

OPPOSITION MEETING IN GRANVILLE. On Friday the 10th inst., a large body of the Whites and Americans of Granville, according to a previous notice, assembled in the Court House for the purpose of appointing delegates to the Whig Convention to be held in the city of Raleigh on the 22nd inst.

During the retirement of the Committee, Mr. Turner from Orange, being present, was called upon to address the meeting. Mr. Turner arose and said: It was with reluctance that he should undertake to address the citizens of Granville, as he saw around him so many of their own number, so eminently qualified to discharge that office.

THE ONLY ARTICLE UNRIVALLED IN MARKET, WITH INCREASED DEMAND. THE reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, restores all dandruff, itching and heat from the scalp, quells and tones up the young two or three times a week, it will never fall or become gray; then read, read the following and judge for yourselves: MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gentlemen.—Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudice which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself. The result has been so satisfactory that I am glad to give you my praise, and to give you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was, but who having my prejudice without my reason for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being ocular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to make further proof, which will not cost them a cent. My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every day, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking than it was. I am yours respectfully, HENRY JENKINS. Cor. Columbia and Carroll sts., Brooklyn, N. Y. Prof. Wood—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly thinning for several years, caused I suppose from a slight burn when I was quite a child. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks, and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, and that I can not but be satisfied that it will not be so affected. I think it the most valuable article I ever used, and I will advise that you try it. You can publish this if you think proper. Yours, &c., B. W. WILKINSON. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1859. Prof. Wood—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front and also the back part of my hair has been falling out, but in using your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its former luxuriance. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully, D. B. THOMAS, M. D. No. 464, Vine Street. The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, large, medium and small; the small bottle contains 4 fluid ounces, the medium one contains 8 fluid ounces, holds at least twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars a bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent more in proportion and retails at one dollar and 50 cents. It is sold by J. WOOD & CO., proprietors, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market Street, St. Louis, Mo. SOLD BY ALL GOOD DRUGGISTS AND FACTORY GOODS DEALERS. 1860. SPRING TRADE. 1860. Resolved, That we deem it our duty to denounce the course of the Republic in its present attitude to the country, especially on account of their factions opposition to the rights guaranteed by the Constitution to the South, of a free and equal enjoyment of the common territory of the Union, and for their habitual attacks upon the institution of slavery, which have their legitimate result in the late wicked and treasonable attempt of John Brown and his ruffian gang.

Resolved, That the Union is the best security for our property—the only one that will not throw away the benefits of the one, nor abandon the protection of the other, at the dictation of fanatical delusions in any section of the country.

Resolved, That the threats of a dissolution of the Union and declarations of the necessity of such dissolution which have of late become so common are unwise and injurious as the material tend to beget a want of confidence in the stability and firmness, and thus produce consequences which are impolitic and ruinous to the country.

Resolved, That it only requires the united action of conservative men of all sections to suppress agitation and thus restore peace to the country; and as we do so we do not so much as prevent to hold any public office, State or Federal, who does not acknowledge his allegiance to the Constitution and the Union as paramount to all other obligations, we rejoice at the prospect of a National Union Party upon the basis of the Constitution, and the faithful execution of all the laws of the United States in every section of the Union.

Resolved, That the party now having control of the federal government has shown by its unwise and impolitic legislation its utter incapacity to restore peace to the country.

Resolved, That the present National administration, by its wasteful and extravagant expenditures, by its favoritism in giving the public contracts to corrupt parties and conniving with frauds and speculations, and by its recommendation to the Pacific Railroad in opposition to the
