The internal improvements of North Caro-lina should be fostered and prosecuted as rapidly as the resources and financial condition of the State will permit, without burdening the people with taxation or injuring the public credit. WHEREAS, Great inequality exists in the pre-fent mode of taxation, and it is just and right that all property should contribute its proportion to-wards the burdens of State: 1. Resolved, That we recommend a Convention of the people of the State be called on the federal basis as early as practicable for the purpose of so modifying the Constitution that every species of property may be taxed according to its value, with power to discriminate only in favor of the native products of our State and the industrial pursuits of her effizens. 2. That the proscriptive policy of the Demo-cratic party of this State in excluding from the judicial effice, as well as from all places of henor and trust, all who do not subscribe to the behests of party, meets our decided condem-nation. The present laws of Congress on the subject of shavery should be adhered to—and all further agitation of the question withdrawn from the arens of national politics, and the whole subject is to the aninterrupted control of the people smong whom it exists.
Feelings of fraternity and good neighborhood should be encouraged among the States, and the aggressions of one upon mother should be repulsed and panished. That notwill standing the recent outrage in the invasion of a neighboring State by a hand of fanalics, with the intent to excite a service insursection, and the delinquencies of cer-tain Northern States, in not fulfilling the cove-nants of the Federal Constitution, in relation to the institution of shavery in the Southern States, nants of the Federal Constitution, in relation to the institution of slavery ip the Southern States, we still regard "the preservation of the General Government in all its constitutional vigor as the sheet anchor of our peace at home and safety abroad," and that we do not acquiesce in the ne-cessity for a dissolution of the Union as a remedy for grievances now existing, or that in our belief even likely to occur.

FOR THE REGISTER.

A CARD. Mr. Editor :-- The undersigned have been as- Town Property, mished to see the firm of DAVIS, NOBLE & Polis, Interest, Salaries and Fees, CO., of New York published in a list among ther houses, as an worthy the confidence of the other houses, as unworthy the confidence of the Southern people, on account of their political Stude and Jacks, opinions. Whoever promulgated such a charge must have been either very ignorant, or influenced by bad motives. There is not a house in the city of New York less obnoxious to the charge of Aboli-tion proclivities than the one above alluded to. They are well known in North Carolina, and it may be parhage superfluous for any one to speak in their defence. But as we have been long ac-qualnuad with the members of the firm, a majori-ty of whom are natives of the South, we take graat pleasure, without any knowledge on their part of this voluntary tribute, in pronouncing the charge against them entirely groundless. If the Black house could be marked and the good ones pointed out so as to guide Southers merchants, we would be rejoiced; but whoever attempts, to draw this line for our bene-ft, should be well posted and very cautious, lest injustice be done, as in the care of Messrs. Davis, Noble & Co. Marriage License, Pistols and Knives, Dirks and Canes, Gold Watchies, Silver Watches, Pianos.
