THE STANDARD WILL SUPPORT JUDGE DOUGLASS.

Although that doughty ohampion of Southern Rights, the Raleigh Standard, said nine months ago that " Judge Douglas voted, and acted with the Black Republicans during the last session of Congress," although it said of him, "great as he is, he is not so great that the Democratic Party cannot humble him to the-dust," and although, it is now denounce ing John A. Gilmer, who adheres to the decision in the Dred Scott case, it on the 25th of last month announced its purpose of supporting Judge Douglas-the co-operator with Black Republicans-in the event of his nomination by the Charleston Convention. Has the world ever seen such gross inconsistency, accompanied by such unblushing effrontery ! According to the Standard's own professed creed, John A. Gilmer is an angel of light compared with Stephen A. Douglas, and yet it denounces Gilmer as unworthy of a seat in expenditure, whose ingenuity is exerted in con-Congress, while it is ready to work body and soul to elect Douglas to the Presidency .---But let us look for a moment at the position into which this shuffling, wriggling and twisting Journal has squirmed itself It was awfully shocked the other day when we declared that we would make no choice between a Democrat and a Black Republican, public debt, a reasonable increase of the navy which and told its friends to denounce us on every stump for what we said. Now, what is the Standard's own position ! Just look at itand see how completely it has impaled itself.

The man who co-operates with Black Republicans, is to all intents and purposes, himself a Black Republican. The Raleigh Standard charges Judge Douglas with cooperating with the Black Republicans, but have been practicable to our domestic manufac nevertheless will support him for the Presidency, should he be nominated as a candidate. Therefore the Raleigh Standard is prepared to choose a Black Republican for President of the United States, and we call upon the Opposition speakers to denounce it on every stump for being prepared to make "a choice," which the Register declared "tortures could not extract from it ?" Now, Citizen Holden, are you not as perfectly impaled as ever was a worm on a fish hook ?

You cannot escape unless you confess with shame and confusion of face, that you slandered Judge Douglas, when on the 25th of September, 1858, you said, "Judge Douglas voted, and acted with the Black Republicans during the last session of Congress."

Yes ! let it every where be proclaimed that the Raleigh Standard, which denounces the Register for saying that it would choose neither a Black Republican nor a Democrat, is willing to choose one who "voted and acted with the Black Republicans during" a "session of Congress" at which, by its own admission, matters of vital importance to the South were passed upon. Let it everywhere channels of commerce. What has pecome against an administration which, according to the Standard's own Statement, spent last year $71,901,129 or $22,587,916 more than John Quincy Adams spent during his administration of four years. But the Standard arrives at its statement of the expenditures by deducting from $81,585,667 76 cents, $9.-684,537 99 cents, paid on account of the Public Debt. Now, we wish to call attention to the circumstances under which Mr. Buchanan come into office. Did he come in to find a depleted or bankrupt Treasury, or did he come in to find a Treasury filled to repletion, aye, filled so full that its plethoric condition was an absolute "embarrassment ?" Let Mr. Buchanan in his own language answer the question. In his Inaugural Address

Our present financial condition is without a parallel in history. No nation has ever before beer embarrassed from too large a surplus in its treasu-This almost necessarily gives birth to extravagant legislation. It products wild schemes o triving and promoting expedients to obtain public money. The purity of official agents, whether rightfully or wrongfully, is suspected, and the character of the government suffers in the estima-tion of the people. This is in itself a very great

The natural mode of relief from this embarrass. ment is to appropriate the surplus in the treasury to great national objects, for which a clear war rant can be found in the constitution. Among these I might mention the extinguishment of the is at present inadequate to the protection of our vast tonnage afloat, now greater than that of any other nation, as well as to the defence of our extended sea coast. It is beyond all question the true principle that no more revenue ought to be collected from the people than the amount necessary to defray the expenses of the wise, economical, and efficient administration of the government. To reach this point, it was necessary to resort to a modification of the tariff, and this has, I trust, been accomplished in such a manner as to do as little injury as may tures, especially those necessary for the defence of the country. Any discrimination against a particular branch, for the purpose of benefitting corporations, individuals, or interests would have een unjust to the rest of the community and inconsistent with that spirit of fairness and equality which ought to govern in the adjustment of a rev mue tariff.

" Our present financial condition is without a parallel in history. No nation has ever before been embarrassed by too large a surplus in its Treasury. This naturally gives birth to extravagant legislation," &c., &s. The President then goes on to suggest the modes of reluving the Treasury of its plethoric condition, as the extract shows .-Did Mr. Buchanan know the condition of the Treasury, or was he talking at a venture ? The Standard knows that in this instance, at least, Old Back told the truth, and it is fresh in the memory of everybody of tolerable information, that during his predecessor's administration, there were loud and constant complaints throughout the country, of the millions upon millions of dollars that were locked up in the strong boxes of the Sub-

Treasury, instead of circulating through the Messrs. Branch and Scales will vote for Judge Douglas if he is nominated by the Charleston Convention, and according to the Standard will vote for the man who has " voted and acted with the Black Republicans."

arrival of the Etna at New York. The following s the latest news received at Liverpool just previous to the sailing of the Canada :

Paris, Saturday, July 2 .- The Moniteur cotains the following telegram :

Valegio, Friday .- [From the Emperor Napoleon to the Empress.] The whole army has passed the Mincio.

The Sardinians have invested Peschiera. The reinforcements which I have received by the arrival of 35,000 men, under Prince Napoleon, have nabled me to approach Verona without compromising myself in any way, as I have left a corps de'armee at the Golto, to watch Mantua, and I am about to assemble another at Brescia to watch the asses of Tyrol.

The Moniteur also contains the following official ulletin of the battle of Solferino : The force of he army of the enemy amounted to from two hundred and fifty thousand to two hundred and seventy thousand.

"The new artillery produced terrible effect. Its discharges reached the enemy at a distance whence their heaviest guns could not reply, and covered the plain with the dead.

"The loss of the French is 720 officers placed ors du combat one hundred and twenty of whom were killed, and twelve thousand privates killed and wounded. Among the killed are seven coloels and six lieutenant colonels. Among those wounded are five generals."

Vienna. July 1.- The Austrian correspondent says that the loss at the battle of the 24th, as far as has yet been ascertaned, is 1,900 killed and 8,-100 wounded. Verona, July 1 .- Since the battle of the 24th ult, there have been merely some unimportant

THE FOURTH AT CONCORD.

We copy from the Charlotte Democrat the folowing account of the celebration of the fourth at Concord :

Yesterday, the 4th of July, was a great day at our sister town of Concord. We have not time nor space this week to enter into a minute account of the celebration. It was conducted in a handsome, agreeable and patriotic manner by the citizens of Cauarrus.

The National Declaration was read by V. C. Barringer, Esq., and the Mecklenburg Declaration by Wm. S. Harris, Esq., each prefacing the reading with appropriate and well-timed remarks .-The Oration, delivered by Wm. M. Coleman, Esq. was one of the best written papers we have heard in some time, abounding in patriotic sentiment expressed in the most chaste and beautiful language; and, taking it as a whole, we admire it ery much.

The military display was fine. The Cabarrus Guards ( a beautiful and well drilled Company ) were joined by the Roan Anillery and Rifle Guards from Salisbury, and by the Hornest' Nest R'flemen from Charlotte ; which with the strains of martial music and musketry, did much to add to the interest of the occasion We believe we but speak the opinion of all present, when we say the Dinner was splendid, and we think one of the best arranged and best managed affairs of the kind we over had the pleasure of attending. After the removal of the sloth, the regular and reveral volunteer toasts were drank, and wit and humor sparkled amid the popping of corks and the flow of-soul !-Gen. J. A. Young, V. C. Baringer, Esq., Capt. J. Y. Bryce, Rufus Barringer, Esq., and others, made excellent speeches. But we must close this sketch, hoping to give a fuller account next week

The number of persons in attendance was large, probably five or six thousand.

A hornets' nest ( made by the veritable stingers themselves ) was presented to the Riflemen of this town, tastefully decorated with flowers, by Mrs. Barringer.

HORRIBLE AFFAIR .- A few evenings since, says he New York Daily News, a young lady belonging to a very respectable family in Hudson City, while returning home through Palisade avenue, just in the edge of the evening, was seized by five of the tunnel men, who conveyed her into a piece of woods near Gen. Wright's residence, and there committed an outrage upon her person. The young lady remained insensible for some time, and finally recovered sufficiently to make herself heard by passers, who conveyed her home, where she now lies in a critical condition. The friends of the lady have endeavored to keep the affair secret, but are making every effort to ferret out the ruffians and bring them to justice. There are some 800 Irishmen employed in the New York and Erie Tunnel, some of whose conduct has been such that ladies in that v cinity dore not go out after sundown. It is hinted that a riot, which will be tearful in its results, is not far distant.
