RALEIGH, N. C. SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 19, 1859.

THE NEXT PRESIDENCY—HOW TO SAVE THE UNION.

We copy in to-day's paper an excellent article from the Lynchburg Virginian, commenting upon the result of the late election in New York, and as such, we commend them to our readers.

WHAT THEN IS TO BE DONE?

We answer, what has been suggested by the articles which we copy. The Democracy cannot, with their independent organization, carry the next Presidential election and retain the power of the Government.

THE SOUTHERN DEMOCRACY

We invoke, then, the casting away of all the ordinary party "platforms," and the union of conservative men everywhere, for this one time at least, on the single platform of saving the Constitution and the Union.

THE NEXT PRESIDENCY.

We publish, below, a significant article on this subject from the New York Herald. It is full of observations, anticipations, what there is too much reason to fear, a strictly sectional contest in 1860—a contest in which the South must inevitably be overwhelmed.

FROM THE LYNCHBURG VIRGINIAN.

The late elections in the Northern States have settled the question that the Democracy, in every contest with the Black Republicans, will suffer a defeat.

THE STATE SOCIETY OF VIRGINIA.

The State Society of Virginia, and the Union Agricultural Society of Petersburg included in the above.

OPPOSITION MEETING IN BOWAN.

Pursuant to notice, a meeting of those opposed to the present Government was held in the Court House, in Salisbury, on Tuesday, 8th inst.

SURVIVING "WOMEN OF THE REVOLUTION."

There are only 25 surviving widows (out of 5,000 admitted) who were pensioned for services of their husbands in the Revolution.

EXAMINING TRIAL.

The examination of Hazlett alias Harrison, one of the Brown band, before the Circuit Court, yesterday, resulted in the prisoner being acquitted of the charge.

MURDER.

Mr. Page, a cotton planter, residing in Conecuh county, Ala., was fired upon from the road-side, while driving home, on the 13th inst.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVING BEEN APPOINTED BY THE PRESIDENT AND DIRECTORS OF THE ABOVE COMPANY, Agent for the State of North Carolina, will give information as to the location of the line, and the amount of stock to be subscribed, at the counting-house of White, Faulkner & Co., in this city, for the limited number of Ten Thousand Shares, at $5 per share.

THE PATENT GRASS MEASURE.

The patent grass measure, exhibited by David Maxwell, of Hyde county, North Carolina, seems to be a most excellent arrangement for the very rapid and accurate measurement of grain—a very ingenious and useful article and worthy a premium of $5.

THE SALISBURY BANNER.

We learn from the late Salisbury Watchman that the Banner, a Democratic paper printed in that place, and edited heretofore by Mr. J. M. Newson, has been transferred to Mr. J. Spellman, lately connected with the Standard, of this city, as foreman and reporter. Mr. S. is a first-rate practical printer and a ready writer, and will doubtless make the Banner an interesting paper. We wish him pecuniary success.

CITY IMPROVEMENTS.

We copy from the late Spirit of the Age the following article in regard to the improvements which are at this time being made in our city:

Taking a stroll a few mornings ago, in the northern portion of our city, we were surprised to find a certain walk which has been laid out in the immediate vicinity of the new building for the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company. It is one continuous building—some 100 or 115 yards long, and about 100 feet broad.

When completed, according to the handsome design drawn by the Architect, it will be one of the largest and best workshops, foundry and engine houses for the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company. It is one continuous building—some 100 or 115 yards long, and about 100 feet broad.

At the Fair of the Seaboard Agricultural Society, held at Norfolk last week, the following premiums were awarded to North Carolinians:

For best bale of Cotton, A. T. Mial, of Wake county, $5.
For best Colt or Filly, between 2 and 3 years, D. McD. Lindsey, of Camden county, $8.
For best yearling stockings, Mrs. S. H., of Raleigh, $2.

FINE CIGARS.

We are under obligations to Mr. E. A. Whitaker, Grocer, Hargett Street, for a sample of a lot of very fine Cigars which he has just received. They are mild and of delicious flavor, and are undoubtedly equal if not superior to any others in the city.

Smokers would do well to supply themselves with a box before they are all gone. Besides the best Cigars, Mr. W. also has a large assortment of everything else usually kept in family groceries, and dealing almost exclusively on the cash principle, he is enabled to undersell those who sell on a credit.

POOR "OLD BOOK."

The New Orleans Crescent believes in the doctrine of compensation, as it is called. It believes that good deeds are a source of happiness to their performer in this world, as well as his reward in the next.

There are those who will not credit the doctrine of compensation. This is what it understands by the term doctrine of compensation.

The Crescent illustrates this doctrine by referring to the case of the late Governor. Shortly after the election of Mr. Buchanan we predicted, it says, that his term would not expire before he became the most odious man in the confederacy.

Our prediction was partly verified earlier than we expected; for at the session of Congress succeeding his election, his Administration encountered a formidable opposition in the House of Representatives, and since that period has been powerless and impotent.

In the next House the Buchanans proper will be in a weak minority; and we should not be surprised if the Federal Senate, Democratic as it will be, improve the occasion to administer severe rebukes to the Democratic President.

Such will be a fitting reward to one who has been false to his word, and true to none.
