

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 9, 1860.

FOR GOVERNOR: JOHN POOL, OF PASQUOTANK.

LOOK UPON

RESOLVED, That we are opposed to disturbing any of the sectional compromises of our Constitution, State or National, and that we especially deprecate the introduction of such a question as a qualification of constitutional amendment affecting the basis upon which our State politics are a question of constitutional amendment affecting the basis upon which our State politics are a question of constitutional amendment...

Remember that JOHN W. ELLIS compares the West to a 'horse-leech' whose eternal cry is 'give, give,' and the East to a goose that permits the West to take all the eggs she lays.

Remember that JOHN W. ELLIS is in favor of raising the Poll Tax on Slaves, when he knows full well that by doing so the tax on WHITE Polls will be correspondingly increased.

Remember that JOHN W. ELLIS compares the West to a 'horse-leech' whose eternal cry is 'give, give,' and the East to a goose that permits the West to take all the eggs she lays.

Remember that JOHN W. ELLIS compares the West to a 'horse-leech' whose eternal cry is 'give, give,' and the East to a goose that permits the West to take all the eggs she lays.

Remember that JOHN W. ELLIS compares the West to a 'horse-leech' whose eternal cry is 'give, give,' and the East to a goose that permits the West to take all the eggs she lays.

Remember that JOHN W. ELLIS compares the West to a 'horse-leech' whose eternal cry is 'give, give,' and the East to a goose that permits the West to take all the eggs she lays.

Remember that JOHN W. ELLIS compares the West to a 'horse-leech' whose eternal cry is 'give, give,' and the East to a goose that permits the West to take all the eggs she lays.

Remember that JOHN W. ELLIS compares the West to a 'horse-leech' whose eternal cry is 'give, give,' and the East to a goose that permits the West to take all the eggs she lays.

Remember that JOHN W. ELLIS compares the West to a 'horse-leech' whose eternal cry is 'give, give,' and the East to a goose that permits the West to take all the eggs she lays.

Remember that JOHN W. ELLIS compares the West to a 'horse-leech' whose eternal cry is 'give, give,' and the East to a goose that permits the West to take all the eggs she lays.

Remember that JOHN W. ELLIS compares the West to a 'horse-leech' whose eternal cry is 'give, give,' and the East to a goose that permits the West to take all the eggs she lays.

Remember that JOHN W. ELLIS compares the West to a 'horse-leech' whose eternal cry is 'give, give,' and the East to a goose that permits the West to take all the eggs she lays.

Remember that JOHN W. ELLIS compares the West to a 'horse-leech' whose eternal cry is 'give, give,' and the East to a goose that permits the West to take all the eggs she lays.

Remember that JOHN W. ELLIS compares the West to a 'horse-leech' whose eternal cry is 'give, give,' and the East to a goose that permits the West to take all the eggs she lays.

Remember that JOHN W. ELLIS compares the West to a 'horse-leech' whose eternal cry is 'give, give,' and the East to a goose that permits the West to take all the eggs she lays.

Remember that JOHN W. ELLIS compares the West to a 'horse-leech' whose eternal cry is 'give, give,' and the East to a goose that permits the West to take all the eggs she lays.

Remember that JOHN W. ELLIS compares the West to a 'horse-leech' whose eternal cry is 'give, give,' and the East to a goose that permits the West to take all the eggs she lays.

Remember that JOHN W. ELLIS compares the West to a 'horse-leech' whose eternal cry is 'give, give,' and the East to a goose that permits the West to take all the eggs she lays.

quired to supply the demand. King John will learn, "on inquiry at the Postoffice," that others besides "Frank I. Wilson" will dare to send them abroad, and if His Excellency does not like it, he may lump it. If he wants the Postoffice watched he must stay at home, and do it himself, for it will be difficult to find but one man here capable of doing that small and contemptible business for him—and he cannot read writing. So if sending the Working Men's Address over the country is stabbing King John in the back, the King will be pretty plentifully stabbed in the back—that's all.

THE CHARLESTON CONVENTION. They have had some queer doings down in Palmetto-land lately. Those descendants of the pious Huguenots must have been somewhat surprised, if not even shocked, at the odd mixture of incompatibilities which they have lately witnessed.

On May 2nd, the Convention was opened by the 2nd Brass Band, with the spirit-stirring air of Yankee Doodle, "at the conclusion of which Mr Flournoy, of Arkansas, with lungs stentorian, proposed three cheers for the Union, which was heartily responded to, and prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr. Kendrick." Shades of the Puritans! but it was rich—Yankee Doodle, "three cheers for the Union from lungs stentorian," and "prayer by the Rev. Mr. Kendrick!"

But Yankee Doodle, stentorian cheers, and prayer by the Rev. Mr. Kendrick, accomplished but little—as on that day, there were forty-five ineffectual ballotings—when Mr. Ashe, of N. C., moved to adjourn—and it was carried," says 148, says 100.

It would seem to an unsophisticated outside barbarian, that this mighty work might have been performed, without much Yankee Doodle-ing, stentorian cheering, or prayer by the Rev. Mr. Kendrick.

His Excellency, the Governor, after having successfully spied out the sins of the Working Men, and satisfactorily ascertained if application at the Postoffice, who among them had committed lese majesty in sending off their own address; having sufficiently quarreled with his hard-fisted friends; and being forsaken by the editor of the Standard, who had gone to Charleston, to the great neglect of his duty at home—sought consolation from his friends of the Democratic Press.

The editor of the Register has gone to Washington as one of the committee appointed by our citizens to regulate the Post-office Department, and to aid, if possible, in effecting a reconciliation between Mr. Holt and our three rebellious Railroad Presidents.

We understand that "Little Ad" is well fed and thriving, and is expected to swell to large dimensions before the election. We look for this little campaigner with eagerness.

THE MAILS. The Committee appointed by our citizens to proceed to Washington to lay before the Postmaster General the inconvenience to which this community was subjected, and to urge upon him the restoration of our usual mail facilities, at the advanced price asked by our railroad, left this city on Saturday morning last for the seat of the National Government.

Some of these papers were mailed in Raleigh by leading members of the Association—of which there is no need to say, since the nomination of Gov. Ellis—Dem. Press.

ICE CREAM. We were treated on Monday last by those enterprising confectioners, Messrs. Dodd & Scheib, to a bowl of Ice Cream as delicious as any we ever tasted.

NO CHANGE IN THE BASIS OF REPRESENTATION. We know that the Whigs in this section of the country desire no change of the basis of representation, of which fact we assure our Eastern brethren, anything that Democratic presses and stump speakers in the East, and in the West, may say to the contrary, notwithstanding.

THE GENIUS OF NAPOLEON IN A SERGEANT—a Company was raised by a tin cup to a dog's tail. So says the Kentucky Bug.

We of the old North State have been awfully beleaguered by Democratic Navajoes, who have tomahawked many of our best citizens. But we have found the genius of Napoleon in one of our brave sergeants.

WHIG DISTRICT CONVENTION. GREENSBORO, April 21, 1860. According to previous appointment, a large number of Whigs assembled in the Court House in this place to-day, to hold a District Convention for the Fifth Congressional District.

On motion of D. F. Caldwell, Esq., Isaac H. Foust, Esq., of Randolph, was called to the chair, and on motion of L. M. Scott, Esq., M. S. Sherwood, of Guilford, and Dr. John H. McAllen, of Rowell, were named as Secretaries.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the National Union Convention to be held in the city of Charleston, on the 23rd inst., and that this Convention appoint Hon. E. C. Rodes delegate to represent this district in said Convention, and also John Manning alternate delegate.

Resolved, That we cordially approve of the platform as given in the present Declaration of Sentiments, and that this Convention appoint Hon. E. C. Rodes delegate to represent this district in said Convention, and also John Manning alternate delegate.

Resolved, That we cordially approve of the platform as given in the present Declaration of Sentiments, and that this Convention appoint Hon. E. C. Rodes delegate to represent this district in said Convention, and also John Manning alternate delegate.

Resolved, That we cordially approve of the platform as given in the present Declaration of Sentiments, and that this Convention appoint Hon. E. C. Rodes delegate to represent this district in said Convention, and also John Manning alternate delegate.

Resolved, That we cordially approve of the platform as given in the present Declaration of Sentiments, and that this Convention appoint Hon. E. C. Rodes delegate to represent this district in said Convention, and also John Manning alternate delegate.

any comment or explanation, and he desires to know what it means. Now, while this is a curious phraseology, we have no idea, but feel satisfied that it is a fair representation of the Democracy to judge the best against a Convention and ad valorem taxes. That the West have any desire or intention to change the basis of representation in the Senate, we know to be false. The West are fully committed in their late District Conventions, and by the understanding in the Raleigh Convention to leave the Senate basis as being a Let us let the East be served by any such low party tricks—Greensboro, 21st April.

One of the Democratic delegates to the Convention at Charleston, got angry with Mr. Cushing, the President, and told him, "he need not put on airs, because he had the honor of meeting him (Mr. C) at a Whig Convention in 1848, when he was the most violent Whig speech he had ever heard."

Resolved, That we cordially approve of the platform as given in the present Declaration of Sentiments, and that this Convention appoint Hon. E. C. Rodes delegate to represent this district in said Convention, and also John Manning alternate delegate.

Resolved, That we cordially approve of the platform as given in the present Declaration of Sentiments, and that this Convention appoint Hon. E. C. Rodes delegate to represent this district in said Convention, and also John Manning alternate delegate.

Resolved, That we cordially approve of the platform as given in the present Declaration of Sentiments, and that this Convention appoint Hon. E. C. Rodes delegate to represent this district in said Convention, and also John Manning alternate delegate.

Resolved, That we cordially approve of the platform as given in the present Declaration of Sentiments, and that this Convention appoint Hon. E. C. Rodes delegate to represent this district in said Convention, and also John Manning alternate delegate.

Resolved, That we cordially approve of the platform as given in the present Declaration of Sentiments, and that this Convention appoint Hon. E. C. Rodes delegate to represent this district in said Convention, and also John Manning alternate delegate.

SPECIAL NOTICES. White Sulphur Water. From the White Sulphur Springs, Greenbrier Co., Va. Bottled at the Springs. This Company having made great improvements in bottling, the transported water is now as perfect as when taken from its source.

Barry's Tricopherous is the best and cheapest remedy for dressing, beautifying, cleansing, curing, promoting and restoring the hair. Ladies, try it. Sold by all Druggists and Perfumers. mar 14-60.

One of the Most Prevalent, and at the same time troublesome and painful diseases that attend the human flesh, is the Fever and Ague. For a long time the medical world have been continually bringing forth numerous specifics for its permanent cure, but all without effect.

Baker's Premium Bitters. We hope the citizens generally will be ever mindful of this all important Family Medicine—one that is truly a relief to all ailments and in all seasons—one that has performed more remarkable cures than any other ever discovered.

HAIR DYE! HAIR DYE! HAIR DYE! WM. A. BATCHELOR'S HAIR DYE! The Original and Best in the World!! ALL OTHERS ARE MERELY IMITATIONS, and should be avoided, if you wish to escape ridicule.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY. SIR JAMES CLARKE'S CELEBRATED FEMALE PILLS. PREPARED FROM A Prescription of SIR J. CLARKE, M.D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

NOTICE—MR. JOHN H. HYMAN, OF Scotland Neck, N. C., has become a partner in one house, and the names of Hyman, Dancy & Co. to be conducted by John H. Hyman, Dancy & Co.

FREE EXHIBITION! SLEDGE & MACON'S NEW FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS STORE, NO. 40 WATKINSVILLE STREET, First door below Fayette & Haywood's Drug Store Raleigh, N. C.

IS THE PLACE TO BUY NEW AND FINEST GOODS AT A LOW PRICE!! HAVING JUST RECEIVED A LARGE AND elegant stock of New Goods for Spring and Summer, consisting of Ladies Fine Dress Goods of French, Orleans, Berlin, and all the latest styles.

THOS. D. SLEDGE, THOS. H. MACON. Are manufacturing under the Patent ROLLED TIN FOIL, PLAIN, PRINTED OR EMBOSSED, suitable for wrapping Fine Cut and Cavendish Tobacco, Cheese, Spices, &c.

WOOD, EDDY & CO'S LOTTERIES! AUTHORIZED BY THE STATES OF Virginia, Delaware, Kentucky and Missouri. Drawing daily, in public, under the supervision of State Commissions, at Norfolk, Va., Wilmington, Delaware, Louisville, Kentucky, and St. Louis, Missouri.

N. C. SIX PER CENT. STATE BONDS. TREASURY DEPARTMENT, N. C. SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED at this office until 10 o'clock, A. M., 18th of May next, for the purchase of $400,000 of North Carolina State Bonds, issued under an Act to incorporate the Western N. C. Railroad Company, and running thirty years from 1st April, 1860.

SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED at this office until 10 o'clock, A. M., 18th of May next, for the purchase of $400,000 of North Carolina State Bonds, issued under an Act to incorporate the Western N. C. Railroad Company, and running thirty years from 1st April, 1860.

STATEMENT OF THE BANK OF COMMERCE AT NEWBURN, N. C., QUARTER ENDING APRIL 30TH, 1860. Deposits, $1,339,658.00; Bills of Exchange, $1,154,744.00; Bills of Lading, $2,370,000.00; North Carolina State Bond, $90.00; Bank Payable, $2,237,711.00; Advances, $4,458,000.00; Total, $11,582,103.00.

Vertical text on the far right edge of the page, containing various names and dates.