NORTH CAROLINA ELECTORS.

OLD WAKE WIDE AWAKE! TWO AD

VALOREM AND UNION COMMON-

ERS GAINED! BLEDSOE, AD VALO-

REM DEMOCRAT, ELECTED. POOL

CARRIES THE COUNTY!

If the rest of the State does as well

as we, we shall soon have the opportunity of giving the glorious tidings that North Carolina

has elected an Ad Valorem and Union

Governor, and an Ad Valorem and Union

Legislature. The victory in this county is unprecedented. With a single exception this is the first time in twenty-five years that the Democracy have failed to carry their entire ticket.

Ramsey, Op., elected to the Senate from

Rowan and Davie, over Fisher, Dem. Pool

gains in Cabarrus, Rowan, Guilford and Alsan-ce.

Pool gains in New Hanover, Bladen and

Columbus $00 votes.

ORANGE.

Whole Ad Valorem and Union Ticket elected to the Legislature, and Pool carries the county by more than two hundred majority.

DAVIDSON.

John W. Thomas, Op., is elected to the Senate from Davidson.

GUILFORD.

Messrs. Shober, Mendenhall and Gorrell,

all opposition, are elected to the Commons

from Guilford.

WAYNE.

Pool 398; Ellis 1396.

MECKLENBURG.

Charlotte, Ellis, 623 344

Rays, 99 30

Hills, 45 31

Hearts, 68 33

Providence, 132 140

Lowie, 114 100

Doug Creek, 21 94

JOHNSTON.

Democratic Ticket elected. Ellis carries the county. Do not know now the majority.

LATEST.

GRAVEN.

Pool's majority 32. Both Whig Commons

elected, and probably Senate.

CABARRUS.

Coscord, N. C. August 3, 1860.

Sir: Polls just closed. Pool 429. Ellis 221.

Pool's majority 208.

Gilmer at this box 257.

Bragg, 200.

Gilmer's major. 57.

Pool's clear gain at Concord over Gilmer 151.

If other boxes have done as well, his maj. in Cabarrus will reach 350 or 400.

Very truly,

P. S. Harris elected Commoner.

ROWAN.

For Governor—Ellis 1138; Pool 1059.

For Commons the Democratic ticket elected.

GUILFORD.

For Governor—Pool 2121; Ellis 451.

For Senate—Governor Morehead elected without opposition.

FORSYTH.

A gain of one Opposition member of the House of Commons.

ORANGE.

Pool 1238; Ellis 1109.

For Senate—Turner Opposition 1213, Jones

Democrat, 1139.

For the Commons—Guthrie, Opposition, 1233,

Strowd, Dem., 1118; Patterson, Op., 1229; Lyons,

Democrat, 1091.

For Sheriff—Leathers, Op., 1092; Jones, Dem., 1254.

NEW HANOVER.

Wilmington, N. C., Aug. 2, 10:45 P. M.

In seven precincts heard from out of the city.

Pool, Opposition candidate for Governor, gains 54

on the vote given for Fillmore, in 1856.

The vote in town has not been counted, but it is believed that it will be a very close one.

The Democratic ticket for the Legislature it is thought has been elected.

HOW THE DOUGLAS MEN ARE TREATED.

We take the following from the Standard of Wednesday last:

From the Standard.

Mr. Editor: How is it to be expected that harmony and union can be maintained in the ranks of the Democratic Party in North-Carolina

when some of the papers advocating the Breckinridge and Lane ticket are indulging in the most scurrilous abuse and wanton misrepresentation of the motives of Judge Douglas and his friends?

I trust the Douglas men will submit in silence no article from the Washington City Constitution in which the National Democratic Convention at Baltimore, nominating Douglas, has applied to it

the most insulting epithets: "the theatrical Democracy"—"undertaking to invade Mr. Fitzpatrick's territory"—"to use him for their selfish purpose,"

—"they were destined for servitude to demagogues"—"their real aim was put to shame,"—

"had the audacity to claim, &c."—"their straggling

followers in the South."—Is it supposed that the two or three hundred thousand freemen in the South, who intend casting their votes for Judge Douglas, will submit to such insults from the vernal official organ of the Administration at Washington, retailed by indiscreet political wranglers, who have far more zeal than discretion?

Is this the way to unite and harmonize the Democratic party? I ask the Douglas men—"Is it your purpose to submit to such treatment?" If not—SPEAK OUT!

JUSTICE.

The Douglas men may expect this treatment throughout this Campaign. The situation of these men in North Carolina is peculiarly unhappy. Since the ignominious surrender of the Standard, they have no central organ, and as far as we know but one paper

in the State to espouse their cause and defend them from the assaults of the Breckinridge men. That paper is the Newbern

Progress, which though firm, fearless, and outspoken, cannot, owing to its position, exercise more than a local influence. But this is none of our business. Our object is to cooperate with those who are working to save

this Union. The Breckinridge men are under the lead of Yancy and the Old South Carolina nullifiers, trying to destroy it, and the Douglas men have not the power to prevent them from doing so. Bell and Everett can also, save the Union.

THE STANDARD'S "CONDITION."

Speaking of the "conditions" upon which the Standard agreed to hoist the Flag of Breckinridge and Lane, a writer in Tuesday's Press says:

I look upon this last error of the Editor of the Standard, as laid as his first, and, as an old Democrat, must say to him, that he must go the whole

serve "God or Baal."

July 25, 1860.

There now, the Standard sees the condition to which its want of nerve has reduced

it. It now will be hectoring over by every Breckinridge man in the State, and will have to go the whole figure, "Snout and Gobble,"

or not at all!

HAULING DOWN THE SECTIONAL

FLAG.

The Nashville Banner mentions the receipt of the Hayneville (Ala.) Watchman, with the national flag flying at its head, inscribed with the names of Bell and Everett. The Watchman has heretofore supported the Breckinridge and

Lane ticket, but cannot longer stand the sectional candidate, and therefore abandons them for the standard-bearer of our Union party. The Watchman is published in the heart of the rich and populous county of Loundes, and promises to do yeoman service in the good cause. We take pleasure and pride in laying before our readers the following passage from an article in the Watchman, which explains the reasons for the change in its political views:

It is with pride, and a consciousness that we are advocating the cause of truth, and the highest interest of the whole country, that we unfurl our banner to the breeze to-day, inscribed with the names of two of the ablest, most incorruptible and able statesmen, who have benefited Providence

and spread to a distracted country.

We shall work for their election earnestly, believing that we are thus performing a duty we owe to ourselves and posterity. With bold and firmness we shall resist the corruptions of demagogues on the one hand, and the fanaticism

of Black Republicanism on the other—both equally dangerous to peace and prosperity—as a nation—we shall deem it a high and sacred privilege. With whatever ability we possess, we shall labor untriflingly in behalf of that noble cause which

has for its object—

To put down sectional agitators and restore tranquility to the country; to purge the councils of the nation of those corrupted and effete demagogues who have no other object than to plunder the treasury

and traffic in politics; to show to the Conservative elements of the North that there is a Southern party with whom they can co-operate, which is aiming neither to steal land from nations with which we are at peace, nor to fill our nation with

labor untriflingly in behalf of that noble cause which

has for its object—

not—the benign aim of "to precipitate the collution of the States into revolution," and, finally, to save

THE CONSTITUTION, TO PRESERVE THE UNION, AND TO ENFORCE THE LAWS.

Commenting on the above, the Louisville Journal
