RALEIGH, N. C.

SATURDAY MORNING, OCT'R 20, 1860. NOMINEFS OF THE UNION CONVENTION

FOR PRESIDENT: JOHN BELL.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT: ED. EVERETT

The only National candidates for President & Vice-President in the United States.

ELECTORS FOR PRESIDENT & VICE-PRESIDENT

For the State at Large : HON. GEO. E. BADGER, OF WAKE. DR. R. K. SPEED, OF PASQUOTANK.

Districts: 1st District J. W. HINTON, of Pasquotank. CHAS. C. CLARK, of Craven. O. H. DOCKERY, of Richmond. L. C. EDWARDS, of Granville. ALFRED G. FOSTER, of Randolph. HENRY WALSER, of Davidson.

It is contended that the South is secured in the full benefit of the doctrine held by some of the most distinguished champaious of its rights, who maintain that the Constitution, proprio vigore, that the flag of the Union protects the citizen in the enjoyment of his rights of property of every description recognized as such, in any of the States, on every sea and in every Territor; of the Union. The soundness of the general doctrine held on this point, 1 think cannot well be questioned or disproved; and if the question related to a territory situated as Oregon was, when the United States came into possession of it, property in slaves would be entitled to the protection of the Laws and Constitution of the nited States .- JOHN BELL.

Col. B. S. GAITHER, of Burke.

Neither am I one of those citizens of the North who would think it immoral, or irreligious, to join in putting down a servile in-surrection at the South. I am no soldier, sir; my habits and education are strictly unmilitary; but there is no cause in which I would sooner buckle a knapsack to my back and put a musket on my shoulder than that -Hon. Edward Everett, in the U. S. House of Representazer Remember that ABRAM W. VENA-BLE, the Breckinridge-Yancey Elector for this District, is a politician of the Calhoun School, and Remember that the Calhoun is a a School of Nullification and Disunion.

Remember that there is not a Disunion man in the South who is not a Democrat and a supporter of Breckinridge and Lane.

W. W. Holden, now for Breckingidge, who was present at Charleston, and also at Baltimore, after his return home gives his testimony as fol-

"We can demonstrate, if nesessary, that Stephen A. Douglas is the regular nominee of the ational Democracy. We will appeal to the people, if necessary, against cossion and disuaion. We will strip the covering from William L. Yancey, if necessary, and hold him up, and his followers in Aladama, Georgia and Mississippi, in all their hideousness as plotters against a Constitutional Union and the best hopes of man. We will point the people of this State to the yawning guli of disunion openng before them. The truth is, a great battle is to be fought sooner or later, between the people on one hand and privlege on the other; and between Union and Disa-We will not consent to secrede or dissolve the Union for existing causes; and he who would deliberately dissolve and destroy the national Democratic party, while it stands upon its old and well-known doctrine of non-inervention, HAS BUT ONE MORE STEP TO TAKE TO BECOME A DISUNIONIST."

WHAT WE SAID ABOUT THE BANKS AND THEIR SUSPENSION OF DIS-

We promised in our last paper to notice an article which appeared in the Raleigh Standard in relation to a piece which we published in the Register of the 10th, stating the fact that the Danks had suspended discounts, and going on to show why they had done so. We have nothing to take back about that article of ours. So far from it we have not only to repeat what we did say, but to prove that we were right as to facts, and inferences, and show the quo animo of the Editor of the Standard in replying to it select. We shall speak plainly, and if we light in which it is not pleasant to him to be truth as it is destitute of justice, propriety, and delicacy. It may be regarded as a very ing their eyes to the present and prospective condition of public affairs. strong expression, but we shall nevertheless streets of Raleigh that the Banks had susrended the discounting of new paper, and the information of the fact when it did come to us, was not imparted by any President, Director or officer of a Bank in Raleigh, and whoever asserts to the contrary, or insinuates to the contrary, asserts or insinuates a falsehood. So much for this attempt to take from the force of what we said, by placing us in a false position. Let us now proceed to expose a quibble of the Standard. aware of that fact, these Cotton State gentry are It says the Banks do discount. Now, why and alarms among the people of Virginia. And did it not say that it renewed accommodation paper, curtailments being made on stipulated terms! Nobody denies that the Banks do a regard for the political rights of the South, is this sort of discounting, but we re-assert the fact that the Banks did not, at the time our | Cotton State politicians. article was written, (what they are doing now we don't pretend to know,) discount new paper. Nor is this suspension of discounts confined to Raleigh. The last Salisbury Watchman, in commenting on an article from another paper, says :

Without knowing the cause, we know the fact that the banks in this place have shut down. Mr. Badger thinks it is directly charges ble to the present unsettled state of the country. In his speech here he said, the bills of our banks come returned ipon them within a few days after being issued, in the original packages, and the specie demanded; and that this thing had been going on until the banks were driven to the necessity of putting a stop to emissions-all showing that there was a lack of confidence on the part of Northern men, to whom our notes were paid in discharge of debts, as regards Southern credit.

As respectable a gentleman as lives, and one too who resides in the vicinity of Danville, Va., informs us that the Banks of that town, having a capital of $1,000,000, have ceased to discount new paper. This, and other information, authorized us to say what we did. The Editor of the Standard has so long been paid for speaking "By Authority" that he thinks no man can say that he is "authorized" to state any thing unless he has a fee in his pocket for so doing. But, says the sagacious financier of the Standard, if the Banks are stringent, it is because the Brokers are after them. Wonderful discov-

And why are Brokers now, more than at any other time, after the Banks? Because there is an alarm among the capitalists and business men at the North, consequent upon the threats of the Breckinridge Disunionists and Fire Eaters to destroy, or attempt to destroy the Union. Credit is a sensitive thing, and a much slighter cause for apprehension than now exists, would unsettle the business relations of the country. But it does not suit the Standard's present views that we should draw this inference. The Standard, after having been forced to support Breckinridge, wishes to signalize its zeal. It may do so, but no captive of the bow and spear or bulrush of the "Democratic Press," late Live Giraffe, which performed for years much to the gratification of the little boys and gals and little niggers, and whose retirement from that stage, to re-appear upon it as the organ of the Breckinridge party of North Carolina was very much regretted by the aforesaid little boys and gals will be much larger than the vote given at and little niggers, can gag us. We shall state such facts as truth will warrant us in stating, and we shall make such deductions from them as fair logic will warrant us in making, and the Standard and its party may make the

In conclusion, we extract the following article from the Richmond Whig

THE FALL IN THE PRICE OF NE-

We call attention to the following timely and uggestive article, which we take from the last issue of the Valley Star, a Democratic paper pubished at Lexington in this State. The Star says: "We have always maintained that the whol secret of the seceders, in breaking up the Democratic party was to dissolve the Union, in order to open the African Slave Trade and bring down the value of negroes, that the profits upon cotton might be higher. Virginia is already having foretaste of what is to come. We understan from reliable authority that No. one negroes have already fallen more than 25 per cent, and second and third rate hands from 30 to 50 per cent.

What has produced this sudden decline? Does not every man see at a glance it is the cry of disuunion raised by these cotton planters, producing feeling of uncertainty-a want of confidence in the holders of slave property. Yes, Virginia is now being bled to the tune of thousands of dollars, to enrich those who by their clamor about Disunion have designedly created this panic. With a debt of forty millions, her taxes paid by the sale of negroes, impaired in value 30 or 40 per cent. is not Virginia well prepared to go for a dissolution of the Union. We call upon the people to look this matter in the face, and to remember that if "hard times," high taxes, come upon them, it was those who endangered the Union, that were its authors. Look out, ye supporters of Breckinridge, the blow falls alike upon us all. We can only say it was not our doings.' The facts noted in the foregoing paragraph should be seriously considered by the people of in the mode which he has thought proper to Virginia. The pecuniary interests of the people of the State, have already been seriously affected show up the Editor of the Standard in a have depreciated in value here in the Richmond market-the largest slave market in the Unionsome three or four hunared dollars, within a very seen in, he must remember that he has, with- short period, as we are informed by many persons out rhyme or reason, but for no other than with full opportunities of knowing what they are talking about. And they will continue to depreciate utterly unworthy motives, made an insinua-tion about us which is as utterly wanting in which are so freely indulged in by the Breckinridge leaders. It is time that the people of Virginia-Whigs and Democrats alike-were open-

We are no more the organ of the Virginia, in consequence of the Disunion agitation, Rank of North Carolina or any other Rank Bank of North Carolina, or any other Bank, on original prices, of three or four hundred dollars than the Raleigh Standard is the organ of a head, how stands the case with the people of the the Democratic party, although we confess, if our necessities required it, that we should these Cotton States gentlemen want to buy nelike to have more credit with the former than the Raleigh Standard has with the latter. Before the article which the Standard so unfairly criticizes was written—before we these Cotton States gentlemen want to buy negroes, and they are obliged to buy them; and they are obliged to buy them of Virginia, too. And what is more to the point, they are now buying them, in great numbers, and buying them cheaper, by three or four hundred dollars ahead, than they have been enabled to buy them for long years past.

were aware of the fact, it was known on the And why do they get them cheaper now? Why. own agitation and threats about Secession and Dismarkets of Virginia! And thus these Cotton State gentlemen are making money out of their agitation, and making it at the expense of Virginia! In a word, these Cotton State people, who want to buy negroes and who are obliged to obtain their necessary supplies of negroes from us, are interested in keeping up agitation on the ques-tion of Disunion, knowing that such agitation will keep down the price of negroes in Virginia! In a word, any disturbance or unessiness among the people of Virginia operates to the pecuniary advantage of the people of the Cotton States; and interested in creating and fomenting disturbances it is well, therefore, to keep a sharp watch upon the agitators and Secessionists of the Cotton States. We fear that the desire for cheap negroes, and not at the bottom of all the disunion agitation in the Cotton States, and of the whole policy of the

In view of these facts and suggestions, let the people of Virginia be admonished in time. Let them at once, in deterence to their own interests and their own safety, turn their backs upon Yancey and his candidate for the Presidency, and resolve to give their voices and their votes in behalf of the election of Bell and Everett!

The Salisbury Banner, whose editor was born and raised in England, and who, spending three-fourths of his life there, and of course imbibing all that love of the institution of slavery which emanates from Exeter Hall, and wakes up old Lord Brougham to insult our Democratic Ambassador, Mr. Dallas, who submitted to it like a spaniel, is peculiarly severe on the late Union meeting at Salisbury. Among other things, this Anglo-Pro-Slaverist says, "We have no hesitation in declaring that better black republican doctrine could not be desired by Lincoln himself than we heard preached here during Thursday and Friday last." We "have no hesitation in declaring" that we oubted right to be ramarkably suspicious of Graham, Badger, and others, who spoke at Salisbury; who were born and raised in the midst of slavery, and who, though not owning so many slaves as the Anglo-Pro-Slaverist of the Salisbury Banner, yet do own some. Doubtless the Anglo-Pro-Slaverist of the Salisbury Banner went to bed on "Friday" night as much concerned about the value of his negro property as he was satisfied with his veracious account of the number and the proceedings of the meeting. In conclusion, we would advise the Angle-Pro-Slaverist not to sell in a "panie" any of his vast number of slaves.

GOOD NEWS FROM THE SEVENTH

We have seen a letter from a prominent and well-informed gentleman in the Seventh District, addressed to the Chairman of the Union State Executive Committee, which gives a highly gratifying account of the condition of affairs in that section of the State. The Union men are fully aroused, while their opponents are disconcerted and dejected. The Union vote in the Seventh District

[From the Charlotte Bulletin.] LOOK OUT.

We have been requested to notice, in our columns, (says the Salem N. C. Press,) a young man of prepossessing manners, who made his appearance in these diggings, several weeks since, bearing letters addressed to C. W. Duval, Civil Engineer on the Florida and Tennessee Railroad. It eems the person in question departed, leaving contracted debts to the amount of some $100 unsaid. The Sentinel says:

"While here, he called himself C. W. Duval; is about 22 years of age, medium height, well built and proportioned, black hair, whiskers and moustache; he is apparently well educated, and has very prepossessing manners. Upon leaving here, it is thought ne made for High Point."

We know this chevalier d'industrie somewhat, though not a great deal to our cost .-He figured here some four months ago, and "rung in" upon us for the amount of his bill at Yarborough's Hotel, and upon our neighbor, Mr. Holden, for his Rail Road fare to Weldon. He seems to have a fancy for "engineering" editors.

THE MEETING AT WILMINGTON ON

THE 26th INSTANT. The Union meeting which will be held at Wilmington on the 26th instant, promises to be a splendid affair. The best speakers in the State, and several from abroad, will be in attendance. The ease with which Wilmington can be reached, the well established character of the town for hospitality; and above all, the sacred and glorious cause to be subserved, will attract to this meeting thousands upon thousands of people.

A FLASH IN THE PAN.

GLORIOUS MEETING AT WINSTON. We understand that the meeting at Winston last Saturday, was a most enthusiastic and numerous one, there being upwards of all acquitted themselves exceedingly well, and asfour thousand persons in attendance. There was splendid speaking, and two bands of what adverse circumstances these unfortunate music added a charm to the scene. But creatures prosecute their studies, it is astonishing one sentiment prevailed, and that was, the indeed to witness their proficiency. The energe-"Union, it must be preserved."

UNION MEETING AT ROLESVILLE. The friends of the Union, and Bell and Everett, will hold a meeting at Rolesville on Thursday, the 1st of November. Several and a good time is confidently expected.

There will be a Mass Meeting of the Friends of Bell and Everett at Pittsboro, on the first day of November next. Distinguished speakers wil be in attendance. Come one! Come all!!

LOCAL AND STATE NEWS.

OUR STATE FAIR.

This interesting Exhibition is at, this time in full progress. To-day (Thursday) the attendance was much larger than on either of the preceding days. The number of visitors present being variously estimated at from eight to twelve thou-

The "List of Premiums" will not be read until to-morrow, at 11 o'clock, which of course will constitute the most interesting feature of the day-especially to Exhibitors-of whom it is gratifying to know, there is quite a goodly num-

We worked very hard, and made every exertion to procure the list of Premiums for publication in this issue, but after copying a large number of them, we found it utterly impossible to obtain the whole in time. And learning also that many corrections would have to be made, even in those we had taken down, we thought it much the best for all parties concerned, to wait until the Society could furnish a "list" carefully "revised and corrected."

We were really and heartily glad to meet with so many of our friends and acquaintances from various portions of our State. And when we regard these annual "re-unions" strictly in a social point of view we incline somewhat to the opinion, that the same amount of "money and labor" could not be more profitably employed than in sustaining these annual exhibitions, especially when we take into consideration the overwhelmfeel tenderly for the Anglo-Pro-Slaverist of ing number of exceedingly beautiful "maidens," the Salisbury Banner. He has such a deep aye, and "matrons," too, who are always sure to interest in the exist noe of slavery-He has grace these popular assemblages with their captiinvested so largely in it, that he has an un- vating presence and bewitching smiles! There, now, haven't we done it?-with a vengeance.-We had like to have forgotten that we are rather that! Well, let it go; we have said it, and were unhurt. never take back a word we say, no matter what the consequences may be to our "crockery."

Now, although the fadies filled a very large space in our "retina," we could not helping seeing, and slightly admiring some few other objects of "minor interest." In Floral Hall, for instance, we saw a great many beautiful "things," but they were produced chiefly by the fair hands of the fairer portion of "creation." We shall not particularize, nor shall we attempt to discribe any article we happened to see there, for (the fact is, entre nous, we did not examine them very closely,) our time, was too much occupied in looking at other "objects" possessing, in our opinion, far greater attractions! We allude to-well! never mind! We'll forbear! as we understand that "crockery" has materially advanced in price since the "suspension of discounts!"

If our wits, however, served us correctly, we we have an indistinct recollection of seeing "something green" located somewhere about the centre of Floral Hall! It was a pyramid of beautiful evergreens, inserspersed with rare flowers, belonging to our townsman, Mr. Thos. Carter, who is proprietor of an extensive Flower Garden and Nursery, and whose taste and enterprize entitle him to the patronage of a liberal public.

We went next into "Pomological Hall," where we were brought completely to a "stand still" by the magnificent display of luscious fruits that met our gaze on either side. On the one hand we found Messrs. Westbrooks & Mendenhall "in full array," with no less than 150 different varieties of Apples, many of which were exceedingly large and fine, 23 varieties of Pears, 48 of Strawberry Vines, and 12 of Peaches, while on the other hand we were pleased to see our old friend Lindley, with an exhibition of fruits not quite so large, though scarcely inferior to any we ever saw any where, at any time. Both of these gentlemen have extensive Nurseries, and grow all the fruit trees that are best adapted to our climate and soil, are both of them clever, reliable, and enterprising gentlemen, and deserve to be liberally patronized, and we are pleased to know that they are selling annually very large quantities of fruit trees of the very best kinds, and our word for it, n a few years "good fruit" in our State will be about as "plentiful as Blackberries!" So much for well directed enterprise!

Among the riding vehicles on exhibition we noticed a splendid carriage and one of the handsomest buggies we ever saw, made at the Coach Factory of Mr. N. S. Harp, of this city. Both of these elegant vehicles were very properly awarded the first premiums.

Among the most attractive incidents at the Fair was the arrival of Col. Tew's corps of Cadets from the well known and deservedly popular Military Academy at Hillsboro' .-In point of drill and discipline no corps can surpass this, and their exercises in the Light Infantry drill commanded the warm admiration of all who saw them on the Fair

EXHIBITION AT THE INSTITUTION FOR THE DEAF, DUMB AND THE BLIND .- The large Chapel at the N. C. Institution for the Deaf Dumb, and the Blind, was filled to overflowing. Handbills were stuck up about Raleigh on on Wednesday evening last, by visitors to the Wednesday, stating that E. G. Haywood, State Fair and many of our citizens, to witness Esq., would address the Breckinridge and an exhibition by the Pupils of the Institution. Several classes of the Deaf and Dumb Pupils were examined in their studies, and several stories were recited in signs, which caused much amusement to the audience. The Blind Pupils were examined in Grammar, Arithmetic, and Reading with the raised letters. They also sang several pretty songs and performed a number of instrumental pieces on the piano. The audience testified their approbation and delight by frequent applause. The entertainment was a perfect success. The pupils tonished the audience with their proficiency in their studies. When it is remembered under tic and excellent Principal of the Institution, distinguished spoakers will be in attendance, tends to have frequent exhibitions of the kind to surrender it at once. It says: given on Wednesday evening.

> NIXON'S ROYAL CIRCUS .- We are happy to inure of attending in this city on Monday and | therefore, should take immediate steps to rectify magnificent and unrivalled Circus. This Company is from Niblo's Garden, New York, and Tribune remarks that if Mr. Butler is to owe his however extravagant our language in regard to their extraordinary and wonderful performances may appear, we assure our readers that we shall say nothing which will not be more than verified by the performance itself. In this Company are the six celebrated Hanlon Brothers, whose gymnastic performances are unequalled by any other gymnasts in the world, and the wonderful equestrian, Mdile. Zoyara, whose performances on horseback are unrivalled, besides a number of other astonishing features, never before performed in any other Circus that has ever visited this country.

When we saw the announcement some short time since in the New York papers that Nixon's Royal Circus intended visiting the South, we feared that the cities of North Carolina were too small to induce them to stop here, but we are rejoiced be able to state that our fears were groundless, and we shall all have an opportunity of witnessing their splendid performances. The Company will perform at four points in North Carolins, viz: At Weldon, to-day, the 20th; at Raleigh, Monday and Tuesday, the 22nd and 23rJ; at Goldsboro the 24th, and at Wilmington | thus fusing with the Bell-Everetts.

Few in this vicinity will ever- have an opportunity of witnessing so splendid a performance again, and we therefore advise all classes and conditions of society, of all ages and sexes, not to let this opportunity of seeing the most magnificent Circus that ever was in the country, and indeed we might say, in the world, pass by unimproved.

SCHOOLHOUSE STRUCK BY LIGHTNING .- Th Washington (N. C.) Dispatch states that the barn of Mr. Bernard Carrowan, in which the common school was kept, was struck by lightning on the 28th ult. Mr. Bailey, the proprietor of the troupe, is a perfect gentle.nan, and so is his agent, Major Graham.
