Avenue, that great thoroughfare was almost instantly deserted, all rushng towards Judiciary Square to join in general congratulations. In short, no event ever so starled the political metropolis from its usual proprie ty as the verdict of this jury-and a victor from the field of battle was never more warmly congratulated than Daniel E. Sickles.

FINALE OF THE SICKLES TRIAL.-It is said that the Sickles jury before leaving the box stood eleven for instant acquittal, and one conscientipusly opposed to such a verdict until certain points of Judge Crawford's charge was more fully explained to him. This having been done, he acguiesced in a verdict of "not guitty." The Washington Constitution, of Wednesday, says:

Last evening a number of gentlemen, admirers of the ability and eloquence displayed by the counsel retained for the defence of the Hon. Daniel E. Sickles in his late trial, paid them the compliment of a serenade. A detachment of the Marine Band were selected for this purpose, and, followed by a large concourse of citizens, they proceeded to the National Hotel, where, after the execution of several beautiful airs by the band, Messrs Stanton, Brady, Chilton and Magruder, appeared, and in appropriate terms thanked the assemblage for the call, and alluded to the verdict of the recent trial. They were loudly cheered. The company then proceeded to Willard's Hotel. where, in answer to loud calls, Mr. Graham responded in an appropriate and beautiful speech, which was loudly cheered. The crowd then proceeded to serenade Rev. Dr. Haley and the jury.

SAFETY OF THE MISSING BOAT OF THE STEAMER JASSEUR.

We published several days ago an account of the loss of the English war steamer Jasseur, bound from Jamaica to Nicaragua, which struck on the Riscendar reefs on the night of the 26th of February, and went down so suddenly that nothing was saved from her excepting her crew. The captain, four officers, and fifteen men took one boat, and the purser and doctor and twenty-eight others took another boat. The captain's party succeeded. after being ten days without food, in reaching Santa Cruz, from whence they were dispatched to Jamaica in a Cuban Government vessel. By an arrival at New York, we learn that the second boat load had, after nineteen days of exposure at sea, been picked up. One of the unfortunates had died of starvation, the doctor and pursue were insane, and the others were in a most deplorabl condition. The poor fellows were taken to Ja-
