

The Weekly Raleigh Register.

VOL. LXII

RALEIGH WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 13, 1862.

NO 32

The Raleigh Register.

"Ours are the plans of fair, delightful peace
Unwar'd by party rage to live like brothers."

RALEIGH, N. C.

SATURDAY MORNING, AUG. 9, 1862.

THE ELECTION.

We give such returns from the election which took place on Thursday as we have received prior to the time of putting our paper to press. It will be seen that the vote cast for Governor in Raleigh was a very heavy one. This was owing to the fact that a large number of conscripts from the camp near here voted at this box:

We are indebted to Mr. Dulin, the Operator of the Southern Express Telegraph in this city, for the following election news by telegraph:

BY TELEGRAPH.
CHARLOTTE, N. C., Aug. 8.
VOTE IN CHARLOTTE.
For Governor—Johnston,	532
Vance,	106
For the Senate—Young,	119
Fitchard,	234
Whitcomb,	77
Alexander,	46

In addition I have received the following:

HIGH POINT.
For Governor—Vance,	183
Johnston,	20

GRAHAM.
For Governor—Vance,	206
Johnston,	35

SLIBURY.
For Governor—Vance,	526
Johnston,	163

GREENSBORO.
For Governor—Vance,	321
Johnston,	41

BRITTON.
For Governor—Vance,	421
Johnston,	31

GUILFORD COUNTY.
Majority for Vance in Guilford,	1,550
Army,	400

CABARRUS COUNTY.
Majority for Vance, 200 majority in this county.

ORANGE COUNTY.
DURHAM.
For Governor—Johnston,	148
Vance,	421

ALAMANCE COUNTY.
Majority for Vance, 660. All conservatives elected.

So far as heard from, Vance 200 majority in this county.

THE CASE OF MUMFORD.

The Richmond Equivocal has "authority for saying that communications were sent to the Lincoln Government, some weeks since, respecting the execution of Mumford, at New Orleans, and other outrages committed by the Yankee Generals; but no reply has yet been received. Another demand has recently been made in regard to them and the additional outrages perpetrated by the Lincoln officials in different parts of the Confederate States. A short time has been given to the Federal authorities in which to reply, before orders will be issued for the execution of these measures necessary for the repression of these outrages also."

This intelligence will be hailed with pleasure by the whole country. In many parts of the South the Yankees have practically raised the black flag. In Piedmont Virginia, Pope's soldiers are committing the most abominable outrages conceivable, imprisoning non-combatants, stealing and destroying property, ravishing negro women in the presence of their mistresses, and in some instances ravishing the mistresses themselves. Under these circumstances, we should rejoice to hear that our soldiers in dealing with those of Pope are acting upon the principle of making no prisoners, of giving no quarter to the fiends in human shape who are making a hell upon earth of our once happy land.

WHERE'S THE BLOCKADE?

There can be no propriety in our stating what we know to be a fact, that an arrival has recently taken place at a Southern port, which will add greatly to the supplies of the South, and enable the Confederate Government to place in the field a very large additional number of armed men. The vessel came in boldly, was not at all interfered with by the blockaders, and enables one of Petersburg's citizens to reach home again after a long absence. We hear pleasant news from abroad, but for the best of reasons, withhold it at present. Let the South be of good cheer. The worst of our troubles are now numbered with the past.—Petersburg Express.

We know who this returned "cockade" is just as well as if we had just shaken our old friend W. M. by the hand.

FROM TENNESSEE.

A dispatch from Chattanooga states that McMinnville, Tenn., was occupied last Saturday by 7,000 Federal troops, probably Nelson's division of Buell's army. McMinnville, it will be remembered, is the village upon which Gen. Forrest fell back after the capture of Murfreesboro'. A detachment of Gen. Forrest's cavalry was in the place on Friday, but were smart enough to escape.—A man who ran the enemy's lines from McMinnville states that he heard the shrieks of the women from almost every house in the town. He thinks that the Yankee commander must have turned loose his men to pillage and outrage the inhabitants at will. The shrieks were agonizing.

LATE NORTHERN NEWS.

The New York World of the 2nd instant has been received in Petersburg. It contains but little of interest. From this source we get the first Northern account of our recent night attack on the Yankee fleet in James river. They admit a loss of four men killed, some five or six wounded, and several horses killed. They say that a few of their vessels were struck, but none of them were seriously damaged. This is about as near the truth as we expected, to get from the Yankees.

Com. Porter's mortar fleet is said to have arrived in James river. Its object is thought to be to attempt the reduction of our works at Drewry's Bluff.

The World says editorially: "It is now certain that an order will be issued for a draft in such States or sections of States as will not supply their quotas of men before the middle of the present month."

The New York Tribune is beginning to count the cost of putting down the rebellion in the Southern States. It says: "Putting down the slaveholders' rebellion is a very expensive as well as bloody business. Congress, at its recent session, passed bills which, in the aggregate, appropriated out of the Treasury the sum of $913,078,527.68. At the extra session last summer, Congress appropriated $265,108,296.39. The total amount, therefore, for the two sessions reaches the enormous sum of $1,178,181,824.02."

The following Yankee news is interesting, if true:

REBEL GUNBOATS UP THE YAZOO RIVER.
Vicksburg, July 25.—A gentleman recently from the Yazoo river country reports that the steamer Star of the West, captured off Galveston by the rebels, is up that river and armed with twenty two guns. She is iron-plated to a considerable extent.

The W. H. Webb, a powerful ocean towboat, is also up that river, and has been placed something in the style of the Sumter. She is constructed as a ram.

The rebels have also the Mobile, mounting one gun.

The Star of the West and the Webb came up from New Orleans when that city was captured, bringing, among other rebel plunder, 108 guns.

At Liverpool, sixty-five miles up the river, the rebels have ingeniously contrived raft, which is a perfect look alike ascending boats. They have also a powerful battery on shore at that point.

In addition to the above-named vessels there are about thirty river steamers up the Yazoo river.

MORGAN'S OFFICIAL REPORT.

The official report of Col. Morgan of his recent exploits in Kentucky states that he took twenty towns, captured 1,200 prisoners, and destroyed property valued at three millions of dollars. Among the spoils taken from the enemy are 20,000 stand of arms, and numbers of mules and horses. Col. George St. Leger Greenleaf, of the British army, distinguished himself, charging in front on several occasions. He was slightly wounded.

CONFEDERATE VICTORY IN ALABAMA.

General Armstrong officially reports another successful skirmish with the enemy in Alabama. One hundred and twenty of his command, under Lieut. Col. Kelley, attacked four companies of Federal cavalry near Jonesboro', Ala., on the 26th, and routed them. The enemy left 9 dead and 5 wounded on the field, and we captured 16 prisoners. Our loss was one wounded. The enemy on the North side of the Tennessee is reported to be retreating towards Nashville.

THE YANKEES AND THE NEGROES.

A special despatch to the Mobile Advertiser and Register, from Jackson, under date of the 3rd, says that passengers from Memphis report that an emette had broken out between the Yankees and the negroes working on the fortifications there, in which the Yankees shot a number of negroes.

RUNNING THE BLOCKADE.

News from Nassau to the 30th July has been received at Charleston. The steamships Kate and Herald had arrived at Nassau from the Confederate coast. The Herald was attacked off Nassau by a Yankee steamer, which fired a whole broadside into her; but the aim of the Yankees being too high, the Herald escaped into port with only one shot through her hull.

DRAFTING IN MISSOURI.

The Cincinnati Commercial of the 26th states that hundreds of foreigners in St. Louis, mostly Irish, had claimed the British Consul's protection from draft. Great excitement was occasioned.—The Yankees mobbed them. The Provost Guard was called upon to suppress the riot.

HOT WEATHER.

Since Tuesday last we have been suffering the first really warm weather of the present summer. In the sun it has been intensely hot, while in the shade we have been painfully reminded of the lines—
"With vest unbuttoned, and loose cravat,
Lo! in the breeze shade I sit."

The gentleman signing himself "J" and who wants "Teetles," forgot to send us his full name.

SUCCESSFUL RUNNING OF THE BLOCKADE.

On Saturday last a steamer arrived at a Southern port with a heavy cargo, including 47,000 pounds of ammunition and 7,000 stand of arms.—This vessel brings the news of the firing on the steamer Herald, a British vessel, commanded by Captain Corcoran, by the United States frigate Andromedac of 12 guns, off Nassau, N. F. The Herald was bound from Charleston for Nassau, and ran near the frigate, thinking she was English or French; but found by a broadside that she was an enemy. She then ran for Nassau, pursued by the vessel. She was struck once, but made her way safely into Nassau. She was flying British colors at the time. A Nassau paper says:

H. B. M. ship Greyhound, which was at anchor within the harbor of the blockade. There are several and exact justice to all who are entitled to their privileges; antagonism to all forms of sectionalism based upon hostility to institutions whose privileges were guaranteed by the Constitution. It is such policy been adopted, the nation today would have remained a united and a happy people. But a sectional organization, professing for the basis of its creed eternal hostility to slavery, revolutionary in its origin and destructive in its policy, proposed to govern this country by usurpation; to overthrow and set at naught every guarantee of the Constitution in reference to fifteen States of the Union; to shut them out of the magnificent territories acquired by the common blood and treasure of the Union; to maintain this Union just as the Union between England and Ireland is maintained; just as Great Britain attempted to maintain the Union between the mother country and the American colonies. When the danger of a disrupted Union was upon us, and all the horrors of civil war menaced, they persistently refused all attempts at conciliation and compromise, and preferred the arbitration of war to the peace and conciliation.

They refused conciliation and compromise, and when they did so they knew that war would result from the refusal.

The war they invited—may, longed for—is now upon us, and has brought in its train all the ruin that has waited upon its blood-stained footsteps. Every fundamental principle of constitutional liberty has been sacrificed to the passions and appetites, the result of speculation and greed, demand oppressive and exorbitant taxes—whole hordes of victims have been offered up, and there is hardly a house, as in ancient Egypt, "in which there is not one dead"—a large proportion of the productive industry is being turned from the peaceful pursuit of agriculture to where the reapers descend to the harvest of death—everywhere in the face of the nation bankruptcy are starting up in the face of the nation.

In the legislative councils of the nation every hour makes manifest that the object of the war is not to uphold the government, the Constitution, or the Union, "but to lift the artificial weights from all men's shoulders," in the language of President Lincoln—"to wage an irrepressible conflict against the institution of slavery—to rob the white man of his liberty that the slave may enjoy it." Nine-tenths of the legislation of Congress has been this session directed towards the condition of the slave, and how to alleviate that condition, while the awful situation of this government, intended for white men, is entirely lost sight of. In the meantime the nation reels and staggers to and fro like a drunken man.

democrats of New Jersey the hour when you are to meet in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States, rest the hope of the country. With bold, vigorous and determined effort you can help to save it; but it will not be by half-way, temporizing measures. You cannot save it by endorsing and approving the acts of the present administration; by endorsing attacks upon the constitutional liberty of the subject; by approving of a war to more in council in other States,