FOR PRESIDENT JEFFERSON DAVIS FOR VICE-PRESIDENT ALEX. H. STEPHENS. FOR ELECTORS: FOR THE STATE AT LARGE : Hon, WILLIAM A. GRAHAM. Hon. THOMAS BRAGG.

NEARLY AN OFFSET TO THE HAT-TERAS AFFAIR.

We learn that a few days since an Indiana Regiment was landed on Roanoke Island without arms. The men, it is supposed were landed from the Federal vessels lying outside in surf boats, but finding they could not land the cannon and other arms in that way, the steamer Fanny took them, to go round by the way of the Sound, and disembark them upon the Island. After getting into the Sound the Fanny ran aground, and was boarded and captured by one of our Gun Boats. The prize proved a valuable one .-It is said there were on board $60,000 in specie, one thousand blankets, fifteen hundred overcoats, and a large quantity of arms and immunition. Among the arms was one or more rifled cannon. The next step will, we presume, be the capture of the unarmed Indiana Regiment on the Island, and we may expect soon to hear of that event.

This "streak" of luck makes us grunt somewhat less about the loss of Hatteras. Since the above was written we have received the Petersburg Express of Monday, from which we take the following account of the capture of the Federal gun boat Fanny : HANDSOME EXPLOIT OF CONFEDER-ATE FORCES !-- CAPTURE OF THE FED-ERAL STEAMER FANNY !-- PROVIS-IONS, OVERCOATS AND STORES TA-SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE PETERSBURG DAILY EXPRESS.

NORFOLK, VA., Oct. 5, 8 A. M. The Federal steamer Fanny, lately employed on the Carolina Sounds, mounting two rifled guns, was captured by Confederate troops at Roanoke Island, under William F. Lynch, Flag Officer, Confederate States Navy, on Tuesday, the 1st of

We shall publish in our next paper a most able article from the pen of the Hon. A. O. ly Editor of the Washington Union. This article shows the sleeveless policy which the South has pursued in permitting the Yankees so long to enrich themselves at her expense. It shows that while the Union was prosperous as a Union, that the non-producing portion of it, i. e., the North, derived infinitely more of its benefits than the producing portionthe South. This vast inequality in the apportionment of the benefits of the Union the writer ascribes to the commercial dependence on the North to which the South so long submitted. The North bought Southern produce, shipped it to Europe, exchanged it for European merchandize, which it shipped to Northern markets, there to be sold on a profit to Southern oustomers-thus trading on and making large profits upon Southern capital (Cotton is capital as well as money) and at the same time building up and sus taining a large Northern commercial marine. Again, by Tariff laws Northern manufactures were sustained and enabled to monopolize the Southern market for its benefit. Thus, in these three ways, besides others, to which the writer refers, the North has grown rich upon Southern labor and capital. The writer says the dissolution of the political Union which enriched the North at the expense of the South, will do nothing towards the relief of the South from the inequality in commercial and business operations to which she has so long submitted, unless it is followed dissolution of commercial dependence the North. The writer's statistics demonstrate beyond all contradiction the truth of every position be takes, and there is not an intelligent Yankee who will not concur with him. And this brings us to our caption-

"What are the Yankees fighting for ?" They are fighting for the recovery of the mastery they so recently held over Southern produce, trade and commerce. They know that they were enriched by the South. They know that without the South they would have been now what they were when the Union was formed, a miserable nation of hucksters and "notion" venders. They know, moreover that without the reconstruction of that Union which conferred upon them such great and

WHAT THE YANKEES ARE FIGHT. FREMONT COURT-MARTIALLED AND SUPERSEDED

On reference to the matter under the head of "latest news," which we take from the P. Niebolson, late U. S. Senator and former- Charlotte Bulletin of Tuesday morning, it will be seen that the "Dancing Mascer's Bastard" has been court-martialled on charges made by Col. Blair, and deprived of his command in Missouri. The accounts are contradictory, in saying that Wool supersedes Fremont, and Mansfield Wool, while another says that Wool has been superseded, and has been assigned no other command. The Yankees find it a hard matter to find the right man for the right place. Old Scott was virtually superseded by McClellan, who actually superseded McDowell, Wool superseded Butler, and now we see Fremont, Wool and Mansfield changing places like dancers

eft that region that the Federals, after having crossed the Potomac in a considerable force and marched some miles from Alexandria, have again fallen back within the lines which they originally occupied. This was a decided back, out as there is no doubt that Beauregard fell back in order to draw them out into a fight on an open field. The Yankees have touching reminiscences of their last adventure in an open field fight in that region. Our contemporary of the Wilmington Journal is hereby informed that we have a very distinct recollection of the movement in Norfolk looking to a separation from Virginia, and we remember that we denounced the movement in the columns of the Petersburg Intelligencer.

We have seen a beautiful Wooden Shoe, the joint invention of our fellow townsmen. Messrs. Theim and Fraps. LATEST NEWS.

WAR NEWS AND RUMORS. The reported crossing of the Potomac by the Yankee forces to the number of 10,000 at Ocorouan, turns out to have been a slight mistake. Only some ten or a dozen crossed; at the point named, and they returned after a short sojou Col. Ransom's regiment of North Carolina troops started from Fredericksburg to attack the enemy immediately upon hearing the report, but after marching some 13 miles learned that there was no enemy to attack, and retraced their steps.

The news of Gen. Jackson's victory on Green brier river is confirmed. The following dispatch from Brig. General H. R. Jackson has been received at the War Department in Richmond : "GREENBRIER RIVER, Oct. 3 .- The enemy attacked us at eight o'clock this morning in consid-erable force, estimated at five thousand, and with six pieces of artillery, of longer range than any we have. After a hot fire of four and half hours and heavy attempts to charge our lines, he wa repulsed, evidently with considerable loss. and no cavalry to pursue him on his retreat. CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS

To the Voters of the First Congressional District, composed of the counties of Tyr-rel, Washington, Martin, Bertie, North-ampton, Hertford, Gates, Perquimans, Chowan, Pasquotank, Camden and Currituck.

The permanent Constitution for the Government of the Confederate States supercedes the present Provi-sional Government in February next. Preparatory to organization under it, elections are appointed law to be held for members of the Electoral Colland for Representatives to the permanent Congress from the several Districts into which the State is diided, on the first Thursday of November There are no movements in progress of which I advised, indicating a disposition to resort to the has mentality of conventions for the purpose of mak nominations for the latter office. These agence towever appropriate or even necessary, during the heated party strifes of the past, to secure concert of popular opinion and action, seem to have disappeared before the generous and patriofic impulses which the presence of a common danger has inspired. The day of election is pear at hand, and I do not consider that I am overstapping the proprieties of my position in an-nouncing myself a candidate to represent the District ni the first permanent Congress of the Co States. Unwilling to revive controversies of only to disturb the entire harmony of sentim feeling which now prevails in maintaining, wi vided strength and loyal hearts, the action ling which now prevails in maintaining, with undi State in separating from the old and entering into the new Confederacy, for the security of her constitutional rights and the defence of the imperilled liberties of her people, I avail myself of this mode of communicating with you, and shall content myself with declaring my purpose to yield a cordial support, in p vate station, to such measures of war and finance as promise to make the impending struggle, on our part, igorous, short and decisive. To this end, mutual dence and a realous co-operation, unimpaired b ormer differences of opinion, alone are wanting. W. N. H. SMITH.

(SECOND DESPATCH.) FURTHER PARTICULARS.

NORFOLK, Oct. 5, 3 P. M. The reported capture of the Federal steamer Fanny, is confirmed. She was bound to Chicksomico Beach, which is occupied by the Twentieth Regiment Indiana volunteers.

The Farmy is a propeller of two hundred and fifty tons burthen, and was employed by the Yan-see forces in the late attack on Hatterns. At the time of her capture, the Fanny had board 47 men, two officers, and a large quantity of stores. She was pursued by the Confederate armed steamers Raleigh, Curlew, and Junaluski, and after firing about forty rounds, she hoisted the white flag. Nobody hurt on either side. The Confederate steamer Junaluski, Ourlew, and another, said to be the Loper started in pursuit of the Fansy, and upon getting in range, opened fire on her. After exchanging a number of shots, during which none took effect on either vessel, the Finny ran up a white flag. She was then boarded and taken possession of by our forces. The Finny had a large amount of stores, small arms and ammunition on board. Some forty prismers were taken, and among them seven of upe Butler's "contrabands" -Degroes.

The Fanny carried two twenty four-pounde ified cannon, and our steamers thirty-two pounders. The Fanny's shot fell a half mile short. while those from the Confederate, steamers struck all around the Yankee craft.

After capturing the Fanny, the Confederate Expedition returned to Rosnoke Island to prepare for an attack on the Federals at Chickacomico Besch, twenty-five miles north of Hatteras.

The prisoners taken on the Fanny report 500 troops at Hatterss, and say that Hatterss is a perfect failure: that during the late gale the tide was some three or four feet over the place. H. (THIRD DESPATCH.)

HOW THE "FANNY" WAS CAPTURED. NORFOLK, Oct. 5, 44 P. M.

It is ascertained from a gentlecuan who has just arrived from the neighborhood of the recent naval battle in North Carolina, (Albemarle Sound,) that on the afternoon of Tuesday, the 1st October, the Federal steamer Fanney was seen to convey a number of Yankee troops to Chichadomico Beach some twenty five miles from Hatterss, where they Confederate troops have left Roanoke Islan for the purpose of stacking the Indiana Yankees inded at Chickacomico by the Fanny. A battle is expected to day as it is said the Fed-eral troops are to be reinforced from 'the vessels laide of the Sound.

(THIRD DESPATCH) FROM WILMINGTON.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 6. An authentic letter from an officer on board

An authentic retter from an ouncer on board the steamer Raleigh, date Oct. 2d, 1 says the Con-federate steamers Carley and Raleigh captured the Federal steamer Fanny the evening before, leaded with bignikets, great coats, shoes, clothing, etc., for the Federal fleet, and 45 men, who were found aboard. Nobody killed or woun-led on either side. The steamer and cargo are supposed to be worth one hundred thousand dollars.

We learn that Col. Wright's Georgia Regiment is in the occupancy of the Northern end of Roanoke Island.

A GLORIOUS VICTORY AT CHEAT

ness rules her counsels.

DEATH OF COL. J. W. SPALDING. The melancholy intelligence of the death of Col. James W. Spalding reached this city yesterday morning, by telegraph, and the afternoon train brought the mortal remains of the gallant soldier, in health. who left us a few weeks ago, buoyant with life and hope. He was shot last Saturday, by the enemy, while on a scouting expedition with Capt. Wallace's company, at Big Sewell Mountain. On the return of the company to camp, his absence was noticed, and search being made, his lifeless body was found. Col. Spalding was formerly connected with the press of Richmond, in which capacity he achieved a good reputation as a wri He accompanied the expedition to Japan during the Administration of President Fillmore, and, after his return, published a work descrip-tive of that country, and the events of the voyage, which proved quite popular with the reading pub-lic, and was favorably noticed by competent critics. On the breaking out of the present war he was among the first to offer his services to his native State, and was with the Northwestern army at the time of the surprise at Phillippi, in Barbour county. He subsequently returned to Richmond, and engaged actively in the organization of the Light Guard, of which he was elected First Lieutenant, and left with the company for the Kanawha valley. Here his military attainments became conspicuous, and he was promoted to the Lieut -Colonelcy of Wise's Legiou, which rank he held at the time of his death.

Col. Spalding was a man of excellent qualities, a genial companion, and sincere friend. Like othere, be had faults; but none can say aught against his amiability of character, his brilliancy of intellect, or the genuineness of his devotion to the cause of the South.—Richmond Dispatch.

Col. Spalding was an intimate friend of ours, and was for some time the Richmond correspondent of the Petersburg Intelligencer when that paper was in our possession. He was in every way worthy of the tribute to his memory offered by the Dispatch.

CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS IN THIS DISTRICT.

Messrs. Gooch, of Granville, Turner, Orange, and Arrington, of Nash, are now in the field as candidates for Congress. Mr. Venable has not announced himself in terms, but says in his letter that he is in the hands of the people. Mr. V. says that he cannot canvass the District, as he is one of a committee appointed by Congress to visit the several Hospitals of the Army.

The editors of the Richmond Dispatch saw few days ago the first impressions, from the lithoographic stone, of the new five cent postage stamp for the Confederate States of America. unless some very good excuse can be given for the change.

One of the curiosities of the regiment consists in "live Yankee pet," in the shape of a boy, some twelve or fourteen years of age. If I am rightly informed, he was originally at the Fayetteville arsenal with the United States Troops that were stationed there, and held the position of fifer. On the bloody field of Manassas, nearly the entire company was killed, and he was captured and brought to Richmond. Some one of the Fayetteville men passing through Richmond brought him down with him, and he is now one of our musicians. He is quite a sprightly boy, seems well contented, and is made a complete pet of; but he says he is not a "Yankee."

The greatest inconvenience we have is the ir regularity of the mails. I dont think I would overreach the mark if I should say that fully one third of the letters sent to this regiment never reach their destination ; and as for papers, we get them now and then. If we were entirely off the mail line, we might expect it, but we have a regular appointed mail carrier for the regiment, who connects daily with the line, so the fault must be with ome of the postmasters, -perhaps at Richmond. We have not heard from the storm last week on the coast of N. Carolina, but hope it was severe enough to land some of the enemy's vessels in "Davy Jones' locker." Wishing them that good I remain yours, &c., "DIXIE." luck.

The company numbers one hundred and nine non-commissioned officers and privates .--At present they are provided with everything that is necessary; but this supply will not suffice for winter. The articles of clothing. I wish to procure for each man are as follows :--on foot to induce the Governor of Louisiana to One pair of pants and one jacket or round about. interfere to prevent any further shipments of the to be made of heavy woolen homespun, and of any color, though a dark mixed is preferred; two flannel undershirts-this fabric can also be made at home; one blanket or bed quilt; two pair of socks, either cotton or woolen ; and one pair of thick shoes. Let all these articles, as far as can be, be made at home, they will be much better : if, however, that be not possible, N. C. Cassimere can be substituted in place of woolen homespun. Now, the plan I propose is, that each family who has a son in this company, and who is able to furnish the articles mention ed, shall communicate with me immediately. giving the name of the soldier they will furnish them for. In this way I can ascertain such as will be supplied from home. Also, let each family who is able and willing to furnish an additional supply for one man, write to me to this effect, and I will give the names and measures of such as cannot get supplies at home; of this latter class there will not be more than ten

Mrs. Sally Knight, Miss Betty Wheelus, Miss Sally Cutchin, Miss Martha Mayo and Dr. Jo. J. Garrett, together with the officers, were constituted a Board of Solicitors to procure material for manufacture; also, money and other articles for Hospi al Stores.

There are two features in the organization of this Society differing from any I have seen. Sou First, the Society is a mixed one, instead of being composed exclusively of females. To obviate any delicacy the ladies might have, provision is made that meetings may be held by the female members alone at any time desired ; whereas the meeting of the Society are to be stated or adjourned. Its second feature is, that it contemplates a twofold object : 1st. To furnish the Hospital to be established under the general control of the Gov. of North Carolina, and to which attention has been recently called by Dr. Johnson, Surgeon General of the State, iff your paper. This will claim the first and immediate attention of the Society. When accompliabed, then,

2nd. To prepare clothing for the use of the effi-cient Soldiers in service from this State. The articles thus furnished are to go through the ands of the Sheriff of the county.

I am now on a visit to the 1st Regt. N. C. Vol inteers. Many are absent on furlough ; some are being discharged on account of sickness ; but I am gratified in saying that the health of the Regiment s greatly improved. There is much regret exressed because of the withdrawal of Gen. Hill from this post by the Government. He is certainly held in high esteem by those who, until recently, were under his control. I hope the new post to which he may be assigned will appreciate his flcient services.

Respectfully, WILL. H. WILLS.

WINTER CLOTHING FOR SOLDIERS. We are authorized by the Quartermaster at Raleigh to state, that the department will receive and pay for all cloth suitable for men's winter wear in the field. Also, blankets. This is a good opening for persons in the various Counties ollect cloth and blankets, and send them to Quartermaster. They will thus engage in a patriotic work, for which they will no doubt be paid. But persons sending these things mark their names and the contents of sach box plainly on each box, as the articles must be received before paid for. Papers throughout the State will please

BAKER'S PREMIUM BITTERS. HENRICO COUNTY, Oct, 1, 1860.

E. RAKER, Esq: Dear Sir-My wife has been suffering with Dyspep-sia and Nervous Affection for several years, during which time she was as ill as possible to be alive; all hopes of life, by her physician, as well as by her rela-tives and friends, were blasted. Finally she com-menced, in small quantities, the use of BAKER'S PREMIUM BITTERS, which, in the course of eight weeks, (by daily using them,) restored herto perfect health. I am equally gratified to state that my child, about eight years old, was long suffering witht - Diarrheea, attended daily by so able physi cian, without giving any relief; but the use of one bottle of these INESTIMABLE BITTERS restored him entirely to health and vigor. It is my firm opinion, substantiated by that of my family phy-elcian's, that BAKER'S PREMIUM RITTERS the best medicine now before the public to: the sbove-mentioned diseases. Yours most truly, P. W. J. QUARLES.

These Bitters can be had of WILLIAMS & HAY. WOOD, Raleigh, N. C., and by all the principal Drug-gists in North Carolins and Virginia Also, by Syme & Provan, New Orleans; E. H.
